TUESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1891.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Lord Archbishop of York, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Archbishop of York.

Lord President.

Lord Privy Seal.

Lord Arthur Hill.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the fifth and sixth sections of the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the ninth of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one providing for the exercise of Her Majesty's jurisdiction in certain territories of South Africa which are under the protection of Her Majesty:

Now therefore Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:

I. The fifth and sixth sections of the said Order in Council of the ninth of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one are hereby revoked, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder.

II. In lieu of the sections so revoked the following two sections shall be taken to be part of the said Order, and shall be read as if they were the fifth and sixth sections thereof:—

“V. Every Proclamation of the High Commissioner shall be published in the Gazette, and shall, from and after a date to be mentioned in such Proclamation, and thereafter until disallowed by Her Majesty or repealed or modified by any subsequent Proclamation, have effect as if contained in this Order.”

“VI. Her Majesty may disallow any such Proclamation wholly or in part, and may signify such disallowance through a Secretary of State, and upon such disallowance being publicly notified by the High Commissioner in the Gazette the provisions so disallowed shall, from and after a date to be mentioned in such notification, cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything theretofore lawfully done thereunder.”

III. This Order shall be published in the Cape of Good Hope Government Gazette, and shall thereupon commence and come into operation; and the High Commissioner shall take such measures as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto within the limits of the said Order.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

The jurisdiction of the Justices and Judges of the Central Criminal Court at any Session of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, held or continued for the Central Criminal Court District in the months of October, November, or December, 1891, or January, 1892, shall extend to such part of the County of Surrey as is not now included in the Central Criminal Court District, as if such part of the County of Surrey were included in the Central Criminal Court District, and the Central Criminal Court Act shall apply to the said part of the County of Surrey, and offences committed therein, as if the said part of the County of Surrey were mentioned in that Act:

Subject nevertheless to the following modifications and exceptions:—

(1.) Nothing in this Order shall authorize the trial at the Central Criminal Court of any person for any offence triable at Quarter Sessions, except in accordance with the provisions of Sections 18 and 19 of the Central Criminal Court Act, or except such last-mentioned person be also there triable for any offence or offences not triable at Quarter Sessions.

(2.) For the purposes of this Order the said part of the County of Surrey shall be deemed to be included in the Commission in force for the time being for the Central Criminal Court.

(3.) Unless the Central Criminal Court shall otherwise direct, no person shall be summoned or returned from the said part of the County of Surrey to serve on any Grand Jury or Petty Jury at the Central Criminal Court, but any Grand Jury or Petty Jury constituted in accordance with the provisions of the 4th Section of the Central Criminal Court Act, shall have authority to inquire of, present, try, and determine all offences with respect to which jurisdiction is by this Order conferred on the Central Criminal Court.

(4.) Until Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, otherwise to order and direct, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace or Coroner having jurisdiction within the said part of the County of Surrey, to commit any person charged with having committed any offence with respect to which jurisdiction is by this Order conferred on the Central Criminal Court, and which has been committed or is alleged to have been committed within the jurisdiction of such Justice or Coroner, either to the Gaol (other than the Gaol of Newgate) to which, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, and this Order, such person would have been committed, or to Her Majesty's Prison at Holloway, there to remain until he can be tried in pursuance of this Order or in due course of law.

(5.) When in pursuance of this Order any person shall be committed to any Gaol other than Her Majesty's Prison at Holloway, the Sheriff of the County in which the Gaol to which the prisoner is committed is situated, or the Keeper of the same Gaol, shall, six days at least before the next sitting of the Central Criminal Court at which the prisoner can be tried, or at such other time as the Justices or Judges of the said Court, or any two or more of them, shall from time to time direct, cause such person, with his commitment and detainers, to be safely removed from the Gaol to which he was committed, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus or other Writ, to Her Majesty's Prison at Holloway, there to remain until thence delivered by due course of law.

(6.) Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said part of the County of Surrey, any one or more of the Justices and Judges of the Central Criminal Court, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the County or place in which he was committed, or admitted to bail, may, upon the application by or on behalf of such person direct the Treasurer of the County or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to or on behalf of such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the expenses of travelling to and from the Central Criminal Court of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum and shall deduct it out of the amount, if any, allowed by the Court in respect of such witnesses.

(7.) Where, for the purposes of the trial of any offence, with respect to which Jurisdiction is by this Order conferred upon the Central Criminal Court, recognizances are entered into for attendance at any Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery for the County of Surrey, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the then next ensuing Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery to be holden for the Central Criminal Court District as enlarged by this Order, in the month of October, November, or December, 1891, or January, 1892, as the case may be, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such Session or forfeit his recognizance.

(8.) If the Central Criminal Court at its Session last held in the month of January, 1892, cannot finally dispose of or for the purposes of justice is of opinion that it is inexpedient finally to dispose of the case of any prisoner or person committed for trial in the said part of the County of Surrey, then the said Central Criminal Court shall order the removal of such prisoner to the Gaol of the County or place whence he came in order that he may be tried at the then next Assizes, and the Prosecutor and Witnesses in attendance at the said Central Criminal Court shall enter into recognizances for their appearance at the said Assizes, and if an Indictment or Indictments has or have been found against the prisoner, the Clerk of the said Central Criminal Court shall transmit the Indictment or Indictments and the Depositions and all other things relating thereto to the Clerk of Assize at such Assizes, together with a copy of the Order of Court, and such prisoner or person shall be tried upon such Indictment or Indictments as if the same had been found at the said Assizes, and such prisoner may be removed from Her Majesty's Prison at Holloway to the Gaol whence he came without Writ of Habeas Corpus, but with a copy of the said Order of Court, and all such other proceedings shall be had and taken as if the said prisoner or person had not been removed to Her Majesty's Prison at Holloway.

(9.) If, in pursuance of the 18th section of the Central Criminal Court Act as applied by this Order, any Writ of Certiorari or Habeas Corpus be issued for the removal of any indictment or presentment, or of any person in custody from the jurisdiction of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Surrey to the Central Criminal Court, one week's notice shall be given in manner required by that section.

(10.) Except where the context otherwise requires, the terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

(11.) This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force until the close of the Session of the Central Criminal Court last held in the month of January, 1892.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Cumberland and the County of Westmoreland shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one county, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 1.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Carlisle.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Carlisle shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provision of Section three of the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said section "the Sheriff of the county for which such Assizes were held" shall mean the Sheriff of the county in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried, if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the county of Cumberland shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the county of Cumberland, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Carlisle, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Cumberland, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either of the counties comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document.

This provision shall not apply to the Sheriff of the County of Westmoreland.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 1."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery to be holden for either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Carlisle, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Cumberland, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Carlisle.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to Her Majesty's Gaol at Carlisle for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l*. to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer or some known agent on his behalf shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1891.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Leicester and the County of Rutland shall, for the purposes of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one county, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 2.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Leicester.

3. The Court at the Winter Assizes at Leicester shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provision of Section three of the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of the County for which such Assizes were held" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Leicester shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Leicester, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Leicester, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Leicester, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either county comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority, and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriff of the County of Rutland.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 2."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery to be holden for either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Leicester, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be to the Sheriff of the County of Leicester, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Leicester.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to Her Majesty's Gaol, formerly the Gaol for the county of Leicester, at Leicester, for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the County where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer or some known agent on his behalf shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1891.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Huntingdon and the County of Cambridge shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one county, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 3.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at the Shire Hall at Chesterton, in the county of Cambridge.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Chesterton shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provision of Section 3 of the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of the county for which such Assizes were held" shall mean the Sheriff of the county in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Cambridge shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Cambridge, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Chesterton, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Cambridge, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority, and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either of the counties comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof shall in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 3."

11. Any person who after the date of this Order and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Chesterton, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Cambridge, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Chesterton.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to Her Majesty's Gaol, recently the Gaol for the County of Cambridge at Chesterton, for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed, or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the County where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer or some known agent on his behalf shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1891.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Montgomery, the County of Merioneth, the County of Denbigh, and the County of Flint, shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one county, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 4.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Ruthin.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Ruthin shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provision of Section three of the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of the County for which such Assizes were held" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Denbigh shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Denbigh, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Ruthin, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Denbigh or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for any county comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriffs of any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, other than the Sheriff of the County of Denbigh.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 4."

