WHEREAS by "The Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891," Her Majesty the Queen is authorized by Order in Council to fix the fees to be taken in respect of any matter or thing done by a Consular officer in the execution of his office, and to vary such fees by way of increase or decrease, and to abolish fees, and to create new fees:

And whereas, by "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892," and by "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1892," made in pursuance of that Act, it is provided that certain things may or shall be done on payment of the proper fee, and that Act further provides that the proper fee shall be such fee as may for the time being be fixed under the first recited Act, and that the fee so fixed as respects a Consul shall be the fee which may be taken by any Marriage officer:

And whereas, under "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," Her Majesty in Council has power to make Orders in Council, and also to revoke and vary Orders in Council made, or deemed to have been made, in pursuance of that Act:

And whereas it is expedient that the Table of Fees fixed by "The Consular Fees Order in Council, 1892," should in certain respects be amended, and that the whole of the fees to be taken by Consular officers and Marriage officers should be fixed by an Order in Council made under the provisions of "The Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891":

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the before-mentioned Acts, it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, as follows:

1. This Order may be cited as "The Consular Fees (General) Order in Council, 1892."

2. The several fees set forth in the Tables annexed to this Order are hereby established, and the said Tables and notes thereto shall be construed as part of this Order.

3. Such provisions of any Order in Council made or continued in force under the provisions of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," as are inconsistent with anything in this Order are hereby revoked, and the provisions of this Order and of the said Tables shall be and are hereby substituted for such first-mentioned provisions, and the fees herein prescribed may or shall be taken accordingly.

4. This Order shall come into operation on the first January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, or at such later date as in the case of any particular Consular jurisdiction, or part thereof, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by any general or particular instructions, may from time to time direct.

5. On and after the day on which this Order comes into operation in any place to which this Order applies, "The Consular Fees Order in Council, 1892," shall be repealed as to that place, but this repeal shall not revive any Table, provision, or Order in Council abolished or repealed by the said Order, or affect any right or liability existing at the commencement of this Order in any place.

6. In this Order the expression "Consular jurisdiction" means and includes the district, place, or places for which a Consular officer acts.

7. This Order shall not extend to any place in China, Japan, or Corea.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord Chancellor.

Lord Privy Seal.

Marquess of Salisbury.

Marquess of Lothian.

Lord George Hamilton.

Secretary Lord Knutsford.

Mr. Secretary Stanhope.

Mr. Goschen.

Sir J. Parker Deane.

WHEREAS, by "The Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891," Her Majesty the Queen is authorized by Order in Council to fix the fees to be taken in respect of any matter or thing done by a Consular officer in the execution of his office, and to vary such fees by way of increase or decrease, and to abolish fees, and to create new fees:

And whereas, by "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892," and by "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1892," made in pursuance of that Act, it is provided that certain things may, or shall, be done on payment of the proper fee, and that Act further provides that the proper fee shall be such fee as may for the time being be fixed under the first recited Act, and that the fee so fixed as respects a Consul shall be the fee which shall be taken by any Marriage officer:

And whereas, under "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," Her Majesty in Council has power to make Orders in Council, and also to revoke or vary Orders in Council made, or deemed to have been made, in pursuance of that Act:

And whereas it is expedient that the Table of Fees fixed by "The China, Japan, and Corea (Consular Fees) Order in Council, 1892," should in certain respects be amended, and that the whole of the fees to be taken by Consular officers and Marriage officers in places to which this Order extends should be fixed by an Order in Council made under the provisions of "The Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891":

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the before-mentioned Acts, it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Consular Fees (China, Japan, and Corea) Order in Council, 1892."

2. The several fees set forth in the Tables annexed to this Order are hereby established, and the said Tables and notes thereto shall be construed as part of this Order.

3. Such provisions of any Order in Council made or continued in force under the provisions of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," and relating or applicable to China, Japan, or Corea, as are inconsistent with anything in this Order, are hereby revoked, and the provisions of this Order, and of the said Tables, shall be, and are, hereby substituted for such first-mentioned provisions, and the fees herein prescribed may or shall be taken accordingly.

4. This Order shall come into operation on the first January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, or at such later date as, in the case of any particular Consular jurisdiction, or part thereof, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by any general or particular instructions, may from time to time direct.

5. On and after the day on which this Order comes into operation in any place to which this Order applies, "The China, Japan, and Corea (Consular Fees) Order in Council, 1892," shall be repealed as to that place, but this repeal shall not revive any Table, provision, or Order in Council abolished or repealed by the said Order, or affect any right or liability existing at the commencement of this Order in any place.

6. In this Order the expression "Consular jurisdiction" means and includes the district, place, or places for which a Consular officer acts.

