PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Sea Fisheries Act, 1868," it is (amongst other things) enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to do all or any of the following things, namely:—

- (a.) To make regulations for carrying out, enforcing, and giving effect to both the entry and registry of British sea fishing boats, and also Articles four, five, six, seven, and eight of the Convention then recently concluded between Her Majesty and the Emperor of the French concerning the fisheries in the seas adjoining the British Islands and France, and set out in the first schedule to the Act:
- (b.) To adopt in such regulations any existing system of registry or lettering and numbering of boats, and to provide for bringing any such system into conformity with the requirements of the said Convention and the Act and with the said regulations:
- (c.) To define the boats or classes of boats to which such regulations or any of them are to apply, and to provide for the exemption of any boats or classes of boats from such regulations, or any of them, and from the provisions of Part II of the Act with respect to entry or registry and the possession of a certificate of registry and official papers:
- (d.) To apply to the entry and registry respectively of sea fishing boats so defined and to all matters incidental thereto, such (if any) of the enactments contained in any Act relating to the registry of British ships, and with such modifications and alterations
 as may be found desirable:
- (e.) To impose penalties not exceeding twenty pounds for the breach of any regulations made by any Order in Council, for the breach of which a punishment cannot be provided by the application of the enactments contained in any Act relating to the registry of British ships:
- (f.) To alter and revoke an Order so made:

And that every such Order shall be of the same force as if it were enacted in the said recited Act:

And whereas Her Majesty did, on the eighteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, by Order in Council, make certain regulations, set out on the schedule to the said Order, for the lettering, numbering, and registering of British sea fishing boats under Part II of the Sea Fisheries Act, 1868 (thirty-one and thirty-two Vict. chapter forty-five):

And whereas by Regulation numbered 2 of the said regulations it is provided that every sea fishing vessel or boat, whether registered under any other Act or not, shall (except as in the said Order before provided for) be lettered, numbered, and have a certificate of registry, and shall for that purpose be entered or registered in a register of sea fishing boats to be kept at the principal office of Customs in each collectorship:

And whereas by Regulation numbered 17 of the said regulations it is provided that a register of sea fishing boats, in the form contained in Table A thereto annexed, shall be kept by the Collector of Customs at each collectorship, which shall contain the date of registry, name of the vessel or boat, and of the port or place to which she belongs, names of Owner and Master, description of her rig and of her ordinary mode of fishing, her registered number, class, tonnage, and length of keel, and number of crew usually employed :

And whereas by Regulation numbered 25 of the said regulations it is provided that after registration no change shall be made in the name of any sea fishing boat :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is desirable that the said Regulation numbered 25 should be altered so as to give to the Board of Trade power to direct that the name of a sea fishing boat may be changed when they are of opinion that there are reasonable and sufficient grounds for such change of name :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby direct that the Regulation numbered 25 of the regulations set forth in the schedule annexed to the said Order in Council of the eighteenth June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, shall be altered as follows, viz. :—

“25. After registration no change shall be made in the name of a British sea fishing boat unless the Board of Trade, being of opinion that the application for such change of name is made on reasonable and sufficient grounds, shall so direct.”

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that the said regulation as altered shall come into operation from the date of the present Order, and be substituted for, and in lieu of, the Regulation numbered 25 of the regulations set forth in the schedule annexed to the Order of the eighteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of February, 1892.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
Lord President.
Mr. Ritchie.
Mr. Jackson.

WHEREAS by “The Mail Ships Act, 1891,” it is provided that where Her Majesty the Queen has made a Convention with a Foreign State respecting the postal service between such Foreign State and the United Kingdom, or respecting the privileges of mail ships, that is to say, ships engaged in any postal service of such Foreign State, or of any part of Her Majesty's Dominions, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to order that the said Act shall, subject to any conditions, exceptions, and qualifications contained in the Order, apply during the continuance of the Order as regards such Convention and Foreign State and the postal service and mail ships described in the Convention ;

And whereas by section eight of the said Act it is also provided that an Order in Council may for the purpose of a Convention with a Foreign State apply the said Act, subject to any exceptions or modifications not inconsistent with the provisions of the said Act, to any British Possession, and that the said Act when so applied should, subject to those exceptions and modifications, and subject as hereinafter mentioned, have effect as if it were re-enacted, with the substitution of such British Possession for the United Kingdom, provided that before it should be applied to any British Possession named in the Schedule to the said Act, the Government of such possession should have adhered to the Convention ;

And whereas on the thirtieth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, a Convention was made at London between Her Majesty and the President of the French Republic respecting the postal service between France and French Possessions and the United Kingdom and British Possessions, the terms of which Convention are set forth in the Schedule to this Order ;

And whereas the ratifications of the said Convention were exchanged on the twenty-third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one ;

And whereas the Governments of certain of the British Possessions named in the Schedule to the said Act, namely, Newfoundland, Queensland, New Zealand, Cape of Good Hope, and Natal, have adhered to the said Convention ;

And whereas it is expedient that “The Mail Ships Act, 1891,” should apply as regards the said Convention and the French Republic and the postal service and mail ships described in the said Convention ;

And whereas it is also expedient that the said Act should, for the purpose of the said Convention, apply to the above-mentioned British Possessions, and also to all British Possessions not named in the Schedule to the said Act, subject to the exceptions and modifications in this Order contained :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by “The Mail Ships Act, 1891,” or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

2. The said Act shall apply as regards any public ship of the French Republic when employed as a mail ship in the cases authorized by Article five of the said Convention.

