Chelmsford, July 9, 1891.

To the Owners and Lessees of Wharfs at Chapel, Northam, Woodmill, Redbridge, Eling, and in the Hamble River, and to the Owners of Ships and Vessels coming to and going from the aforesaid places.

Pursuant to the Southampton Harbour Act, 1891, 54 and 55 Victoria (Local and Personal), chapter 95, sec. 22.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by section 20 of the said Act the Southampton Harbour Board shall pay compensation to the owners and lessees of wharfs within the limits defined in section 7 of the Southampton Harbour Act of 1887, and to the owners of ships or vessels coming to or going from places within such limits, in respect of any loss or damage incurred by them by reason of the abolition, as by the said Act of 1891 provided, of the exemptions from tonnage dues conferred by section 7 of the Act of 1887 aforesaid, and upon payment of such compensation the said exemptions in respect of which compensation shall have been paid shall cease and determine:

The compensation to be paid to any person under section 20 aforesaid (in the said section called "the claimant") shall be an annuity equal to the average annual amount of profit derived by the claimant from or by reason of the exemptions conferred by section 7 of the said Act of 1887 during the three years next preceding the date of the passing of the said Southampton Harbour Act, 1891, namely, the 3rd day of July instant, or during so much of those three years as is subsequent to the date at which the claimant commenced to derive such profit.

Provided that no compensation shall be payable or paid (except so much as may previously have accrued), after any of the following times, viz.:—

(1.) After the time at which the dues from which the claimant was exempted cease to be levied.

(2.) After any time when from any reason whatever the claimant ceases or would cease (if the exemption from dues for which compensation was granted then existed) to have a right to such exemption, or to be in a position to derive profit from it.

By sec. 21 of the said Southampton Harbour Act, 1891, it is provided—

That with respect to determining the amount of compensation to be paid under the section 20 hereinbefore referred to, the following rules shall be observed, viz.:—

The claimant shall send to the Board, in writing, his claim to compensation, stating the particulars, amount, and grounds of his claim.

The claim shall be sent in to the Board within three months after the commencement of the said Act of 1891, and if it is not sent in within that time the claimant shall not be entitled to any compensation in respect of the time prior to the date of the receipt of such claim by the Board, and if it is not sent in within one year after the passing of the said Act of 1891, the claimant shall not be entitled to any compensation.

As soon as may be after receiving such claim the Board shall agree with the claimant on the amount of the compensation to be paid and the times and mode of such payment.

If no agreement can be made the amount of compensation to be paid and the times and mode of such payment shall be determined by arbitration.

For the purpose of such arbitration the clauses of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the settlement of disputes by arbitration shall be incorporated with the Southampton Harbour Act, 1891, and in the construction of those clauses for the purposes of the Southampton Harbour Act, 1891, the said Act of 1891 shall be deemed to be the special Act, and any appointment of an arbitrator by the Board shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

The Board on agreement with the claimant may, by paying to the claimant a principal sum, commute any compensation payable annually under the said sections 20 or 21.

And by section 22 of the Southampton Harbour Act, 1891, it is provided that the Board, within one month after the passing of the said Act shall, by advertisement in the London Gazette, and in the Shipping and Mercantile Gazette, and two newspapers published in Southampton, give notice of the provisions contained as well in sections 20 and 21 aforesaid as in this section, and that at and after the expiration of one year from the passing of the said Act of 1891 the exemptions from tonnage dues referred to or contained in section 7 of the Southampton Harbour Act, 1887, shall cease and determine, subject to the settlement and payment in accordance with the provisions of the said Act of 1891, of all claims for compensation sent in to the Board within such year.

Dated this 11th day of July, 1891.
