"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Bedford Minor in the cathedral church of Lincoln and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said Prebend which occurred on or about the fifth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two by the decease of the Reverend Thomas Trevenen Penrose the then Prebendary, all the lands and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said Prebend (except rights of patronage) became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant but are now in our possession (with the exception of a small portion of land which has been sold for the purpose of forming a railway) but some portions thereof are on account of their character or situation unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands and hereditaments or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign all or any of the said lands and hereditaments formerly belonging to the said Prebend and so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

Board of Trade (Harbour Department), London, November 30, 1891.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for the Colonies, a copy of the Cyprus Gazette, containing the following Quarantine Regulations:—

No. 1475.

Quarantine Regulations under the powers conferred on him by the "Quarantine Ordinance, 1879," His Excellency the High Commissioner has been pleased to make the following Regulations:—

QUARANTINE.

1. Quarantine shall be of two kinds, viz.:—
Quarantine of observation and strict quarantine.

2. Quarantine of observation may be imposed for any period not exceeding five days, during which period the vessel will be isolated and will be daily visited by the Health Officer approaching on the windward side within speaking distance to ascertain the state of health on board, and whether proper hygienic measures are being taken on board to secure ventilation and cleanliness.

A vessel undergoing quarantine of observation may be subjected to strict quarantine if a case of infectious or contagious disease appears, or is suspected to have taken place on board.

3. Strict quarantine consists of isolation for such period as the Health Officer (with the approval of the High Commissioner), having regard to the circumstances, shall think fit to impose, together with such measures of purification and disinfection as the Health Officer shall consider necessary.

Passengers.

4. Passengers arriving in Cyprus by any ship which shall be placed in strict quarantine, may be landed at a quarantine station, there to perform quarantine. The duration of such quarantine shall be the same as that which the ship has been ordered to undergo, but quarantine commenced on board ship may be completed in the quarantine station.

5. Passengers who have performed their term of quarantine on board ship shall, before being allowed free pratique, be landed at the quarantine station with their baggage, and their baggage and clothing shall undergo such process of disinfection as the Health Officer shall direct.

6. In the event of a case of cholera, yellow fever, plague, or small-pox occurring on board a ship undergoing strict quarantine, or in a quarantine station during a term of quarantine, the term shall recommence from that date, and the person attacked by the disease shall be at once isolated and all possible measures shall be taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

Goods.

7. For the purposes of quarantine, goods may be divided into three classes, viz.:—Very susceptible, susceptible, and non-susceptible.

(i.) Very susceptible goods consist of every description of rags, all worn clothing of suspected origin, all effects known to have been in the possession of persons who have died from cholera, yellow fever, plague, or small-pox, and the clothing and effects in use of persons suffering from any of the above diseases.

(ii.) Susceptible goods are the following, whether in an unmanufactured state or manufactured or dressed in any way:—

Hides, skins, hair, feathers, wool, flax, hemp, tow, cotton, silk, vegetable fibres, hay, straw, herbs, pressed or in bale, letters, newspapers, paper packets, carpets, and all objects which are mixed, connected, gummed, sewn, or in any way united with susceptible material so that separation cannot take place.

(iii.) Non-susceptible goods are all goods not comprised in the categories of very susceptible and susceptible goods.

8. Very susceptible goods may not be landed from a vessel in quarantine, but must be repelled or burnt.

9. Susceptible goods may be landed from a vessel in quarantine in a quarantine station, and will there undergo such process of disinfection as the Health Officer shall direct.

10. Non-susceptible goods may be landed in such manner as the Health Officer shall direct, and shall be delivered to the owners thereof without disinfection.

Mails.

11. Mails conveyed to Cyprus in vessels arriving from infected ports will be landed at a quarantine station, and will there be subjected to such process of disinfection as the Health Officer shall think fit, except mails arriving from non-infected countries and properly protected in tarred bags. Such mails after the removal of the outside covers will be delivered, without any further process, to the Post Office Authorities.

General.

12. No vessel shall be placed in quarantine without a cause being assigned, which shall be communicated to the captain or officer in charge of the vessel.

13. One or more guards shall be placed on board every vessel in quarantine with instructions to prevent communication, and to make such reports to the Health Officer as he shall require.

14. A vessel to which free pratique has been refused may put to sea again before being placed in quarantine, or while undergoing quarantine. In such case the original bill of health shall be returned to the vessel, endorsed by the Health Officer, with a statement clearly showing the fact that the vessel was not admitted to free pratique the length of her stay, and the state of health of those on board.

