"The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

"If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent Court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

"A sentence passed in contumaciam is not to be deemed a conviction, but a person so sentenced may be dealt with as an accused person.

"ARTICLE IX.

"If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

"ARTICLE X.

"If the fugitive has been arrested in the British dominions, he shall forthwith be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, just as if the apprehension had taken place for a crime committed in the British dominions.

"In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the British dominions shall admit as valid evidence the sworn depositions or the affirmations of witnesses taken in Monaco, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, and certificates of, or judicial documents stating the fact of, a conviction, provided the same are authenticated as follows:—

"1. A warrant must purport to be signed by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the Principality of Monaco.

"2. Depositions or affirmations or the copies thereof must purport to be certified under the hand of a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the Principality of Monaco, to be the original depositions or affirmations, or to be the true copies thereof, as the case may require.

"3. A certificate of or judicial document stating the fact of a conviction must purport to be certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the Principality of Monaco.

"4. In every case such warrant, deposition, affirmation, copy, certificate, or judicial document must be authenticated either by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal and legalization of the Governor-General of the Principality of Monaco; but any other mode of authentication for the time being permitted by the law in that part of the British dominions where the examination is taken, may be substituted for the foregoing.

"ARTICLE VIII.

"L'extradition sera demandée de la manière suivante:—

"La demande de la part du Gouvernement de Sa Majesté Britannique pour l'extradition d'un criminel réfugié dans la Principauté de Monaco, sera faite par le Consul de Sa Majesté accrédité près de Son Altesse Sérénissime.

"La demande de la part de la Principauté de Monaco pour l'extradition d'un criminel fugitif dans le Royaume-Uni sera faite par le Consul-Général de Monaco à Londres.

"La demande d'extradition d'un prévenu devra être accompagnée d'un mandat d'arrêt décerné par l'autorité compétente de l'État requérant, et des preuves qui, d'après les lois de l'endroit où le prévenu a été trouvé, justifieraient son arrestation si l'acte punissable y avait été commis.

"Si la demande d'extradition concerne une personne déjà condamnée, elle doit être accompagnée de l'arrêt de condamnation qui a été rendu contre le coupable par le Tribunal compétent de l'État requérant.

"Un arrêt rendu par contumace ne sera pas considéré comme une condamnation, mais une personne ainsi condamnée pourra être traitée comme une personne poursuivie.

"ARTICLE IX.

"Si la demande d'extradition s'accorde avec les stipulations précédentes, les autorités compétentes de l'État requis procéderont à l'arrestation du fugitif.

"ARTICLE X.

"Si le fugitif est arrêté sur le territoire Britannique, il sera aussitôt amené devant un Magistrate compétent, qui devra l'entendre et procéder à l'examen préliminaire de l'affaire de la même manière que si l'arrestation avait eu lieu pour un crime commis sur le territoire Britannique.

"Les autorités de la Grande-Bretagne, quand elles procéderont à l'examen établi par les stipulations précédentes, devront admettre comme preuves entièrement valables les dépositions assermentées ou les affirmations faites à Monaco, ou les copies de ces pièces, de même que les mandats d'arrêt et les sentences rendues dans ce pays, ainsi que les certificats de condamnation ou les pièces judiciaires constatant le fait d'une condamnation, pourvu que ces documents soient rendus authentiques de la manière suivante:—

"1. Un mandat doit être signé par un Juge, Magistrat, ou officier de la Principauté de Monaco.

"2. Les dépositions ou affirmations ou les copies de ces pièces, doivent porter la signature d'un Juge, Magistrat, ou officier de la Principauté de Monaco, constatant que ces dépositions ou ces affirmations se trouvent être en expédition originale ou en copie vidimée, selon le cas.

"3. Un certificat de condamnation ou un document judiciaire constatant le fait d'une condamnation doit être certifié par un Juge, Magistrat, ou officier de la Principauté de Monaco.

"4. Ces mandats, dépositions, affirmations, copies, certificats ou documents judiciaires doivent être rendus authentiques dans chaque cas, soit par le serment d'un témoin, soit par l'apposition du sceau officiel et la legalization du Gouverneur-Général de la Principauté de Monaco; cependant, les pièces sus-énoncées pourront être rendues authentiques de toute autre manière qui serait reconnue par les lois locales en vigueur dans la partie du territoire Britannique où l'examen de l'affaire aura lieu.

"ARTICLE XI."

"If the fugitive has been arrested in the Principality of Monaco, his surrender shall be granted if, upon examination by a competent authority, it appears that the documents furnished by the British Government contain sufficient prima facie evidence to justify the extradition.

"The authorities of the Principality shall admit as valid evidence records drawn up by the British authorities of the depositions of witnesses, or copies thereof, and records of conviction or other judicial documents or copies thereof: Provided that the said documents be signed or authenticated by an authority whose competence shall be certified by the seal of a Minister of State of Her Britannic Majesty.

"ARTICLE XII."

"The extradition shall not take place unless the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the said State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition, and that the crime of which he has been convicted is one in respect of which extradition could, at the time of such conviction, have been granted by the State applied to. In Her Britannic Majesty's dominions the fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered until the expiration of fifteen days from the date of his being committed to prison to await his surrender.

"ARTICLE XIII."

"If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other Powers, on account of other crimes or offences committed upon their respective territories, his extradition shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date.

"ARTICLE XIV."

"If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, or within such further time as the State applied to, or the proper Tribunal thereof shall direct, the fugitive shall be set at liberty.

"ARTICLE XV."

"All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered, at the time of his apprehension, shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place, and the said delivery shall extend not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

"ARTICLE XVI."

"All expenses connected with extradition shall be borne by the demanding State.

"ARTICLE XVII."

"Either of the High Contracting Parties who may wish to have recourse for purposes of extradition to transit through the territory of a third Power shall be bound to arrange the condition of transit with such third Power.

"ARTICLE XI."

"L'extradition d'un fugitif arrêté dans la Principauté de Monaco sera accordée, si le résultat de l'examen qui en sera fait par une autorité compétente que les documents fournis par le Gouvernement Britannique contiennent des preuves prima facie suffisantes pour justifier l'extradition.

"Les autorités de la Principauté devront admettre comme preuves entièrement valables les procès-verbaux des dépositions de témoins dressés par les autorités Britanniques, ou les copies de ces procès-verbaux; ainsi que les procès-verbaux des condamnations ou autres documents judiciaires, ou les copies de ces actes; pourvu que ces documents soient signés ou rendus authentiques par une autorité dont la compétence sera certifiée par le sceau d'un Ministre d'Etat de Sa Majesté Britannique.

"ARTICLE XII."

