NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be open to the Public on and after Monday, the 25th instant, on every week day, Wednesdays excepted, under the usual Regulations, until further orders.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of June, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Law respecting the Office of County Coroner," it is (amongst other things) enacted that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that any alterations should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it shall be lawful for the said justices, in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition shall be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such county as in that Act thereafter provided, and that the Clerk of the Peace shall give notice of any such resolution to every Coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition will be taken by the said justices into consideration, and the justices shall confer with every such Coroner who shall attend the meeting of the justices for that purpose touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of inhabitants, the nature of their employment, and such other circumstances as shall appear to the justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of that Act, and that such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, shall be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the justices present when such petition shall be agreed to, and the Clerk of the Peace for such county shall forthwith give or send a proper copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every Coroner for such county, and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if She shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and also any petition which may be presented to Her by any Coroner of the same county, concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a Writ de Coronatore Eligendo for the purposes of authorizing the election of an additional Coroner above the number of those who have been therefore customarily elected in such county, to order that such county shall be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of that Act as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and that every such Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, the county of Monmouth (exclusive of the Manor of Chepstow) was for Coroners' purposes and for the purposes of the said Act, divided into three districts named respectively the Abergavenny District, the Monmouth District, and the Newport District, which said Districts comprised the several parishes, places, and boundaries respectively set forth in the Schedule to the said Order in Council:

And whereas, under and by virtue of the Local Government Act 1888 the powers and business of the said Justices in relation to the matters aforesaid have been transferred to the County Council for the county of Monmouth:

And whereas by a Provisional Order of the Local Government Board dated the eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, made under the provisions of the Local Government Act and confirmed by "Local Government Board Provisional Orders (No. 9) Act, 1891" the Borough of Newport was created a County Borough:

And whereas, on the fourth day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, the County Council for the county of Monmouth presented a petition to Her Majesty praying that the said Newport District might be altered for the purposes of the hereinbefore first-recited Act in order that the said District might be wholly situate within and coextensive with the said
