4. An Express Packet—

(a.) Must be marked with the words "Express Delivery," or with such other words as may indicate the desire of the sender that the Postal Packet shall be so conveyed; and

(b.) Must, if the Express Packet is at any part of its course in the post to be conveyed otherwise than by special messenger (which description of Express Packet is hereinafter referred to as a "Part Express Packet") be marked with such lines or other marks as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe for the purpose of distinguishing Part-Express Packets from other Postal Packets.

Provided nevertheless that in no case shall the Postmaster-General be bound to deliver any Express Packet not fully prepaid, unless the addressee pays all sums due and payable thereon.

11. (1.) When, with a view to the conveyance of a Return Express Packet, the addressee of an Express Packet detains a messenger more than ten minutes from the time of the delivery of such Packet, the addressee shall pay to such messenger the following fees or sums (hereinafter called "waiting fees"), that is to say:—
