Duchy of Lancaster, March 16, 1892.

THE Queen has been this day pleased to appoint John Knowles, Esq., of Westwood, Pendlebury, to be Sheriff of the County Palatine of Lancaster for the year ensuing.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of March, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint Edwin Joad, Esq., M.A., of the University of Durham, to be one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of March, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Duke of Rutland.

Marquess of Salisbury.

Lord Chamberlain.

WHEREAS by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, Her Majesty the Queen has jurisdiction within the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Zanzibar;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise, in Her Majesty vested, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Zanzibar Order in Council, 1892.

2. In case Her Majesty is pleased to direct the appointment of a person, not holding Her Majesty's Commission as a Consul or Vice-Consul for Zanzibar or any part thereof, nor acting or appointed temporarily as such under the provisions of the Zanzibar Order in Council, 1884 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Order), to perform, as a Judge or judicial officer or Commissioner in or for Zanzibar or any part thereof, all or any of the judicial powers or jurisdiction by the principal Order vested in or exercisable by a Consular Court, a person so appointed by the authority of a Secretary of State, in such form as a Secretary of State may direct, shall in like manner hold and form a Court, and for the purposes of, and subject to any limitations contained in, his appointment, shall have and exercise all the same powers and jurisdiction which under the principal Order can be exercised by a Consular Court, and shall be removable by authority of a Secretary of State: and it shall be lawful for a Secretary of State, by any such appointment or otherwise, to make provision for assigning to such Judge or judicial officer or Commissioner such of the powers or so much of the jurisdiction exercisable under the principal Order and this Order, to be exercised by them, either separately or concurrently, as the Secretary of State from time to time directs, and under such description or designation as he directs.

In this Order expressions have the same meaning as in the principal Order.

And the Most Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury, K.G., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of March, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Coinage Act, 1891, it is enacted as follows:—

"(1.) It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to direct that gold coins of the realm which have not been called in by proclamation and are below the least current weight as provided by the Coinage Act, 1870, shall, if they have not been illegally dealt with, and subject to such conditions as to time, manner, and order of presentation as may be mentioned in the Order, be exchanged or paid for by or on behalf of the Mint at their nominal value:

"(2.) For the purposes of this Act a gold coin shall be deemed to have been illegally dealt with where the coin has been impaired, diminished, or lightened otherwise than by fair wear and tear, or has been defaced by having any name, word, device, or number stamped thereon, whether the coin has or has not been thereby diminished or lightened":

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the exchange of such gold coins:

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, in pursuance of the
