SCHEDULE.

A Place comprising the farm buildings, yards, and a field called the Big Alders, excluding the farmhouse, coachhouse and stabling, on Great Bentley Farm, Cuckfield, in the Eastern Division of the county of Sussex, in the occupation of Mr. Arthur William Salmon.

THE ANIMALS (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1892, No. 4.

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1890, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

Revocation of Orders.

1. The Orders described in the Schedule to this Order, to the extent described in that Schedule, are hereby, from and after the commencement of this Order, revoked: Provided that such revocation shall not revive any part of any Order revoked by or otherwise affect the past operation or invalidate or make unlawful anything done under such part hereby revoked before the commencement of this Order, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, any part of any Order hereby revoked before the commencement of this Order.

Cattle from Isle of Man to be free.

2. Chapter 34 (Isle of Man) of the Animals Order of 1886 shall, from and after the commencement of this Order, apply to cattle as well as to other animals brought from the Isle of Man, as if the Animals (Amendment) Order of 1891 had not been made.

Amendment of Article 151 of The Animals Order of 1886.

3. The following provisions of this Article shall be read in the place of Article 151 of the Animals Order of 1886, and shall be deemed to be Article 151 of that Order (namely) :

Conditions of Landing.

151.—(1.) The landing of foreign animals at a Landing-Place for foreign animals under the provisions of this Chapter is subject to the following conditions :

First. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-eight days before taking them on board, had on board any animal exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in any country other than Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or New Zealand, or the Channel Islands, or the United States of America (provision as to which country is made by the second condition of this Article), or the Isle of Man.

Second. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-one days before taking them on board, had on board any animal exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in the United States of America.

Third. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-one days before taking them on board or at any time since taking on board the animals imported, entered any port or place in any country other than Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or New Zealand, or the Channel Islands, or the United States of America, or the Isle of Man.

Fourth. That the animals imported have not, while on board the vessel, been in contact with any animal exported or carried coastwise from any port or place in any country other than Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or New Zealand, or the Channel Islands, or the Isle of Man.

(2.) And the animals imported shall not be landed at a Landing-Place for foreign animals unless and until—

(a.) The owner or charterer of the vessel in which they are imported, or his agent in England or Wales or Scotland, has entered into a bond to Her Majesty the Queen, in a sum not exceeding one thousand pounds, with or without a surety or sureties, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs; conditioned for the observance of the foregoing conditions; and

(b.) The master of the vessel has on each occasion of importation of foreign animals therein satisfied the Commissioners of Customs, or their proper officer, by declara-