11. Any person who after the date of this Order, and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Ruthin, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Denbigh, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Ruthin.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to Her Majesty's Gaol at Ruthin, for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer, or some known agent on his behalf, shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1891.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Carnarvon, and the County of Anglesea shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one County, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 5.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Carnarvon.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Carnarvon shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provision of Section three of the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned, provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of the County for which such Assizes were held" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Carnarvon shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Carnarvon, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Carnarvon, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Carnarvon, or to levy outside the said County fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either county comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority, and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriff of the County of Anglesea.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 5."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order, and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Carnarvon, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Carnarvon, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Carnarvon.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to Her Majesty's Gaol at Carnarvon for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance, to appear and answer in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer, or some known agent on his behalf, shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1891.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Carmarthen, the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, the County of Pembroke, the Town and County of Haverfordwest, and the County of Cardigan, shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one county, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 6.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Carmarthen.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Carmarthen shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provision of Section three of the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned: provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of the County for which such Assizes were held" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Carmarthen shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Carmarthen; and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County; and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County, who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Carmarthen, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Carmarthen, or to levy outside the said County fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for any county comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority, and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriffs of any of the Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, other than the Sheriff of the County of Carmarthen.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 6."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Carmarthen, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Carmarthen, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Carmarthen.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to Her Majesty's Gaol at Carmarthen for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer, or some known agent on his behalf, shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1891. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Brecknock and the County of Radnor shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one county, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 7.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Brecon.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Brecon, shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provision of Section three of the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of the County for which such Assizes were held" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Brecknock shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Brecknock, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Brecon, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Brecknock, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either county comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority, and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriff of the County of Radnor.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 7."

11. Any person who after the date of this Order, and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Brecon, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Brecknock and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Brecon.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to Her Majesty's Gaol at Brecon for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed, or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer or some known agent on his behalf shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1891.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by Bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time to do within its districts all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section :

And whereas by the seventh section of "The Merchant Shipping (Pilotage) Act, 1889," it is enacted that the powers of making Bye-laws conferred on a Pilotage Authority by the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," shall extend to making Bye-laws requiring Masters or Mates who hold pilotage certificates granted in pursuance of section three hundred and forty or section three hundred and forty-two of the latter Act to contribute towards the Pilotage Fund of the district :

And whereas the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the city of Bristol, being a Pilotage Authority within the meaning of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," in exercise of the powers vested in them by that Act, have made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty, certain Bye-laws :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the proposed Bye-laws are proper and reasonable :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of and signify Her consent to the said Bye-laws, as set forth in the schedule hereto annexed.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 26 of "The Pluralities Act, 1838," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself, or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial, or extra-parochial so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons

"of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend William Dalrymple, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, represented in a writing dated the eighteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Father in God Edward White by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of All England and Metropolitan.

"I William Dalrymple by Divine Permission Lord Bishop of Lichfield do in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of an Act of Parliament of the first and second years of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and six hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

"1. There is in the county of Salop and my diocese of Lichfield the chapelry of Moreton Say in the parish of Hodnet which said chapelry contains according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one a population of six hundred and forty-nine. The net annual value of the said benefice arising from tithe rent-charge and glebe is four hundred and seventy-five pounds ten shillings or thereabouts.

"2. There is also in the county of Salop and my diocese of Lichfield the new parish of the Holy Trinity Calverhall (otherwise called Corra) which said new parish contains according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one a population of two hundred and forty-eight. The net annual value of the said benefice arising from rent of land fees and grants from the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and Queen Anne's Bounty is two hundred and twenty-four pounds or thereabouts.

"3. A certain district of the said chapelry of Moreton Say containing according to the Ordnance Survey nine hundred and fifty-three acres three roods eighteen perches or thereabouts with a population of one hundred and five lies to the east of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Calverhall and adjacent to it.

"The majority of the inhabitants of such district live in the northern portion of it and their dwellings are situate nearer to the church of Calverhall than to the church of Moreton Say and owing to position and nature of the roads in the said district the church of Calverhall is more accessible to them than the church of Moreton Say. The said inhabitants have accordingly been in the habit of attending the services of the church of Calverhall and during the greater part of the time which has elapsed since the formation of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Calverhall the said inhabitants by arrangement between the incumbents of the said chapelry of Moreton Say and the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Calverhall have been conventionally under the pastoral charge of the vicar of Calverhall. The church of the Holy Trinity Calverhall lies at a distance of one and three quarter miles from the centre of the said district.

"4. It appears to me that under the provisions of the said Act of 1 and 2 Victoria chapter 106 the following alteration in the areas and boundaries of the said chapelry and new parish respectively may advantageously be made, namely:—

"The separation of the district referred to in the third preceding paragraph from the said chapelry of Moreton Say and its annexation to the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Calverhall.

"5. The benefice of the Holy Trinity, Calverhall, is in the patronage of Arthur Pemberton Heywood-Lonsdale of Cloverley Whitchurch in the county of Salop Esquire.

"The benefice of Moreton Say is in the patronage of Algernon Charles Heber-Percy of Hodnet Hall, Market Drayton, in the county of Salop, Esquire, and of Emily Heber-Percy his wife.

"6. The Reverend Edward Thomas Billings, Clerk, Master of Arts, is the present Incumbent of the said benefice of the Holy Trinity, Calverhall.

"The Reverend Henry Vernon Heber-Percy, Clerk, Bachelor of Arts, is the present Incumbent of the said benefice of Moreton Say.

"7. Pursuant to the provisions of the twentieth section of the beforementioned Act of Parliament I the said Bishop have drawn up a Scheme in writing which said Scheme is annexed to this Representation describing the district so as aforesaid proposed to be annexed to the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Calverhall and the mode in which it appears to me the alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent thereon in respect of ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithe rent charges and other ecclesiastical dues and payments and in respect to patronage and right to pews may be made with justice to all parties concerned.

"And I do hereby submit the same to your Grace together with the consents in writing of the said patrons and incumbents to the intent that if your Grace shall on full consideration and inquiry be satisfied with such scheme you may certify the same and such consents by your report to Her Majesty in Council.

"As witness my hand this eighteenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one."

"W. D. Lichfield."

"SCHEME.

"That a district shall be separated from the said chapelry of Moreton Say and annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the adjoining new parish of the Holy Trinity, Calverhall. The said district is delineated and described in the ordnance map hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured green.

"The boundary of the district to be annexed commences at the point marked A on the ordnance map hereunto annexed where the present boundaries of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Calverhall, of the chapelry of Moreton Say and of the parish of Adderley meet and proceeds thence along the old parish boundary between Moreton Say and Adderley to the point where it meets the River Duckow, thence in a south-easterly direction along the county boundary between the counties of Salop and Chester thereby following the course of the said river to the bridge which carries Rhews-lane over the said river and extending thence in a south-westerly direction along the middle of Rhews-lane aforesaid to its junction with New-street-lane and extending thence in a north-westerly direction along the middle of the last-named lane to a point marked B on the said map thence in a direction at first southerly then westerly and then principally southerly following the fences which form the boundary of the Styche and Cloverley estates to a point marked C on the said map thence in a westerly direction crossing the Cloverley estate and following the course of the fences dividing the closes numbered on the ordnance map 267, 266, 264 and 262 on the north, and 268 and 265 on the south to the point marked D at the bridge over the brook running from Cloverley Park to Moreton Mill, thence, first in a westerly and afterwards in a south-easterly direction along the centre and throughout the entire length of the old farm road numbered 304 on the said ordnance map which commences at the said bridge and terminates in a footpath (as shown in the ordnance map) at the point E and at the junction of the three closes numbered 308, 312, and 309; thence in a westerly direction along the old fence boundary dividing the closes numbered on the ordnance map 305, 302 and 198 on the north, and 309, 306 and 303 on the south, until it regains the boundary between the said chapelry of Moreton Say and the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Calverhall at the point marked F on the said map, the course of which said boundary of the district to be annexed from the point where it leaves the county boundary to the point marked F is shown on the said map by a dotted red line, and proceeds from the point F in a generally northerly direction along the old parish boundary to the point marked A as aforesaid.