"L'extradition n'aura lieu que dans le cas où les preuves fournies auront été trouvées suffisantes d'après les lois de l'Etat requis, soit pour justifier la mise sous jugement du prisonnier, dans le cas où le crime aurait été commis sur le territoire du dit Etat, soit pour constater l'identité du prisonnier avec l'individu condamné par les Tribunaux de l'Etat requérant, et prouver que le crime dont il a été reconnu coupable aurait pu causer son extradition par l'Etat requis à l'époque de sa condamnation. L'extradition du fugitif n'aura lieu dans les territoires de Sa Majesté Britannique qu'à l'expiration d'un terme de quinze jours à dater de son emprisonnement en vue de l'extradition.

"ARTICLE XIII."

"Si l'individu réclamé par l'une des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes, en exécution du présent Traité, est aussi réclamé par une ou plusieurs autres Puissances, du chef d'autres crimes ou délits commis sur leurs territoires respectifs, son extradition sera accordée à l'Etat dont la demande est la plus ancienne en date.

"ARTICLE XIV."

"Le fugitif sera mis en liberté si les preuves suffisantes à l'appui de la demande en extradition ne sont pas produites dans l'espace de deux mois, à partir du jour de l'arrestation, ou de tel autre terme plus éloigné qui aura été indiqué par l'Etat requis ou le Tribunal compétent de cet Etat.

"ARTICLE XV."

"Les objets saisis en la possession de l'individu réclamé au moment de son arrestation seront, si l'autorité compétente de l'Etat requis en a ordonné la remise, livrés lorsque l'extradition aura lieu; cette remise ne comprendra pas seulement les objets volés, mais encore tout ce qui peut servir de pièce de conviction.

"ARTICLE XVI."

"Toutes les dépenses occasionnées par une demande d'extradition seront à la charge de l'Etat requérant.

"ARTICLE XVII."

"Celle des Hautes Parties Contractantes qui voudrait recourir, pour l'extradition, au transit sur le territoire d'une tierce Puissance, aurait à en régler les conditions avec cette dernière.

"ARTICLE XVIII.

"When in a criminal case of a non-political character either of the High Contracting Parties should think it necessary to take the evidence of witnesses residing in the dominion of the other, or to obtain any other legal evidence, a Commission Rogatoire to that effect shall be sent through the channel indicated in Article VIII, and effect shall be given thereto conformably to the laws in force in the place where the evidence is to be taken.

"ARTICLE XIX.

"All documents which shall be reciprocally communicated in execution of the present Treaty shall be accompanied by a French or English translation (certified to be correct by the Consul who transmits the document in accordance with Article VIII), when they are not drawn up in the language of the country upon which the demand is made.

"The expense of such translations shall be borne by the demanding State.

"ARTICLE XX.

"The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, so far as the laws for the time being in force in such Colonies and foreign possessions respectively will allow.

"The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions may be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession by any person authorized to act in such Colony or possession as a Consular officer of the Principality of Monaco.

"Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, and so far as the law of such Colony or foreign possession will allow, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governor or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender or to refer the matter to his Government.

Herbert M. Suft.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of May, 1892.

PRESENT:

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Earl of Yarborough.

Sir Walter Barttelot, Bart.
Mr. Forwood.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the thirty-seventh year of Her Majesty's Reign, chapter eighty-eight, intituled "The Slave Trade Act, 1873," it was, amongst other things, provided that where any Treaty in relation to the Slave Trade is made after the passing of that Act, by or on behalf of Her Majesty with any foreign State, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that as from such date, not being earlier than the date of the Treaty, as may be specified in the Order, such Treaty shall be deemed, and that thereupon (as from the said date, or if no date should be specified, as from the date of such Order) such Treaty shall be deemed to be an existing Slave Trade Treaty within the meaning of the Act, and all the provisions of the Act should apply and be construed accordingly.

And whereas on the second day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, a Treaty for the Suppression of the African Slave Trade was concluded between Her Majesty and Her Majesty the Queen Regent of Spain, in the name of His Majesty the King of Spain, in the following terms, that is to say:—

"HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and Her Majesty the Queen Regent of Spain, in the name of her august son, His Majesty the King Don Alfonso XIII, being mutually animated by a sincere desire to co-operate by all means in their power towards the extinction of the Trade in African Slaves, wherever that Traffic may still exist, and being convinced of the necessity of terminating the ancient Treaties now in force, and of replacing them by another more in harmony with the present state of things, and with the provisions of the General Act of the Conference of Brussels, have resolved to conclude a special Treaty to that effect, and for this purpose have named as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:

"Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, Lord Vivian, a Peer of the United Kingdom, Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of the King of the Belgians; and Sir John Kirk, one of Her Majesty's Plenipotentiaries to the Conference of Brussels;

"And Her Majesty the Queen Regent of Spain, Don José Gutierrez de Agüera, Her Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of His Majesty the King of the Belgians;

"Su Majestad la Reina del Reino Unido de la Gran Bretaña é Irlanda, Emperatriz de las Indias, y Su Majestad la Reina Regente de España, en nombre de su augusto hijo, Su Majestad el Rey Don Alfonso XIII, igualmente animadas del sincero deseo de contribuir por todos los medios posibles á la supresion del Tráfico de Esclavos Africanos en los lugares en que todavia existe, y convencidas de la necesidad de derogar sus antiguos Tratados vigentes, reemplazándolos por otro mas en armonia con el estado de cosas actual, asi como con las disposiciones del Acta General de la Conferencia de Bruselas, han resuelto concluir un Tratado especial y nombrado al efecto por sus Plenipotenciarios, á saber:

"Su Majestad la Reina del Reino Unido de la Gran Bretaña é Irlanda, Emperatriz de las Indias, á Lord Vivian, Par del Reino Unido, Su Enviado Extraordinario y Ministro Plenipotenciario cerca de Su Majestad el Rey de los Belgas; y á Sir John Kirk, Su Plenipotenciario en la Conferencia de Bruselas;

"Y Su Majestad la Reina Regente de España, á Don José Gutierrez de Agüera, Su Enviado Extraordinario y Ministro Plenipotenciario cerca de Su Majestad el Rey de los Belgas;

"Who, having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

"ARTICLE I.

"Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and Her Majesty the Queen Regent of Spain, engage to prohibit all Trade in Slaves carried on either by their respective subjects or under their respective flags, or by means of capital belonging to their respective subjects, and to punish all persons engaged in such Traffic with all the severity permitted by the laws which are actually or which hereafter may come into force in the respective countries. Their Majesties further declare that any vessel which may attempt to carry on the Slave Trade shall, by that fact alone, forfeit all right to the protection of their respective flags.

"ARTICLE II.

