*Office of the Secretary for Scotland,
Whitehall, May 30, 1892.*

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by His Grace the Lord High Commissioner to the Most Honourable the Marquess of Lothian, K.T., Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, has been by him laid before the Queen, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's faithful and devoted subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, now convened in General Assembly, beg humbly and respectfully to thank Your Majesty for Your most gracious and welcome letter. The renewed assurance of Your Majesty's regard for our ancient Church fills us with the liveliest satisfaction, and will not fail to stimulate us to such renewed exertion as may ensure the continuance of Your Royal favour, and the affectionate approbation and support of the Scottish people. The interests of our Church are still, as they ever were, bound up with the best interests of our beloved land. Knowing how profoundly concerned Your Majesty has ever been regarding all that relates to the social, moral, and religious welfare of Your people, it is gratifying for us to assure you that our National Church is rapidly growing year by year in numbers, in prosperity, and in serviceableness to the Nation and to the Kingdom of Christ.

Your Majesty's gift of two thousand pounds to the religious welfare of the Highlands and Islands has been gratefully received, and will be expended to the best of our judgment for the important object for which it has been given.

We specially desire to thank Your Majesty for having again commissioned William Montagu, Marquess of Tweeddale, to represent Your Royal Person in our General Assembly. We rejoice in Your gracious appointment of one who, like his forefathers, is a devoted member of the Church, and who, by his high character, great abilities, and unflinching courtesy and kindness, has greatly endeared himself to this House and to the Church of Scotland, and we trust that he may be able to convey to Your Majesty a favourable report of the manner in which we have transacted the important business that may come before us.

We humbly beg to renew the assurance of our devoted attachment to Your Majesty's Person, Family, and Throne, and of our gratitude to our Heavenly Father for having spared you in health and strength, and graciously sustained you through the arduous duties and the many trials and bereavements which have fallen to Your lot.

Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, who hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort Your heart and establish you in every good word and work.

May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's loyal subjects and servants, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland convened in General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment by Edinburgh, 23rd May, 1892.

Office of the Secretary for Scotland,
Whitehall, May 30, 1892.

THE following Address of Condolence from the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, on the occasion of the lamented death of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, K.G., &c., has been transmitted to the Most Honourable the Marquess of Lothian, K.T., Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, for presentation to the Queen, and has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has received with much satisfaction this testimony of sympathy and devotion:—

May it please Your Majesty,

SINCE the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland last met a great sorrow has fallen on the Nation and overwhelmed Your Royal House. It has pleased Almighty God, the Sovereign Disposer of all events, to take to Himself the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, Your Majesty's beloved Grandson and the successor to the Throne. Ever one with Your people in their joy and sorrow, in Your Majesty's joy and sorrow Your people are ever one with You. It is the mournful duty of the General Assembly to embrace the first opportunity which has fallen to us to assure Your Majesty that in that memorable and spontaneous tribute of profound sympathy which came from every corner of Your vast Empire and from every quarter of the civilized world, none shared more sincerely than the Ministers, Elders, and Members of the Church of Scotland.

We have as a Church received from Your Majesty many signal proofs of Your distinguished regard, and we beg to assure You that the affection You have shown to us is sincerely reciprocated. In the heart of none of Your subjects does Your Majesty hold a warmer place than You do in ours, and from none do there rise more fervent prayers that God may sustain You in all Your burdens, comfort You in all Your trials, and guide and bless You in all Your ways.

We again welcome Your Majesty to Your Highland Home, and trust that the health-giving breezes of our Scottish hills may invigorate and strengthen You for the arduous and unremitting duties of Your High Estate, and help to prolong a life so dear to the Nation, and so valuable to the World.

May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's loyal subjects and servants, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment by

In this Warrant a postal packet conveyed or intended to be conveyed by special messenger either throughout the whole or in any part of its course in the post is referred to as an "express packet," and a postal packet conveyed or intended to be conveyed by special messenger throughout a part only of its course in the post is sometimes referred to as a "part express packet."

Express packets to be marked.

(2.) A part express packet must, in addition to such words as aforesaid be marked with such lines or other marks as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe for the purpose of distinguishing part express packets from other postal packets.

Posting of express packets.

62. An express packet must be posted by being—

- (b.) Handed to an officer of the Post Office authorised to receive the same in accordance with such conditions as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe; or

- (b.) If the place is situate at a distance of more than one mile from such express delivery office aforesaid an express fee of threepence for the first mile, and threepence for every mile (or for any part of an uncompleted mile) beyond the first mile.

All which express fees calculated with reference to distance are hereinafter referred to as "express mileage fees."

Packets exceeding one pound.

64. Where the packet conveyed exceeds one pound in weight there shall be charged and paid, in addition to the express mileage fees, hereinafter provided, an express fee of three half-pence for every pound (or for any part of an incomplete pound) beyond the first pound.

