TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1891.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of November, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 26 of "The Pluralities Act, 1838," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial, or extra-parochial so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid,

"by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Lord Archbishop of York, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, made a Report dated the seventeenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one to Her Majesty in Council in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"The undersigned William Dalrymple by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of York, in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of Your Majesty's reign chapter one hundred and six hereby reports to Your Majesty in Council.

"1. That there is in the county and diocese of York the parish of the vicarage of Kirk Leavington which comprises the township of Low Worsall, the boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

"That the population of the said parish of Kirk Leavington including the said township of Low Worsall is according to the last census five hundred and forty-eight, and that of the said township according to the same census is one hundred and eighty-four.

"The net annual value of the benefice of Kirk Leavington is three hundred pounds.

"The patronage of the said vicarage is vested in the said Archbishop in right of his Archbishopric and the Reverend Frederick Davies Brock is the present vicar thereof, both of whom are consenting parties to the scheme hereinafter proposed.

"2. That there is in the same county and diocese the parish of the vicarage of High Worsall the boundaries whereof are well known and defined and immediately adjoin the said township of Low Worsall now as aforesaid comprised within the boundaries of the said parish of Kirk Leavington.

"The population of the said parish of High Worsall is sixty-nine.

"The net annual value of the benefice of High Worsall is seventy-two pounds.

"The patronage of the said vicarage is vested in the Reverend Benjamin Charles Caffin vicar of Northallerton in the said county and diocese in