3. The said Act shall for the purpose of the said Convention apply to the following British Possessions, namely, Newfoundland, Queensland, New Zealand, Cape of Good Hope, and Natal, and also to every British Possession not named in the Schedule to the said Act, subject, however, to the provisions of section eight of the said Act, and also to the exceptions and modifications following, that is to say :—

the possession, or, where there is no such Department, an officer or one of the officers appointed for the purposes of the said Act by the Governor in Council, of which appointment notice shall be published in the Gazette of the possession.

(ii.) The provisions of the said Act as to the amount of fines shall, in possessions having a dollar or rupee currency, be read as if the amounts were stated in dollars or rupees, as the case may be, at the rate of five dollars or ten rupees to the pound sterling. In Gibraltar the said provisions shall be read as if the amounts were stated in pesetas, at the rate of twenty-five pesetas to the pound sterling.

(iii.) In lieu of subsections (one) and (two) of section seven of the said Act the following provisions shall be substituted, that is to say: Every offence may be prosecuted and every fine may be recovered by action or other legal proceeding in any Court of the possession competent to impose fines, but any fine imposed by a Court of inferior or limited jurisdiction shall not exceed either the amount authorized by the said Act and this Order, or the amount of fine which the Court may impose in the exercise of its ordinary jurisdiction, whichever of the said amounts shall be the less; and there shall be the same right of appeal (if any) against any such fine as in other cases of fines imposed by the same Court in the exercise of its ordinary jurisdiction; and every Court, whether of original or appellate jurisdiction, may reduce the amount of any fine.

(iv.) The regulations required to be made under subsection (four) of section seven of the said Act, by the Commissioners of Customs with the consent of the Treasury, shall in the possession be made by the Governor in Council.

(v.) Section five of the said Act, so far as relates to the Commissioners of Customs, shall not apply in the possession.

4. This Order may be cited as "The Mail Ships (France) Order in Council, 1892."

And the Most Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury, K.G., and the Right Honourable Lord Knutsford, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. J. Peel.

ARTICLE I.

Il y aura entre l'Administration des Postes de France et l'Administration des Postes Britanniques, un échange régulier de correspondances de toute nature, au moyen de deux services de paquebots à vapeur, qui continueront à être entretenus ou subventionnés, l'un par le Gouvernement Français, et l'autre par le Gouvernement Britannique, sur la ligne de Calais à Douvres.

L'Administration des Postes de France et l'Administration des Postes Britanniques régleront, common consent and in accordance with the mutual interests of both countries, the days and hours of departure and arrival of the subsidized packets.

ARTICLE II.

Independently of the correspondence which shall be exchanged between the Postal Administrations of the two countries by the means indicated in the preceding Article, those Administrations may reciprocally forward from one to the other correspondence of all kinds by the several means hereinafter mentioned, namely: (1) by such packets as the French Government and the British Government may respectively think it right to maintain, to freight, or to subsidize, for the conveyance of correspondence; (2) by merchants ships plying between French ports and British ports.

ARTICLE III.

The commanders of British and French merchant ships sailing from the ports of France or Algeria for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the one part, and the commanders of British and French merchant ships sailing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for France or Algeria, on the other part, shall be bound to take charge of the mails which the post offices at the ports of departure may have to deliver to them.

ARTICLE IV.

The charges for the sea conveyance of correspondence exchanged between the French Postal Administration and the British Postal Administration by means of non-contract merchant ships shall be paid to the commanders or owners of those vessels by the Postal Administration of the country of origin, namely:—

1. At the rate of 5 fr. per kilog. of letters and post-cards;
2. At the rate of 50 centimes per kilog. of other articles.

ARTICLE V.

When the packets employed by the French Postal Administration and by the British Postal Administration are national vessels owned by the State, or vessels belonging to Companies subsidized for the execution of postal service, such packets cannot be diverted from their destination nor be liable to seizure, embargo, or "Arrêt de Prince."

Passengers on such packets, who may not desire to go on shore during the vessel's stay in a port of either State, cannot be on any account taken from on board.

Nevertheless, the local authorities may claim the expulsion from on board of persons wanted in pursuance of a regular warrant for any crimes or offences who may have taken refuge or embarked in mail-boats, and, in case of necessity, searches may be carried out on board such vessels by the competent authorities. The individuals in question shall then be handed over to them.

It is, however, agreed that the authorities cannot proceed on board unless they have previously given notice, at least one hour before the search, to the Consulate or Vice-Consulate, in order that the Consul or Vice-Consul, or his delegate, may be present at the searches in question. The de concert et dans l'intérêt bien entendu des deux pays, les jours et heures de départ et d'arrivée des paquebots subventionnés.