- (a.) The ordinary rates of postage sums and fees payable upon such postal packet in respect of its conveyance in the post otherwise than by special messenger.
- (b.) The express mileage fees specified in this Warrant in the case of a letter conveyed wholly by special messenger.

Provided always that where a part express packet is conveyed by special messenger in London from the office from which postal packets are usually delivered to the place of address of such express packet, the express mileage fee shall not in any case exceed threepence.

Special Expedition Fees.

66. If in any case the sender of an express packet desires that the packet shall be conveyed by means of a hackney carriage (hereinafter called a cab) or any other special means of expedition, there shall be charged and paid in addition to the express fees, rates of postage, and other sums payable on the said packet, the fare prescribed by law in respect of the employment of such cab, or in the case of any other special means of expedition a sum at the rate of one shilling per mile or any part of a mile traversed.

Reply or Further Service.

67. If the addressee of an express packet requires the messenger to convey an express packet by way of reply or further service (hereinafter called a "return express packet"), and the place of address of the return express packet is situate at a distance not exceeding half a mile from the express delivery office from which the original postal packet was delivered, there shall be charged and paid in respect of such return express packet one-half only of the express mileage fees otherwise payable.

(b.) Express fees, postage, and other sums (other than cab fares and payments for some special means of expedition) payable on a return express packet need not be prepaid, but such postage and fees shall nevertheless be payable by the sender of such postal packet in case the addressee thereof refuses to pay the same.

(c.) All express fees, postage, and other sums payable in respect of a part express packet posted in the ordinary course of post shall, so far as possible, be prepaid, and any deficiency therein shall be payable by the sender in case the addressee refuses to pay the same. But—

(i.) The Postmaster-General may forward the packet as an express packet, although the full sums chargeable thereon are not prepaid; and

(ii.) The Postmaster-General may, if at least one-half of such sums are not prepaid, forward the packet, not as an express packet, but in the ordinary course of post.

Provided nevertheless that in no case shall the Postmaster-General be bound to deliver any express packet not fully prepaid, unless the addressee pays all sums due and payable thereon.

Waiting Fees.

69.—(1.) When, with a view to the conveyance of a return express packet, the addressee of an express packet detains a messenger more than ten minutes from the time of the delivery of such packet, the addressee shall pay to such messenger the following fees or sums (hereinafter called "waiting fees"), that is to say:—

For every fifteen minutes or portion of fifteen minutes after the expiration of ten minutes from the time of delivery as aforesaid, a waiting fee of twopence.

(2.) All waiting fees shall be payable whether the messenger who has been detained is eventually required to convey a return express packet or not, and where a messenger is so required, the waiting fees payable as aforesaid shall be paid to such messenger before he conveys the return express packet.

(a.) Such letter shall be re-directed within a period of 24 hours from its delivery at its original or substituted address, as the case may be;

(b.) In any case where an officer of the Post Office has reasonable cause to believe that a letter purporting to be re-directed has been posted as a re-directed letter with a view to evading the payment of any postage chargeable by law upon such letter, he may before the delivery of such letter, require the addressee (who shall furnish proof of identity to the satisfaction of such officer), to sign a receipt for the same.

(c.) Any re-directed letter which appears to have been opened before being re-directed shall be charged with postage as an unpaid inland letter.

Charge for Re-direction of Postal Packets other than Letters.

72. 73. The provisions of this Warrant as to re-direction shall not affect the provisions in favour of seamen, soldiers, and other specified persons contained in the several Acts and the Warrant specified in the Second Schedule to this Warrant.

CERTIFICATES OF POSTING.Certificates of Posting and Fees therefor.

74.—(1.) Subject to such rules as the Postmaster General may from time to time prescribe the Postmaster-General may, at the request of the sender of a postal packet, give the sender a certificate of the posting of such postal packet.

(2.) In the case of a parcel such certificate shall be given free of charge.

(3.) In the case of a registered postal packet no charge shall be made for such certificate over and above the registration fee.

(4.) In the case of a postal packet (other than a parcel) which is not registered, the sum or fee of one penny shall be payable for such certificate, and shall be prepaid by the sender of the postal packet.

(3.) On the posting of the packet a certificate of posting, bearing thereon an acknowledgment that the registration fee has been paid, must be obtained. This certificate must be filled up and signed by the officer of the post office receiving the packet.

Registration Fees.

77. For the registration of postal packets there shall be charged and paid the following sums, that is to say:—

(1.) When the packet is registered by being handed to an officer of the post office authorised to receive the same, though not on duty at a post office, or when the packet is registered at a post office before the expiration of the time appointed for the registration at such post office (without extra fee) of postal packets intended to be forwarded by the next despatch therefrom, the sum of twopence (hereinafter called the ordinary registration fee).