"That the incumbent of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Calverhall shall have the sole and exclusive cure of souls within such district.

"That the parishioners of such district shall be entitled to accommodation in the church of the Holy Trinity, Calverhall, but shall cease to be entitled to accommodation in the church of Moreton Say.

"That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be solemnized and performed in the church of the Holy Trinity, Calverhall, for the inhabitants of the said district and that all fees dues ecclesiastical offerings and emoluments arising from the said district shall henceforth belong to the incumbent of the benefice of the Holy Trinity, Calverhall, and the inhabitants of the said district shall cease to be entitled to have marriages baptisms churchings or burials solemnized or performed in the church of Moreton Say and to have any rights whatever in the said church of Moreton Say or the churchyard thereunto belonging.

"That no alteration shall be made in the patronage of the said benefices or either of them.

"That all that portion of the tithe rent-charge specified in the schedule hereunder written arising from the lands in the said schedule mentioned and belonging to the chapelry of Moreton Say shall be separated from the said benefice of Moreton Say and be annexed to the said benefice of the Holy Trinity, Calverhall, and belong to the incumbent thereof.

"That except as aforesaid no alteration shall be made in the endowments of the said benefices or either of them.

"CONSENTS.

"We, Algernon Charles Heber-Percy of Hodnet Hall in the county of Salop Esquire and Emily Heber-Percy his wife being the patrons or the persons entitled to present to the benefice of Moreton Say in the county of Salop and diocese of Lichfield in case the same were now vacant and the Reverend Henry Vernon Heber-Percy, Clerk, Bachelor of Arts, incumbent of the same benefice and Arthur Pemberton Heywood-Lonsdale of Cloverley near Whitchurch in the county of Salop aforesaid Esquire being the patron or person entitled to present to the benefice of Calverhall in the above-mentioned county and diocese in case the same were now vacant and the Reverend Edward Thomas Billings, Clerk, Master of Arts, incumbent of the same benefice do hereby respectively signify to your Grace our several consents to the scheme above proposed and set forth and to every matter and thing therein contained.

"In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands this eighteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

"Algernon C. Heber-Percy.

Emily Heber-Percy.

Henry Vernon Heber-Percy.

A. P. Heywood-Lonsdale.

Edward T. Billings."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said scheme, hath certified the same and the consents aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council by his report dated the ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council:—

"That the Right Reverend William Dalrymple Lord Bishop of Lichfield has represented unto Us (amongst other things)

"That there is in the county of Salop and diocese of Lichfield the parish and benefice chapelry or rectory of Moreton Say.

"That there is also in the said county and diocese the parish and benefice or vicarage of Calverhall or Corra.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that part of the said chapelry of Moreton Say the limits whereof are defined in the scheme hereinafter referred to and in the plan thereto annexed being an outlying portion of the said chapelry of Moreton Say may be advantageously separated from the said parish and mother church of Moreton Say and annexed to the said parish of Calverhall or Corra for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in 'The Pluralities Act 1838,' the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction rent charges dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the patrons and incumbents of the benefices to be affected have been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to Us for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And We the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the said Pluralities Act 1838, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"As witness our hand this ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

"Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 16 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, in the words following, that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council:

"That the Right Reverend William Lord Bishop of Oxford as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the vicarage of Saint Peter-in-the-East and the perpetual curacy of Saint John the Baptist both in the city of Oxford having represented unto us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we inquired into the circumstances of the case,

"That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that the Warden and Scholars of Merton College in the University of Oxford (being the patrons or persons entitled to present to the said benefices if the same respectively were now vacant) consent to the proposed union.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Oxford our inquiry into the circumstances of the case the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consent in writing of the patrons and the copies of the representation and notice before-mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"As witness our hand this twenty-seventh day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

"Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the vicarage of Saint Peter-in-the-East, situate in the city and diocese of Oxford, and the perpetual curacy of Saint John the Baptist, situate in the same city and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act 1838" after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings,

"hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes: and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested: and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend James, Lord Bishop of Hereford, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, represented in a writing dated the seventeenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and ninety to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

"We the Right Reverend James Lord Bishop of Hereford do hereby represent to Your Grace as follows:—

"1. That within the county of Hereford and our diocese of Hereford are the vicarage and parish church of Bromyard the parish whereof comprises amongst other townships the township of Linton.

"2. That the population of the parish of Bromyard including the townships of Norton, Linton and Winslow is three thousand and sixty-four, the population of the part or portion of the township of Linton described and comprised in the schedule hereto being estimated at two hundred persons.

"3. That the parish church of Bromyard aforesaid affords accommodation for seven hundred and sixty-seven persons or thereabouts and is distant from two to four miles from the part of the township of Linton described as aforesaid.

"4. That the area of the Ecclesiastical parish of Bromyard exceeds eight thousand acres.

"5. That the net annual income of the said vicarage of Bromyard amounts to three hundred and thirty pounds or thereabouts.

"6. That within the said county of Hereford and our diocese of Hereford are the vicarage and parish church of Stanford Bishop.

"7. That the part or portion of the said township of Linton described as aforesaid although forming part of the said parish of Bromyard is in fact contiguous to the parish of Stanford Bishop and the major part of the inhabitants of the said part or portion of the said township of Linton can and do more readily attend the said parish church of Stanford Bishop and can be more easily attended to for spiritual purposes by the vicar of the said parish of Stanford Bishop.

"8. That the parish of Stanford Bishop contains a population of one hundred and sixty-nine and the church of the said parish of Stanford Bishop affords accommodation for one hundred and five persons or thereabouts.

"9. That the net annual value of the said vicarage of Stanford Bishop is seventy-eight pounds or thereabouts and that the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England are prepared to augment the said vicarage of Stanford Bishop with an annual grant of eighty pounds so soon as the scheme proposed by the representation has been carried into effect.

"10. That the patronage of the said vicarage and parish church of Bromyard belongs to the Right Reverend Henry by Divine Permission Lord Bishop of Worcester and the patronage of the said vicarage and parish church of Stanford Bishop belongs to us the said Lord Bishop of Hereford.

"11. That the vicar of the vicarage and parish church of Bromyard is the Reverend William Martini and the vicar of the vicarage and parish church of Stanford Bishop is the Reverend Henry William Weltch.

"12. That it appears to us that under the provisions of the Act of Parliament passed in the session holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty cap. one hundred and six 'to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality and to make other provision for the residence of the clergy' the said part or portion of the township of Linton may be advantageously separated from the said vicarage and parish of Bromyard and be united to the said vicarage and parish of Stanford Bishop for ecclesiastical purposes.

"13. That pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said Act of Parliament we have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to us that the alteration above proposed may best be effected and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect of ecclesiastical jurisdiction, dues, rates and payments and in respect of rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested and we do submit the same to Your Grace together with the consents in writing of the aforesaid patrons and incumbents of the said vicarages and parish churches respectively to the intent that Your Grace may if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme certify the same and such consents as aforesaid by your report to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under our hand this seventeenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

"J. Hereford."

"SCHEME.

"1. That the part or portion of the township of Linton described in the schedule hereto at present belonging to and forming part of the vicarage and parish of Bromyard in the county and diocese of Hereford shall be separated from the said vicarage and parish of Bromyard and be united to and be deemed part of the vicarage and parish of Stanford Bishop in the said county and diocese for ecclesiastical purposes.

"2. That the said part or portion of the township of Linton described as aforesaid shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarage and parish of Stanford Bishop and the said vicar of the said vicarage and parish church of Stanford Bishop shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits aforesaid.

"3. That all fees and other ecclesiastical dues and payments for marriages churchings, burials, and other ecclesiastical offices in respect of persons resident within the said part or portion of the said township of Linton so described as aforesaid shall belong to the vicar of Stanford Bishop and that the inhabitants of the said part or portion of the said township shall not hereafter be entitled to accommodation in the parish church of Bromyard but shall be entitled in common with the inhabitants of the said parish of Stanford Bishop to accommodation in the parish church of Stanford Bishop and shall be exempted from all liability to repair the parish church of Bromyard but shall be liable (subject to the provisions of 'The Compulsory Church Rates Abolition Act, 1868') to the repair of the said parish church of Stanford Bishop.