ARTICLE II.

Indépendamment des correspondances qui seront échangées entre les Administrations des Postes des deux pays par la voie indiquée dans l'Article précédent, ces Administrations pourront s'expédier réciproquement des correspondances de toute nature par les différentes voies ci-après désignées, savoir: (1°) par les paquebots que le Gouvernement Français et le Gouvernement Britannique pourront respectivement juger à propos d'entretenir, de fréter, ou de subventionner pour opérer le transport des correspondances; (2°) par les bâtiments du commerce naviguant entre les ports Français et les ports Britanniques.

ARTICLE III.

Les capitaines des navires Français et des navires Britanniques du commerce devant appareiller des ports de la France ou de l'Algérie pour le Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, d'une part, et les capitaines des navires Français et des navires Britanniques du commerce devant appareiller des ports du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande pour la France ou l'Algérie, d'autre part, seront tenus de se charger des dépêches que les bureaux de poste des ports de départ pourraient avoir à leur remettre.

ARTICLE IV.

Les frais résultant du transport par mer des correspondances échangées entre l'Administration des Postes de France et l'Administration des Postes Britanniques par la voie des bâtiments libres de commerce, seront payés aux capitaines ou armateurs de ces bâtiments par l'Administration des Postes du pays d'origine, savoir:—

1. A raison de 5 fr. par kilog. de lettres et cartes postales;
2. A raison de 50 centimes par kilog. d'autres objets.

ARTICLE V.

Lorsque les paquebots employés par l'Administration des Postes de France et par l'Administration des Postes Britanniques seront des bâtiments nationaux propriété de l'État; ou des bâtiments appartenant à des Compagnies subventionnées pour l'exécution du service postal, ces paquebots ne pourront être détournés de leur destination ni être sujet à saisie-arrêt, embargo, ou Arrêt de Prince.

Les passagers admis sur ces paquebots, qui ne jugeraient pas à propos de descendre à terre pendant la relâche dans un port de l'un et l'autre État ne pourront sous aucun prétexte être enlevés du bord.

Néanmoins, les autorités locales pourront réclamer l'expulsion du bord des individus recherchés en vertu d'un mandat régulier, pour cause de crimes ou délits, et qui se seraient réfugiés ou embarqués sur des paquebots-poste, et, en cas de nécessité, des recherches pourront être faites à bord de ces paquebots par les autorités compétentes. Les individus dont il s'agit seront alors remis entre leurs mains.

Il est, d'ailleurs, convenu que ces autorités ne devront se rendre à bord qu'après avoir donné préalablement, c'est-à-dire, au moins une heure avant l'opération, avis au Consulat ou Vice-Consulat, afin que le Consul ou Vice-Consul, ou son délégué, assiste aux recherches en question. La letter giving notice shall be addressed to the Consul or Vice-Consul, and shall state the exact hour, and if the Agents neglect either to appear in person or to be represented, the proceedings shall go on in their absence.

The execution of such measures shall not delay the departure of the vessel for more than an hour after the time of departure fixed in the time-tables of the Company, which must be duly communicated by the respective Companies to the authorities of each port of call.

The present Article shall not apply to packets intrusted with a mail service and belonging to Companies subsidized by either State, until a bond has been entered into, once for all, by the said Companies to satisfy, after due hearing and definitive decision, the legal consequences of any liability incurred either by the captains of their packets or by the Companies themselves.

The aforesaid bond must be guaranteed by a security within the jurisdiction of the Tribunals of the country in which the bond may have been entered into.

ARTICLE VI.

The packets of the two Administrations shall be at liberty to take on board, or land at the ports of the two countries at which they touch, whether regularly or accidentally, specie and gold and silver bullion, as well as passengers, of whatever nation they may be, with their wearing apparel or baggage, on condition that the captains of those packets shall submit to the Sanitary, Police, and Customs Regulations of those ports concerning the arrival and departure of travellers and merchandise.

ARTICLE VII.

The packets of the two Administrations may enter and leave the ports of the two States at any hour of the day or night. They may also, if they think proper, without anchoring, embark or disembark the mails and passengers, in the roads or at the entrance of the harbours, so long as they observe the Regulations referred to in the preceding Article.

ARTICLE VIII.

Whenever a packet carrying mails shall be compelled to put into any port of either of the two States other than that at which such packet ought to touch, the Administration on whose territory the said mails shall be landed shall use the most certain and expeditious means of forwarding them to their destination.

ARTICLE IX.

In case of war between the two nations, the packets of the two Administrations shall continue their navigation, without impediment or molestation, until a notification is made on the part of either of the two Governments of the discontinuance of postal communications; in which case they shall be permitted to return freely, and under special protection, to their respective ports.

ARTICLE X.

The captains of the packets engaged in the conveyance of the respective mails of the two Administrations are forbidden to take charge of any letter not included in those mails, with the exception, however, of despatches of their Governments. They must take care that no letters are conveyed illegally by the crews or passengers, lettre d'avis qui sera adressée au Consul ou Vice-Consul indiquera une heure précise, et si les Agents négligeaient de s'y rendre en personne ou de se faire représenter par un délégué, il sera procédé en leur absence.