7. This Order shall extend to all places in China, Japan, and Corea.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 18th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, in the words following, that is to say;

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the parish of Cheriton in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury, and partly out of the parish of Folkestone in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Cheriton and of the said parish of Folkestone which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas in conformity with the terms of the will of the late Mrs. Catherine Thompson of Seabrook Vale in the said parish of Cheriton, Widow, William Henry Dowling Reeves Welman, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, a Major-General on the Retired List of Your Majesty's Army, and George Wilks, of Hythe in the said county of Kent Solicitor, the trustees of the said will have contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of eleven thousand three hundred and eighty-seven pounds nineteen shillings and five pence upon trust to apply a portion of the said sum amounting to five thousand pounds sterling, with certain accumulations of interest thereon as and for the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and (so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act) then of the said new parish and of the maintenance of the minister or incumbent thereof for the time being, and we have in respect of such sum agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such minister or incumbent as aforesaid when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the last-mentioned Act a sum which will amount to not less than one hundred and fifty pounds per annum.

"And whereas it is intended that the balance of the said sum of eleven thousand three hundred and eighty-seven pounds nineteen shillings and five pence shall be applied by us in certain proportions towards providing a church for the said district and new parish and a house of residence for the minister or incumbent thereof.

"And whereas the said sum of eleven thousand three hundred and eighty-seven pounds nineteen shillings and five pence has been contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas the said William Henry Dowling Reeves Welman and the said George Wilks have nominated to us the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White Archbishop of the said diocese of Canterbury as the person to whom they desire that the first turn of patronage and appointment of the minister or incumbent of the said proposed district or new parish should be assigned and the Reverend William Blackwall Buckwell Clerk in Holy Orders the present rector of the said parish of Cheriton and his successors rectors of the same parish for ever as the persons to whom the second and every succeeding turn of patronage and presentation should be assigned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Edward White, Archbishop of the said diocese of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Cheriton and of the said parish of Folkestone which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of All Souls Cheriton-street' and shall be endowed as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that the right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and (when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid) then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised for the first turn by the said Edward White Archbishop of the said diocese of Canterbury and that the second and every succeeding turn of patronage and nomination shall be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Blackwall Buckwell Rector of the said parish of Cheriton and his successors rectors of the same parish for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of All Souls, Cheriton-street, being:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Cheriton and of the parish of Folkestone both in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury wherein the present incumbent of each such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls, all which said portions are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Sandgate in the county and diocese aforesaid, from the said parish of Folkestone at the middle of the southern end of the bridge situate four and a half chains or thereabouts to the east of the eastern end of Shorncliffe Railway Station, which bridge carries the line of the South Eastern Railway over the road which leads directly to the southern end of Broadmead-lane, and extending thence northward along the middle of the said road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to the point where it joins the said Broadmead-lane and also the road leading from Folkestone to Cheriton-street and Newington and extending thence first northward, then north-westward, then north-eastward, and then again northward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of one mile and twenty-one chains or thereabouts to a point on the northern side of Cæsar's Camp at the junction of the same lane with the roadway which leads from Coombe-lane and the Canterbury-road to Newington upon the municipal boundary of the borough of Folkestone and extending thence generally westward along the said municipal boundary for a distance of fifty-three chains or thereabouts thereby following the course of the last described roadway to the point where the same municipal boundary joins the boundary which divides the said parish of Folkestone from the parish of Cheriton aforesaid and extending thence still westward along the last-mentioned parish boundary for a distance of three chains or thereabouts (thereby following the middle of the said last described roadway) to the point where the said last-mentioned parish boundary meets the boundary which divides the said parish of Cheriton from the parish of Newington near Hythe in the county and diocese aforesaid, at the junction of the said last described roadway with the road or footpath which leads from Dane Farm into Wood-lane, and extending thence first south-westward and then southward along the last described road or footpath for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts to its junction with Wood-lane aforesaid and continuing thence still southward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts to the junction of the same lane with the above-mentioned road which leads from Newington aforesaid through Cheriton-street to Folkestone and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last described road for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the public footpath leading to Risborough and to Cheriton parish church and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-mentioned footpath for a distance of six and a half chains or thereabouts to the middle of the footbridge which carries the same footpath over the line of the South Eastern Railway aforesaid and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of forty-five chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Cheriton from the parish of Folkestone aforesaid and extending thence southward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of thirty yards or thereabouts to its junction on the southern side of the said line of railway with the boundary which divides the said new parish of Sandgate from the parish of Folkestone aforesaid, and extending thence eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of thirty-four chains or thereabouts (thereby following the southern side of the said line of railway) to the firstly-mentioned point at the southern end of the bridge which carries the said line of railway over the first-mentioned road at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

London, August 20, 1892.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch, dated 12th August, 1892, from Her Majesty's Representative at Stockholm, enclosing a Translation of the following Royal Decree:—

His Majesty's Gracious Notification containing regulations for preventing the entrance of cholera into the Kingdom

Given at Stockholm Palace, August 5, 1892.

