

directed that from and after the 1st day of July, 1871, all fees payable in the office of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, in pursuance of the Order under "The Courts of Justice (Salaries and Funds) Act, 1869," dated the 20th June, 1871, to which such notice relates, should be collected by means of Stamps.

And whereas, by notices in the London Gazettes of the 4th August, 1871, and the 5th December, 1871, it was declared and directed that from and after the 1st day of August, 1871, the fees payable in the office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Presentations, in pursuance of the Order under "The Courts of Justice (Salaries and Funds) Act, 1869," dated the 18th July, 1871, to which such notices relate, should be collected by means of stamps:

And whereas, by notices in the London Gazettes of the 4th August, 1871, and the 5th December, 1871, it was declared and directed that, on and after the 1st day of August, 1871, the fees payable in the Great Seal Patent Office, in pursuance of the Order dated the 18th July, 1871, to which such notices relate, should be collected by means of stamps:

And whereas, by notice in the London Gazette of the 12th of August, 1881, it was declared and directed that on and after the 1st day of September, 1881, the fees payable to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, in pursuance of the Order under "The Great Seal (Offices) Act, 1874," dated the 8th August, 1881, to which such notice relates, should be collected by means of stamps;

Now, therefore, we, the Lord Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the power vested in us by section 2 of "The Public Offices Fees Act, 1879," and with the consent of the Lord Chancellor, as hereinafter expressed, give notice that so much of the aforesaid orders contained in the aforesaid notices in the London Gazette, as directs that the fees specified therein shall be collected by means of stamps, shall be and is hereby cancelled, and we do hereby direct that on and after the 15th day of July, 1891, the fees specified in the notices aforesaid, shall be collected in cash.

Given under our hands this 30th day of June, 1891.

Sidney Herbert,
W. H. Walrond,

Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

I hereby signify my consent to the above order, pursuant to section 3 of the said Public Offices Fees Act, 1879. Halsbury, C.

THE YORK (KNAVESMIRE) PLEURO-PNEUMONIA MOVEMENT ORDER OF 1891.

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1890, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Restriction on Movement.

1.—(1.) No cattle shall be moved on to the Knavesmire in the city of York except as provided by this Order:

(2.) Cattle may be moved for the purpose of grazing on to the Knavesmire with a Licence of a Pasture-Master granted on a Certificate of a Veterinary Inspector, or of a person qualified according to the Act of 1878 to be such, certifying that each of the cattle described in the Certificate is in his opinion free from pleuro-pneumonia.

(3.) The Pasture-Master granting the Licence under this Order shall retain the Certificate produced to him and shall forthwith deliver the same to the Local Authority for the city of York or to such person as the Local Authority may direct.

Offences.

2. If a head of cattle is moved on to the Knavesmire or Scarcroft or Hob Moor in the city of York, in contravention of the provisions of this Order, the owner of the animal, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the animal, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

Short Title.

3. This Order may be cited as THE YORK (KNAVESMIRE) PLEURO-PNEUMONIA MOVEMENT ORDER OF 1891.

Commencement.

4. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Interpretation.

5. In this Order—

The Act of 1878 means The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878:

The Knavesmire means the tract of land situate in the city of York over which the Freemen of Micklegate Ward in that city have rights of pasturage, and includes the adjoining pieces of land called Scarcroft and Hob Moor respectively and over which the said Freemen have the same rights of pasturage.

Pasture-Master means a person who for the time being is a duly elected Pasture-Master of Micklegate Ward Strays (comprising the Knavesmire, Scarcroft, and Hob Moor) in the city of York.

Other terms have the same meaning as in The Pleuro-Pneumonia Order of 1891.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.