L'exécution de ces mesures ne pourra retarder le départ du navire plus d'une heure après l'heure du départ fixée par les horaires de la Compagnie, horaires qui devront être dûment communiqués par ces Compagnies aux autorités de chaque port de relâche.

Le présent Article n'aura d'application à l'égard des paquebots chargés d'un service postal, et appartenant à des Compagnies subventionnées par l'un ou l'autre État, qu'après engagement pris, une fois pour toutes, par les dites Compagnies, de satisfaire, après avoir été dûment entendues, et après décisions définitives, aux conséquences légales des responsabilités qui auraient été encourues tant par les capitaines de leurs paquebots que par elles-mêmes.

Le susdit engagement devra être garanti par une caution justiciable des Tribunaux du pays dans lequel cet engagement aura été souscrit.

ARTICLE VI.

Les paquebots des deux Administrations pourront embarquer ou débarquer dans les ports des deux États où ils aborderont, soit régulièrement, soit accidentellement, des espèces et des matières d'or ou d'argent, ainsi que des passagers de quelque nation qu'ils puissent être, avec leurs hardes ou effets personnels, sous la condition que les capitaines de ces paquebots se soumettront aux Règlements Sanitaires de Police et de Douane de ces ports, concernant l'entrée et la sortie des voyageurs et des marchandises.

ARTICLE VII.

Les paquebots des deux Administrations pourront entrer dans les ports des deux États ou en sortir à toute heure du jour ou de la nuit. Ils pourront aussi, sans mouiller, s'ils le jugent convenable, envoyer ou faire prendre en rade ou à portée des ports, la correspondance et les passagers, sauf observation des Règlements mentionnés dans l'Article précédent.

ARTICLE VIII.

En cas de relâche forcée d'un paquebot porteur de dépêches, dans un port de l'un des deux États, autre que celui où ce paquebot devait aborder, l'Administration sur le territoire de laquelle ces dépêches auront été débarquées devra employer les moyens les plus sûrs et les plus prompts pour les faire parvenir à destination.

ARTICLE IX.

En cas de guerre entre les deux nations, les paquebots des deux Administrations continueront leur navigation sans obstacle ni molestation, jusqu'à notification de la rupture des communications postales faite par l'un des deux Gouvernements, auquel cas il leur sera permis de retourner librement, et sous protection spéciale dans leurs ports respectifs.

ARTICLE X.

Il est défendu aux commandants des paquebots employés au transport des dépêches respectives des deux Administrations de se charger d'aucune lettre en dehors de ces dépêches, excepté, toutefois, celles de leur Gouvernement. Ils veilleront à ce qu'il ne soit pas transporté de lettres en fraude par leurs équipages ou par les passagers.

and they must give information in the proper quarter of any infringement which may be committed in this respect.

ARTICLE XI.

There shall be reserved in the vans, carriages, or trucks conveying between Modane and Calais the mails from the East Indies for Great Britain, or from Great Britain for the East Indies, a place free of charge for a British courier, who shall keep the said mails under his special care, and who shall have the right to be present at the disinfection of the correspondence contained in those mails whenever it shall take place, and at all other operations to which the said correspondence may be subjected.

The same advantages shall be granted in the territory of Great Britain to the couriers of the French Postal Administration, should that Administration think proper to send a French courier in charge of mails containing correspondence from or for France passing through Great Britain and paid for at special transit rates.

ARTICLE XII.

The British Postal Administration and the Postal Administration of France shall nominate, by mutual consent, the offices through which the exchange of correspondence shall respectively take place. They shall also determine the direction of the correspondence reciprocally transmitted, and shall settle the arrangements relating to the preparation and liquidation of the accounts arising out of the reciprocal transmission of correspondence, as well as every other matter of detail or arrangement necessary to insure the execution of the stipulations contained in the present Convention.

It is understood that the measures above alluded to may be modified by the two Administrations whenever those Administrations recognize, by mutual consent, the necessity for modification.

ARTICLE XIII.

The Postal Administrations of the two countries are authorized to determine, by mutual consent, the conditions of the conveyance, by French services, of the mails to or from British Colonies not comprised in the Postal Union, as well as the conditions of the conveyance, by British services, of the mails of French origin destined for those Colonies, or passing in transit through their territories.

The same Administrations may also fix, by mutual consent, the rates of postage applicable to correspondence exchanged between France and French Colonies on one side, and British Colonies not comprised in the Postal Union on the other side.

ARTICLE XIV.

The present Convention shall be carried into effect as soon as possible, and it shall continue in force until one of the two Contracting Parties shall have announced to the other, one year in advance, its intention to terminate it.

