PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Law respecting the Office of County Coroner," it is (amongst other things) enacted that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that any alterations should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it shall be lawful for the said justices, in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition shall be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such county as in that Act thereafter provided, and that the Clerk of the Peace shall give notice of any such resolution to every Coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition will be taken by the said justices into consideration, and the justices shall confer with every such Coroner who shall attend the meeting of the justices for that purpose touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of inhabitants, the nature of their employment, and such other circumstances as shall appear to the justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of that Act, and that such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, shall be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the justices present when such petition shall be agreed to, and the Clerk of the Peace for such county shall forthwith give or send a proper copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every Coroner for such county, and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if She shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and also any petition which may be presented to Her by any Coroner of the same county, concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a Writ de Coronatore Eligendo for the purposes of authorizing the election of an additional Coroner above the number of those who have been therefore customarily elected in such county, to order that such county shall be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of that Act as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and that every such Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, the county of Monmouth (exclusive of the Manor of Chepstow) was for Coroners' purposes and for the purposes of the said Act, divided into three districts named respectively the Abergavenny District, the Monmouth District, and the Newport District, which said Districts comprised the several parishes, places, and boundaries respectively set forth in the Schedule to the said Order in Council:

And whereas, under and by virtue of the Local Government Act 1888 the powers and business of the said Justices in relation to the matters aforesaid have been transferred to the County Council for the county of Monmouth:

And whereas by a Provisional Order of the Local Government Board dated the eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, made under the provisions of the Local Government Act and confirmed by "Local Government Board Provisional Orders (No. 9) Act, 1891" the Borough of Newport was created a County Borough:

And whereas, on the fourth day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, the County Council for the county of Monmouth presented a petition to Her Majesty praying that the said Newport District might be altered for the purposes of the hereinbefore first-recited Act in order that the said District might be wholly situate within and coextensive with the said County Borough of Newport, which said petition with a description of the proposed Districts, with the reasons upon which the petition was founded, was duly certified to Her Majesty.

And whereas all the provisions of the hereinbefore first-recited Act in that behalf have been duly complied with in relation to the said petition.

And whereas the Coroners for the said county have not presented any petition to Her Majesty :

And whereas Her Majesty has, with the advice of Her Privy Council, taken into consideration the said petition, and is minded to make such alteration and division as hereinafter mentioned :

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, direct, and declare, and it is hereby ordered, directed, and declared, that from and immediately after the said Coroner for the said Newport District shall have ceased to hold his said office, the following provisions shall take effect :—

(1.) The county of Monmouth (exclusive of the Manor of Chepstow) shall be divided for Coroners' purposes, and for the purposes of the said first-recited Act, into four districts.

(2.) War Office, July 12, 1892.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross upon the undermentioned Officers of Her Majesty's Army, whose claims have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, for the conspicuous bravery displayed by them during the recent operations in the Hunza and Nagar Country on the Gilgit frontier in December, 1891, as recorded against their names :—

Corps.	Name.	Act of Courage for which recommended.
Royal Engineers...	Captain Fenton John Aylmer	For his conspicuous bravery in the assault and capture of the Nilt Fort, on 2nd December, 1891. This Officer accompanied the storming party, burst open the inner gate with gun-cotton, which he placed and ignited, and though severely wounded, once in the leg and twice in the right hand, fired nineteen shots with his revolver, killing several of the enemy, and remained fighting, until fainting from loss of blood he was carried out of action.
Indian Staff Corps	Lieutenant Guy Hudleston Bois- ragon	For his conspicuous bravery in the assault and capture of the Nilt Fort on 2nd December, 1891. This Officer led the assault with dash and determination, and forced his way through difficult obstacles to the inner gate, when he returned for reinforcements, moving intrepidly to and fro under a heavy cross-fire until he had collected sufficient men to relieve the hardly pressed storming party and drive the enemy from the fort.
Indian Staff Corps	Lieutenant John Manners Smith	For his conspicuous bravery when leading the storming party at the attack and capture of the strong position occupied by the enemy near Nilt, in the Hunza-Nagar Country, on the 20th December, 1891. The position was, owing to the nature of the country, an extremely strong one, and had barred the advance of the force for seventeen days. It was eventually forced by a small party of 50 rifles, with another of equal strength in support. The first of these parties was under the command of Lieutenant Smith, and it was entirely owing to his splendid leading, and the coolness, combined with dash, he displayed while doing so, that a success was obtained. For nearly four hours, on the face of a cliff which was almost precipitous, he steadily moved his handful of men from point to point, as the difficulties of the ground and showers of stones from above gave him an opportunity, and during the whole of this time he was in such a position as to be unable to defend himself from any attack the enemy might choose to make. He was the first man to reach the summit, within a few yards of one of the enemy's sungars, which was immediately rushed, Lieutenant Smith pistolling the first man.

Downing Street, July 9, 1892.

THE Queen has been pleased to give directions for the appointment of Francis Volev Pougnet, Esq., M.D., to be a Member of the Council of Government of the Colony of Mauritius.

Whitehall, July 4, 1892.

THE Queen has been pleased to grant unto George William Bateson-de Yarburgh, Baron Deramore, Her Royal licence and authority that he and his issue may discontinue to use the surname of Bateson before that of de Yarburgh, and that he and they may assume, take, and use the surname of Bateson in addition to and after that of de Yarburgh, and bear the arms of Bateson (in the first quarter) quarterly with those of Yarburgh; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise the said Royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's said College of Arms.
