*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, September 3, 1891.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following copy of a Quarantine Notice issued by the Austro-Hungarian Government, viz. :—

CIRCULAR from the Imperial and Royal Maritime Department to all Imperial and Royal Port Officers and Authorities and Maritime Sanitary Officials.

In view of the spread of cholera in Syria, the Maritime Department, under orders from the Imperial and Royal Ministry of Commerce, conveyed in the telegram No. 35245 of this day's date, orders :—

The quarantine regulations issued in the Departmental Circular of the 5th of July last, No. 6018; are extended to the coast between Messina and Tripoli exclusively.

Arrivals from the coast between Messina and Adalia and from the coast between Tripoli and Jaffa, inclusively, will be subject on arrival, to a rigorous medical inspection if they have had a voyage free from illness (voyage indemne) and are in every respect in a normal condition, otherwise the treatment to be accorded to them will be decided by the Maritime Department, to whom the case should be reported immediately.