ARTICLE XV.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage authority, by Bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time, to do within its district all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section:

And whereas the Tyne Pilotage Commissioners, being the Pilotage authority for the River Tyne within the meaning of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," in exercise of the powers vested in them by that Act, made certain Bye-laws and Regulations which were approved by an Order in Council, dated the seventeenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven and afterwards made a certain additional Bye-law which was approved by an Order in Council, dated the nineteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine:

And whereas the said Pilotage Commissioners have made certain Bye-laws and Regulations, in lieu of those approved by the aforesaid Orders in Council:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said Bye-laws and Regulations are reasonable and proper:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of, and signify Her consent to, the said Bye-laws and Regulations as set forth in the Schedule hereto

- (o.) All instances of neglect of duty shall be brought before the Board, and the Pilot Superintendent shall not compromise any offence by any Pilot.
- (p.) The time of the Pilot Superintendent shall be wholly devoted to the service of the Board.

Pilots.

3. The distinction formerly existing between Sea and River Pilots having been abolished, there shall be but one body of Pilots hereafter licensed, who, upon qualifying as hereinafter-mentioned, shall be licensed, and during the continuance of their licences empowered to pilot vessels to and from and throughout any part of the Tyne Pilotage District, as defined by Clause 10 of the Provisional Order confirmed by and set out in a Schedule to the Tyne Pilotage Order Confirmation Act, 1865.

4. That all cibles and other boats, if any, now or hereafter to be regularly employed in the Pilotage Service, in the river or at sea, must, pursuant to the 345th Section of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, before being so employed, be approved and licensed by the Commissioners, besides being numbered, as directed by sub-section (i.) of the second of the foregoing Bye-laws.

5. Every present or future Pilot owning or having control over any such cible or other boat, is accordingly hereby required to take out a licence from the Pilot Superintendent, which will, in approved cases, be granted on payment of a fee of 2s. 6d. for each such licence. Every licence will remain in force during the pleasure of the Commissioners, and is subject to payment of an annual renewal fee of 2s. 6d.

6. Licensed cibles may be used for sea and river service, but other licensed boats of smaller size are only to be used for river service, not seaward of an imaginary line drawn from the end of the south pier to the end of the north pier.

7. All Pilots are prohibited from using in the Pilotage Service, at sea or in port, any cible boat, steam tug, or other vessel of any description not licensed as aforesaid, excepting only the Pilot Steamer or Steamers provided by the Commissioners, and excepting in such special and individual cases of emergency as shall be allowed by the Commissioners as sufficient excuse.

8. No Pilot shall board any vessel at sea from an unlicensed Pilot Boat or Steamer, except the steam vessel provided for the purpose by the Commissioners, except in cases of emergency to be allowed by the Board.

9. Every Pilot using the Pilot Steamer shall, subject to the Ship Master's general right of selection, take his turn whether the vessel requiring a Pilot be large or small, and if all the Pilots obtain vessels and the Pilot Steamer has to return for a relay of Pilots, then, as soon as a sufficient number are on board, the Pilot Steamer shall proceed to sea immediately.

10. When two or more licensed Pilot Boats are making for the same vessel, the Pilot in the first or leading boat shall be entitled to board such vessel, and the other Pilots in the vicinity shall not interfere in any way in the act of boarding, but shall keep off at a distance of at least one quarter of a mile.

11. No pilot boat shall be allowed to be towed outwards by any steamer, steam tug, or vessel towed by steam power beyond an imaginary line drawn from the South to the North Pier Buoys. This rule is not to prevent any Pilot towing homewards; and if whilst so towing, he shall fall in with any vessel requiring a Pilot, he shall be at liberty to board and take charge of such vessel.

12. Every Pilot shall use his utmost care and diligence to conduct the ships and vessels under his charge without damage or doing injury to others; and shall behave himself with strict sobriety and due respect towards the Owners, Masters, and officers thereof, and shall not leave his vessel until she is safely and permanently moored, and shall, within twenty-four hours after his leaving each vessel, report to the Pilot Superintendent all accidents which may have happened to such vessel while under his direction. He shall always have with him, when on duty, a copy of these Bye-laws, his licence, and a pilot flag as described in the sixteenth of these Bye-laws. On taking charge of a vessel he shall, if required, exhibit his licence to the officer in command. In the case of vessels outward bound from the river or from any dock, he shall repair on board at least two hours before high water, or when required by the Master, to ascertain if the vessel of which he is about to take charge is ready for sea, or to moor in the river, and except with the consent of the Master, he shall not leave a vessel piloted seawards until she is fairly clear of the entrance to the harbour. He shall obey and execute all orders received from the Commissioners or the Nautical Committee, the Secretary, or the Pilot Superintendent.

No Pilot shall be absent from duty without the permission of the Pilot Superintendent.

13. All Pilots going to sea in search of vessels shall first visit the Pilot Office to ascertain what orders are there for vessels expected inwards, and shall pay due regard thereto. Pilots cruising within or without the Tyne Pilotage District must take charge of vessels requiring pilots without preferring one vessel over another.

14. Every Pilot engaged to pilot a vessel lying in the river, and bound into the Tyne, Northumberland, or Albert Edward Docks, shall be on board at least one hour before high water, to make ready for going into dock.