"4. That the whole of the vicarial tithe rent-charge payable to the said vicar of Bromyard in respect of the said part or portion of the township of Linton will continue to be paid to such vicar the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England having agreed to make over to the said vicarage of Stanford Bishop an annual payment of eighty pounds when the said part or portion of the said township of Linton shall have been annexed to the said vicarage and parish of Stanford Bishop for ecclesiastical purposes.

"SCHEDULE.

"That portion of the township of Linton in the parish of Bromyard which is delineated on the map hereunto annexed and is thereon edged with pink colour and which is bounded on part of the north-west and on part of the south by the parish of Avenbury, upon the remaining part of the south by the parishes of Stanford Bishop and Suckley, upon the east partly by the parish of Suckley and partly by the parish of Whitbourne and upon the north and the remaining part of the north-west by an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked A on the plan hereto annexed) where the Bringsty Spring Brook crosses the boundary between the township of Linton and the parish of Whitbourne then proceeding along the Brook in a westerly direction to a point (marked B on the said plan) at or near the source of the same Brook upon the Norton and Linton boundary then in a southerly direction along the fence dividing the closes numbered 233 and 234 on the east side from the pieces numbered 238 and 237 on the west side of the said fence upon the 25-inch Ordnance Map till it meets the footpath leading from Nuttage Farm by Clater Park to Bromyard Downs at the point marked C on the said plan hereto annexed thence along the said footpath in a westerly line till intersected by the bridle road and footpath leading from Clater Park to Bank Farm at a point marked D on the said plan. Then in a southerly direction by the said footpath and bridle road to the point (marked E on the said plan) where the same bridle road crosses Linton Brook thence by the Linton Brook to the footbridge (marked F on the said plan) which carries the footpath leading from Linley Green to Bromyard Downs over the same Brook thence in a northerly and westerly line by the footpath leading to Bromyard Downs to a point (marked G on the said plan) abutting on the Downs. Thence first north-westward and then south-westward along the southern boundary of the said Downs to a point on the Bromyard and Malvern-road at the north-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 269, from the close numbered 270 on the said Ordnance Map thence south-westward along the said fence and across the line of the Worcester Bromyard and Leominster Railway to a point at the Burley Brook marked H on the said plan hereto annexed thence along the Burley Brook in a southerly direction to a point (marked K on the said plan) where it crosses the Ashmonton footpath and occupation road thence along the Ashmonton-road in a westerly line to the Burley-road crossing the said road at a point marked L and following the boundary fence of the quarry piece till it intersects (at a point marked M on the said plan) the boundary of the parish of Avenbury.

"CONSENTS.

"We Henry by Divine Permission Lord Bishop of Worcester being the person or corporation entitled to present to the vicarage of Bromyard in case the same were now vacant. And we James by Divine Permission Lord Bishop of Hereford being the person or corporation entitled to present to the vicarage of Stanford Bishop in case the same were now vacant. And I William Martin Clerk the Vicar of the said Vicarage of Bromyard and I Henry William Welch Clerk Vicar of the said vicarage of Stanford Bishop do hereby consent to the foregoing scheme and to every matter and thing therein proposed and set forth.

"Dated this seventeenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

"H. Worcester.

"J. Hereford.

"William Martin.

"Henry W. Welch."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said scheme hath certified the same, and the consents aforesaid, to Her Majesty in Council by his report dated the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the province of Canterbury do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council:

"That the Right Reverend James Lord Bishop of Hereford has represented unto us (amongst other things),—

"That there is in the county and diocese of Hereford the parish and benefice or vicarage of Bromyard :

"That there is also in the said county and diocese the parish and benefice or vicarage of Stanford Bishop :

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that part of the township of Linton the limits whereof are defined in the scheme hereinafter referred to and in the plan thereto annexed being an out-lying portion of the parish of Bromyard may be advantageously separated from the said parish and mother church of Bromyard and annexed to the said parish of Stanford Bishop for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the Pluralities Act one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction rent-charges dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the patrons and incumbents of the benefices to be affected have been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the said Pluralities Act one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"As witness our hand this twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one. " Edu. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the nineteenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, in the words following, that is to say :—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Mark Notting Hill and of the new parish of Saint Clement Kensington both in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the third day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four and published in the London Gazette upon the fifth day of the same month a part of the district parish of Saint John Notting Hill in the said county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London aforesaid was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mark situate at Notting Hill within the limits of such district chapelry and the same was called 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mark Notting Hill.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twentieth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-fourth day of the same month, certain contiguous portions of the district parish of Saint James Norlands of the district parish of Saint Stephen Hammersmith and of the said cure of Saint Mark Notting Hill all in the county and diocese aforesaid were assigned as a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Clement within the limits of such consolidated chapelry and the same consolidated chapelry was called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Clement Kensington.'

"And whereas both the said district chapelry of Saint Mark Notting Hill and the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Clement Kensington have each of them under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas the boundaries both of the said new parish of Saint Mark Notting Hill and of the said new parish of Saint Clement Kensington have under the authority of several Orders of Your Majesty in Council published in the London Gazette been altered from time to time.

"And whereas the boundaries of those new parishes as they now exist are indicated by black dotted lines upon the map or plan hereunto appended.

"And whereas it has been represented to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Mark Notting Hill and of the said new parish of Saint Clement Kensington should be further altered in the manner herein-after mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries both of the said new parish of Saint Mark Notting Hill and of the said new parish of Saint Clement Kensington shall be altered so that all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Mark Notting Hill which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Clement Kensington.

"And, we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be dissevered from the new parish of Saint Mark Notting Hill, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Clement Kensington in the same county and diocese, being:—

"All that isolated portion of the said new parish of Saint Mark Notting Hill wherein the present incumbent of such new parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is situate upon the north-western side of North Pole-road and upon the north-eastern side of the line of the West London Junction Railway and being near to Wormwood Scrubbs Station on the same line of railway all which said isolated portion is bounded upon the south-east by the said new parish of Saint Clement Kensington upon the north-east and upon the north-west by the new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels Notting Hill in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon the south-west by the district parish of Saint Stephen Hammersmith also in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation.

And whereas such patrons and the incumbent of the new parish of Saint Mark Notting Hill have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the Reverend Arthur Dalgarno Robinson the incumbent of the new parish of Saint Clement Kensington has offered certain objections to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas notwithstanding such objection the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared and now lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for consolidating into one benefice to be held by one incumbent the two mediety or portions (both of which mediety or portions are as hereinafter-mentioned rectories) of the benefice of Bradfield in the county of Norfolk and in the diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich acting under and in pursuance of the Act hereinbefore-mentioned has submitted to us a plan bearing date the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one which plan (as by the same and the schedules thereto appear) has the consent of the patrons of the said rectories of Bradfield and does not prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent of the parish of Bradfield for effecting the consolidation aforesaid.

"And whereas the said plan is in the words and figures following that is to say:—

"To the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

"I, John Thomas, Lord Bishop of the diocese of Norwich acting under the powers of the Act three and four Victoria, cap. one hundred and thirteen have framed and now submit to you the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England the following plan with reference to the benefice of Bradfield in the county of Norfolk and in the said diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas the benefice of Bradfield aforesaid is a benefice which of long time past hath been and which now is held in mediety and the first mediety of the said benefice is a rectory and the second mediety of the same benefice is also a rectory which has until quite recently been annexed to the rectory of Antingham Saint Mary with Thorpe Market in the said county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich.

"And whereas the said second mediety of Bradfield has been disunited from the said rectory of Antingham with Thorpe Market by an Order of Her Majesty in Council under the Act one and two Victoria cap. one hundred and six bearing date the twenty-first day of October last.

"And whereas the parish of Bradfield aforesaid is a parish in which the profits are divided between two incumbents each having as aforesaid a mediety of the benefice.

"And whereas the said benefice and parish of Bradfield hath within the limits of the same parish one consecrated church and one only the same being the parish church of the said parish of Bradfield.

"And whereas the said parish church of Bradfield now has within it accommodation for one hundred persons.

"And whereas the population of the said parish of Bradfield is according to the last census two hundred and twenty-eight persons.