"In order more fully to attain the object of the present Treaty, the High Contracting Parties have mutually agreed to restrict all measures for the more effectual suppression of the Slave Trade to the maritime zone within which the Traffic still exists, which is limited on the one side by the shores of the Indian Ocean (including the Persian Gulf and the Red Sea), from the coast of Beloochistan to Tangalani Point (Quilimane), and on the other by a conventional line which, after following the meridian of Tangalani to the point of intersection with the 26° of south latitude, follows that parallel, skirting the Island of Madagascar on the eastern side, at a distance of twenty miles from its eastern and northern coasts, as far as its point of intersection with the meridian of Cape Amber; from this point the limit of the zone is fixed by an oblique line which strikes the coast of Beloochistan, keeping twenty miles outside of Cape Ras-el-Had.

"ARTICLE III.

"The two High Contracting Parties have likewise agreed to limit the operation of the present Treaty to vessels of less than five hundred tons measurement, reserving the right of revising this clause whenever experience shows the necessity of it.

"ARTICLE IV.

"In addition to the measures adopted by common agreement by all the Signatory Powers of the General Act of the Conference of Brussels with a view to prevent the usurpation of their respective flags, and to insure the exercise of a strict supervision over native vessels authorized to hoist their colours, as well as for the liberation of slaves, and for the early exchange of information necessary for the suppression of the Slave Trade, the two High Contracting Parties have agreed that their respective ships of war may, within the above-defined zone, and after verification of the ships' papers, search all merchant-vessels of the tonnage indicated in Article III, belonging to one or other of the High Contracting Parties, which may afford reasonable ground of suspicion that they have been engaged in the Slave Trade, or have been fitted out for that purpose, or have been engaged in the Traffic during the voyage in which the vessel may have been met by the said cruisers; and all such cruisers may detain, send, or take such suspected vessels for trial in the manner hereinafter agreed to.

"Los cuales, despues de haberse comunicado sus respectivos plenos poderes, y halládoslos en buena y debida forma, han convenido en los Artículos siguientes:—

"ARTICULO I.

"Su Majestad la Reina del Reino Unido de la Gran Bretaña é Irlanda, Emperatriz de las Indias, y Su Majestad la Reina Regente de España, se obligan á prohibir todo Tráfico de Esclavos ya por parte de sus súbditos respectivos, ya bajo sus respectivas banderas, ó ya por medio de capitales pertenecientes á sus respectivos súbditos, y á castigar á todo el que se ocupe en dicho Tráfico con todo el rigor que permitan las leyes que esten ó puedan estar en vigor en uno ú otro pais. Sus Majestades declaran además que todo buque que intente ejercer el Tráfico de Esclavos perderá por este solo hecho todo derecho á la proteccion de su bandera.

"ARTICULO II.

"A fin de conseguir mas completamente el objeto del presente Tratado, las dos Altas Partes Contratantes convienen de comun acuerdo en restringir todas las medidas para la mas eficaz represion del Tráfico de Esclavos á la zona maritima en que todavia existe y que esta limitada de una parte por las costas del Oceano Indico (comprendidas las del Golfo Pérsico y del Mar Rojo) desde el Belouchistan hasta la punta de Tangalane (Quilimane), y de otra por una linea convencional que, despues de seguir el meridiano de Tangalane hasta el punto de union con el grado 26° de latitud sur, se confunde con este paralelo y rodea al este la Isla de Madagascar á una distancia de 20 millas de sus costas oriental y septentrional, hasta su interseccion con el meridiano de Cabo Ambar. Desde este punto el limite de la zona queda determinado por una linea oblicua que va á unirse con la costa del Belouchistan, pasando á 20 millas de distancia del Cabo Raz-el-Had.

"ARTICULO III.

"Las dos Altas Partes Contratantes están igualmente de acuerdo en limitar los efectos del presente Tratado á los buques de una cabida inferior á 500 toneladas, reservándose la facultad de revisar esta cláusula si la experiencia demuestra que es necesario.

"ARTICULO IV.

"Ademas de las medidas adoptadas de comun acuerdo por todas las Potencias Signatarias del Acta General de la Conferencia de Bruselas para prevenir la usurpacion de sus pabellones respectivos y ejercer una vigilancia rigorosa sobre los buques indigenas autorizados á enarbolar sus banderas, asi como para poner en libertad á los esclavos y comunicar sin perdida de tiempo los datos oportunos para la represion del dicho Tráfico, las dos Altas Partes Contratantes convienen en que sus buques de guerra podrán visitar, dentro de la zona que queda definida y despues del examen de los papeles de á bordo, á todo buque mercante de la cabida especificada en el Artículo III, perteneciente á una ú otra de las dos Altas Partes Contratantes, que con fundados motivos podran dar lugar á sospechas de que se ocupa en el Tráfico de Esclavos, ó de haber sido equipado con el mismo objeto, ó de haberse dedicado á dicho Tráfico durante el viaje en que lo encuentren los referidos cruceros; y en que estos cruceros podran detener y enviar é conducir dichos buques á fin de que puedan ser juzgados del modo convenido á continuacion.

"ARTICLE V.

"In no case shall the mutual right of search and visit be exercised over ships of war or over vessels belonging to the Governments of either of the High Contracting Parties, but their cruizers shall afford each other mutual assistance in all cases in which it may be useful that they should act in concert.

"ARTICLE VI.

"Whenever a merchant-vessel, sailing under the flag of one of the High Contracting Parties, shall have been detained by a cruizer of the other Power in conformity with the provisions of the present Treaty, the vessel, together with the captain, crew, cargo, and any slaves that may be found on board, shall be conveyed to one or other of the places designated in this Article, and given over to the authorities appointed for this purpose by the respective Governments, in order to their being proceeded against before the competent Tribunals in the manner hereinafter specified.

"All British vessels which may be detained within the above-mentioned zone by a Spanish cruizer shall be conveyed and made over for trial to the competent authorities appointed for that purpose within the said zone by the Government of Her Britannic Majesty, or shall be handed over to a British man-of-war, provided the Captain is willing to take charge of the prize.

"All Spanish merchant-vessels that may be detained by a British cruizer shall be conveyed and made over for trial to the Consular authority whom Her Majesty the Queen Regent of Spain may appoint in one or more of the ports of the said zone, or shall be handed over to a Spanish man-of-war, provided the Captain is willing to take charge of the prize.

"ARTICLE VII.

"Every merchant-vessel belonging to one or other of the High Contracting Parties which may have been searched and detained at sea in virtue of the provisions of the present Treaty shall be liable to condemnation on the production of evidence establishing, to the satisfaction of the national Tribunal, that the vessel has been engaged in an act of Slave Trade in the course of the voyage during which it was detained.

"ARTICLE VIII.

"The authorities specified in Article VI shall proceed immediately to inquire into, and adjudicate on, the case of any vessel detained in accordance with the stipulations contained in Articles L to LIX of the General Act of the Brussels Conference; the general provisions of which Act are also applicable in all cases not specially provided for in the present Treaty.

"ARTICLE IX.