15. Every Pilot taking charge of a vessel shall be held responsible until the pilotage is completed; but in case such Pilot shall obtain the services of a substitute who is accepted by the Master of the vessel, such substitute shall continue in charge until the pilotage is completed, and shall be responsible as if he had been the Pilot originally appointed.

16. Every Pilot shall provide himself with a red and white flag three feet long by two feet broad. On taking charge as Pilot of any vessel, he shall cause his flag to be hoisted on board such vessel at the gaff-end under the ensign, or wherever it may be most conspicuously seen (except on the foremast), and he shall keep his flag continually flying until he leaves the vessel. This Bye-law shall apply to all vessels outward or inward bound, at sea or in port, under way or at anchor, and under all circumstances so long as she is in charge of a Pilot.

17. All Pilots shall obey the Bye-laws for the time being and all orders, resolutions, and directions of the Commissioners; and also all proper orders and directions that may be given to them by the Dock and Harbour Masters relative to the docking, towing, transporting or removing of vessels under their charge.

Collection and Application of Pilotage.

18. Every Pilot shall make daily returns on forms to be prescribed by and furnished at an office of the Commissioners of the vessels piloted, docked, undocked, moved, or in any way transported or attended by him, showing the amount of earnings of every description earned each day by every Pilot; such returns shall be made by each Pilot to the Secretary at the principal office of the Commissioners, and in default of his so doing or paying over such pilotage dues as by the nineteenth of these Bye-laws he is authorized to receive, he shall in each case be subject to a deduction from his share of pilotage of a sum not exceeding ten shillings, and be liable to have his licence withdrawn or suspended.

19. Every Pilot is prohibited from receiving from any owner, consignee, agent, or Master any pilotage dues or earnings of any description, excepting only when there is no owner, consignee, or agent of the vessel piloted resident or carrying on business in any of the ports within the Tyne Pilotage District, or in Sunderland or Blyth. In any such case the Pilot receiving the dues or earnings shall forthwith pay over such dues, without deduction, to the Collector of the Commissioners, or such other official, and at such place and time as the Commissioners may from time to time direct.

20. Every Pilot earning any pilotage dues or earnings of any description, shall on completion of his services tender for signature to the Master or other person in charge of the vessel, a form of order on the owner, consignee, or agent at one of the Tyne Ports, or at Sunderland or Blyth, for payment of the pilotage dues earned, to be in such order specified, and shall forthwith on receipt of such order deliver the same to an official of the Commissioners at the Pilot Office, Green's-place, South Shields, or at such office and place as the Commissioners shall from time to time prescribe. In no case shall pilots deliver their pilotage orders at the Pilot Office later than the day after vessels have been taken to sea, and every Pilot failing to do so, without sufficient reason, shall be reported by the Pilot Superintendent to the Commissioners, and in each such instance the pilotage shall be retained until the Commissioners have given their decision thereon.

21. All owners, consignees, and agents at any of the Tyne Ports, or at Sunderland or Blyth, of vessels piloted in the Tyne Pilotage District, are hereby required to pay all pilotage dues of every description to the Commissioners' Collector for the time being, and not to any Pilot. This Bye-law is not to be construed to abridge or affect the liability of owners, masters, consignees, or agents to pay pilotage dues, as prescribed by the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1889, and is intended to provide for payment of pilotage dues to the Commissioners' Collector instead of to the Pilots as heretofore.

22. From the gross amount of pilotage dues and earnings received by the Commissioners, there shall from time to time be deducted: (1) the contributions of Pilots under the twenty-fifth Bye-law; (2) the cost of collection of the earnings of all the Pilots; and (3) the expenses (but not exceeding three-and-a-half per cent. on the gross amount of pilotage dues) of and incident to steam pilot cutters, cobles or other vessels, and of Pilots' Assistants, as defined and set forth in the forty-eighth Bye-law. Such deductions, or any of them, may in the first place be upon estimate, subject to subsequent quarterly or other adjustment, and it shall not be open to any Pilot to recover from the Commissioners any deduction made from the gross pilotage earnings by virtue of this or any other Bye-law.

23. The net amount of all pilotage earnings of every description received by the Commissioners shall, after the deductions mentioned or referred to in the 22nd Bye-law, be divided between the Pilots earning such pilotage earnings in proportion to the amount of pilotage earned by each Pilot. The division of such net pilotage shall take place as nearly as may be monthly, or more frequently at the discretion of the Commissioners, and the decision of the Commissioners as to the share of any Pilot on any such division shall be conclusive.

24. No action shall be brought or claim set up against the Commissioners by any Pilot in respect of the collection, apportionment, or division by the Commissioners from time to time of the pilotage earnings.

Contributions to Pilots' Funds.

25. In lieu of the contributions hitherto paid by the Pilots to the Commissioners on the ships piloted by them, a deduction of not exceeding, in the discretion of the Commissioners, five pounds per centum shall be made from the gross amount of pilotage earnings of every description earned by the Pilots. The amount thus from time to time deducted shall be placed to the credit of the Amalgamated Sea and River Pilots Fund hereinafter referred to as "The General Pilotage Fund," and shall be applied in the same manner as the other moneys belonging to this fund, being nevertheless primarily applicable to the cost of the Pilotage Service.

