The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order made by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council on the fifteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, Her Majesty did, by and with the advice of the said Council, order that George Henry Charles, Earl of Strafford, Sir George Webbe Dasent, Knight, Doctor of Civil Law, and William John Courthope, Esquire, or such other persons as Her Majesty might from time to time approve in the stead of them, or any of them, should be Her Majesty's Commissioners for testing, in conformity with Her Majesty's Order in Council dated the fourth June one thousand eight hundred and seventy, or such further Order or Orders as Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, had issued or might issue in that behalf, the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in Her Majesty's Civil Establishments, and also for testing, in conformity with regulations to be from time to time issued by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for War, the literary qualifications of candidates for first Commissions in the Army, and for admission to the Royal Military College at Woolwich, and should hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty; the said George Henry Charles, Earl of Strafford being the First Commissioner; and should have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as might be required to assist them in the performance of the duties thereafter assigned to them;

And whereas, since the date of the Order first above-mentioned, the said George Henry Charles, Earl of Strafford, and the said Sir George Webbe Dasent have retired, and whereas it is deemed expedient that the Civil Service Commission shall consist of two Commissioners, and that Francis Hervey, commonly called the Lord Francis Hervey, should be appointed second Commissioner.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered that the said William John Courthope, Esquire, and the said Francis Hervey, commonly called the Lord Francis Hervey, or such other persons as Her Majesty may from time to time, approve in the stead of them, or any of them, shall be Her Majesty's Commissioners for testing, in conformity with the said Order in Council dated the fourth June one thousand eight hundred and seventy, or such further Order or Orders as Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, has issued or may issue in that behalf, the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in Her Majesty's Civil Establishments, and also for testing, in conformity with regulations to be from time to time issued by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for War, the literary qualifications of Candidates for first Commissions in the Army, and for admission to the Royal Military College at Woolwich, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty; the said William John Courthope, Esquire, being the first Commissioner; and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of their duties.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 18th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-one of "The Pluralities Act 1838" after reciting that, "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is amongst other things enacted, "That when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall inquire into the circumstances of the case, and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall, six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in all other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons "interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent in writing of the patron or patrons thereof."

And whereas by section twenty-three of the said Act it is further enacted "That whenever two or more benefices which have at any time been united into one benefice shall be disunited, and become separate benefices under the provisions of this Act . . . it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the Province, with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefices respectively . . . to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges, or other endowments or emoluments belonging to, or arising or accruing within the limits of such united benefice, to each of such benefices respectively, as to Her Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe land, tithes, rent-charges, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments, or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the limits of the benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole united benefice."

And whereas on the sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two Charles John, Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, made a representation to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury in the words following, that is to say:—

"To the Most Reverend Edward White Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

"I Charles John Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol do hereby represent to your Grace that it appears to me that the disunion of the united benefice of the rectory of Brimpsfield and the rectory of Cranham in the county of Gloucester and my diocese of Gloucester and Bristol by the separation of the said rectory of Brimpsfield from the said rectory of Cranham may be made with advantage to the interests of religion. Witness my hand this sixth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

"C. J. Gloucester and Bristol."

And whereas on the twenty-ninth day of February one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two the said Archbishop inquired into the circumstances of the case.

And whereas on the fourteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two the said Archbishop certified to Her Majesty in Council as follows, that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend Charles John Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol as Bishop of the diocese within which is situate the united benefice consisting of the rectory of Brimpsfield and the rectory of Cranham in the county of Gloucester having represented unto us that the disunion of the said united benefice by the separation of the rectory of Cranham from the rectory of Brimpsfield may be made with advantage to the interests of religion we enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully dissolved and that the Reverend Richard Henry Denne, Clerk M.A. of Brimpsfield aforesaid being the patron or person entitled to present to the said united benefices if the same were now vacant consents to the proposed disunion.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of each of the parish churches of the said united benefice with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such disunion and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, our enquiry into the circumstances of the case the reply thereto the consent in writing of the patron and the copies of the representation and notice before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for separating the said rectory of Cranham from the said rectory of Brimpsfield and in accordance with the consent in writing of the patron above referred to we recommend that each benefice when disunited shall retain its own original endowments and emoluments and bear its own charges and outgoings.