In such cases passengers whose destination is Cyprus, and cargo for Cyprus or for transshipment at Cyprus, shall be landed at a quarantine station to undergo the quarantine imposed on the vessel.

15. Every person hindering or evading, or attempting to hinder or evade, the carrying out of these regulations shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence under these regulations, within the meaning of clause 32 of the "Quarantine Ordinance, 1879."

Sanitary Measures at the Port of Arrival.

1. Immediately on the arrival of a vessel, or as soon after as practicable, a Health Officer shall approach the vessel on the windward side, within speaking distance, and should he find that she carries a foul bill of health or has called at and communicated with a country scheduled as infected with cholera, plague, yellow fever or small-pox, he shall at once order the vessel to proceed to the quarantine ground, there to undergo such quarantine as may have been directed to be imposed on such arrivals. Should the Health Officer find that the vessel carries a clean bill of health, and has not called at and communicated with a country scheduled as infected with cholera, plague, yellow fever, or small-pox, he will enquire as to the health at the port of departure, and any intermediate port at which the vessel may have called, and the state of health of the passengers, if any.

NOTE.—All vessels which may enter a port in Cyprus, from whatever port they may arrive, will, before communicating with the shore, or before allowing any boat to approach, have to be admitted to pratique.

2. Should the answers be satisfactory the Health Officer will go alongside, examine the bill of health, and, if this is satisfactory, will board the vessel where he will receive the usual pratique depositions signed by the master and surgeon (if any). Should this deposition be satisfactory, and should the Health Officer have no reason to doubt its correctness, he will admit the vessel to free pratique.

3. If, on the contrary, the answers or depositions are unsatisfactory, or the Health Officer entertains any doubt respecting the condition of the vessel, he will not admit her to pratique, but will receive the bill of health, &c., in the special receptacle, in the same manner as from a foul vessel; and he will direct the Master to deliver any mails he may have to the Post Quarantine Department and await further instructions. Should the Health Officer employed on this duty be other than the Medical Health Officer of the port or district, he will without delay acquaint the latter of the circumstances and of the preliminary steps taken.

4. The following are the cases in which the provisions of section 3 shall be applied—

(a.) When a vessel, though provided with a clean bill of health, has had on board during the voyage ascertained cases of disease.

(b.) When a vessel has communicated at sea with anything likely to compromise her sanitary condition.

(c.) When a vessel on her arrival presents an infected sanitary condition connected with either her passengers or cargo.

(d.) When there exists any doubt as to the truth of the tenor of the bill of health.

(e.) When a vessel arrives from any port in Syria or Asia Minor where a British Consul is stationed without having the bill of health endorsed by such Consul, as required by the Orders of His Excellency the High Commissioner contained in Gazette Nos. 83, paragraph 7, of 3rd March, 1882, and 130, paragraph 8, of 1st May, 1884. (This sub-section does not apply to vessels of war.)

(f.) When a vessel is without a bill of health, or when the bill of health is irregular or incorrect, or when the vessel has touched at an intermediate port without obtaining the required endorsement.

(g.) When a death has occurred on board during the voyage.

(h.) When a vessel arrives from an infected port, but has received pratique at an intermediate port without having performed quarantine.

5. When a vessel has been refused pratique, or pratique has been delayed for any of the causes mentioned, the Medical Health Officer of the port or district will, as soon as possible, visit the vessel and act according to circumstances, as follows:—

i. If the vessel has not been allowed pratique for reasons stated in section 4, sub-sections (b.), (c.) or (d.), he will investigate the case and medically inspect the passengers and crew, and, if he finds that the condition of the vessel is such as is stated in any one of those sub-sections, he will order the vessel to proceed to the quarantine ground, and will report the case with full particulars to the Chief Medical Officer, who will recommend to the Government the adoption of such measures as the circumstances of the case may seem to him to render necessary.

ii. If the condition of the vessel comes under sub-sections (a), (e), (f), (g), or (h), he will medically inspect the vessel, and if he finds no suspicion of communicable disease he will allow pratique. The case of vessels arriving without a bill of health or without having the bill of health properly viséd, will be dealt with by the imposition of a fine or otherwise as provided by law.

iii. If the condition of the vessel comes under sub-sections (a), (e), (f), (g), or (h), and the Medical Health Officer has any suspicion as regards the health of the vessel he will proceed as in paragraph 5, sub-section i.