26. Every Master and every Mate in the Merchant Service obtaining a Pilotage Certificate enabling him to pilot his vessel within any portion of the Tyne Pilotage District, pursuant either to section 340 or section 342 of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," shall for each occasion he shall navigate his vessel within the waters of the said district to which his certificate applies, pay to the Commissioners as hereinafter mentioned, a sum not exceeding in the discretion of the Commissioners five per centum of the gross amount of pilotage dues payable in respect of the vessel to a qualified Tyne Pilot on each such occasion. Every such payment shall be placed to the credit of the General Pilotage Fund. Provided always that such payments shall not entitle any such Master or Mate, nor his widow or children, to any benefit by way of pension or superannuation. Provided also that such payment shall not be made in respect of the same vessel, either for inward or for outward pilotage, more than once in a period of ten consecutive days.

27. Every such Master and Mate certificated as aforesaid shall, within one calendar month after each half-year ending on the thirtieth day of June and the thirty-first day of December respectively, make a return in writing of the occasions during the half-year immediately previous on which he shall have navigated vessels within the Tyne Pilotage District, with the names and all needful particulars of the vessels, and shall within the same periods respectively from time to time pay to the Secretary at the principal office of the Commissioners the amounts due from him under the foregoing 26th Bye-law.

Pilots' Assistants.

28. Persons who have served as Apprentices to Licensed Pilots under former regulations, and whose names have been duly entered as such Apprentices in the Pilot Superintendent's Register and Character Book shall when duly qualified as hereinafter mentioned be eligible and preferred to receive Pilots' Licences, but no person shall be hereafter apprenticed to a Pilot. Candidates for the Pilot Service must not be under fourteen years of age or over eighteen years of age. They will be required to prove that they are able to read and write correctly, and that they have a competent knowledge of arithmetic, and must possess such other requirements as the Commissioners shall from time to time prescribe.

29. All approved Candidates for the Pilot Service who have not already been apprenticed to Licensed Pilots shall act as Assistants in the Pilot Service for seven years under the direction of the Commissioners, the first five of which are to be served in the Tyne Pilotage District. No Assistant shall leave the Pilot Service without permission from the Pilot Superintendent, and on application for examination for a Pilot's Licence proof shall be required of the satisfactory completion of the seven years term of service. Each such Assistant shall serve one year of the above term after the first five years as seaman on board a sailing ship or ships, and shall serve one year of the above term on board of a steam ship or steam ships, but such two years service shall be made when and as may be approved of by the Commissioners.

30. Satisfactory testimonials, including a Surgeon's certificate that a candidate for the pilot service is of sound health, shall in every case be submitted to the Board before a Licence is granted. The Board shall have power to dismiss any Pilot's Assistant from the Pilot Service at any time upon any misconduct on the part of the Assistant deserving in the judgment of the Board such punishment. The name of every candidate shall be entered in the Pilot Superintendent's Register and Character Book on his first entering the service, and his character shall be therein yearly entered up by the Pilot Superintendent, and, unless otherwise ordered by the Commissioners, vacancies in the Pilot Service shall be filled up according to priority of date of entry as aforesaid.

31. Every Assistant who shall have served the above term and shall apply for a Pilot's Licence, shall, if eligible in other respects, undergo an examination under the direction of the Commissioners for the purpose of ascertaining his skill, knowledge, and experience in relation to the navigating, piloting, and conducting of vessels, including knowledge of the rule of the road at sea and his freedom from colour blindness. He must be able to give a correct and seamanlike description of the river, harbour, docks, and piers, and must know the course and distance between any two places within the Tyne Pilotage District. He must be able to navigate any vessel requiring a Pilot into, from, and throughout any part of the Tyne Pilotage District, and for this purpose must possess a thorough knowledge of the Chart and Mariner's Compass. He must be familiar with the rise and set of the tides; the depth and character of the soundings; the best anchorages; the sand banks; rocks, shoals, and other dangers; the land marks buoys and lights and the marks and deeps of the lead line; he must understand the complete management of a vessel to bring her to anchor, and to keep her clear of her anchor in a tideway; to moor, unmoor, and get under-way; and how to handle a vessel under any circumstances.

Licences and Renewals.

32. Every Pilot Licence when first granted and for a period of one year thereafter, shall apply only to and authorize the navigating, piloting, and conducting of vessels not exceeding five hundred tons net register. After such period, every Pilot who has held such a Licence for one year may in the discretion of the Commissioners be required to pass a further examination on such heads and particulars as the Commissioners shall from time to time by resolution prescribe, and on his passing such further examination, if so required, he shall be eligible to conduct vessels of any tonnage. Provided always that the Commissioners may from time to time in the case of either young Pilots or old or infirm Pilots, or in other special cases, restrict the form and operation of a Pilot's Licence for such size of vessels and for such period and on such conditions as the Commissioners shall prescribe.