"And whereas the endowments of the first mediety of the said benefice of Bradfield amount to one hundred and sixty-five pounds and ten shillings per annum as set forth in the first schedule to this plan there being also a house of residence for and belonging to the rector of the said first mediety.

"And whereas the endowments of the second mediety of the said benefice of Bradfield amount to fifty-five pounds per annum as set forth in the second schedule to this plan there being no house of residence for or belonging to the said second mediety.

"And whereas the celebration of Divine worship and administration of the sacraments at the said parish church of the said parish of Bradfield hath hitherto been supplied by the rector of the said first mediety.

"And whereas the Reverend Hugh Owen, Clerk, is now rector of the first mediety of the said benefice of Bradfield.

"And whereas the Reverend Arthur Charles Davies, Clerk, is now the rector of the second mediety of the said benefice of Bradfield.

"And whereas the advowson or right of patronage and nomination of and to the first mediety of the said benefice of Bradfield is vested absolutely for an estate of inheritance in fee simple in possession in the Right Honourable Charles Baron Suffield of Gunton Park in the said county of Norfolk, P.C. K.C.B. and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the advowson or right of patronage and nomination of and to the second mediety of the said benefice of Bradfield is vested absolutely for an estate of inheritance in fee simple in possession in the Reverend Arthur Charles Davies, Clerk, rector of Antingham with Thorpe Market aforesaid and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said Charles Baron Suffield and Arthur Charles Davies are consenting to this plan as appears by a writing to that effect under their hands which writing is the third schedule to this plan.

"And whereas the said Hugh Owen the present incumbent of the first mediety of the said benefice of Bradfield as aforesaid has also consented to this plan in order to testify that the same does not prejudice his interests as such incumbent and his consent is signified by a writing to that effect under his hand which writing is the fourth schedule to this plan.

"Now therefore this my plan with reference to the said benefice of Bradfield is as follows, namely,

"1. That as from the day on which any Order of Her Majesty in Council ratifying a scheme whereby you the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England shall recommend the carrying into effect of this plan shall be published in the London Gazette the two medieties of the said benefice of Bradfield shall be consolidated and shall become and thereafter continue and be with respect both to the profits and the spiritual charge in the said parish of Bradfield one whole and undivided benefice by the name style and title of the rectory of Bradfield which undivided benefice shall as from the same day be held by one incumbent only subject nevertheless to the incumbency of the said second mediety by the said Arthur Charles Davies.

"2. That the said Hugh Owen or other the spiritual person being on the day aforesaid Rector of the first mediety of the said present benefice of Bradfield shall subject as aforesaid as from the same day become without any form or fee of institution and shall thereafter be incumbent and rector of the whole and undivided benefice and rectory of Bradfield.

"3. That as from the day aforesaid, subject as aforesaid the endowments of the rectory or first mediety of the said present benefice of Bradfield and the endowments of the second mediety of the same benefice (as such endowments respectively are set out in the said first and second schedules to this plan) shall become and thereafter be the endowments of the whole and undivided benefice and rectory of Bradfield.

"4. That the house of residence of the rector of the first mediety of the said present benefice of Bradfield shall as from the day aforesaid, subject as aforesaid, become and thereafter be the house of residence and rectory house of the incumbent and rector of the whole and undivided benefice and rectory of Bradfield aforesaid.

"5. That the incumbent and rector for the time being of the said whole and undivided benefice and rectory of Bradfield shall as from the day aforesaid, subject as aforesaid, be affected with and be subject to all liabilities which on that day shall be found attaching to the rectory or first mediety of the said present benefice of Bradfield and to all liabilities which on that day shall be found attaching to the second mediety of the same benefice.

"6. That (in accordance with the terms of the consents of the patrons hereto annexed) the whole advowson or right of patronage and nomination of and to the whole and undivided benefice and rectory of Bradfield shall as from the day aforesaid be vested absolutely in the said Charles Baron Suffield (now being as aforesaid the patron of the said rectory or first mediety of the said benefice of Bradfield) and his heirs and assigns for ever.

"All which being my plan with reference to the said benefice of Bradfield I submit as aforesaid to you the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and in witness thereof I have hereunto set my hand and episcopal seal this twenty-ninth day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas West Ham situate within the limits of the parish of West Ham in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas West Ham situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Wogan Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of West Ham which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Thomas West Ham situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas West Ham.'

"And with the like consent of the said John Wogan Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church or Saint Thomas West Ham situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas West Ham being:—

"All that part of the parish of West Ham in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded upon part of the north-west by the new parish of Saint John Stratford upon the west by the new parish of Stratford Marsh both in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south-west upon the south-east upon the east and upon the remaining part of the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Stratford Marsh from the parish of West Ham aforesaid at the centre of the viaduct which carries the northern outfall sewer over Abbey Mill-lane and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the embankment of the said sewer for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to the centre of the viaduct which carries the same sewer over Abbey Creek and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the said Creek for a distance of two and a half chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge at Abbey Mill over the said creek and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Abbey-road for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road which leads over Abbey-road bridge and continuing thence still north-eastward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of thirteen and a half chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the line of the North Woolwich Branch of the Great Eastern Railway) to the junction of the same road with Manor-road and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of three and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with Abbey-road aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eleven and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with Arthingworth-street opposite to the southern corner of the house and premises known as No. 8, Abbey-road, and extending thence that is to say from the last-described point in the middle of Abbey-road aforesaid northward and in a direct line to the said southern corner of the said house and premises and extending thence first north-eastward for a distance of one hundred and twenty feet or thereabouts along the wall or fence forming the north-western boundary of the same house and premises and of the houses and premises known respectively as Nos. 8 to 1A, Abbey-road, and then northward for a distance of eleven and three quarter chains or thereabouts along the line of walls or fences at the backs of the houses and premises situate on the western side of West

Ham-lane (which line of walls and fences in part divides the last-mentioned houses and premises from the houses and premises situate on the eastern side of Arthingworth-street) to the point at or near to the south-western angle of the house situate at the junction of West Ham-lane with Paul-street which house is known as West Ham House otherwise No. 58 West Ham-lane, and continuing thence still northward and in a direct line past the south-western side of the last-mentioned house for a distance of one and a-half chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Paul-street aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of West Ham from the new parish of Saint John Stratford aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the fifth year of Her Majesty (Session two), chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the second day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Your Majesty (Session two) chapter twenty-six, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing certain alterations and improvements at the episcopal residence belonging to the See of Worcester which is situate at Hartlebury in the county of Worcester.

"Whereas the Right Reverend John James Stewart now Bishop of the diocese of Worcester is desirous that certain permanent improvements should be made at the said episcopal residence at Hartlebury and has submitted to us the particulars of such proposed improvements and we have approved the same.

"And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the said proposed improvements a sum not exceeding eight hundred pounds (being a sum which does not exceed two years' income of the see) should be provided by borrowing the same by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands tenements and hereditaments endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishoprick of Worcester.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said John James Stewart Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester testified by his having affixed his signature and episcopal seal to this scheme we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts any sum not exceeding eight hundred pounds and that as a security for the same, the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands tenements and hereditaments and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said see to the said Governors by deed for the term of thirty-five years or until the said sum of eight hundred pounds with the interest for the same as hereinafter-mentioned and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in manner following, that is to say:—During and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed and at the end of every such like period of twelve months thereafter pay to the said Governors their successors or assigns one thirtieth part of the said principal sum, until the whole thereof shall be repaid and shall also at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per cent. per annum on the said principal sum or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and if and when it shall happen that either the principal or interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore-mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall have become due it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors their successors and assigns to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale, in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said John James Stewart now Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester as every succeeding Bishop of the same diocese until the principal money and interest costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of eight hundred pounds shall be paid to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and that the receipt of our joint Treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum of eight hundred pounds the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the episcopal residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine; and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine; and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the second day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership saving the right of presentation to the present owner for her lifetime of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Ann, Hanger Lane, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Ann, Hanger Lane is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Emily Mary Robins of The Elms, Watford, in the county of Hertford Widow and her heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said Emily Mary Robins is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Ann Hanger Lane now vested in her as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul in London and their successors saving the right of presentation to her the said Emily Mary Robins during her lifetime.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick now Bishop of the said diocese of London has to such transfer given that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary and in token of the same consent has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas a sum of money has been paid over to us in augmentation of the income of the said benefice of Saint Ann, Hanger Lane, but upon the understanding that the patronage of the same benefice shall be transferred as is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas under these circumstances we are of opinion that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Ann, Hanger Lane which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Saint Ann Hanger Lane.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Emily Mary Robins (in testimony whereof she has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Frederick Bishop of the diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Ann Hanger Lane now vested in her the said Emily Mary Robins and her heirs and assigns as aforesaid, shall be transferred from her and them to the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul in London and their successors saving the right of presentation to her the said Emily Mary Robins during her lifetime and saving as aforesaid shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and such right of patronage shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul in London and by their successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the under-mentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz.:—

NEW RADFORD.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of New Radford, in the county of Nottingham; and also in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order, viz.:—widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth.

