THE RAILWAY AND CANAL TRAFFIC ACT, 1888.

Proposed Revision of Rates, Tolls, and Charges for Merchandise Traffic.
Leven Canal.

NOTICE is hereby given that, pursuant to the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, a proposed revised classification of merchandise traffic, and revised schedule of maximum rates, tolls, dues, and charges applicable thereto, proposed to be charged by the Proprietor of the above Canal, has been submitted to the Board of Trade; and that in such proposed classification and schedule there are stated the nature and amounts of all terminal charges proposed to be charged in respect of each class of traffic, and the circumstances under which the terminal charges are proposed to be made.

Printed copies of the proposed classification and schedules can be obtained, at the price of one shilling, at the office of Mr. James Iveson, Canal Head, Leven, on application.

Anyone wishing to raise any objection to the proposed classification and schedule may forward, by post, a notice of objection to the Board of Trade, marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it, "Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888."

Notices of objection must be transmitted to the Board of Trade so as to reach there on or before the expiration of eight weeks from the 24th day of June, 1892.

Every objector must at the same time transmit to the said James Iveson, at his office at Leven aforesaid, a copy of the notice of objection, otherwise the objection will be liable to be dismissed without being heard.

Due notice will be given of the time appointed for hearing and disposing of notices of objection.

H. W. BAINTON, Solicitor for William Bethell, Esq., Proprietor of the above Canal, Beverley.

The Lancaster and District Tramways Company Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the 2nd day of June, 1892, the abovementioned Company, under the powers given to them by the Tramways Act, 1870, made the following Bye-laws and Regulations, which will come into force on the 1st day of September, 1892.

Dated this 16th June, 1892.

EDWARD J. WATERS,
Secretary of the Company.
Office: Stonewell, Lancaster.

BYE-LAWS and REGULATIONS made by the Lancaster and District Tramways Company Limited, under the powers conferred on the Company by the Tramways Act, 1870.

1. THE Bye-laws and Regulations hereinafter set forth shall extend and apply to all carriages, premises, and places for the time being of the Company and to all places with respect to which the Company have power to make Bye-laws or Regulations.

2. Every passenger shall enter or mount upon or depart from or get off a carriage by the hindmost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise.

3. No passenger shall smoke in the interior of any carriage.

4. No passenger or other person shall, while travelling in or upon any carriage, play or perform upon any musical instrument.

5. A person in a state of intoxication shall not be allowed to enter or mount upon any carriage, nor shall any person swear or use any profane, obscene, or abusive language whilst in or upon any carriage, and if any person shall commit any of the offences in this Bye-law mentioned he shall be immediately removed from the carriage by or under the direction of the Conductor.

6. No person shall commit any nuisance, in or upon or against any carriage or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

7. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the cushions or the curtains or linings, or remove or deface any number or number plate, printed or other paper or printed notice in or on any carriage, or mark, break, or scratch any window of or otherwise wilfully damage any carriage. Any person acting in contravention of this Regulation shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws and Regulations, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done.

8. A person whose dress or clothing might in the opinion of the conductor of a carriage soil or injure the linings or cushions of the carriage or the dress or clothing of any passenger, or a person who in the opinion of the conductor might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in the interior of any carriage and may be prevented from entering the interior of any carriage, and shall not enter the interior of any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and if found in the interior of any carriage, shall on request of the conductor leave the interior of the carriage upon the fare if previously paid being returned.

9. Each passenger shall upon demand, pay to the conductor or to such duly authorized persons, and at such places upon or near to the tramway as the Company shall at any time and from time to time appoint the fare or fares legally demandable for the journey, and under such Regulations as to tickets or checks as the Company may from time to time determine.

10. A passenger not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer within the true intent and meaning of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Company shall not use or attempt to use any special carriage for the labouring classes, or any ticket intended only for such artisans, mechanics, or daily labourers.

11. Every person about to enter or mount upon any carriage, or being a passenger, and in either case having any luggage (including the tools of artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers), shall, unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, place such luggage on a platform of the carriage, and not in the interior or on the roof of any carriage.

12. No passenger or other person not being a servant of the Company shall be permitted to travel on the steps, staircase, or platforms of any carriage, or stand either on the roof or in the interior, or sit on the outside rail on the roof of any carriage, and shall cease to do so immediately on request by the conductor.

13. No person except a servant of the Company or a passenger or intending passenger shall enter or mount any carriage, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of any carriage, or travel therein otherwise than on a seat provided for passengers.

14. When any carriage contains the full number of passengers which it is constructed to contain no additional person shall enter, mount, or remain in or on any such carriage when warned by the conductor not to do so.

15. The conductor shall not permit any passenger beyond the licensed number to enter or mount or remain in or upon any part of a carriage.

16. No person shall enter, mount, or leave, or attempt to enter, mount, or leave, any carriage whilst in motion.

17. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any carriage except by permission of the conductor, nor in any case in which the conveyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive or an annoyance to passengers. No person shall take a dog or other animal into any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor or any passenger. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any carriage in breach of this regulation shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the carriage immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

18. No person shall enter or get upon or travel in or on any carriage of the Company with loaded firearms, or with any article or thing which may in the opinion of the conductor be dangerous or offensive to any passenger.

19. No passenger shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Company in the execution of his duty upon or in connection with any carriage or tramway of the Company.

20. The conductor of each carriage shall enforce or prevent the breach of these Bye-laws and Regulations to the best of his ability.

21. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws or Regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

22. The expression "conductor" shall include any officer or servant in the employment of the Company and having charge of a carriage.

23. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each carriage in use a printed copy of these Bye-laws and Regulations.

24. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the 1st day of September, 1892.

The Common Seal of the Company was affixed in the presence of

JOSEPH FENTON,
JOS. WILLIAM PICKARD, } Directors.
EDWARD JNO. WATERS, Secretary.