33. Every Pilot hereafter licensed shall on receiving his Licence pay to the Commissioners a fee of four pounds, and for the annual renewal of his Licence one pound, and for the renewal of any Licence in place of one lost, ten shillings. Every Pensioner shall be liable to pay the annual renewal fee during each year that he earns pilotage earnings amounting to one hundred pounds or upwards. Pensioners earning less in any year shall be exempt for that year.

34. Every Master and every Mate in the Merchant Service obtaining from the Commissioners a Pilotage Certificate pursuant to section three hundred and forty of the Merchant Shipping Act 1854, shall on receiving his Licence pay to the Commissioners a fee of two pounds, and for the annual renewal of his Licence ten shillings, and for the renewal of any Licence in place of one lost ten shillings.

35. In addition to persons qualifying for the pilot service as prescribed by the foregoing Bye-laws, the Commissioners shall have power to grant Licences to such Masters in the Merchant Service holding certificates of competency granted by the Board of Trade under the Merchant Shipping Acts, as the Commissioners shall select as Pilots, subject to each person before being licensed under this Bye-law serving for a period of twelve months as an assistant in the pilot service under the direction of the Commissioners, and passing the examination prescribed by the thirty-first Bye-law, and a further examination if required under the thirty-second Bye-law.

36. Persons who have served as apprentices to licensed Pilots under former regulations as mentioned in the twenty-eighth Bye-law having duly qualified shall be preferred for Pilots' Licences to other Pilots' Assistants, and the latter having duly qualified shall be likewise preferred over Masters applying for Licences under the thirty-fifth Bye-law.

Pilots' Committee.

37. The Committee of Sea Pilots and the Committee of River Pilots heretofore established having been dissolved as from the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty, there shall hereafter be one Committee of Pilots appointed by the Commissioners for examining in the presence of the Pilot Superintendent all applicants for Licences, and to hear, and settle disputes between Pilots or Assistants, and the Pilot Superintendent shall, if requested by any of the parties interested refer the case to the Commissioners for their decision. The Committee shall consist of such number as the Commissioners shall from time to time appoint. For the present and until the Commissioners shall otherwise appoint, the Committee shall consist of thirteen members, five of whom shall form a quorum. Each member of the Committee shall hold office during the pleasure of the Commissioners, and in case of the death or resignation of any member of the Committee, the vacancy shall be filled up by the Commissioners. And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Orders of Her Majesty in Council hereinafter specified as affecting burials in the parish of Bradford, in the county of York, should be varied by substituting the following directions for those contained in the said Orders in regard to burials in the church and churchyard, chapels and chapel-yards, and in the cemetery hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fourteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said first-recited Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

In lieu of the directions contained in the Orders in Council of thirty-first March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, eleventh October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, nineteenth July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, fourth June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and fifth February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two:—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in Saint John's Church, Bowling, and in the churchyard within five yards of the church; and also in the rest of the churchyard except that in existing private vaults and wholly walled graves burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented at a depth of not less than three feet from the surface of the ground.

In lieu of the directions contained in Orders in Council of thirty-first March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and fifth February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two:—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Wesleyan Chapel, Undercliffe, and in the chapelyard within eight feet of the north-east boundary, and within twenty feet of the chapel; and also in the rest of the chapelyard except as follows:

HER Majesty the Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the Decoration of the Albert Medal of the Second Class on—

LAWRENCE HENNESSEY, Boatman of the Hythe Coast Guard Station.

The following is an account of the services in respect of which the Decoration has been conferred:—

On the morning of the 11th of November, 1891, at 4.45 A.M., when the French schooner "Eider" was wrecked on the Sea-wall at Seabrook, LAWRENCE HENNESSEY was on watch, a heavy gale was blowing and tremendous seas were sweeping the Sea-wall. He obtained a heaving line and cane, and unaided, at the risk of his life, saved the lives of four sailors belonging to the French schooner, which broke up as she struck, and was totally wrecked.

The French Ambassador has represented the courageous conduct of HENNESSEY in saving the lives of the four French sailors on this occasion, at the peril of his own.

At 8 A.M. on the same day, LAWRENCE HENNESSEY, as Coxswain of the Lifeboat, attempted to go afloat from Sandgate, but the boat was thrown on to the beach.

Again at noon, a whole gale blowing at the time, with a very heavy sea breaking on the beach, LAWRENCE HENNESSEY went out in the lifeboat from Hythe; just as the breakers were cleared the lifeboat capsized, HENNESSEY (with the rest of the crew) being washed ashore in an exhausted condition, one man being drowned.

HENNESSEY, though bruised and exhausted, directly he recovered his feet, ran into the surf and assisted in rescuing his comrades, who were still struggling in the breakers.

On the evening of the same day, at 9 P.M., LAWRENCE HENNESSEY went out from Seabrook as Coxswain of the Lifeboat, and succeeded in reaching the wreck of the "Benvenue" and rescuing the twenty-seven survivors, subsequently taking the lifeboat safely to Folkestone.

MR. A.