GRASMERE.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Grasmere, in the county of Westmoreland; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

PENTIR.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Pentir (Bangor) in the county of Carnarvon; and that in the churchyard Numbers V, VI, VII, and VIII of the Home Office Regulations for new Burial Grounds shall be strictly observed.

CRANLEIGH.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Cranleigh in the county of Surrey.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the tenth day of September next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before the said tenth day of September.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz. :—

POTTERS BAR—Forthwith and entirely in the Saint John's Church, Potters Bar (South Mimms), in the county of Middlesex; and also in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the tenth day of September next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said tenth day of September.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the fourteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, as affecting burials in the parish of Markfield, should be varied, by substituting the following directions for those contained in the said Order, in regard to burials in the church and churchyard of that parish, viz. :—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Markfield, in the county of Leicester, and also in the churchyard within nine feet of its northern boundary; and in the rest of the churchyard, except as follows:

(a.) In such vaults and walled graves as are now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order, viz., widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces as have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred in the churchyard at the date of the Order, viz., widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the tenth day of September next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said tenth day of September.

C. L. Peel.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to order such acts to be done by, or under the directions of, the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish; Provided always, that no such representation should be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens, or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation having been duly given to the incumbent and churchwardens of the parish of Aughton, near Ormskirk, in the county of Lancaster, has made a representation, stating that, for the purpose of preventing the churchyard of Aughton from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health, an Order should be made for the adoption of the measures which are hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens or other persons having the care of the said churchyard of Aughton, do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures, viz.:—

That the said churchyard be effectually drained, so that water shall not accumulate in any vault or grave.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the fifteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, directing the discontinuance of burials in the parish church, and, with certain exceptions, in the churchyard, of Wilton, in the county of Wilts, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said Order in so far as it affects burials in the said churchyard be varied:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order be varied by the addition of the following clause to the Article in the said Order relating to burials in the parish church and churchyard of Wilton, viz.:—

(d.) In such reserved graves spaces in the churchyard (as have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water), burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted (not exceeding ten in number) as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order; and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the twenty-sixth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, in so far as it affects burials in the church and churchyard of Pembury, in the county of Kent, should be varied, and that the directions hereinafter set forth should be substituted for those contained in the said Order, with respect to burials in the said church and churchyard:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said first-recited Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered:—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Pembury, in the county of Kent; and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains (and which when opened are free from water) burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they have been allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Charles Neve Cresswell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, duly appointed in pursuance of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, as Commissioner for determining the boundaries of the Wards of the borough of Shrewsbury and for apportioning the Councillors thereto, has transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his scheme in the following terms:—

"MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS ACT OF 1882.

"Borough of Shrewsbury.

"WHEREAS Her Majesty has been pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in Her Majesty by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, to fix the number of Wards into which the borough of Shrewsbury shall be henceforth divided, and to order and direct that the said borough shall be divided into Ten Wards, which Order was made on the ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

"And whereas on the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, the Right Honourable Henry Matthews one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State did in pursuance of the thirtieth section of the said Act duly warrant and appoint Charles Neve Cresswell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, to be a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of the Wards of the borough of Shrewsbury, and for apportioning the Councillors among them as in the said Act provided and directed.

"Now, I, the said Charles Neve Cresswell do hereby in pursuance of the said Warrant of Appointment, determine, as hereinafter mentioned, the boundaries of the ten Wards into which the said borough shall be divided, which Wards are hereinafter numbered and named as follows, that is to say:—

"Ward No. 1 otherwise Quarry Ward.

"Ward No. 2 otherwise Welsh Ward.

"Ward No. 3 otherwise Stone Ward.

"Ward No. 4 otherwise Abbey Ward.

ORDER of the Local Government Board under the District Auditors Act, 1879: Assignment of Duties and District;—

Norfolk Audit District.

To Thomas Howel Kyffin Roberts, District Auditor;—

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedule to this Order;—

To the Overseers of the Poor of the several Parishes comprised within the said Unions respectively;—

To the School Board for the Great Yarmouth School District;—

To the School Board for the Runham Vauxhall United School District;—

To the Authorities referred to in Article I (Nos. 4 and 5) of this Order;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by Section 4 of "The District Auditors Act, 1879," it is enacted that the Local Government Board may from time to time assign to District Auditors their Duties, and the Districts in which such Auditors respectively are to act, and may from time to time change wholly or in part such duties or districts;

And whereas by an Order dated the 23rd day of March, 1882, We, the Local Government Board, certified the appointment of the said Thomas Howel Kyffin Roberts as a District Auditor, and ordered and prescribed that the District within which he should in future act as Auditor, and which was thereby assigned to him, should, until We should otherwise prescribe, comprise the area for the time being included in the several Unions named in the Schedule A to that Order, and the area for the time being included in the Separate Parish of Great Yarmouth, and that such District should be termed "The Norfolk Audit District";

And whereas by an Order dated the 22nd day of June, 1882, We directed that until We should, by Order, otherwise prescribe, it should be the duty of the said Thomas Howel Kyffin Roberts to audit the Accounts of the School Boards for the School District of Great Yarmouth and the United School District of Runham Vauxhall, and of their Officers;

And whereas by an Order dated the 17th day of January, 1891, We directed that from and after the 15th day of April, 1891, the said Parish of Great Yarmouth should cease to be under a separate Board of Guardians, and that that Parish and the Parish of Gorleston should be united for the administration of the laws for the relief of the Poor, and should form a Union to be termed the Great Yarmouth Union;

And whereas it is expedient that the said Orders dated the 23rd day of March, 1882, and the 22nd day of June, 1882, should be rescinded, and that other provisions should be made as hereinafter mentioned:

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, We hereby rescind the said Orders dated the twenty-third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and the twenty-second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and We hereby certify the appointment of the said Thomas Howel Kyffin Roberts as a District Auditor, and further Order and Prescribe as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—It shall be the duty of the said District Auditor to audit the Accounts of the following Authorities and their Officers; namely,—

(1.) The Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedule to this Order.

(2.) The Overseers of the Poor of the several Parishes comprised in the said several Unions.

(3.) The School Boards for the School District of Great Yarmouth and the United School District of Runham Vauxhall.

(4.) The several other Authorities for the time being whose Accounts are or may be by law subject to be audited by a District Auditor, and whose Districts or the areas of whose jurisdiction are for the time being wholly situated within one or more of the said Unions.

(5.) Such of the other Authorities whose Accounts are or may be by law subject to be so audited, and whose Districts or the areas of whose jurisdiction are for the time being partly situated within one or more of the said Unions, as We may by Order under Seal hereafter prescribe.

ARTICLE II.—The said District Auditor shall audit the said Accounts according to the provisions of the several Statutes and of the Orders issued by competent authority, in force for the time being in that behalf, and shall perform all such duties and exercise all such powers in connection with the audit of such Accounts as are prescribed and conferred by the said Statutes and Orders.

ARTICLE III.—The District in which the said Thomas Howel Kyffin Roberts shall act as Auditor, and which We hereby assign to him for the performance of the duties assigned to him by this Order, and which shall be termed "The Norfolk Audit District," shall, until We otherwise prescribe, comprise the area for the time being included in the several Unions named in the Schedule to this Order, and in the School Districts named in Article 1 (3), and the Districts or areas subject to the jurisdiction of any such Authority as is mentioned in paragraph (5) of Article I of this Order.