6. Except under special circumstances pratique shall not be granted except between the hours of sunrise and sunset.

By His Excellency's Command,

T. M. O'BRIEN,

Chief Secretary to Government.

Troödos, 30th October, 1891.

NOTE.—The penalty for an offence under any of these regulations is a fine not exceeding £50, or imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, or both. (Vide clause 32, Ordinance X of 1879.)

FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 Vict., c. 16, s. 53.

OVERTIME.—ADDITIONAL TWO HOURS.

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, section 53, provides as follows :—

The regulations of this Act with respect to the employment of young persons and women shall not prevent the employment in the factories and workshops or parts thereof to which this exception applies of young persons and of women during a period of employment beginning at 6 o'clock in the morning and ending at 8 o'clock in the evening, or beginning at 7 o'clock in the morning and ending at 9 o'clock in the evening, or beginning at 8 o'clock in the morning and ending at 10 o'clock in the evening, if they are employed in accordance with the following conditions ; namely,

(1.) There shall be allowed to every such young person and woman for meals during the period of employment not less than two hours, of which half an hour shall be after five o'clock in the evening ; and

(2.) Any such young person or woman shall not be so employed on the whole for more than five days in any one week, nor for more than 48 days in any 12 months :

This exception applies to the factories and workshops and parts thereof specified in Part of the Third Schedule to this Act.

Where it is proved to the satisfaction of a Secretary of State that in any class of non-textile factories or workshops or parts thereof it is necessary by reason of the material which is the subject of the manufacturing process or handicraft therein being liable to be spoiled by the weather, or by reason of press of work arising at certain recurring seasons of the year, or by reason of the liability of the business to a sudden press of orders arising from unforeseen events, to employ young persons and women in manner authorized by this exception, and that such employment will not injure the health of the young persons and women affected thereby, he may, by order made under this part of this Act, extend this exception to such factories or workshops or parts thereof.

And whereas Part 2 of the same Act, section 63, provides as follows :

Where it appears to a Secretary of State that the adoption of any special means or provision for the cleanliness or ventilation of a factory or workshop is required for the protection of the health of any child, young person, or woman employed, in pursuance of an exception under this part of this Act, either for a longer period than is otherwise allowed by this Act, or at night, he may by order made under this part of this Act direct that the adoption of such means or provision shall be a condition of such employment :

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that in the non-textile factories and workshops of the class mentioned in the Schedule hereunder, it is necessary, by reason of press of work arising at certain recurring seasons of the year, and of the liability of the business to a sudden press of orders arising from unforeseen events, to employ young persons and women in manner authorized by this exception, and that such employment will not injure the health of the young persons and women affected thereby, provided that it be subject to the condition hereinafter appearing :

Now I, the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend this exception accordingly : Provided that it shall be a condition of the employment of any young person or woman under this extended exception that there shall be a cubic space of at least four hundred feet for every young person and woman so employed.

This Order shall come into effect on the 1st day of December, and shall continue in force until the 24th day of December, 1891, inclusive, and no longer.

Maximum Dimensions and Weight.

4. Except by permission of the Postmaster-General, there shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post under this Warrant any Parcel the dimensions of which shall exceed in length three feet six inches, or in length and girth measured together six feet (such girth being measured round the thickest part of such parcel), or which shall exceed in weight eleven pounds.

Prepayment.

5. The postage chargeable as hereinbefore mentioned shall in all cases (except as otherwise provided in this Warrant) be prepaid at the time of posting, and such prepayment shall in the United Kingdom be effected by means of adhesive postage stamps, or at such Post Offices, within such hours, and under and subject to such regulations as the Postmaster-General shall from time to time prescribe, in money.

Times of Posting.

6. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post may, in the United Kingdom, be posted on any day of the week except Sunday, but shall not be posted on Sundays, or in England or Ireland on Christmas Day or Good Friday, and in Scotland on either of the two Sacramental Fast Days, except in the cases next hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

Where the delivery of Parcels on Sundays, or any of the other days aforesaid, at certain Post Offices, to addressees calling for the same, may hereafter be specially authorized by the Postmaster-General, the posting of Parcels on Sun-

- (3.) Where the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained from the Parcel, notice shall be publicly given (by affixing the same at such place or places, or in such other manner as the Postmaster-General may direct), and notice shall also be given to the Post Office of Sydney that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, and upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter mentioned, be given up upon the personal application of the sender or his agent, or be returned to the sender by post.