(2.) When the packet is registered at a post office after the expiration of the time appointed for the registration at such post office (without extra fee) of postal packets intended to be forwarded by the next despatch therefrom, but within such further time (if any), as the Postmaster General may from time to time provide with reference to such office, such extra sum, in addition to the ordinary registration fee, as the Postmaster-General may prescribe. Provided that—

- (a.) In the case of the chief or head post office in London such sum shall not exceed one shilling; and
- (b.) In the case of any other post office such sum shall not exceed fourpence.

Compulsory Registration of certain Packets.

78. All postal packets on which, or the envelope or cover of which the word "registered," or any other word or phrase to the like effect or purport is written or impressed, or which contain coin, jewellery, or watches (all which packets are hereinafter called "postal packets subject to compulsory registration") shall be registered before the same are delivered to the persons to whom they are addressed, and may be detained for that purpose, at any post office through which they shall pass, until the ordinary despatch of packets next after that by which such packets ought otherwise to have been forwarded.

Registration Fee on Packets Compulsory Registered.

79. If any postal packet, which is subject to compulsory registration shall be posted in any other manner than that prescribed by this Warrant for the posting of registered postal packets, such packet shall be charged with a registration fee or charge of eightpence in addition to all other postage payable thereon, but the stamps, if any, which may have been affixed to such letter or packet, shall be accepted in payment, or part payment, as the case may be, of such registration fee or charge of eightpence, and such other postage as aforesaid.

Compensation for Loss and Damage of Articles in Registered Packets.

80.—(1.) Subject to the provisions of this Warrant, if any article of pecuniary value enclosed in or forming part of a registered postal packet be lost or damaged whilst in the custody of the Postmaster-General, the Postmaster-General may pay to any person or persons who may, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General, establish a reasonable claim to compensation (having regard to the nature of the article, the care with which it was packed, and other circumstances) such sum as he may think just. Provided that—

- (a.) If only the postage and registration fee payable in respect of the said postal packet have been paid by the sender, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of five pounds.
- (b.) If, in addition to the postage and registration fee as aforesaid, the sum of one penny has been paid by the sender in respect of such postal packet, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of ten pounds.
- (c.) If, in addition to the postage and registration fee as aforesaid, the sum of twopence has been paid by the sender in respect of such postal packet, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of fifteen pounds.

Compensation not Payable on Packets posted Irregularly.

81. If any postal packet which is subject to compulsory registration shall be posted without compliance with the rules applicable to the registration of postal packets, no claim to compensation will be considered by the Postmaster-General to arise under this Warrant in respect of the loss or damage (if any) of any article enclosed in or forming part of such packet.

CERTIFICATE OF DELIVERY OF REGISTERED POSTAL PACKET.

82. Subject to such rules as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe, the Postmaster-General may, at the request of the sender of a registered postal packet and on prepayment by such sender of the sum or fee, of twopence, obtain and forward to such sender an acknowledgment or certificate of the delivery of the postal packet at the place to which the said packet is addressed.

MISCELLANEOUS.Other Postal Packets not to interfere with Letter Post.

83. Where the despatch or delivery from a post office of letters would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of postal packets of any other description, such packets, or any of them, may be detained in the post office until the despatch or delivery next following that by which they would ordinarily be despatched or delivered.

Compensation may be paid out of Aids provided by Parliament.

84. The Postmaster-General may give effect to the provisions of this Warrant as to the loss or damage of articles enclosed in or forming part of parcels and registered postal packets, out of such aids or supplies as may be from time to time provided and appropriated by Parliament for that purpose, but nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of the Warrant shall render him liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect of, or in consequence of, any such loss or damage. And the decision of the Postmaster-General on all questions arising between him and any person claiming payment in respect of the loss or damage of any article enclosed in or forming part of a parcel or registered postal packet shall be final and conclusive.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies has, pursuant to 38 and 39 Vic., c. 60, s. 12, by writing under his hand, dated the 25th day of May, 1892, suspended for three months the Registry of the Sincerity Lodge, G.U.O.O.F. Friendly Society, Register No. 428, held at the Shoulder of Mutton Inn, Gomersal, Leeds, in the county of York, on the ground that the Society has wilfully, and after notice from a Registrar, violated the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, in respect of the valuation of its assets and liabilities. The Society ceases to enjoy during such suspension the privileges of a registered Society, but without prejudice to any liability incurred by the Society, which may be enforced against it as if such suspension had not taken place.

E. W. Brabrook, Chief Registrar.

Borough of Cambridge.

Cambridge Electric Lighting Order, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said borough intend to transfer their powers, duties, liabilities, and works under the said Order, subject to the exceptions and modifications hereinafter mentioned, to the Cambridge Electric Supply Company Limited, and that the draft deed of transfer will, at or as soon as conveniently may be after the expiration of one month from the date hereof, be duly submitted to the Board of Trade for approval as provided by clause 59 of the Order.