ARTICLE IV.—Nothing in this Order shall affect or interfere with the duties and powers of the said District Auditor so far as regards the audit of any Accounts commenced but not completed, or any proceedings in relation thereto, or any proceedings in relation to the audit of Accounts already completed.

ARTICLE V.—In this Order—

The term "Union" includes any union of Parishes incorporated or united for the relief or maintenance of the Poor under any Act of Parliament, and any Parish in which relief to the Poor is administered by a separate Board of Guardians.

The term "Parish" includes any place for which a separate Poor Rate is or can be made or for which a separate Overseer is or can be appointed.

The term "Guardians" includes any Governors, Directors, Acting Guardians, Vestrymen, or other Officers appointed or entitled to act in the distribution or ordering of relief to the Poor from the Poor Rates under any Act of Parliament.

The term "Overseers of the Poor" includes Churchwardens and Assistant Overseers.

The Metropolis Water Act, 1871.

The Local Government Act, 1888.

To the Governor and Company of the New River brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London, commonly called "The New River Company."

THE London County Council, as the Metropolitan authority within the meaning of section 8 of the Metropolis Water Act, 1871, being of opinion that there should be a constant supply of water in the District hereinafter described, that is to say:—

The district or area which is bounded by an imaginary line running from a point in the centre of Dyott-street, opposite the rear of the houses on the North side of New Oxford-street, thence generally in a southerly direction, following the same line as the former district described, as far as the eastern side of Wellington-street by the River Thames, and from thence westward along the north bank of the Thames to a point two hundred and sixty feet south of Charing Cross railway bridge. From thence along the south side of Northumberland-avenue to Great Scotland-yard, along the centre of Great Scotland-yard, as far as the rear of the premises of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, thence westward along the rear of the premises on the south side of Northumberland-avenue and Charing Cross as far as No. 4, Charing Cross, thence northward between Nos. 4 and 5, Charing Cross, thence along the centre of the east side of Trafalgar-square and Saint Martin's-place as far as the rear of the National Gallery, along the rear of the National Gallery and Saint George's Barracks, thence southward along the west side of the Barracks and the National Gallery

as far as the rear of the houses on the north side of Pall Mall East, and along the rear of the said houses to Haymarket, from thence northward along the centre of Haymarket and Great Windmill-street as far as the rear of No. 20, Coventry-street, eastward along the rear of the houses on the north side of Coventry-street as far as the rear of Saint Peter's Church, northward along the rear of Saint Peter's Church and the Trocadero, thence eastward along the rear of Avenue-mansions and Arundel-buildings, northward between Arundel-buildings and Regency-mansions, and along the eastern end of the Lyric Theatre, thence westward along the rear of the houses on the south side of Archer-street as far as the rear of the houses on the east side of Great Windmill-street, and northward along the rear of the said houses and those on the east side of Lexington-street to the junction of Lexington-street with Broad-street, from thence eastward along the centre of Broad-street as far as the rear of the houses on the east side of Poland-street, northward along the rear of the said houses as far as the rear of the houses on the north side of Noel-street, eastward along the rear of the said houses as far as the rear of the houses on the west side of Berwick-street, northward along the rear of the said houses as far as the rear of the houses on the south side of Oxford-street, eastward along the rear of the said houses as far as the rear of No. 3, Oxford-street, thence between Nos. 3 and 5, Oxford-street and eastward along the rear of No. 120, New Oxford-street and the houses on the north side of New Oxford-street to the before-mentioned point in the centre of Dyott-street, hereby makes application to you, the New River Company, being the Company within the water limits in which such district is situate, and requires you to give a constant supply of water in such district, upon and from the first day of April next.

Dated this thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Sealed by Order,
H. DE LA HOOKE,
Clerk of the Council.

The Metropolis Water Act, 1871.

The Local Government Act, 1888.

To the Governor and Company of the New River brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London, commonly called "The New River Company."

THE London County Council, as the Metropolitan authority within the meaning of sec. 8 of the Metropolis Water Act, 1871, being of opinion that there should be a constant supply of water in the district hereinafter described, that is to say:—

The district or area which is bounded by an imaginary line running from a point in the centre of Dyott-street, opposite the rear of the houses on the north side of New Oxford-street, along the centre of Dyott-street, as far as the rear of the houses on the south side of New Oxford-street, and eastward along the rear of the said houses as far as the rear of the houses on the east side of Bloomsbury-street. From thence, southward along the rear of the houses on the east side of Bloomsbury-street, Endell-street, Bow-street, and Wellington-street, to Exeter-street, along the west side of the Gaiety Theatre, and the rear of the houses on the east side of Wellington-street, as far as Somerset House, and thence along the east side of Wellington-street, to the river Thames, thence eastward along the north bank of the Thames to the municipal boundary of the city of London, northward along the said boundary, to Holborn, thence westward along the centre of High Holborn, to opposite No. 134, between Nos. 134 and 135, and westward along the rear of the houses on the north side of High Holborn and New Oxford-street, as far as the before-mentioned point in the centre of Dyott-street, hereby makes application to you, the New River Company, being the Company within the water limits in which such district is situate, and requires you to give a constant supply of water in such district, upon and from the first day of December next.

Dated this thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Sealed by Order,
H. DE LA HOOKE,
Clerk of the Council.

The Metropolis Water Act, 1871.

The Local Government Act, 1888.

To the Governor and Company of Chelsea Waterworks.

THE London County Council, as the Metropolitan authority, within the meaning of sec. 8 of the Metropolis Water Act, 1871, being of opinion that there should be a constant supply of water in the district hereinafter described, that is to say:—

The District bounded on the west and south-west by the West London Extension Railway and Chelsea Dock, on the north by a line drawn from the West London Extension Railway along the rear of the houses on the south side of Richmond-road, and Old Brompton-road to Thistle-grove-lane. On the east by a line passing through the centre of Thistle-grove-lane to Fulham-road, and thence along the rear of houses on the east side of Beaufort-street to the Thames on the south side by the river Thames, hereby makes application to you, the Governor and Company of Chelsea Waterworks, being the Company within the water limits in which such district is situate, and requires you to give a constant supply of water in such district upon and from the first day of December next.

Dated this thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Sealed by order,
H. DE LA HOOKE,
Clerk of the Council.

The Local Government Act, 1888.

To the Governor and Company of the New River brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London, commonly called "The New River Company."

THE London County Council, as the Metropolitan authority within the meaning of section 8 of the Metropolis Water Act, 1871, being of opinion that there should be a constant supply of water in the district hereinafter described, that is to say:—

The district or area which is bounded by an imaginary line running from a point in the centre of High-street, Kingsland, by Ridley-road, eastward along the centre of the North London Railway as far as the south-west corner of Cottrill-road, thence southward as far as the rear of No. 9, Navarino-grove, westward along the rear of the houses on the north side of Navarino-grove as far as the rear of the houses on the east side of Navarino-road, southward along the rear of the said houses to Navarino-grove, westward along the centre of Navarino-grove to Navarino-road, and southward along the centre of Navarino-road to Graham-road, from thence westward along the centre of Graham-road to opposite No. 126, southward between Nos. 124 and 126 to Wilton-road, westward along the centre of Wilton-road as far as No. 21, thence southward along the eastern boundary wall of No. 21, Wilton-road, and the houses on the east side of Greenwood-road as far as the rear of the houses on the north side of Forest-road, westward along the rear of the said houses to Greenwood-road, and southward along the centre of Greenwood-road as far as the rear of the houses on the south side of Forest-road, from thence westward along the rear of the said houses as far as the rear of No. 77, Richmond-road, southward between Nos. 75 and 77, and 164 and 166, Richmond-road, as far as the rear of the houses on the north side of Gayhurst-road, westward along the rear of the said houses as far as No. 142, Richmond-road, then southward along the eastern boundary walls of the said No. 142, and the houses on the east side of Malvern-road to Albert-road, westward along the centre of Albert-road to opposite No. 28, southward between Nos. 26 and 28 as far as the rear of the houses on the north side of Albion-road, westward along the rear of the said houses as far as No. 21, and southward between Nos. 21 and 23 Albion-road, to the boundary of the parish of St. Leonard, Shoreditch, from thence westward along the said boundary to Kingsland-road, and northward along the centre of Kingsland-road and High-street to the beforementioned point by Ridley-road, hereby makes application to you, the New River Company, being the company within the water limits in which such district is situate, and requires you to give a constant supply of water in such district upon and from the first day of December next.