- (5.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.
- (6.) Where in the case of a Parcel which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction, the sender corrects the address of the Parcel, the Parcel shall be forwarded to the corrected address, subject to the following conditions:—

Returned Letter Office, no new charge shall be made with respect to the delivery of the Parcel.

- (b.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is not within the same free delivery as the original address, or the Parcel at the time of such correction is lying at a Returned Letter Office, there shall be paid a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.
- (7.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for re-direction or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."
- (8.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage, according to the rate fixed by this Warrant, and in such case the said rate of postage and all other charges to which the Parcel has become liable, if not prepaid by the sender, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to him.
- (9.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.
- (10.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the Parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Re-direction to places out of United Kingdom.

12. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom, to any country or place within which a Parcel Post to or from the United Kingdom or the New Hebrides is established, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of such re-direction a new and distinct rate of postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like Parcel from the United Kingdom to the country or place to which it may be re-directed, and such postage, if not paid at the time of such re-direction, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to the addressee.

Re-direction to places within United Kingdom.

13. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel, a new and distinct rate of postage, equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been originally chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland parcel.

The four buoys are conical, painted green and white in horizontal stripes, and marked "Torpedo," viz.:—

No. 1 buoy is moored in 3½ fathoms water, in line with and half way between Redding Point and Queen's Grounds Buoy.

No. 2 buoy is moored in 5½ fathoms water, about 750 yards west of Queen's Grounds Buoy.

No. 3 buoy is moored in 5½ fathoms water, about 750 yards west of No. 2 buoy, and S.W. from New Rock.

No. 4 buoy is moored in  $3\frac{1}{2}$  fathoms water, north of No. 3 buoy, and half way between it and the shore.

Though loaded torpedoes are not generally laid in these areas, there are various obstructions that might injure a vessel.

The depths given are at low water ordinary spring tides.

NOTE.—When fish torpedo practice is taking place from landing place in centre of the break-water, to the eastward, a red flag is hoisted at the flagstaff there, to warn vessels not to use the Eastern Channel.

AUSTRALIA.—NORTH-WEST COAST.

Reefs near Montalivet Islands.

INFORMATION has been received from Commander W. U. Moore, Her Majesty's surveying-vessel "Penguin," dated 17th September, 1891, of the existence of the undermentioned reefs lying near Montalivet Islands—the result of recent examination of the locality:—

1. Ingram Reef originally reported by Mr. H. Lee, commanding the Adelaide Steamship Company's vessel "Rob Roy," is one mile in length in a north-west and south-east direction, and three cables broad, with depths of 28 to 30 fathoms around. The shallowest part, a coral patch of small extent, is awash at low water, and lies with the northern Montalivet Island bearing S. by W., distant  $6\frac{1}{2}$  miles, or in approximately on Admiralty Charts lat.  $14^{\circ} 6' 55'' S.$ , long.  $125^{\circ} 20' 45'' E.$  The sea does not usually break on this reef except near low water. The "Penguin" passed twice within a mile of it before finding it, and though the weather was favourable, no indication of shoal water was seen.

2. Albert Reef, lying westward of the West Montalivet Island, appears to be detached from that island, but vessels should not attempt to pass between. The north-west part, which dries at low water, is situated in approximately lat.  $14^{\circ} 11' S.$ , long.  $125^{\circ} 6' E.$

3. Rob Roy Reefs extend about 6 miles in a north and south direction, with a breadth of about 3 miles. The western breakers lie in approximately lat.  $14^{\circ} 25' S.$ , long.  $124^{\circ} 50' E.$ ; the northern breaker is situated in approximately lat.  $14^{\circ} 22' S.$ , long.  $124^{\circ} 52' E.$  About half a mile south-east of the northern breaker there is a sand cay, which is awash at half tide.

CAUTION.—As in the neighbourhood of the dangers near Montalivet Islands the tides are strong, the banks and reefs steep-to, and the water unusually turbid, great care is necessary when navigating in the locality.

The depths given are at low water spring tides.

Subsequent examination was made, and the rock was found to be about 16 yards in length and quite narrow, with 6 feet at low water on its shoalest part; it lies with Cloudberry Point bearing N.W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  W.  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles.