"As witness our hand this fourteenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

"Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said united benefice consisting of the rectory of Brimpsfield and the rectory of Cranham, situate in the county of Gloucester and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, shall be disunited by separating the said rectory of Brimpsfield from the said rectory of Cranham.

And Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council is further pleased, on the recommendation of the said Archbishop, with the consent of the patron of the said benefices, to assign and attach to each of such benefices respectively its own original endowments and emoluments and to direct that each benefice shall bear its own charges and outgoings.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 18th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of "The Pluralities Act, 1838," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation, to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the eighteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend William Lord Bishop of Oxford as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the rectory of Hartwell and the vicarage of Stone with the chapelry of Bishopstone both in the county of Buckingham having represented unto Us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice We enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such enquiry it appeared to Us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that Edward Dyke Lee of Hartwell House Aylesbury Esquire (being the patron or person entitled to present to the said benefices if the same respectively were both now vacant) consents to the proposed union.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council We caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to Us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Oxford our inquiry into the circumstances of the case the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consent in writing of the patron and the copies of the representation and notice before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And We do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"As witness our hand this eighteenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two. "Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the rectory of Hartwell Saint Mary, situate in the county of Buckingham and diocese of Oxford, and the vicarage of Stone with the chapelry of Bishopstone situate in the same county and diocese shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 18th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act, 1838," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for

"ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial, or extra-parochial so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by section six of the Church Building Act, 1839, it is amongst other things, further enacted, "That any such scheme or modification as aforesaid may be drawn up according to the regulations and directions in the hereinbefore in part recited Act contained, subject to the consent in writing of the patron or patrons of the said benefice or benefices to be affected thereby, under his or their hands, notwithstanding the vacancy of such benefice or benefices, and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council thereupon to make an Order for carrying such scheme or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect; and that such Order being registered in the registry of the diocese as directed by the hereinbefore in part recited Act, shall come into operation, and shall be forthwith binding on all persons whatsoever notwithstanding such vacancy or vacancies."

And whereas the Right Reverend James Lord Bishop of Hereford, hath represented in a writing, dated the twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White Lord Archbishop of Canterbury as follows:—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"We the Right Reverend James Lord Bishop of Hereford do hereby represent to Your Grace as follows.

"1. That within the county of Worcester and our diocese of Hereford are the rectory and parish church of Ribbesford the parish whereof comprises part of the borough of Bewdley.

"2. That the population of the parish of Ribbesford including the part of the borough of Bewdley is two thousand and three the population of the part or portion of the borough of Bewdley described and comprised in the schedule hereto being estimated at one thousand nine hundred and two persons.

"3. That the parish church of Ribbesford aforesaid affords accommodation for four hundred persons or thereabouts and is distant from one to four miles from the part or portion of the borough of Bewdley described as aforesaid.

"4. That the area of the ecclesiastical parish of Ribbesford exceeds four thousand two hundred and seventy acres.

"5. That the net annual income of the said rectory of Ribbesford amounts according to the Tithe Averages for one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one to two hundred and seventy-six pounds or thereabouts.

"6. That within the county of Worcester and our diocese of Hereford are the perpetual curacy and district or ecclesiastical parish church of Saint Ann Bewdley.

"7. That the part or portion of the said borough of Bewdley described as aforesaid although forming part of the said parish of Ribbesford is in fact contiguous to the district or ecclesiastical parish of Saint Ann Bewdley and the inhabitants of the said part or portion of the said borough of Bewdley can and do more readily attend the said church of Saint Ann Bewdley and can be more easily attended to for spiritual purposes by the vicar of the said district or ecclesiastical parish of Saint Ann Bewdley.

"8. That the district or ecclesiastical parish of Saint Ann Bewdley contains a population of nine hundred and seventy-four and the church of the said district or ecclesiastical parish affords accommodation for eight hundred persons or thereabouts.

