FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 1892.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 30, 1892.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Wednesday, the 25th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 29, 1892.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that—
His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Thursday, the 5th of May next, at two o'clock;

His Royal Highness The Duke of Connaught will, by command of The Queen, also hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Thursday, the 12th of May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to Their Royal Highnesses at these Levees shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REG. IATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

LATHOM,
Lord Chamberlain.

Civil Service Commission, April 1, 1892.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April, 1872, and amended by subsequent notices in the London Gazette) respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the situation of Assistant Surveyor, Royal Engineer Civil Staff.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration for future Examinations.

I. The limits of age for this situation are 21 and 30, and Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the competitive examination. Persons already serving as Temporary Clerk of Works will be eligible in respect of age if their service commenced when they were under 30, if their age does not at the date of the examination exceed 40, and if their service has been continuous up to the same date.

II. Candidates will be required to show what technical education and practical training they have undergone to qualify themselves for a situation of this nature. They must show (1) that they have served for at least three years in a public or private office under an Architect, Builder, Civil Engineer, or Surveyor; (2) that the works on which they have been engaged during those years were such as to afford them the opportunity of gaining a satisfactory knowledge of their profession; and (3) that they have fully profited by their practical training, and possess the necessary qualifications and experience. Evidence on these points must be sent in at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint. If such evidence should prove prima facie satisfactory, the Candidate will be admitted to examination, subject, in the case of his being successful in the competition, to such further inquiry, and the production of such further evidence as may be necessary.

III. The examination will consist of two parts, and will be in the following subjects, viz. :—

PART I.—PRELIMINARY.

1. Handwriting and Orthography.
2. English Composition, as tested by writing letters from rough notes.
3. Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).

No. 26273.

B

(The examination in subjects 1 and 3 will include tests of rapidity as well as of neatness and accuracy.)

* * No Candidate who fails to show satisfactory proficiency in any of the subjects specified above will be admitted to the competitive part of the examination.

PART II.—Competitive.

1. One of the following (at the option of the Candidate):—

- (a.) Architectural Drawing.
- (b.) Engineering Drawing.
- (c.) Preparation of Working Drawings for details of Builders' work

2. Theory of Construction.

3. Strength and quality of materials, and description of workmanship, tools, and plant.

4. Analysis of prices.

5. Measurement and estimate of Builders' work, including taking off quantities from Drawings and preparing the Abstracts and Bills of Quantities.

6. Sanitary Engineering.

In addition to the above six subjects a Candidate may take up any of the following optional subjects :—

- A. Euclid (the first three Books).
- B. Algebra, including quadratic equations.
- C. Plane Trigonometry.
- D. Geometrical Drawing and Freehand Sketches in Outline.
- E. Chemistry and Mineralogy relating to Building Materials.

IV. A fee of £1 will be required from every Candidate attending the Preliminary Examination, and a further fee of £4 from every Candidate admitted to the Competitive Examination.

V. Application for permission to attend an examination must be made at such times and in such manner as the Commissioners may appoint.

* * Candidates must be ready to serve at any station at home or abroad.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination will be held in London, under the foregoing Regulations, commencing on the 24th May, 1892.

A Preliminary Examination will be held in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, on the 12th May, 1892. The number of situations to be filled will be the number vacant at the time of the Examination.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 29th April, an application, in the handwriting of the Candidate, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

In Parliament.—Session 1892.

Great Western Railway.

(Petition for Additional Provision for authorizing the Great Western Railway Company to construct a new Railway in the Parish of Ruabon; For the Abandonment of portion of existing Railway; For power to enter into Agreements with Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers; and for other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Great Western Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company") intend to apply to Parliament by Petition for additional provision for leave to introduce into the Bill now before Parliament under the above name or short title, clauses to authorize them to make and maintain the railway hereinafter mentioned, or some part or parts thereof, together with all necessary stations, sidings, approaches, roads, works, and conveniences connected therewith, viz.:—

A railway to be situate in the parish of Ruabon, and in the townships of Moreton-below and Bodylltyn, in the county of Denbigh, commencing by a junction with the railway of the Company firstly described in and authorized to be maintained by Section 18 of the Great Western Railway Act, 1849, at a point about 4 chains northward of the bridge which carries the road leading from Gardden Hall to the rexham and Ruabon road, near the Moreton Inn, and terminating by a junction with the Shrewsbury and Chester Railway of the Company, about 3 chains northward of the culvert carrying the Afon Goch Brook under the said Shrewsbury and Chester Railway.

To enable the Company to purchase, by agreement or compulsion, and to hold lands (which expression in this notice includes houses, buildings, mines and minerals, and easements in and over lands) for the purposes of the railway and works hereinbefore described to be authorized by the intended Act or described therein.

To alter, as respects the powers of compulsory purchase for the purposes of the intended Act or some of them, the provisions contained in Section 92 of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," so as to relieve the Company from liability to take the whole of any house or other building or manufactory if they take any part thereof.

To authorize and provide for the abandonment and discontinuance of the whole or such part as may be provided for by the intended Act, of the portion of their said existing railway between the junction therewith of the intended railway and the junction of the existing railway with the said Shrewsbury and Chester Railway, and to authorize agreements between the Company and the owners, lessees, and occupiers of any lands in or through which the said portion of the existing railway has been constructed with reference to the sale, exchange, or use of any such lands and any lands which may be required for the purposes of the intended railway, and to confirm or give effect to any such agreement.