We, Oscar, &c., make known that We, in view of the spread of cholera in Europe, and by the advice of our Medical Board, have found good, in order to prevent the entrance of cholera into the Kingdom, to annul our notification of June 12th, 1885, relative to the quarantine regulations which were to come into force on the occurrence of cholera in or near an European port, and instead to ordain as follows:

ART. I.—1. Should a case of cholera occur at or near any port in Europe, the Board of Trade shall, by public notification, declare such port to be infected with cholera, as also its neighbourhood according to the circumstances of the case.

2. A district which has accordingly been declared as infected with cholera, shall continue to be regarded as infected, until the Board of Trade shall notify that the disease has ceased there.

3. Even if a notification has not actually been issued by the Board of Trade, any port in Europe shall be considered as infected with cholera, so soon as trustworthy information shall have been received that a case of cholera has occurred in such port.

4. The above-named Notifications, wherein also the places still considered as infected under previous notifications, shall be immediately published by the newspapers, and by the "Författnings-samling," and also be forwarded, in sufficient numbers of copies, to the General Customs Board, the Medical Board, the Pilotage Board, and to all the superior local authorities for immediate distribution to persons concerned.

ART. II.—1. A ship which has sailed from or touched at, or otherwise had communication with, a place regarded as infected with cholera, likewise a ship which has come into communication with any other ships having had on board death or sickness from cholera or other sickness suspected of being cholera, shall, before having communication with Swedish territory or inhabitants of Sweden, touch at one of the stations for observation established along the coasts of the Kingdom, in order that she may be examined by one of the appointed doctors as regards the state of health on board, and accordingly such ship shall, if she tries.

to touch at any other place, be at once sent to the observation station.

2. Should there be on board a ship arriving from abroad any case of death or illness from cholera, or disease suspected of being cholera, such ships shall at once proceed to the quarantine station, before holding communication with Swedish territory or inhabitants of Sweden.

ART. III. The Board of Health shall, by a public notification, similar to that set forth in paragraph 4 of Article I, declare what places are fixed upon for quarantine and observation stations.

ART. IV.—1. When a ship, according to the rules in Article II, has arrived at the place of observation, she shall, with crew, passengers, and cargo, except in the case mentioned in paragraph 3, remain there for 48 hours in order to be examined by the appointed doctor of the place.

2. Should no reason be found for supposing that cholera can be introduced by the persons or goods on board, the ship may, with crew, passengers, and cargo, after the expiration of the abovementioned 48 hours, continue her journey, as soon as the doctor has given his permission in writing, on a form supplied by the Medical Board for that purpose.

3. If, on the other hand, it occurs that the ship during her journey has had on board death or sickness from cholera, or disease suspected to be cholera, or should such disease show itself on board whilst the ship is at the observation station, or should there exist on board clothes or bedding, or other similar goods or objects, through which it is suspected that cholera might be introduced, then the ship shall at once be sent to the quarantine station in order to undergo quarantine there.

ART. V.—1. A ship which by virtue of Articles II or IV has arrived at the quarantine station, shall there be kept in quarantine with her crew, passengers, and cargo until six periods of twenty-four hours have passed by from the time that the ship arrived at the quarantine station, and that the last sick or dead person has been removed from the ship.

2. A ship which has been placed in quarantine, and the goods and objects on board which are suspected of possibly introducing cholera, shall undergo cleansing and disinfection in such a degree as circumstances call for. This shall be done according to the regulations issued on June 2, 1892, for the use of the quarantine station at Kånsö, and according to any rules which the Medical Board may issue.

3. After the proper cleansing and disinfection has taken place, and the appointed quarantine period has expired, the ship may be permitted to continue her journey with her crew, passengers, and cargo. Such permission shall be given in writing on a form provided by the Board of Health.

ART. VI. As for the fees at the quarantine station, the already named rules issued for the quarantine station at Kånsö shall be applicable.

ART. VII. The Medical Board shall draw up instructions for the doctors appointed to the observation and quarantine stations, and the Board can also in other matters issue suitable regulations for the conduct of the persons employed at those stations.

ART. VIII. In general, the regulations of March 19, 1875, on steps taken to prevent the introduction and spread of infectious diseases among the inhabitants of the Kingdom, shall continue to be observed.

Let all concerned obediently follow what is above ordered.

Palace of Stockholm, 5th of August, 1892.