"9. That the net annual income of the said vicarage of Saint Ann Bewdley amounts to two hundred and eighteen pounds or thereabouts.

"10. That the patronage of the said rectory and parish church of Ribbesford belongs to Maria Louisa Winnington Ingram of Bickenham, Cavenish-place, Bourne-mouth and of Ribbesford House in the county of Worcester Widow and the patronage of the said perpetual curacy and district or ecclesiastical parish church of Saint Ann Bewdley belongs to the rector of Ribbesford for the time being.

"11. That the rector of the rectory and parish church of Ribbesford is the Reverend Edward Henry Winnington Ingram who is consenting to the scheme hereby proposed and the perpetual curacy and district or ecclesiastical parish church of Saint Ann Bewdley is vacant.

"12. That it appears to us that under the provisions of 'The Pluralities Act 1838' (one and two Victoria, chapter one hundred and six) and of the Act two and three Victoria chapter forty-nine the said part or portion of the borough of Bewdley may be advantageously separated from the said rectory and parish of Ribbesford and be united to the said perpetual curacy and district or ecclesiastical parish of Saint Ann Bewdley for ecclesiastical purposes.

"13. That pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said Pluralities Act we have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to us that the alteration above proposed may best be effected and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithe rent-charges and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested and we do submit the same to Your Grace together with the consents in writing of the aforesaid patrons and of the said Reverend Edward Henry Winnington Ingram as such rector as aforesaid to the intent that Your Grace may if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme certify the same and such consents as aforesaid by your report to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under our hand, this twenty-sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

"J. Hereford."

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop, and the consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"1. That the part or portion of the borough of Bewdley described in the schedule hereto at present belonging to and forming part of the rectory and parish of Ribbesford in the county of Worcester and diocese of Hereford shall be separated from the said rectory and parish of Ribbesford and be united to and be deemed part of the said perpetual curacy and district or ecclesiastical parish of Saint Ann Bewdley in the said county of Worcester and diocese of Hereford for ecclesiastical purposes.

"2. That the part or portion of the borough of Bewdley described as aforesaid shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said perpetual curacy and district or ecclesiastical parish of Saint Ann Bewdley and the incumbent of the said perpetual curacy and district or ecclesiastical parish church of Saint Ann Bewdley shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits aforesaid.

"3. That all fees and other ecclesiastical dues and payments for marriages churchings and other ecclesiastical offices (except burials) in respect of persons resident within the said part or portion of the said borough of Bewdley so described as aforesaid shall belong to the incumbent of Saint Ann Bewdley and that the inhabitants of the said part or portion of the said borough shall not be entitled to accommodation in the parish church of Ribbesford but shall be entitled in common with the inhabitants of the said district or ecclesiastical parish of Saint Ann Bewdley to accommodation in the church of Saint Ann Bewdley and shall be exempted from all liability to repair the parish church of Ribbesford but shall be liable (subject to the provisions of 'The Compulsory Church Rates Abolition Act, 1838') to the repair of the said church of Saint Ann Bewdley.

"4. That part of the tithe rent-charge payable to the said rector of Ribbesford in respect of the hamlet of Bewdley amounting to the apportioned sum of one hundred and forty-seven pounds six shillings and two pence and arising from the lands numbered 1 to 680 both inclusive on the map annexed to the apportionment of the tithe rent-charge of the hamlet of Bewdley shall cease to be payable to the said rector of Ribbesford but shall be payable to the incumbent of Saint Ann Bewdley.

"5. That the glebe lands numbered 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, and 142 on the tithe map of the Lordship of Ribbesford and containing sixty acres and twelve perches shall cease to belong to the said rector of Ribbesford but shall belong to the incumbent of Saint Ann Bewdley.

