

Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of All Saints North Peckham.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised for the first and second turns of presentation jointly by the said Mary Jane Gooch the said Henry Cubitt Gooch and the said George Peabody Gooch their heirs and assigns and that the third turn and all the remaining turns of patronage and nomination shall in like manner be assigned to and become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Randall Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester and by his successors bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of All Saints North Peckham being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the district parish of Saint George Camberwell of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Luke, Camberwell, and of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Camden all in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point at the junction of the Grand Surrey Canal with the Peckham branch of the same canal where the boundary dividing the said new parish of Camden from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark Camberwell in the county and diocese aforesaid joins the boundary dividing the same new parish of Camden from the new parish of Saint Andrew Peckham in the same county and diocese and extending thence southward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts thereby following the middle of the said Peckham branch canal to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Rosemary-road and extending thence westward to and along the middle of the said road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts thereby crossing at the junction of the same road with Sumner-road the boundary which divides the said new parish of Camden from the new parish of Saint Luke Camberwell aforesaid to its junction with the street or road called or known as East Surrey-grove and extending thence northward for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named street or road to its junction with Saint George's-road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Luke Camberwell from the district parish of Saint George Camberwell aforesaid and extending thence westward along the last-mentioned boundary thereby following the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to the point where the said Saint George's-road is joined by the private roadway which passes between the houses and premises called or known respectively as number 111 Saint George's-road and number 109 Saint George's-road and extending thence northward along the middle of the said private roadway for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to the northern end of the same roadway and continuing thence still in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a further distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the Grand Surrey Canal aforesaid upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint George Camberwell from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark Camberwell aforesaid and extending thence eastward for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts along the last-mentioned boundary and along the boundary dividing the same consolidated chapelry from the new parish of Camden aforesaid thereby following the middle of the Grand Surrey Canal aforesaid and passing under Trafalgar Bridge to the first described point at the junction of the said canal with the Peckham branch of the same canal at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the several cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the Act of the third and fourth year of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her Majesty chapter sixty-three and of the Acts mentioned therein duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty-three and of the Acts therein mentioned have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme
