Whitehall, March 8, 1892.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence, on the occasion of the death of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, K.G., &c., have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to The Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

Royal Agricultural Society of England.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the President and Council, representing the general body of Governors and Members of the Royal Agricultural Society of England, beg leave humbly to approach Your Majesty with the assurance of our deep and heartfelt sorrow at the untimely death of His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, and of our earnest and respectful sympathy with Your Majesty in Your affliction.

The high promise of His Royal Highness's youth, the many amiable qualities which endeared him to all with whom he came in contact, and the happiness which appeared to be in store for him in the immediate future, have all combined to intensify the national sense of the loss which Your Majesty and Your People have sustained by his sudden and melancholy decease.

We are always mindful of the gracious interest ever taken by Your Majesty and the other Members of Your Majesty's Family in every subject connected with the agriculture of Your Realm; and we desire to assure Your Majesty that no class of Your subjects is more devotedly attached to Your Throne and Person than the Agriculturists of England.

In their name and on their behalf we humbly beg to express to Your Majesty their deep sense of the heavy affliction which has befallen Your Royal House, and the Nation at large, by the death of His Royal Highness; and we earnestly pray that the Almighty may vouchsafe to Your Majesty health and strength to guide, for many years to come, the destinies of the Empire over which Your beneficent rule extends.

Given under the Common Seal of the Royal Agricultural Society of England this 3rd day of February, 1892.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the County Borough of Stockport, beg very respectfully to approach Your Majesty on the sad occasion of the lamented death of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale.

Your Majesty has on so many occasions felt such tender solicitude and sympathy for the sorrows of Your People, that the heart of the Nation beats with one universal tribute of sorrow for the irreparable loss Your Majesty and Your Royal House have suffered by the cutting off of a life so young and blameless, so full of promise to himself, his Family, and the Nation, depriving Your Majesty of a beloved Grandson, and the Nation of its Hereditary Prince.

We venture to express our deep sense of loyalty and respectful sympathy to Your Majesty and the Royal Family in so sad a bereavement, and pray that Almighty God may give solace to Your Majesty's sorrowing heart.

Given under the Corporate Common Seal, this 3rd day of February, 1892.

With loyal devotion to the Throne of this Empire, and affectionate interest in all that concerns the happiness of Your Majesty, our hearts have been acutely stirred by the great sorrow occasioned to Your Majesty through the loss so sudden and unlooked for of one so much beloved, and for whose future Your Majesty in common with all Your subjects were entertaining such high hopes and aspirations.

We mourn this loss as a national calamity, and beg Your Majesty's gracious acceptance of this tribute of our sympathy, humbly praying that Divine consolation may be abundantly granted to You in this unlooked for affliction, and for a long further continuance of Your Majesty's Reign in health and in the affection of your People.

6. Except by permission of the Postmaster-General, there shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post under this Warrant any Parcel the dimensions of which shall exceed in length two feet, or in width or depth one foot, or which shall exceed in weight seven pounds.

Prepayment.

7. The postage chargeable as hereinbefore

Times of Posting.

8. Return and Disposal of Undelivered Parcels.

13. With regard to—

- (a.) Parcels which are addressed to a Post Office in the United Kingdom to be called for, or to a place in the United Kingdom beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district, or to a ship at any port in the United Kingdom, and which are not called for or delivered within such reasonable times as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe; and
- (b.) Parcels which cannot be delivered in the United Kingdom for want of a true direction, or by reason that the addressee is dead, or cannot be found, or has refused the same, or has refused to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason;

the following provisions shall (subject to the provisions of the Warrant of the said Commissioners of the 12th day of December, 1888, relating to Foreign and Colonial Parcels) apply (that is to say):

- (1.) The Parcel shall, as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct, be retained at or forthwith forwarded to such place as the Postmaster-General may from time to time appoint, and may, if necessary, be there opened and examined.
- (2.) Where the name and address of the sender can be ascertained from the Parcel or the declaration accompanying the same, notice shall be given by post to the sender through the Post Office of Canada, that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, be given up to the sender or his agent upon personal application at such place as aforesaid, or at the request of the sender will be forwarded to a corrected address or returned to him by post in either case upon the conditions hereinafter mentioned.
- (3.) Where the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained from the Parcel, notice shall be publicly given (by affixing the same at such place or places, or in such other manner as the Postmaster-General may direct), and notice shall also be given to the Post Office of Canada that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, and upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter mentioned, be given up upon the personal application of the sender or his agent, or be returned to the sender by post.
- (4.) In any case the notice shall state that in default of the receipt by the Postmaster-General of an application for the Parcel, during a period to be specified in such notice from some person who, in the Postmaster-General's judgment, is entitled to receive the Parcel, it will be disposed of in such a manner as the Postmaster-General may direct.

(5.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.

(6.) Where in the case of a Parcel which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction, the sender corrects the address of the Parcel, the Parcel shall be forwarded to the corrected address, subject to the following conditions:—

- (a.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is within the same free delivery as the original address, and the Parcel is not at the time of such correction lying at a Returned Letter Office, no new charge shall be made with respect to the delivery of the Parcel.
- (b.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is not within the same free delivery as the original address, or the Parcel at the time of such correction is lying at a Returned Letter Office, there shall be paid a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.
- (7.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for re-direction or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."
- (8.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage, according to the rate fixed by this Warrant, and in such case the said rate of postage and all other charges to which the Parcel has become liable, if not prepaid by the sender, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to him.
- (9.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.
- (10.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the Parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Re-direction to Places out of United Kingdom.

14. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom, to any country or place with which a Parcel Post to or from the United Kingdom or Canada is established, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of such re-direction a new and distinct rate of postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like Parcel from the United Kingdom to the country or place to which it may be re-directed, and such postage, if not paid at the time of such re-direction, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to the addressee.

Re-direction to Places within United Kingdom.

15. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel, a new and distinct rate of postage, equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been originally chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.

Remission of Re-direction Rates.

16. The Postmaster-General may wholly remit the rate of postage for re-direction on any Parcel addressed to the United Kingdom which may, on the request of the addressee thereof, be re-directed by an officer of the Post Office, and again forwarded by post to the same person at any address within the limits of the same free postal delivery as the address from which such Parcel was so re-directed.

In any case not in this Warrant expressly provided for, where any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which in any respect infringes or fails to comply with the regulations in this Warrant contained, or any of them, such Parcel may, at the option of the Postmaster-General, either be dealt with as in this Warrant provided, with reference to Parcels which cannot be delivered, or be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Provision for Safety of Parcels.

20. In any case where any officer of the Post Office may find it necessary or expedient for the safety or protection of Parcels that any Parcel should be forwarded or delivered by some later despatch or delivery than that for which the same was posted or despatched, or intended to be posted or despatched respectively, he may delay the despatch or delivery of such Parcel, or make such other and special arrangements as to the despatch or delivery thereof, not, however, involving a greater delay than 24 hours in the whole, as may be deemed by such officer necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case.

Oban Bay Entrance Light is a fixed light of the fourth order, showing a sector of white light on a S.S.E. bearing, over the fairway of the northern entrance, between Maiden Isle and the iron beacon off the north-east coast of Kerrera Island. North-east of this white sector the light is obscured; no light will therefore be seen in the narrow channel between Maiden Isle and the mainland. South-west of this white sector to the bearing of about E. by N., the light shows red. Between the bearings of about E. by N., and N.E. by N. $\frac{3}{4}$ N., over the fairway between Cow Point and Coram Ledge, the light shows white. From N.E. by N. $\frac{3}{4}$ N., inshore as far as the land will permit, the light shows red, thus covering Coram Ledge. It is elevated about 16 feet above high water.

Approximate position, lat. $56^{\circ} 25' 25''$ N., long. $5^{\circ} 28' 45''$ W.