The area in respect of which the said transfer is intended to be made is the whole of the area of supply comprised in the said Order.

The period for which the said transfer is proposed to be made is limited only as follows (that is to say) :—

The Corporation may, at the expiration of 21 years from the date of the said proposed transfer, or at the expiration of 32 years from the same date, or at the expiration of any subsequent period of 10 years, by notice in writing require the Company to sell, and thereupon the Company is to sell the Undertaking to the Corporation. If the purchase be made in exercise of the first option abovementioned, then the Corporation is to pay the Company the value of the Undertaking and of the goodwill thereof as a going concern (but without any additional allowance for compulsory purchase), and such value is to be determined in case of difference by arbitration. If the purchase is made in exercise of any subsequent option to the first, the price to be paid is to be the then value of all lands, buildings, works, materials, and plant of the Company suitable to and used by them for the purposes of the undertaking as specified in the Electric Lighting Act, 1888, such value to be determined by arbitration, in accordance with the principles of an arbitration, under section 2 of the Electric Lighting Act, 1888.

The consideration to be paid by the Company to the Corporation is the sum of £2,040.

The following clauses and parts of clauses of the said Order are not to apply to the Company :— Clause 7, as to the purchase and use of lands ; Clause 28, as to the remuneration of Electric Inspector ; Clauses 52 and 53, as to the application of revenue and capital moneys ; Clause 54, so far as relates to the authentication of any notice, order, or document by the Undertakers ; Clause 57, as to revocation of the Order with consent ; Clause 59, as to the transfer of the Undertaking ; Clause 68, incorporating sections 264 and 265 of the Public Health Act, 1875.

The terms upon which the transfer is proposed to be made provide—

That the standard price to be charged by the Company for the supply of energy to private consumers shall be 7d. per Board of Trade unit, and such price is not to be exceeded ; but if the balance of receipts over expenditure shown by the Company's annual account for any year ending the 31st December, after debiting the amounts for depreciation and for the formation of a reserve fund allowed by the said deed of transfer to be debited, exceeds a profit equal to a cumulative dividend of eight per cent. on the amount of the capital for the time being employed in the Undertaking, then the said standard price chargeable to private consumers, otherwise than by agreement, is to be reduced for the year ensuing after the next following 25th day of March at the rate of one farthing per unit for each 15s. per cent. above the said eight per cent. The standard price for the supply of energy to the public lamps will be 5½d. per Board of Trade unit, such price to rise or fall at the rate of one farthing for every £1 per cent. per annum of profit above or below the said profit of eight per cent., but the price is not to exceed 7d. per Board of Trade unit.

The draft of the proposed deed of transfer is deposited for public inspection at my office, Guildhall, Cambridge, and printed copies of the said draft deed of transfer will be furnished there at the price of 6d. for each copy to all persons applying for the same.

By order,

J. S. PURCELL, Registrar of Bank Returns.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division
Mr. Justice North.

In the Matter of the Railway Companies Act, 1867, and in the Matter of the Neath and Brecon Railway Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, on the 27th day of May, 1892, a Scheme of Arrangement between the abovenamed Company and their Creditors was filed in the Central Office of the Supreme Court. The Scheme contains provisions for settling and defining rights of Shareholders of the Company as among themselves in the following respects, viz., it provides that the authorized C and D Debenture Stocks and the existing £1 10s. per Centum Preference Shares shall be converted into £4 per Cent. Preference Stock, and it also provides for the conversion of the Ordinary Shares into Ordinary Stock. By the said Scheme it is further proposed to create and issue A Debenture Stock to be deemed part of and to rank together with the existing A Debenture Stock of the Company to the amount of £41,000 beyond the amount already authorized by the Company's Acts of 1869, 1872, and 1879, and that all A Debenture Stock already issued, and all A Debenture Stock to be hereafter issued, shall bear interest at £4 per cent. per annum, and be divided into two equal portions or classes, one to be distinguished as A 1 Debenture Stock, upon which interest accruing thereon shall be cumulative, and the other to be distinguished as A 2 Debenture Stock, upon which the interest accruing thereon shall be non-cumulative. To convert and consolidate the existing B Debenture Stock now consisting of four classes and carrying interest at £3 per centum per annum into one uniform B Stock, without any priorities, inter se, and to bear interest at £4 per centum per annum. The terms and mode of conversion and consolidation of the before described Stocks and conversion of the Ordinary Shares are set out in the said scheme. The said scheme provides for the application of the income of the Company, voting by holders of Ordinary Stock of the Company, and for the election of Directors. A copy of the said scheme will be furnished to any person requiring the same by the undersigned; or at the office of the Company, at 39, Lombard-street, in the city of London, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.