"The two High Contracting Parties have also agreed to insure the immediate liberation of all slaves found on board vessels detained in virtue of the foregoing stipulations.

"ARTICLE X.

"The present Treaty shall come into force on the same date as the General Act of the Brussels Conference, and shall remain in force during the continuance of that Act, the High Contracting Parties having agreed to abrogate their former Conventions on this subject, specially their Treaty of June 28, 1835.

"ARTICULO V.

"En ningún caso se ejercerá el derecho mutuo de visita sobre los buques de guerra ó pertenecientes al Gobierno de cada una de las dos Altas Partes Contratantes; pero sus cruceros se prestarán asistencia reciprocamente en todas las circunstancias en que pueda ser útil que procedan de concierto.

"ARTICULO VI.

"Siempre que un buque mercante, que navegue bajo la bandera de una de las dos Altas Partes Contratantes, haya sido detenido por un crucero de la otra, conforme á las disposiciones del presente Tratado, dicho buque, así como el capitán, la tripulación, el cargamento y los esclavos que puedan encontrarse á bordo, serán conducidos á uno u otro de los lugares designados en este Artículo, y la entrega se hará á las autoridades constituidas con este objeto por los Gobiernos respectivos, á fin de que se proceda respecto á ellos ante los Tribunales competentes de la manera que se expresa á continuación.

"Todos los buques Ingleses que puedan ser detenidos en la zona arriba mencionada por un crucero Español serán conducidos y entregados á las autoridades competentes, designadas al efecto dentro de la misma zona por el Gobierno de Su Majestad la Reina de la Gran Bretaña, ó serán entregados á un buque de guerra Inglés, si su capitán consiente en hacerse cargo de la presa.

"Todos los buques mercantes Españoles que puedan ser detenidos en la zona por un crucero Inglés serán conducidos y entregados á la autoridad Consular que el Gobierno de Su Majestad la Reina Regente de España ha de establecer en uno ó varios puertos de la misma zona; ó serán entregados á un buque de guerra Español, si su capitán consiente en hacerse cargo de él.

"ARTICULO VII.

"Todo buque mercante perteneciente á una u otra de las dos Altas Partes Contratantes que haya sido visitado y detenido en el mar en virtud de las disposiciones del presente Tratado, estará en condición de ser condenado, si se presentan pruebas que acrediten, á satisfacción del Tribunal nacional, que se ha dedicado á una operación de Trafico de Esclavos en el curso del viaje durante el cual ha sido detenido.

"ARTICULO VIII.

"Las autoridades especificadas en el Artículo VI procederán inmediatamente á instruir y juzgar la causa de todo buque detenido en virtud de las estipulaciones contenidas en los Artículos L á LIX inclusive del Acta General de la Conferencia de Bruselas, cuyas cláusulas generales serán aplicables también á todos los casos no previstos especialmente por el presente Tratado.

"ARTICULO IX.

"Las dos Altas Partes Contratantes convienen igualmente en asegurar la libertad inmediata de todos los esclavos que se encuentren á bordo de los buques detenidos en virtud de las estipulaciones que preceden.

"ARTICULO X.

"El presente Tratado empezará á regir el mismo día, y continuará en vigor el mismo tiempo que el Acta General de la Conferencia de Bruselas; estando de acuerdo las dos Altas Partes Contratantes en declarar derogados sus anteriores Convenios sobre este asunto y principalmente su Tratado de 28 de Junio de 1835.

“ARTICLE XI.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's reign intituled "An Act for Facilitating the Union of Liberties with the Counties in which they are situate," it is enacted that where it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any liberty, or to the Justices of the county in which any liberty is situate, that the union of the liberty with the county in which the same is situated should be effected under this Act it shall be lawful for such Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition shall be presented to Her Majesty praying that such union take place, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given as hereinafter described; and that previously to the consideration of any such petition notice of the resolution of such Justices shall be advertised in a London newspaper and also in some newspaper circulating in the county to which the liberty is proposed to be united for three successive weeks, and shall also (unless the Clerk of the Peace of the county and of the liberty is the same person) be given to the Clerk of the Peace of the county, in case the resolution shall be the resolution of the Justices of the liberty, or in case the resolution shall be the resolution of the Justices of the county, to the Clerk of the Peace of the liberty, and such notice shall be so advertised and given by the Clerk of the Peace of the county or liberty, the Justices of which shall come to the resolution, and shall mention the time and place when the petition for union will be taken into consideration by the Justices of the county or liberty coming to the resolution, and the said Justices shall confer with any person who shall attend the meeting of the said Justices for that purpose, and who shall appear to the said Justices to be interested in the matter of the said petition touching the said petition, and such other circumstances as shall appear to the said Justices fit to be considered in effecting a union of the liberty with the county under the provisions of this Act; And such petition (which shall set forth the reasons upon which the same is founded, and also the terms and conditions upon or under which it is desired that the union shall take place, and particularly the mode in which the gaol and other property of the liberty, and the debt, if any, charged on the rates of such liberty, is proposed to be dealt with, and the nature and amount of compensation, if any, to be paid to any custos rotulorum, hereditary Sheriff, Clerk of the Peace, Coroner, Treasurer, or other person holding, or entitled to, any permanent franchise or office in, or belonging to, the said liberty, and in what manner such compensation is proposed to be raised and paid, and such other matters and things as are proper to be provided for on the union of the liberty with the county) shall be certified to Her Majesty under the hand of the Chairman of the Justices present when such petition shall be agreed to.

And whereas it was also enacted that where any such petition as aforesaid as well of the Justices of the county as of any liberty situate therein shall be certified as aforesaid to Her Majesty it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if She shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration such petition and also any other petition which may be presented to Her by any person concerning any proposed union of the liberty with the county, to order the union of such liberty with the county, from such time, upon such terms and conditions, and subject to such restrictions, and generally in such manner as to Her Majesty with the advice, aforesaid, shall seem expedient.

And whereas, in pursuance of the provisions of the aforesaid Act, the Justices of the Peace for the county of Essex assembled in Quarter Sessions at Chelmsford in the said county on Wednesday the twenty-first day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one presented a petition to Her Majesty setting forth as follows:—

That in the opinion of the said Justices it was desirable to unite the liberty of Havering-atte-Bower with the county of Essex for all purposes for which it was not already united by the Local Government Act 1888, for the following reasons:—

1. That the cost of the separate Quarter Sessions for the liberty had to be paid by the county although there was no power to rate the liberty separately for that purpose. That that expense would be put an end to by union with the county except as regards certain pensions by way of compensation hereinafter referred to.

2. That the separate jurisdiction not only to use the words of the Municipal Commission in one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, served no useful end, but was mischievous. That the County Justices having no jurisdiction within the liberty, all the inconveniences of conterminous jurisdictions were felt, aggravated by the circumstance that the liberty was almost surrounded by the county.

