AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of July, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-eighth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting an union of two contiguous benefices within the metropolis—namely the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint George in the East, situate in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Matthew, Pell-street, situate in the county and diocese aforesaid.

“Whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London has caused proposals for a scheme for effecting an union of the said two benefices to be laid before us, which proposals are prepared under the seventh and eighth sections of the Act hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter referred to as the said Act, and are approved by the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, and also as the Patron, in right of his See, of the said rectory of Saint George in the East and of the said vicarage of Saint Matthew, Pell-street, and the same proposals are also assented to by the vestries of the two parishes concerned—that is to say, by the vestry of the parish of Saint George in the East, and by the vestry of the New Parish of Saint Matthew Pell-street.

“And whereas it appears to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to be expedient that the said proposed union of the said two benefices should be effected, and that such arrangements relating thereto, and to the other matters hereinafter referred to, should be made as are hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the Reverend Charles Henry Turner, Clerk in Holy Orders, is now the incumbent of both of the said two benefices and has expressed his willingness, in the event of the said two benefices being legally united, to become the incumbent of the same united benefice.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the said Frederick, Bishop of the said Diocese of London, as such Bishop and Patron as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he hath to this Scheme set his hand and affixed his Episcopal seal) and with the consent of the Vestry of the said parish of Saint George in the East, and with the consent of the Vestry of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Pell-street (in testimony whereof the Scheme is signed, in the case of each Vestry, by the Chairman of a Meeting of the same Vestry duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose all that is in this Scheme contained under the several parts or headings hereinafter mentioned, as follows:—

PART I.

“As to the proposed union itself we recommend and propose

“1. That the said benefice of Saint George in the East and the said benefice of Saint Matthew, Pell-street, shall upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, be united into one benefice under the style or title of ‘The Rectory of Saint George in the East with the Vicarage of Saint Matthew Pell-street.’

“2. That the said Charles Henry Turner shall become the first Incumbent of the said united benefice, and if any admission be necessary it shall be lawful for the Bishop of London for the time being to admit the said Charles Henry Turner to the united benefice as its first Incumbent without any form or fee, of presentation, institution or induction.

“3. That the patronage of the said united benefice shall belong to, and be vested in the Bishop of the said diocese of London and his successors.

PART II.

“As to the parish church of the united benefice and matters connected therewith we recommend and propose
