*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, January 14, 1892.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Telegram, dated 13th January, 1892, from Her Majesty's Representative at Alexandria, stating that Egypt has imposed quarantine on vessels which left the district of Joeban in the Residency of Rembang, Java, on and after the 31st December, on account of reported cholera.

Admiralty, January 12, 1892.

HER Majesty the Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the Decoration of the Albert Medal of the Second Class on—

GEORGE HOAR, Boatman of the Tynemouth Coast Guard Station.

The following is an account of the services in respect of which the Decoration has been conferred:—

On the occasion of the wreck of the schooner "Peggy," during a severe gale with a very heavy sea on the night of the 13th October, 1891, after four men had been rescued from the wreck by means of the rocket apparatus, the Captain of the "Peggy" informed the Chief Officer of the Coast Guard that there was another man still on board the wreck in a disabled state, he having fallen out of the rigging on to the deck of the vessel in attempting to get into the breeches buoy.

GEORGE HOAR immediately volunteered to go off to the wreck and bring the man on shore, and was hauled off to the wreck, a distance of 150 yards, through the heavy sea, in the face of a tremendous gale from the south-east.

He found, on arriving at the vessel, that he could not reach the man, owing to the hawser having been secured fourteen feet above the deck (where the man lay helpless and in an unconscious state).

He then signalled to be hauled on shore again, to confer with the Chief Officer; shortly afterwards he was again hauled off, and on reaching the wreck the hawser was eased, so as to allow him (in the breeches buoy) to reach the man on the deck.

As the man was perfectly helpless, GEORGE HOAR with his legs, seized the man round the body, and held him with both hands by his coat-collar; and in this manner the two men were safely hauled on shore, the sea at times washing completely over them.

SCHEME FOR REGULATING THE HOLDING OF COURTS OF QUARTER SESSIONS FOR THE COUNTY OF LONDON, AS PROVIDED BY SECTION 42 (7) OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT.

Generally.

51 and 52 Vict., c. 41, s. 116.

1. The provisions of the Act 11 Geo 4, and 1 Will. 4, c. 70, as to the times for holding Quarter Sessions, shall not apply to the County of London.

2. Quarter Sessions shall be held at Clerkenwell and at Newington in the months of January, April, July, and October, in every year, and the first Session held in each of those months shall be General Quarter Sessions.

3. Adjourned Quarter Sessions shall be held at Clerkenwell in each of the months aforesaid at an interval of not less than two weeks or more than three weeks after the beginning of each Quarter Sessions held at Clerkenwell.

4. Adjourned Quarter Sessions shall be held at Newington in the months of February, May, August, and November.

5. A General Session shall be held at Clerkenwell in every month except in the months hereinbefore appointed for the holding of Quarter Sessions at Clerkenwell.

6. General Sessions shall be held at Newington in the months of March, June, September, and December in every year, and oftener, if need be.

7. An Adjourned General Session shall be held at Clerkenwell, for the disposal of business arising on the north side of the River Thames, in every month (except in the months hereinbefore appointed for the holding of Quarter Sessions at Clerkenwell) and shall begin at an interval of not less than two weeks or more than three weeks after the beginning of the General Session.

51 and 52 Vict., c. 41, s. 118 (10).

8. In the month of November in every year the Clerk of the Peace for the County of London shall prepare lists showing the days to be fixed for the Sessions to be held at Clerkenwell and Newington respectively during the ensuing year in accordance with the foregoing provisions. In the Lists so to be prepared special days shall be appointed for hearing appeals. The Lists so to be prepared shall be laid before the November General Sessions at Clerkenwell and the December General Sessions at Newington respectively, and shall be revised and settled by such Sessions respectively, and be printed on one paper in two parts or divisions, and be issued by the Clerk of the Peace for the County of London; and Sessions in accordance with such Lists, when so revised and settled, shall be held during the year at Clerkenwell and Newington respectively. Provided that, during the tenure of office of the existing Clerk of the Peace for the County of Surrey, the List of the Sessions to be held at Newington shall be prepared by him on a separate List, and such List, when revised and settled as aforesaid, shall be printed as a separate paper, and issued by him and not by the Clerk of the Peace of the County of London.

51 and 52 Vict., c. 41, s. 42 (6).

