PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by The Board of Agriculture Act 1889 it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty the Queen in Council from time to time by order to transfer to the Board of Agriculture such powers and duties of any Government department as are conferred by or in pursuance of any statute, and appear to Her Majesty to relate to agriculture or forestry, and to be of an administrative character.

And whereas certain powers and duties relating to agriculture and being of an administrative character were conferred upon the Board of Trade by The Corn Returns Act 1882.

And whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council that the aforesaid powers and duties of the Board of Trade should be transferred to the Board of Agriculture in accordance with the provisions of The Board of Agriculture Act, 1889.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all the powers and duties which were conferred upon the Board of Trade by The Corn Returns Act 1882 shall be and they are hereby on the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, transferred to the Board of Agriculture.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:-

In Wem Church Burial-ground near the Railway Station, in the parish of Wem, until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

In the parish churchyard of East Haddon, in the county of Northampton, until the twenty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

In the parish churchyard of South Crosland (Almondbury), in the county of York, until the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.