3. That the Liberty Justices being by its constitution limited to three in number there was constant danger that a quorum might not be present either at Quarter or Petty Sessions.

4. That the separate jurisdiction was a bar to any rearrangement of County Petty Sessional Divisions that might, from time to time, become desirable either to the east or west of it, owing to changes in population and means of communication.

5. That the property of the liberty was merged in that of the county by the Local Government Act 1888. That there was no gaol or hereditary Sheriff; that the Treasurer had been compensated out of the county fund for the loss of his office, as had the Clerk of the Peace, so far as his administrative duties were concerned. That it was proposed to deal with his remaining emoluments.

in the same way, and to pay him out of the county fund, as compensation in respect thereof, the sum of five pounds per annum during his life. That the only other officer entitled to compensation was the High Bailiff and that it was proposed to pay him out of the county fund as compensation the sum of three pounds per annum during his life. That it was proposed that the Coroner should become one of the County Coroners with the same district and pay as theretofore. That the three Liberty Justices were on the Commission of the Peace for the county and would therefore suffer no loss of dignity or jurisdiction.

And the Justices in Quarter Sessions therefore humbly prayed that Her Majesty in Council would be graciously pleased to order the union of the said liberty with the said county upon such terms and conditions as to Her Majesty shall seem expedient.

And whereas the said petition was certified to Her Majesty under the hand of the Chairman of the said Justices present when the said petition was agreed to.

And whereas all the provisions of the said Act and that behalf have been duly complied with.

Now therefore Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two the liberty of Havering-atte-Bower shall be united with the county of Essex in accordance in all respects with the provisions of the aforesaid Act, subject nevertheless to the condition that there shall be paid out of the county fund of the said county of Essex the following sums by way of compensation—namely, to the Clerk of the Peace of the said liberty the sum of five pounds (£5) every year during his life, and to the High Bailiff of the said liberty the sum of three pounds (£3) every year during his life.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," it was enacted that in any case in which any light-house, buoy, or beacon had been, or should be thereafter erected or placed on or near the coasts of any British possession by or with the consent of the Legislative Authority of such possession, Her Majesty might by Order in Council fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the owner or master of every ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty might deem reasonable, and might in like manner from time to time increase, diminish, or repeal such dues, and that from the time specified in such Order for the commencement of the dues thereby fixed, increased, or diminished, the same should be leviable throughout Her Majesty's dominions in manner thereafter mentioned :

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-second day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that the dues to be paid in respect of ships passing and deriving benefit from the lights exhibited from the Great Basses Rock, the Little Basses Rock and Minicoy Island should be those specified in the schedules attached to such Order in Council :

And whereas by the Basses Lights Acts 1869 and 1872 and the Public Works Loans Act 1881 it is provided that so long as any money is due to the Public Works Loan Commissioners on account of any loan under those Acts, the dues payable in respect of the Great Basses Lighthouse and the Little Basses Lighthouse, or the Minicoy Lighthouse, shall be altered only with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that all advances made by the Public Works Loans Commissioners for the purposes mentioned in the said Acts have been repaid, and that it is expedient that the amount of the dues hereinbefore referred to should be varied in manner hereinafter mentioned :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Acts, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that from and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, or from the time of the receipt of notice of this Order, if that be later, by the officers authorized to collect light dues, the dues heretofore levied in respect of the Great Basses Lighthouse, the Little Basses Lighthouse, and Minicoy Lighthouse under the said Order in Council of the twenty-second day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three shall be subject to an abatement or discount of fifty per centum.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage authority, by Byelaw made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time to do within its district all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the proposed Byelaws and Regulations are reasonable and proper:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of and signify Her consent to the said Byelaws and Regulations, as set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed.

Herbert M. Suft.

SCHEDULE.

1. The Port of Sligo shall be, and the same is hereby divided into two pilotage districts; the one to be called the Outside or Sea Pilotage District, and the other the Inside or River Pilotage District.

2. The Outside Pilotage District shall extend from Wheat Rock to Bungar Buoy, and the Inside Pilotage District shall extend from Bungar Buoy to the Quays at Sligo.

3. A Register of Pilots shall be kept, each Pilot to have a distinct number, according to seniority.

4. Every Pilot when on duty shall wear in front of his cap, a badge with his number and the name of the district for which he is licensed printed thereon, and shall wear the dress approved of by the Commissioners; also, he shall have with him the following:—A Tide Table, his Pilot flag and staff, a copy of the Pilotage Bye-Laws of the Port of Sligo, his Licence, and a copy of printed Pilot note, and in default shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two pounds.

5. A Pilot and Apprentice, in regular turn, shall keep a constant look out, from the Pilot watchhouse, either by day or night, reporting to the Pilot-Master when a vessel appears in sight—the apprentice to go with any message to the Pilot-Master.

6. A Pilot on the look-out is not to leave his post until relieved by the man next in turn. Any non-attendance or absence from duty is to be specially reported by the Pilot-Master, who will be held strictly accountable that a proper watch be kept, and prompt services rendered. There shall be fixed hours for meals; and it shall be the duty of the Pilot-Master to cause the Pilot next in turn to relieve the man on watch during his absence for meals.

7. Every Pilot shall, on the completion of his term of watching, remove from the watchhouse any ashes or other matter that may have accumulated from the time he went on duty, and shall sweep out and in other respects thoroughly cleanse said watchhouse before the Pilot next in turn relieves him, and in default thereof shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding two pounds.

8. When a vessel appears in sight, or when a Pilot is required at the Quay, the Pilot-Master shall send to take charge of her the Pilot first in turn for duty, as appears from the Register, a copy of which Register is to be kept in the Pilot-Master's house, and the Pilot-Master shall warn the Pilot when his turn is approaching.

9. The Outside Pilot first in turn is to be ready and board immediately on a vessel arriving at Wheat Rock and conduct her to Bungar, where the River Pilot shall meet him; but in the event of the River Pilot not being there to take charge of the vessel, the said Outside Pilot shall bring such vessel to anchor in Pool Doi, and not leave her until he gives up charge to the Inside Pilot, and in default thereof he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, or to suspension or dismissal.

10. As soon as a vessel enters at the Bar, the Inside Pilot first on turn is to be ready, and board immediately on her arrival at the Outside of Bungar; and, in the case of an outward bound vessel, he shall proceed on board and conduct every such vessel from her berth to Wheat Rock; and, in default thereof, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, or to suspension or dismissal.

11. When a Pilot takes charge of a vessel, either coming from or going to sea, he is not to quit her, either by day or night, until his service be completed, without permission in writing from the Master; or, in his absence, from the mate of such vessel, under a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

12. In case a vessel enters a Port without a Pilot offering, the Pilot whose turn it was to offer, unless he can satisfactorily account for his non-attendance, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, or to suspension or dismissal.