"6. That the annual procurations as also the tenths and first fruits heretofore payable by the rector of Ribbesford aforesaid shall in future be paid by the said rector of Ribbesford and the incumbent of Saint Ann Bewdley aforesaid in the following proportions viz.:—By the rector of Ribbesford, annual procurations to the Archdeacon of Ludlow in the diocese of Hereford four shillings and sixpence, first fruits thirteen pounds nineteen shillings and seven pence, yearly tenths one pound eight shillings. By the incumbent of Saint Ann, Bewdley, annual procurations to the Archdeacon of Ludlow aforesaid four shillings and sixpence, first fruits thirteen pounds nineteen shillings and seven pence, yearly tenths one pound seven shillings and eleven pence.

"SCHEDULE.

"That portion of the borough of Bewdley commencing at the point of the road leading from Bewdley to Kinlet as is bounded by the parishes of Dowles and Stottesdon and extending to the point of the brook where the parish of Stottesdon adjoins to the parish of Rock and further extending from such point along the line dividing the hamlet of Bewdley from the parish of Rock to the boundary of the lordship of Ribbesford and thence along such boundary till it reaches the River Severn and which portion of the borough of Bewdley comprises numbers 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, 32 to 39 and 53 to 680 inclusive upon the map annexed to the tithe apportionment of the hamlet of Bewdley.

"CONSENTS.

"We Maria Louisa Winnington Ingram of Bickenham Cavendish-place, Bournemouth and of Ribbesford House, in the county of Worcester Widow the person entitled to present to the rectory of Ribbesford in case the same were now vacant and I the Reverend Edward Henry Winnington Ingram the rector of Ribbesford in the county of Worcester and as such rector the person or corporation entitled to present to the perpetual curacy of Saint Ann Bewdley in case the same were now vacant. And I the Reverend Edward Henry Winnington Ingram Clerk the rector of the said rectory of Ribbesford do hereby consent to the foregoing scheme and to every matter and thing therein proposed and set forth.

"Maria Louisa Winnington Ingram,

"Edward Henry Winnington Ingram,

*"Rector of Ribbesford, and, as such rector,
"patron of Saint Ann, Bewdley."*

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said scheme, hath certified the same, and the consents aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council by his report dated the fourth day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty, in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend James Lord Bishop of Hereford has represented unto Us (amongst other things)

"That there is in the county of Worcester and his diocese of Hereford the parish and benefice or rectory of Ribbesford.

"That there is also in the said county and diocese the parish and benefice or perpetual curacy of Saint Ann Bewdley.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that that part of the said parish of Ribbesford which forms part of the borough of Bewdley and which is contiguous to the said parish of Saint Ann Bewdley may be advantageously separated from the said parish and mother church of Ribbesford and annexed to the said parish of Saint Ann Bewdley for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the Pluralities Act 1838 the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithes tithe rent-charges and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the patrons and incumbent of the benefices to be affected have been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to Us for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And We the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the said Pluralities Act 1838 certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"As witness our hand this fourth day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 18th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of "The Pluralities Act, 1838," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the Bishop of any diocese, or by the Bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty as herein-

"after directed, cause with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council:—

"That the Right Reverend John James Stewart Lord Bishop of Worcester as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the vicarage of Wappenbury and the vicarage of Weston-under-Wetherley both in the county of Warwick having represented unto Us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice We inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to Us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that the Right Honourable Hugh Fortescue Lord Ebrington of Castle Hill House, in the county of Devon who is entitled to present to the said benefices on the existing vacancy thereof and the Right Honourable Lewis Henry Hugh Lord Clifford Baron of Cludleigh in the county of Devon who is the patron or person entitled to present to the said benefices after the next term consent to the proposed union.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to Us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Worcester our inquiry into the circumstances of the case the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consent in writing of the patrons and the copies of the representation and notice before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And We do hereby certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"As witness our hand this twenty-sixth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two. "Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the vicarage of Wappenbury situate in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester, and the vicarage of Weston-under-Wetherley, situate in the same county and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 18th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the incumbents and the churchwardens of the parishes herein-after mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's

Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with certain modifications:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of June last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fifteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, as follows, viz:—

WAPPENHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Wappenham, in the county of Northampton; and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, except as follows:—