9. The Sessions so fixed shall so far as practicable be continued from day to day until the business to be dealt with at such Sessions is completed. And it shall be the duty of the Justices to take the steps necessary to secure that there shall be as many Courts sitting at the same time as may be required for the discharge of the business with proper expedition. For this purpose, (a) so long as the present Chairman holds office, in addition to the Court presided over by the Chairman, there may be a second Court, to be presided over by a person nominated in accordance with 14 and 15 Vict., c. 55, s. 15, and on the direction of the County Council approved by the Secretary of State, in pursuance of Sect. 42 (6) of the Local Government Act, 1888, a third Court, to be presided over either by a Deputy, as prescribed by 37 Vict., c. 7, s. 3, or by one of the Justices, and a fourth Court to be presided over by one of the Justices. Any of the above Courts may be held at the same time at Clerkenwell and Newington, and, subject to the provisions of this Scheme, shall be so held whenever necessary to prevent delay in the disposal of pending business; but only one nomination may be made under 14 and 15 Vict., c. 55, s. 15, and only one under 37 Vict., c. 7, s. 3.

(b.) Upon the present Chairman ceasing to hold office there may be held at the same time at Clerkenwell and at Newington, separate Courts of Quarter Sessions, and each of such Courts may divide itself into two or more Courts as may be necessary.

51 and 52 Vict., c. 41, s. 42 (6), and s. 116 (c).

10. Every Court of Sessions of the Peace held at Clerkenwell and at Newington, and every adjournment thereof, shall have the same jurisdiction in every respect, including the power of hearing and determining appeals, as if such Court were Quarter Sessions, and every Session shall, as circumstances require, be deemed to be Quarter or General Sessions, and, if held at different places, to be original or adjourned Sessions, and, if held simultaneously at two or more places, to be divided Courts of the same Sessions.

11. The Clerk of the Peace for the county of London shall (save as hereinafter mentioned) take all necessary and proper steps to convene all Sessions, and shall issue all necessary precepts to the Sheriff to secure the due attendance there of the Grand and Petty Juries; provided that during the tenure of office of the existing Clerk of the Peace for the county of Surrey all such duties shall, as respects the Sessions to be held at Newington, be performed by him.

51 and 52 Vict., c. 41, s. 118 (10).

12. Upon the present Clerk of the Peace for Surrey ceasing to hold office, the Clerk of the Peace for the time being of the County of London shall perform all the duties which are by law or by this Scheme imposed upon the Clerk of the Peace for Surrey in respect of the County of London.

51 and 52 Vict., c. 41, s. 116 (b).

13. Cases triable at Quarter Sessions and all other business to be disposed of at Quarter Sessions and arising on the North side of the River Thames shall be heard, determined, and disposed of at the Sessions held at Clerkenwell; and Cases triable at Quarter Sessions and all other business to be disposed of at Quarter Sessions and arising on the South side of the River Thames shall be heard, determined, and disposed of at the Sessions held at Newington.

51 and 52 Vict., c. 41, s. 116 (b).

14. All depositions, recognizances, notices, and other documents and things relating to cases triable, or business to be disposed of at Quarter Sessions and required by Law to be transmitted to Quarter Sessions or to the Clerk of the Peace, shall, in respect of all cases and matters arising North of the River Thames, be transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace for the County of London; and in respect of all cases and matters arising

South of the River Thames, shall be transmitted to the present Clerk of the Peace for the County of Surrey, and upon his ceasing to hold office, shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace for the time being of the County of London.

51 and 52 Vict., c. 41, s. 116 (b).

15. It shall be the duty of the Justices to take care that the above provisions for the disposal of business arising North and South respectively of the River Thames shall, so far as reasonably practicable, be strictly observed. Nevertheless, a committal for trial or recognizance shall not be invalidated, nor shall the powers of the Sessions be affected by any disregard of the provisions of this Scheme, as to the place or time of trial, and every Court of Sessions held in and for the County of London, at whatever place or time such Court is held, shall have complete power to hear, determine, and dispose of any case or matter arising in the County of London, notwithstanding an objection that such case or matter ought to be heard and determined at the Sessions held at another place or at another time.

51 and 52 Vict., c. 41, s. 117 (5), s. 118 (8), (10).

16. Nothing in this Scheme shall affect or take away any power given by law to the present Chairman of Quarter Sessions, or to the present Clerk of the Peace for the County of London, or to the present Clerk of the Peace for the County of Surrey.

As to Appeals under the Valuation (Metropolis) Act, 1869.

51 and 52 Vict., c. 41, s. 42 (10).