13. A Pilot performing the duty of another who neglects his turn shall be paid five shillings, to be deducted from the pay of the Pilot so neglecting his turn.

14. Every Pilot in charge of a vessel within the Sligo Pilotage District is to keep his flag hoisted on the vessel; he is not to take the helm, but to give directions for the management of the vessel in his charge, and in case of default he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

15. Each Pilot bringing a ship up the river shall bring the same ship down, unless it be his turn to attend to an inward bound vessel.

16. Each Pilot offering services from sunset to sunrise, shall have a lighted lantern in a conspicuous part of his boat, and also a means of obtaining a light to make use of in the event of accident happening to the lantern, and in default thereof, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two pounds.

17. When a ship at Sligo requires a Pilot, application is to be made six hours before high water, to the Harbour Master, who is to hoist a signal for one, which signal is to be answered when seen by the Pilot-Master or Pilot on watch; but if the weather is thick, a messenger is to be sent in time. When it is the turn of a particular Pilot, however, to pilot a vessel down the river, that Pilot is to be punctual in attendance in Sligo for the purpose, whether he gets notice or not.

18. In case the master of any vessel inward bound shall refuse to take on board and employ a Pilot who shall offer his services, such Pilot shall immediately report the case to the Pilot-Master, who shall communicate the matter to the Secretary by letter the same day.

19. Any master, mate, or other person, having the charge, management, or command of any ship or other vessel, to whom a Pilot has been supplied, for the purpose of piloting the same, may change such Pilot, and substitute in his place any other Pilot duly licensed, whom such master, mate, or other person having the charge, management, or command of such ship or other vessel, shall deem more competent to discharge the duties of a Pilot, provided that every such master, mate, or other person having the charge, management, or command of any such ship or other vessel, who shall be desirous of changing such Pilot, as aforesaid shall, previously to making such change, make a statement in writing to the Commissioners, detailing in what particulars the said Pilot is deficient, or on what grounds, and for what causes, such master, mate, or other person, requires such Pilot to be changed.

20. If a merchant or ship master wishes to have a Special Pilot, he shall make application to the Pilot-Master, in writing, to that effect; and the Pilot-Master shall take the necessary steps to have such Special Pilot appointed; this is not to interfere with the regular order or turn of the Pilots. The Pilot doing special duty is to receive a gratuity of two shillings and sixpence for each trip up or down, which is to be paid out of the pilotage, and the balance is to go into the general pilotage fund.

21. No Pilot shall bring a vessel down the river until the master or agent produces a clearance certificate, printed in red, and signed by the Secretary and Collector, under a penalty not exceeding two pounds.

22. In rotation, one of the Apprentices shall accompany the Pilot on each trip of every steamer or other vessel, up and down, standing near the Pilot.

23. The Pilot-Master shall keep a daily journal in which is to be entered the state of the weather, the number and name of Pilot on watch, any complaints for non-attendance, neglect, or misconduct of any kind, the sailings and arrivals, with the draft of water of each ship, and the name of the Pilot in charge of such ship, and a copy of such journal, entitled "Weekly Report," and made up to the end of day on Wednesday, shall be sent to the Harbour Office, so as to reach there on Thursday morning. All complaints with reference to Pilots to be immediately reported to the Secretary.

24. At least once a week the Pilot-Master is to examine the buoys, and perches, and beacon lights, and to account in his journal for such examination, reporting anything that appears amiss.

25. A Pilot on observing any alterations in any of the banks, or that any of the buoys or beacons have been driven away, damaged, or out of place, shall immediately report the same to the Secretary, and in default of his doing so, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two pounds or to suspension.

26. Every Pilot ordered to an outward bound vessel shall repair on board in sufficient time to ascertain if the vessel be ready for sea, and if not ready, when his services shall be required, and if ready, shall then remain on board, and if not shall proceed on board when required, and in default of doing so, shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, or to suspension or dismissal; and, in case such vessel shall not sail on the day the Pilot is ordered to her, the master or owner of such vessel shall be liable to and shall pay to such Pilot the sum of five shillings for every day such Pilot shall be detained by the non-sailing of such vessel.

27. The master of a vessel detaining a Pilot on board for longer than twenty-four hours from the time he takes charge of the vessel, shall pay to such Pilot a sum of five shillings over and above the pilotage of such vessel for every day or part of a day he is so detained.

28. Every Pilot shall obey the directions of the Harbour Master as to the berthing of vessels under his charge, and in case of neglect or refusal so to do, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, or to suspension or dismissal.

29. Pilots acting as Brokers in the Port of Sligo, or interfering with private trade in any respect whatsoever, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, or to suspension or dismissal.

30. The Commissioners may, from time to time, provide such number of boats for the use of Pilots as they may consider requisite, and said boats shall be under the control and supervision of the Pilot-Master.

31. Pilots, Apprentices, or past Apprentices shall at all times man said boats when required so to do by the Pilot-Master, for the purpose of putting Pilots on board or taking them off vessels.

32. The Master or other officer in command of an outward bound vessel shall not be required to put any Pilot ashore, or to pay for putting him ashore.

33. No Pilot shall go by the "run," or engage in any employment outside the Harbour; and no Pilot shall engage in any employment inside the Harbour, other than pilotage, and mooring and unmooring vessels, except such as may from time to time be sanctioned in writing by the Chairman and Secretary to the Board, and his acting to the contrary shall be deemed a resignation of his post as Pilot, and his licence shall accordingly be recalled without further explanation. The Pilot so forfeiting his position shall not be reinstated until a vacancy occurs, and then only at the discretion of the Commissioners on his presenting himself as a candidate in like manner as an Apprentice Pilot.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of May, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fifth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an union of two contiguous benefices within the metropolis, namely the benefice (being a rectory) of Upper Chelsea, situate in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, situate in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"Whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has caused proposals for a scheme for effecting an union of the said two benefices to be laid before us, which proposals are prepared under the seventh and eighth sections of the Act hereinbefore-mentioned and hereinafter referred to as the said Act, and are approved by the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop, and by the Right Honourable George Henry, Earl Cadogan, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, as the patron of the said rectory of Upper Chelsea, and by the Reverend Robert Eyton, Clerk in Holy Orders, the rector or incumbent of the said rectory of Upper Chelsea, who, as such rector or incumbent, is the patron of the said vicarage of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, and the same proposals are assented to by the vestries of the two parishes concerned, that is to say, by the vestry of the parish of Upper Chelsea and by the vestry of the new parish of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea.