To vary, repeal, or extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with the lands proposed to be purchased or taken, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the purposes of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To authorize the alteration, diversion, widening, crossing, or stopping up of all roads, bridges, footpaths, railways, tramways, aqueducts, canals, ferries, streams, and rivers within or adjoining the aforesaid lands, and which it may be necessary or convenient to interfere with for the purposes of the intended Act.

To authorize the levying of tolls, rates, and other charges for and in respect of the use of the said intended railway, and also for the use of the other works, conveniences, and accommodation connected with the said railway, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and charges, and to grant exemptions from tolls, rates, and charges.

To alter, amend, and extend or repeal all or some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts hereinbefore mentioned in this notice, and also of the Act (local and personal), viz., 5 and 6 Will. IV, cap. 107, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Company or their Undertaking.

And notice is hereby given, that maps, plans, and sections of the said intended railway, together with books of reference to such plans, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 5th day of April next, be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Denbigh, at his office at Ruthin, and with the parish clerk of the parish of Ruabon, at his residence.

Dated this 28th day of March, 1892.

In Parliament.—Session 1892.

Liskeard and Caradon Railway (Extension of Time) Bill.

(Petition for Additional Provision; Formation of Authorized Railway into a Separate Undertaking; Agreements with and Powers to North Cornwall Railway Company; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session by the Liskeard and Caradon Railway Company, by petition for additional provision, for leave to insert in the Bill now pending in the House of Lords under the above name or short title provisions for effecting the following objects, that is to say:—

To constitute the railway authorized by the Liskeard and Caradon Railway Act, 1884 (in the said Bill called the Launceston Railway) a separate Undertaking distinct from the other portions of the Undertaking of the Company with a separate share and loan capital charged primarily or exclusively on the said separate Undertaking, and to define and regulate the rights and powers of shareholders, mortgagees, and others in or with reference to such separate Undertaking.

To sanction and confirm an agreement between the Company and the North Cornwall Railway Company entered into, in pursuance of the provisions of section 9 of the Liskeard and Caradon Railway Act, 1887.

To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects of the additional provision, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To alter, amend, or repeal, so far as may be necessary, the provisions of the Acts relating to the Company and the North Cornwall Railway Company respectively.

Printed copies of the proposed additional provision may be obtained on application, at the offices of the undersigned, on and after the twenty-eighth day of March, 1892.

Dated this 22nd day of March, 1892.

CHILDS AND SON, Liskeard, Solicitors.

JOHN CHARLES BALL, 16, Parliament-street, Westminster, Parliamentary Agent.

THE RAILWAY AND CANAL TRAFFIC ACT, 1888.

Stort Navigation.

Proposed Revision of Tolls for Traffic on the Stort Navigation.

NOTICE is hereby given that, pursuant to the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, the Stort Navigation has submitted to the Board of Trade a revised schedule of maximum tolls proposed to be charged by the said Navigation.

Printed copies of the proposed schedule can be obtained, at the price of one shilling, at the principal office of the Navigation, Latton Island, Harlow, Essex, or on application to the Toll Collector at Roydon, on the Navigation.

Anyone wishing to raise any objection to the proposed schedule may forward, by post a notice of objection to the Board of Trade, marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it, "Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888."

Notices of objection must be transmitted to the Board of Trade so as to reach there on or before the expiration of eight weeks from the 2nd day of April, 1892.

The date on which the said term of eight weeks will expire is the 27th day of May, 1892.

Every objector must at the same time transmit to the Proprietor of the said Navigation, a copy of the notice of objection, otherwise the objection will be liable to be dismissed without being heard.

Due notice will be given of the time appointed for hearing and disposing of notices of objection.

JOHN POOLE DAVIS, Proprietor of the Stort Navigation.

County of London.

Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890 (53 and 54 Vic. c. 70).

London (Brooke's Market, Holborn) Improvement Scheme, 1891.

NOTICE is hereby given, by the London County Council, being the Local Authority for the County of London, that the Local Government Board have, in pursuance of the Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890, made an Order sanctioning a scheme, made under Part II of the said Act, by the said London County Council, for the improvement of the area in the parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, in the said county, the limits or which are stated in the schedule hereunder, and which contains, by estimation, about 2,600 square yards.

A copy of the said Order, accompanied by a plan distinguishing the lands proposed to be taken compulsorily, has been deposited at each of the following places, namely:—at the office of the Clerk of the Board of Works for the Holborn District, at the Townhall, Gray's-inn-road, W.C., and at the office of the London County Council, Spring-gardens, Charing Cross, London, S.W., and may be seen at either of those places at all reasonable hours.

Schedule.

The area to which the scheme relates is bounded as follows:—

On the north by the south frontage line of the houses on the north side of Dowington-street.

On the south by the north frontage line extending across Greville-court and Brook-street of the houses on the south side of Beauchamp-street.

On the east by the west frontage line, extending across Dowington-street and Beauchamp-street, of the houses on the east side of a street unnamed, connecting Dowington-street and Beauchamp-street, and being the next street west of and parallel to Leather-lane.

On the west partly by the east frontage of the houses on the west side of Brook-street and partly by the east end of a passage at the north end of the said houses.

Dated the 29th day of March, 1892.

Sealed by Order.

H. DE LA HOOKE,
Clerk of the Council.