Dated this thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Sealed by Order,
H. DE LA HOOKE,
Clerk of the Council.

In the Matter of Letters Patent granted to William Lawrence and George Lawrence, both of Notting Hill, in the county of Middlesex, Brewers' Engineers, for the invention of "Improvements in refrigerators and calorifiers." —Dated the 12th day of February, 1878, and sealed the 6th day of August, 1878, and numbered 580.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is the intention of Lawrence and Company Limited, being a Joint Stock Company, registered under the Companies Acts on the 24th day of April, 1890, assignee of the said Letters Patent, to present a Petition to Her Majesty in Council, praying that the term of the said Letters Patent may be extended; and notice is hereby further given, that on the 4th day of September next, or on such subsequent day as the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council shall appoint for the purpose, application will be made to the said Committee that a time may be fixed for hearing the matter of the said Petition; and any person or persons desirous of being heard in opposition to the said Petition, must enter a caveat to that effect in the said Privy Council on or before the said 4th day of September next.—Dated the 26th day of July, 1891.

HERBERT and Co., 18, Buckingham-street, Strand, London, W.C., Patent Agents.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890, and in the Matter of the Borough of Portsmouth (Kingston, Fratton, and Southsea) Tramways Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition for the winding up of the abovenamed Company by the High Court of Justice, was, on the 3rd day of August, 1891, presented to the said Court by Edward Wilmot Williams, of Riversdale, Ware, in the county of Herts, Advertising Agent, a creditor of the said Company; and that the said petition is directed to be heard before Mr. Justice Stirling, sitting at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on the 31st day of October, 1891; and any creditor or contributory of the said Company desirous to support or oppose the making of an Order on the said petition, may appear at the time of hearing by himself or his Counsel for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said Company requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.

SUTTON, OMMANNEY, and RENDALL, 3 and 4, Great Winchester-street, London, E.C., Solicitors for the Petitioner.

NOTE.—Any person who intends to appear on the hearing of the said petition must serve on or send by post to the abovenamed, notice in writing of his intention so to do. The notice must state the full name and address of the person, or, if a firm, the name and address of the firm, and must be signed by the person or firm, or his or their Solicitor (if any), and must be served, or, if posted, must be sent by post in sufficient time to reach the abovenamed not later than six o'clock in the afternoon of the 30th day of October, 1891.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Chitty.

In the Matter of the North British Australasian Company Limited and Reduced; and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order of the High Court of Justice, made by Mr. Justice Chitty, on the 4th July, 1891, in the abovementioned matters. It was ordered that the Special Resolution passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 12th May, 1891, and confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting, held on the 28th May, 1891, and which Resolution was in the words and figures following, that is to say:—"That the capital of the Company be reduced from £216,955 2s. 6d. Stock, divided into £49,972 irredeemable Guaranteed Stock, and £50,000 redeemable Guaranteed Stock, and £116,983 2s. 6d. Ordinary Stock into £150,090 4s. 11d., divided into £49,972 irredeemable Guaranteed Stock and £50,000 redeemable Guaranteed Stock, and £50,118 4s. 11d. Ordinary Stock, and that such reduction be effected by cancelling the sum of £66,864 17s. 7d., part of the capital paid up on and represented by the Ordinary Stock as being capital which has been lost or is unrepresented by available assets, and by reducing the nominal amount of the Ordinary Stock standing in the name of each holder in rateable proportion" be confirmed. And it was ordered that the words "and reduced" form part of the name of the said Company until after the 4th August, 1891. And notice is hereby also given, that the Order has been produced to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, and a copy thereof has been delivered to him, together with a Minute, approved by the said Judge, in the words and figures following, namely:—"The capital of the North British Australasian Company Limited is £150,090 4s. 11d. Stock, divided into £49,972 irredeemable Guaranteed Stock and £50,000 redeemable Guaranteed Stock, and £50,118 4s. 11d. Ordinary Stock, instead of the former capital of £216,955 2s. 6d. Stock, divided into £49,972 irredeemable Guaranteed Stock, £50,000 redeemable Guaranteed Stock and £116,983 2s. 6d. Ordinary Stock. At the time of the registration of this Minute, the whole of the said Guaranteed Stock and Ordinary Stock has been issued, and has been and is to be deemed fully paid up," and such Order and Minute have been duly registered by the said Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.—Dated this 31st day of July, 1891.

BUDD, JOHNSONS, and JECKS, 24, Austin-friars, London, E.C., Solicitors for the Company.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 24th day of July, 1891, and made by Mr. Justice North, in the Matter of ex parte the Undertaking of the Scarborough, Bridlington, and West Riding Junction Railways Bill; and in the Matter of the Scarborough, Bridlington, and West Riding Junction Railways Acts, 1885, 1888, and 1891; and in the Matter of an Act passed in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter 20, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the second year of Her present Majesty for providing for the custody of certain moneys paid in pursuance of the Standing Orders of either House of Parliament by subscribers to works or undertakings to be effected under the authority of Parliament" (1885, S., No. 3388); any landowners or other persons whose property has been interfered with or otherwise rendered less valuable by the commencement, construction, or abandonment of the Scarborough, Bridlington, and West Riding Junction Railways, or any portion thereof, or who have been subjected to injury or loss in consequence of the compulsory powers of taking property conferred upon the Scarborough, Bridlington, and West Riding Junction Railways Company by the abovementioned Acts, or any or either of them, and for which injury or loss no compensation or inadequate compensation has been paid, are, on or before Wednesday, the 26th day of August, 1891, to come in and prove their claims, at the chambers of Mr. Justice Kekewich (which chambers will be open for vacation business), the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Friday, the 28th day of August, 1891, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated the 28th day of July, 1891.

Reversionary Interest Society Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an Extraordinary General Court of Proprietors of the Reversionary Interest Society Limited will be held at the office of the Society, 17, King's Arms-yard, London, E.C., on Thursday, the 27th of August, 1891, at twelve o'clock, noon, when the subjoined resolutions, which were passed by the requisite majorities at the Extraordinary General Court of Proprietors, held on the 30th of July, 1891, will be submitted for confirmation as special resolutions:—

1. "That the following Clause be added to the Society's Deed of Settlement:—'That the Society may from time to time borrow and raise money for the purposes of the Society's business, and secure the repayment thereof by bonds, debentures, debenture stock, or mortgage debentures, perpetual or terminable (payable to bearer or otherwise), and with or without a trust deed, and for this purpose may mortgage or charge the undertaking and all or any of the property of the Society, including its capital for the time being uncalled. Provided that the total indebtedness of the Society under this clause shall not at any time exceed the amount of the paid-up share capital of the Society for the time being.'

2. "That the Directors are hereby authorized to apply to the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice to confirm the foregoing addition to the Society's Deed of Settlement under the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

3. "That in the event of such confirmation being obtained the following Clause be added to the Society's Deed of Settlement:—'That the Directors may from time to time, at their discretion, raise or borrow any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Society, and secure the repayment thereof in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects (within the limits of the borrowing powers of the Society) as they think fit.'

4. "That the following new clause be added to the Society's Deed of Settlement:—'That the Directors may receive from any proprietor willing to advance the same, and upon such terms and conditions as they think fit, the moneys which may from time to time be payable on any share or shares held by such proprietor, beyond the sums actually paid upon the same, and whether any call shall have been made upon such share or shares or not.'

5. "That the following clause be substituted for the existing clause 53 of the Society's Deed of Settlement:—'That the Directors may invest any of the moneys not immediately required for the purposes of the Society's business in any of the investments authorized by the Trust Investment Act, 1889, or by the law regulating the investment of trust funds for the time being, and may from time to time vary any such investments, and may deposit the whole or any part of such moneys with any bankers or banking company carrying on business in England either at call or for a fixed term, and on such terms and conditions as they shall think fit.'"