"And whereas it appears to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to be expedient that the said proposed union of the said two benefices should be effected, and that such arrangements relating thereto, and to the other matters herein-after referred to, should be made as are herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas the said vicarage of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, is now vacant, and the said Robert Eyton, the rector or incumbent of the said rectory of Upper Chelsea as aforesaid, has expressed his willingness in the event of the said two benefices being legally united, to become the incumbent of the same united benefice.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop (in testimony of which consent he hath to this scheme set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal), and with the consents of the said George Henry, Earl Cadogan, and of the said Robert Eyton, as such patrons as aforesaid (in testimony of which consents they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the vestry of the said parish of Upper Chelsea, and with the consent of the vestry of the said new parish of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea (in testimony whereof the scheme is signed, in the case of each vestry, by the Chairman of a meeting of the same vestry duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose all that is in this scheme contained under the several parts or headings hereinafter-mentioned, as follows:—

"PART I.

"As to the proposed union itself, we recommend and propose:

"1. That the said benefice of Upper Chelsea, and the said benefice of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, shall, upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, be united into one benefice under the style or title of 'The Rectory of Holy Trinity with Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea.'

"2. That the said Robert Eyton shall become the first incumbent of the said united benefice, and if any admission be necessary, it shall be lawful for the Bishop of London for the time being to admit the said Robert Eyton to the united benefice as its first incumbent without any form or fee of presentation, institution, or induction.

"3. That the patronage of the said united benefice shall belong to and be vested in the said George Henry Earl Cadogan, and his heirs and assigns.

"PART II.

"As to the parish church of the united benefice and matters connected therewith, we recommend and propose.

"1. That upon the union taking effect the church of Holy Trinity (being now the parish church of the parish of Upper Chelsea) shall become the parish church of the united benefice.

"2. That if, upon the union taking effect, the tables of fees used in the two churches of Holy Trinity, Upper Chelsea, and Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, be alike in all particulars, the table of fees used in the church of Holy Trinity, Upper Chelsea, (being the church which will as aforesaid become the parish church of the united benefice) shall unless or until revised or altered by proper authority, be the table of fees for the two parishes of the united benefice, but if such tables of fees be not alike in all particulars, then the same shall be of no authority, and a new table of fees shall be made by the proper authority for the same two parishes as if the same were one parish.

"PART III.

"As to the church of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, and the furniture and fittings thereof, we recommend and propose:—

"1. That upon the union taking effect the fabric of the church of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, shall be left standing, and shall be used as a chapel-of-ease to the church of the united benefice, and for the performance therein of Divine Service, or for any purpose or purposes authorized by section nineteen of the said Act, so long as the Bishop of the diocese shall by his licence permit.

"2. That if such licence shall be refused or shall hereafter be withdrawn, the font, communion table, and sacramental plate now in the church of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, shall be appropriated as the Bishop of London may direct in accordance with the provisions contained in the fourteenth section of the said Act, and the organ, carved work, and other fittings and furniture now in use in the same church shall be disposed of or sold as the Bishop of London shall direct; and, if sold, the amount realized shall be dealt with in the same manner as the proceeds of any sale or sales of the materials and site of the said church as hereinafter mentioned.

"3. That upon the union taking effect the register books of baptisms, marriages, and burials of the new parish of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, shall be transferred to the parish church of the united benefice.

"4. That in the event of the Bishop of the diocese refusing or withdrawing his licence or permission to use the church of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, as a chapel-of-ease to the church of the united benefice or for any purpose or purposes authorized by the nineteenth section of the said Act, the said Bishop shall certify this fact in writing to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and the said church shall, as soon as may be after the receipt by us of such certificate from the Bishop, be taken down, and its materials and site, together with any ground annexed thereto and necessary for the use or enjoyment thereof, shall be sold and disposed of by us at such time or times, and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient, such sale or disposal being made in all respects subject to the provisions contained in the seventeenth section of the said Act.

"5. That in the event of the materials and site of the said church of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, being sold, the proceeds of such sale or sales, together with the proceeds of any sale or sales of the organ, carved work, and other fittings and furniture of the same church, shall be applied, so far as may be necessary, towards the cost of building a new church within the limits of the Metropolis, and that the remainder (if any) of such proceeds shall be added to and form part of the fund created by the twenty-second section of the said Act.

"PART IV.

"As to the endowment and parsonage house of the united benefice we recommend and propose:—

"1. That upon the union taking effect all the properties constituting the endowments of the said rectory of Upper Chelsea, and of the said vicarage of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, shall be transferred and annexed to the united benefice as the endowments thereof, provided that out of such endowments such a sum as may, in the opinion of the Bishop of London for the time being, be necessary, shall in each and every year be applied in the first place to the full and proper repair and sustentation of the fabric of the said church of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, and to the preservation and care of the monuments and tablets (if any) therein, and to the other expenses connected with the same building so long as it shall remain standing.

"2. That in the event of full services ceasing to be held in the said church of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, or in the event of such church being taken down, the yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and sixty-six pounds which is at present payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, out of our common fund, to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Jude, Upper Chelsea, shall cease to be payable to the Rector or Incumbent of the said united benefice, and shall be transferred to some other benefice in the metropolis or in the vicinity thereof.

"3. That upon the union taking effect the present parsonage house belonging to the rectory of Upper Chelsea shall become the parsonage house of the said united benefice.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing as to the measures aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been laid before both Houses of Parliament for the space of two calendar months.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Frodingham in the county and diocese of Lincoln between that benefice and a certain other benefice namely the benefice (being a new parish and vicarage) of Scunthorpe in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas the Right Honourable Rowland Baron Saint Oswald is the patron of the said benefice of Frodingham and also of the said benefice of Scunthorpe.

"And whereas the said benefice of Frodingham is now full of a Clerk the vicar or incumbent of the same being the Reverend Edward Mitford Weigall.

"And whereas he the said Edward Mitford Weigall with the concurrence of the said Rowland Baron Saint Oswald is desirous that the apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Frodingham hereinafter recommended and proposed should be effected.

"And whereas under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the thirteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine and published in the London Gazette on the twentieth day of the same month a sum of six thousand six hundred and sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence Local loans three pounds per cent. Stock has been set apart out of the sums of Stock held by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in trust for and for the benefit of the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said benefice of Frodingham so as to provide a yearly sum of two hundred pounds as and for an endowment for the said benefice (then called the district) of Scunthorpe, and it was also provided by the same Order of Your Majesty in Council that as from the day of the date upon which the said benefice of Frodingham shall next thereafter from whatever cause be avoided there shall be set apart out of the said sums of stock so held by us as and for part of the endowments of the same benefice of Frodingham as aforesaid such a further amount of stock as shall be sufficient to produce a further yearly sum of two hundred pounds as and for an additional endowment for the said benefice of Scunthorpe."

"And whereas there are held by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in trust for the benefit of the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said benefice of Frodingham and as part of the endowments thereof but subject to the prospective appropriation to the said benefice of Scunthorpe as hereinbefore specified a sum of twenty thousand two hundred and six pounds eleven shillings and one penny Local loans three pounds per cent. stock and also a further sum of five thousand two hundred and twenty-eight pounds thirteen shillings and fivepence two pounds fifteen shillings per centum consolidated stock.