1. At every adjourned January Quarter Sessions held at Clerkenwell, sittings of the Court shall be fixed to hear appeals under the Valuation (Metropolis) Act, 1869.

2. Such sittings shall begin not earlier than the 1st February then next, and shall be so arranged as to enable the Court to determine all appeals (except where a valuation list or valuation is ordered) before the ensuing 31st March.

32 and 33 Vict., c. 67, s. 25.

3. The Court shall at the same Session appoint, with the consent of the Local Government Board, a Clerk and other persons to assist the Sessions in the performance of their duties under the Act.

51 and 52 Vict., c. 41, s. 42 (10).

4. A separate list shall be prepared of appeals relating to property in the city of London, and prior to the hearing of such appeals the Clerk of the Court (appointed under Order 3) shall send seven days' previous notice to the Clerk of the Peace of the city of London, for the information of the members of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the city of London appointed by that Court to attend and sit as Members of the Quarter Sessions for the County of London upon the hearing of such appeals.

32 and 33 Vict., c. 67, s. 26.

5. Appeals may be heard at Clerkenwell, or at Newington, or in the city of London, or at some or all of such places, at the same time, or at different times, as the Court shall from time to time determine.

32 and 33 Vict., c. 67, s. 25.

6. At every April Quarter Session held at Clerkenwell, the Court shall assign the remuneration (subject to the approval of the Local Government Board) of the Clerk and other officers appointed as aforesaid for the year ended the 31st March.

7. A separate account shall be kept of the expenses incurred by the sessions in respect of the exercise of its jurisdiction under the Act, and such account made up to the 31st March in every year shall be submitted to and be examined by the Court of the April Quarter Sessions held at Clerkenwell.

32 and 33 Vict., c. 67, s. 50.

8. Such account, when approved by the Court, shall be submitted by the Clerk of the Court (appointed under Order 3) for such audit as may be directed by the Local Government Board, with a view that the same, when audited, may be paid in manner prescribed by the Valuation (Metropolis) Act, 1869.

Collection of Parcels.

10. The Postmaster-General may, if he thinks fit, from time to time authorize such officers as he may direct to receive Parcels for the post under such regulations and conditions as he may from time to time prescribe.

Irregular Posting of Parcels.

11. Any Packet transmissible by Parcel Post from the United Kingdom which from any words or marks thereon, or other external evidence, appears to have been intended for transmission as a Parcel, but which has not been tendered for transmission as a Parcel, but has been posted in a Post Office Letter-box, or otherwise than according to the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the posting of Parcels, may, in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, either be detained or returned or given up to the sender, or be dealt with as follows, that is to say:—

(1.) If the said packet is fully prepaid with the letter or book-rate of postage, and otherwise conforms to the regulations as to the letter or book post, the same may be forwarded as a letter or book-packet (as the case may be).

(2.) If the said Packet is not fully prepaid with the letter or book-rate of postage the same may be forwarded to its destination as a Parcel charged with the sum of one penny in addition to all other postage payable upon such Packet as a Parcel: Provided that the postage prepaid upon any such Packet shall be allowed in part payment of any postage or other sum charged under this clause.

Return and Disposal of Undelivered Parcels.

12. With regard to—

(a.) Parcels which are addressed to a Post Office in the United Kingdom to be called for, or to a place in the United Kingdom beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district, or to a ship at any port in the United Kingdom, and which are not called for or delivered within such reasonable times as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe: and

(b.) Parcels which cannot be delivered in the United Kingdom for want of a true direction, or by reason that the addressee is dead, or cannot be found, or has refused the same, or has refused to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason;

the following provisions shall (subject to the provisions of the Warrant of the said Commissioners of the 12th day of December, 1888, relating to Foreign and Colonial Parcels) apply (that is to say):

(1.) The Parcel shall, as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct, be retained at or forthwith forwarded to such place as the Postmaster-General may from time to time appoint, and may, if necessary, be there opened and examined.

(2.) Where the name and address of the sender can be ascertained from the Parcel or the declaration accompanying the same, notice shall be given by post to the sender through the Post Office of Queensland, that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, be given up to the sender or his agent upon personal application at such place as aforesaid, or at the request of the sender will be forwarded to a corrected address or returned to him by post in either case upon the conditions hereinafter mentioned.

