TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 1891.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of June, 1891.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her Majesty chapter sixty-three duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-eighth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty-three have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to certain rural deaneries within the two Archdeacons which are now within the diocese of Durham to wit, the Archdeaconry of Durham and the Archdeaconry of Auckland.

“Whereas by virtue of certain Orders of Your Majesty in Council duly published in the London Gazette the Archdeacons and the Rural Deaneries in the diocese of Durham aforesaid have been from time to time rearranged and set forth.

“And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Brooke Foss, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham that the further arrangements which are hereafter recommended and proposed with respect to certain of the Rural Deaneries within the said two Archdeacons of Durham and of Auckland are desirable and should be carried into effect and we are of opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect.

“And whereas the said arrangements involve the rearrangement of the limits of the two Rural Deaneries of Auckland and of Stanhope in the said Archdeaconry of Auckland and also the discontinuance of the Rural Deanery of Ryton in the said Archdeaconry of Durham and also the formation of two new rural deaneries to be called respectively ‘The Rural Deanery of Gateshead’ and ‘The Rural Deanery of Lanchester’ both in the last-mentioned Archdeaconry.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Brooke Foss, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham in testimony whereof he has set his hand and episcopal seal to this scheme we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the several parishes or cures or churches of Crook, Satley, Stanley, Thornley, and Towlaw Saint Philip and Saint Andrew, now within the said Rural Deanery of Auckland, and in the Archdeaconry of Auckland aforesaid, shall be transferred to, and shall be comprised within, and shall form part of, the Rural Deanery of Stanhope aforesaid in the same Archdeaconry.

“And we further recommend and propose that as from the day aforesaid and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order as aforesaid the said Rural Deanery of Ryton within the said Archdeaconry of Durham shall be discontinued and that the parishes or cures or churches of Beamish, Burnopfield, Greenside Saint John, Marley Hill Saint Cuthbert, Ryton, Stella Saint Cuthbert, Tanfield, Whickham, and Winlaton Saint Paul, now comprised therein shall be transferred to and shall be comprised within and shall form part of the rural deanery of Chester-le-Street in the said Archdeaconry of Durham; and that the parishes or cures or churches of Benfieldside, Blackhill Saint Aidan, Castleside, Collierley, Consett, Dipton Saint John the Evangelist, Ebchester, Leadgate, and Medomsley, being the remaining parishes or cures or churches now comprised within the said Rural Deanery of Ryton, shall be transferred to, and shall be comprised within, and form part of the new rural deanery of Lanchester as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And we further recommend and propose that as from the day aforesaid and without any assurance in the law other than as aforesaid the said rural deanery of Chester-le-Street shall be divided into two rural deaneries one of which shall be called ‘The Rural Deanery of Chester-le-Street,’ and shall comprise and consist of the several parishes or cures or churches the names of which are set down in numbered order under the name of the same rural deanery in the schedule to this scheme annexed, and the other rural deanery shall be called 'The Rural Deanery of Gateshead' and shall comprise and consist of the several parishes or cures or churches the names of which are set down in numbered order under the name of the last-mentioned rural deanery in the same schedule.

"And we further recommend and propose that as from the day aforesaid and without any assumption in the law other than as aforesaid the Rural Deanery of Durham in the said Archdeaconry of Durham shall be divided into two rural deaneries, one of which shall be called 'The Rural Deanery of Durham' and shall comprise and consist of the parishes or cures or churches the names of which are set down in numbered order under the same rural deanery in the schedule to this scheme annexed as aforesaid, and the other rural deanery shall be called 'The Rural Deanery of Lanchester' and shall comprise and consist of the parishes or cures or churches (including those which are hereinbefore mentioned as to be transferred from the rural deanery of Ryton as aforesaid) the names of which are set down in numbered order under the name of the rural deanery of Lanchester in the said schedule, and that every parish or cure or church so set down under the names of the said rural deaneries shall belong to and be and form part of the archdeaconry and of the rural deanery under the name of which it is set down as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the archdeacon of the same archdeaconry and of the rural dean of the same rural deanery, and shall not belong to or be or form part of any other archdeaconry or rural deanery, nor be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other archdeacon or rural dean.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them under or by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

A T the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of June, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of,

No. 271.—NORTH SEA, AND BALTIC STATIONS.

NORTH SEA—GERMAN COAST.

Sunken Wreck Westward of Weser Light-vessel.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 244 of 1891, and previous Notices, that the light-vessel placed about 1½ cables northward of a steam-vessel lying sunk in approximately lat. 53° 54' 25" N., long. 7° 18' 50" E., had been withdrawn:—

Information has been received from the German Government, dated 3rd June, 1891, that the above mentioned wreck has been blown up, and the wreck-marking vessel therefore withdrawn; but as fragments of wreckage still remain which are impediments to navigation, the wreck buoy (see Note in Notice to Mariners, No. 135 of 1891) still marks the position. This wreck therefore is not removed from the Admiralty Charts.

Also, that the wreck charted as lying in lat. 53° 56' N., long. 7° 22' E., no longer exists: it has therefore been removed from the Admiralty Charts.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—North Sea, Nos. 2339, 2182a; Ameland to Jade River, No. 2593.

Approximate position, lat. 54° 45' 45" N., long. 3° 33' W.

2. The port hand can buoy, S. 1, surmounted, with staff and cage, in English Channel, will be moved five cables N.E. by N. from its present position, and moored in five fathoms water, with Solway Light-vessel bearing E. by N., distant seven cables.

Approximate position, lat. $54^{\circ} 47' 15''$ N., long. $3^{\circ} 32' 45''$ W.

The depths given are at low water spring tides. [Variation 20° Westerly in 1891.]