"And whereas it appears to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners that after allowing for the further said prospective appropriation and also for the further appropriation which is hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made the said vicarage of Frodingham will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln is of opinion and we are of opinion that it is desirable that the further apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Frodingham which is hereinafter recommended and proposed should be effected so as to make better provision for the cure of souls within the said new parish of Scunthorpe.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Rowland Baron Saint Oswald as such patron of the said benefice of Frodingham and of the said benefice of Scunthorpe as aforesaid in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme and with the consent of the said Edward Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (in testimony of which consent he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) and also with the consent of the said Edward Mitford Weigall, as incumbent of the said benefice of Frodingham in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same there shall be set apart as from the day of the date on which such Order may be published in the London Gazette out of the aforesaid sum of five thousand two hundred and twenty-eight pounds thirteen shillings and fivepence two pounds fifteen shillings per centum Consolidated Stock so held by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in trust for and for the benefit of the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage or benefice of Frodingham as part of the endowment thereof such a sum of Stock as shall be sufficient to produce a capital sum of six hundred pounds to be held and applied by us for the benefit of the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said new parish and benefice of Scunthorpe.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary Hawkshaw Lane, situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Holcombe in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Saviour Eastbourne and of the new parish of Saint John Meads both in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the fifth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy and published in the London Gazette on the eleventh day of the same month certain contiguous portions of the parish of Eastbourne in the county and diocese aforesaid and of the said chapelry district of the Holy Trinity Eastbourne were assigned as a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John situate at Meads in the said parish of Eastbourne and the same consolidated chapelry was called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John Meads.'

"And whereas both the said district chapelry of Saint Saviour Eastbourne and the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John Meads have each of them under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

John Meads should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries both of the said new parish of Saint Saviour Eastbourne and of the said new parish of Saint John Meads shall be altered so that all that part of the said new parish of Saint John Meads which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Saviour Eastbourne.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be dissevered from the new parish of Saint John Meads and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Saviour Eastbourne both in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester being:—

"All that part of the said new parish of Saint John Meads which is bounded upon the north-west partly by the parish of Eastbourne in the county and diocese aforesaid and partly by the said new parish of Saint Saviour Eastbourne, upon the east by the last-named new parish and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south, partly by the new parish of All Saints Eastbourne in the county and diocese aforesaid and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the new parish of Saint John Meads aforesaid at the point where Granville-road is intersected by Blackwater-road, and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of one hundred yards or thereabouts to a point, at its junction with Meads-road, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John Meads from the parish of Eastbourne aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

Herbert M. Suft.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of May, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her Majesty chapter sixty-three duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty-three have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the rural deaneries or some of them which are within the archdeaconry of Winchester and within the archdeaconry of the Isle of Wight both in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas there are at present three archdeaconries within the said diocese of Winchester to wit the archdeaconry of Winchester, the archdeaconry of Surrey and the archdeaconry of the Isle of Wight.

"And whereas the statutory schedule (prepared under the provisions of the hereinbefore lastly-mentioned Act) of the rural deaneries within the said three archdeaconries of Winchester, of Surrey, and of the Isle of Wight respectively is dated the twenty-second day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

"And whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the eleventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven and published in the London Gazette on the seventeenth day of the same month certain rural deaneries and portions of certain other rural deaneries in the said archdeaconry of Surrey were transferred to and are now within the diocese of Rochester.

"And whereas by another Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the eighteenth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and published in the London Gazette on the seventh day of May in the same year the rural deaneries remaining within the said archdeaconry of Surrey were re-arranged and settled.

"And whereas by another Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the fourth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of the same month, the Rural Deanery of Alverstoke and Portsea Island, in the said Archdeaconry of Winchester, was divided into two rural deaneries, viz.: the Rural Deanery of Alverstoke and the Rural Deanery of Portssea Island.

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson, Bishop of the said Diocese of Winchester, that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the rural deaneries, or some of them, within the said Archdeaconry of Winchester and within the said Archdeaconry of the Isle of Wight are desirable and should be carried into effect, and we are of opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect.

"And whereas the said arrangements involve certain alterations of the areas of certain of the rural deaneries within the said two lastly-named archdeaconries; the extinction or absorption of certain rural deaneries as such, and the formation of certain other rural deaneries in place thereof in the same two archdeaconries.

"And whereas the same arrangements involve certain changes in the names of some of the rural deaneries in the said Archdeaconry of Winchester.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Anthony Wilson, Bishop of the said Diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he hath set his hand and his Episcopal Seal to this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the said Archdeaconry of Winchester and the said Archdeaconry of the Isle of Wight respectively shall comprise and consist of those Rural Deaneries the names of which are set down in order under the name of each of the said two Archdeaconries respectively in the schedule to this scheme annexed and that the name which in the said schedule is given to any rural deanery shall be the name thereof and that every parish or cure or church the name of which is set down in numbered order in the first column of the said schedule under the names of any one of the said two archdeaconries respectively and under the name of any specified rural deanery in any one of the said two archdeaconries respectively shall belong to and be and form a part of the archdeaconry and of the rural deanery under the respective names of which it may appear as aforesaid and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Archdeacon of the same archdeaconry and of the Rural Dean of the same rural deanery and shall not belong to or be or form a part of any other archdeaconry or rural deanery nor be subject to the jurisdiction or authority of any other Archdeacon or Rural Dean, the intent of these our recommendations and proposals being that the said schedule to this scheme annexed shall as to the first column thereof, be (in so far as the same legally can or may be) as from the day aforesaid, substituted so far as it relates to the said two archdeaconries of Winchester and of the Isle of Wight respectively for the hereinbefore mentioned statutory schedule of rural deaneries within the said diocese of Winchester as aforesaid and for the schedules referred to in the said Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the fourth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid, or any of them under or by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning

"the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, as affecting burials in the parish of Sedgley, should be varied, and that the directions hereinafter set forth should be substituted for those contained in the said Order, in regard to burials in the church and churchyard of that parish:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the sixteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said first-recited Act:

And whereas in the said representation it is further stated that the directions hereinafter set forth should also be substituted for those contained in the Order in Council of the twenty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in relation to burials in the parish churchyard of Sedgley:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered:—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Sedgley, in the county of Stafford; and also in the churchyard and in the parish burial-ground which was formed in one thousand eight hundred and eight, except as follows:—

In such vaults and wholly-walled graves as are now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented. Herbert M. Suft.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of May, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of

Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with certain modifications:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the sixth day of February last to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, as follows; viz. :—

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave-spaces (as have never before been buried in, and which, when opened, are free from water), burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.