- (3.) Where the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained from the Parcel, notice shall be publicly given (by affixing the same at such place or places, or in such other manner as the Postmaster-General may direct), and notice shall also be given to the Post Office of Queensland that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, and upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter mentioned, be given up upon the personal application of the sender or his agent, or be returned to the sender by post.
- (4.) In any case the notice shall state that in default of the receipt by the Postmaster-General of an application for the Parcel, during a period to be specified in such notice from some person who, in the Postmaster-General's judgment, is entitled to receive the Parcel, it will be disposed of in such a manner as the Postmaster-General may direct.
- (5.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.
- (6.) Where in the case of a Parcel which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction, the sender corrects the address of the Parcel, the Parcel shall be forwarded to the corrected address, subject to the following conditions:—
 - (a.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is within the same free delivery as the original address, and the Parcel is not at the time of such correction lying at a Returned Letter Office, no new charge shall be made with respect to the delivery of the Parcel.
 - (b.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is not within the same free delivery as the original address, or the Parcel at the time of such correction is lying at a Returned Letter Office, there shall be paid a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.
- (7.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for re-direction or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."
- (8.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage, according to the rate fixed by this Warrant, and in such case the said rate of postage and all other charges to which the Parcel has become liable, if not prepaid by the sender, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to him.
- (9.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.
- (10.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the Parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Re-direction to Places out of United Kingdom.

13. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom, to any country or place with which a Parcel Post to or from the United Kingdom or Queensland is established, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of such re-direction a new and distinct rate of postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like Parcel from the United Kingdom to the country or place to which it may be re-directed, and such postage, if not paid at the time of such re-direction, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to the addressee.

Re-direction to Places within United Kingdom.

14. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel, a new and distinct rate of postage, equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been originally chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.

Remission of Re-direction Rates.

15. The Postmaster-General may wholly remit the rate of postage for re-direction on any Parcel addressed to the United Kingdom which may, on the request of the addressee thereof, be re-directed by an officer of the Post Office, and again forwarded by post to the same person at any address within the limits of the same free postal delivery as the address from which such Parcel was so re-directed.

Prohibitions.

16. There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any Parcel—
- (1.) Consisting of or containing any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any indecent or obscene article whether similar to the above or not; or
 - (2.) Having thereon or on the cover thereof any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, or grossly offensive character.
 - (3.) Containing any article or thing not authorized by the customs or other laws of the United Kingdom or Queensland.
 - (4.) Containing or bearing any letter or communication in the nature of a letter.

 - (g.) Any article or thing whatsoever which is likely to injure other Parcels in course of conveyance, or any receptacle in which the same are conveyed, or an officer of the Post Office or other person who may deal with such Parcel.

Any such Parcel, if posted or tendered for conveyance by post, may be detained, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

17. There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any Parcel consisting of or containing two or more Parcels or other Postal Packets (of the same or of different descriptions) addressed to different persons at different addresses; and any such Parcel, if posted or tendered for conveyance by Post, may be detained and either returned or given up to the sender thereof or dealt with or disposed of as the Postmaster-General may authorize.

Non-compliance with Regulations.

18. In any case not in this Warrant expressly provided for, where any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which in any respect infringes or fails to comply with the regulations in this Warrant contained, or any of them, such Parcel may, at the option of the Postmaster-General, either be dealt with as in this Warrant provided, with reference to Parcels which cannot be delivered, or be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Provision for Safety of Parcels.

19. In any case where any officer of the Post Office may find it necessary or expedient for the safety or protection of Parcels that any Parcel should be forwarded or delivered by some later despatch or delivery than that for which the same was posted or despatched, or intended to be posted or despatched respectively, he may delay the despatch or delivery of such Parcel, or make such other and special arrangements as to the despatch or delivery thereof, not, however, involving a greater delay than 24 hours in the whole, as may be deemed by such officer necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case.

Parcels not to interfere with Letter Post.

20. Where the despatch or delivery from a Post Office in the United Kingdom of letters would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of Parcels, such Parcels, or any of them, may be detained in the Post Office until the despatch or delivery next following that by which they would ordinarily be despatched or delivered.

Postmaster-General not liable for Loss or Damage.

21. Nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render the Postmaster-General liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect or in consequence of any loss or damage of any Parcel, whether such loss or damage be occasioned by or arise from any act or neglect of any officer of the Post Office or any other person.

Customs Regulations.

22. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post under the provisions of this Warrant shall not be posted, forwarded, conveyed, or delivered, except subject to such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."

Remission of Postage.

23. The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he may consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage or any sum made payable under this Warrant.
