

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1892.

Whitehall, February 23, 1892.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence, on the occasion of the death of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, K.G., &c., have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to The Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

COPY of a Resolution passed at the Court of Her Majesty's Lieutenants for the City of London, held at the Guildhall, on the 18th day of January, 1892.

THAT this Court desires to record its profound grief at the loss sustained by Her Majesty and Her Majesty's Family by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, K.G., K.P., also its sympathy with Her Majesty and the members of Her Royal Family in their bereavement.

This Court earnestly prays that this sympathy, which is experienced alike by Her Majesty's subjects throughout the World, may tend to alleviate the grief into which Her Majesty and Her Family have been so unexpectedly plunged.

By Order,

H. Grose Smith, Clerk.

To Her Majesty The QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

I AM authorized to approach Your Majesty on behalf of the Loyal Inhabitants of Cornwall, Representatives of Public Bodies in the county, and Cornish Residents in London (the number of signatories being 22,749), who, having received with feelings of deepest sorrow the sad intelligence of the death of the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, venture to offer to Your Majesty, to their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and to Princess Victoria Mary of Teck, the respectful assurance of their heartfelt sympathy, and pray that the Almighty may send comfort to those most dear to Your Majesty in their heavy affliction.

Earnestly sharing these feelings on my own behalf, I have the honour to be

Your Majesty's humble and obedient
Subject and Servant,

Mount-Edgcumbe,

Lord Lieutenant of Cornwall.

Church of Ireland.

Address of Condolence.

To Her Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty.

ON the part of the Bishops, Clergy, and Laity of the Church of Ireland, we the Members of the Standing Committee of the General Synod of that Church, humbly beg to express our sense of the great loss which we and all Your people have sustained by the death of Your beloved Grandson His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Avondale; and we desire further to assure Your Majesty, as well as their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and Her Serene Highness the Princess Mary of Teck, how deeply we sympathize with the Royal Family in their present bereavement, and how earnestly we pray that the God of all comfort may grant them the consolation which in this the hour of their affliction they so sorely need.

Signed on behalf of Standing Committee,

Phunket, Dublin, Chairman.

The Dutiful Address of the Royal Institute of British Architects to Her Most Gracious Majesty The QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

WITH profound sorrow the President, Council, and General Body of Members of the Royal Institute of British Architects beg leave respectfully to approach Your Majesty, and to tender their deepest sympathy in the irreparable loss which has overtaken Your Royal House in the unlooked for death of His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Avondale.

In circumstances inexpressibly sad and touching, the heart of the Nation has been stirred with emotion of no common kind, and the Members of this Institute desire to join in the universal tribute of affection and loyalty which has been offered to Your Majesty and the Royal Family, and in the prayers for Divine support in a season of such sore and bitter bereavement.

Passed by resolution of the Royal Institute of British Architects at a General Meeting held on Monday, the 18th day of January, 1892, at 9, Conduit-street, Hanover-square, London, and sealed with the corporate seal at a Meeting of