In such wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

LYTCHETT-MATRAVERS.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Lytchett-Matavers, in the county of Dorset; and also in the churchyard, except as follows:—

In such wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

SYRESHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Syresham, in the county of Northampton; and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

BECKENHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Beckenham, in the county of Kent; and also in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order, viz. : widows, widowers, parents, and unmarried children, as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces (limited to twenty in number) in the churchyard as have never before been buried in, and which, when opened, are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be now or hereafter allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 18th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws "concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Order ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows, viz. :—

In the Parish Churchyard of Walkeringham, in the county of Nottingham, until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

London, August 23, 1892.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch, dated 11th August, 1892, from Her Majesty's Representative at Bucharest, enclosing a summary of a Decree issued by the Roumanian Government, relative to quarantine. The following Translation is a résumé of the same:—

The notice prohibits the importation into Roumania from Russia, or any country in which cholera should ultimately break out, of the following articles:—

- (a.) Used bed and body linen, unwashed, introduced as article of commerce.
- (b.) Worn clothes, rags for paper making, and scraps of stuffs of all sorts and of paper.
- (c.) Fur and goods of fur, skins, and leathers of all kinds and under all forms.
- (d.) Felts, wool (washed or not), ox-hair, horse-hair, pig-bristles, camel-hair, feathers, downs, and cottons.
- (e.) Bladders and guts (fresh, dry, or salted).
- (f.) Caviar, fish, dried, smoked, salted, or prepared with oil, and fresh butter.
- (g.) Specimens of merchandise.

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, August 23, 1892.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch, dated 17th August, 1892, from Her Majesty's Representative at Copenhagen, enclosing a summary of a Decree issued by the Danish Government, relative to quarantine. The following Translation is a résumé of the same:—

By this notice the Regulations of Ch. 2 I of the Law of the 2nd July, 1880, concerning preventive measures against the introduction of contagious diseases, are put in force, until further orders, with respect to vessels coming from Russian ports of the Baltic, or having communicated with these ports, or during their voyage with other ships sailing from these ports.

At the same time, in conformity with section 32 of the said Law, importation from the said ports of the following objects is forbidden :—

Linen, wearing apparel, and bedding, having been used, unless they belong to travellers' luggage, rags, used cotton-wadding, wool-flock, and paper-scrappings.

Linen, clothing, and bedding belonging to travellers, and coming from the said ports, shall be disinfected under the superintendence of the authorities.

(H. 6238.)

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, August 23, 1892.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of the following Translation of a Decree issued by the Swedish Government relating to quarantine:—

His Majesty's Gracious Notification prohibiting the introduction of used bedding and wearing apparel, &c., &c.

We, Oscar, &c., make known that, in consequence of cholera having occurred in various places in Russia, and having already by our Decree of July 11 last, commanded that rags, as conveying infection, shall be imported into the Kingdom from no other place excepting only from Norway and Denmark, We do now, upon the advice of Our Medical Board, ordain that used bedding, bed clothes, and wearing apparel, and other similar goods and effects, so far as they are not brought with them for their own use by travellers or ships' crews, shall, until further notice, not be allowed entrance excepting only if they come from Norway and Denmark; and such import may only take place on the condition that when the goods arrive it be proved, by a certificate of a Swedish-Norwegian Legation, Consulate or Vice-Consulate, or in default thereof, of a proper local authority, that the goods do not come from any other country but only from the abovenamed countries. The certificate in question may also be issued by any person whose trustworthiness is testified to by one of the above authorities.

What is above said does not prevent the continued application of a prohibition against the import of goods from those countries, which may have been issued for some other reasons.

Let all concerned obediently follow the above orders.

Palace of Stockholm, August 5, 1892.

INFANTRY VOLUNTEER BRIGADE.

Staffordshire Brigade, Lieutenant-Colonel and Colonel the Honourable Francis Charles Bridgeman, half-pay, to command the Brigade. Dated 27th August, 1892.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Bedford.

The Right Honourable Beauchamp Moubray, Lord St. John of Bletsoe, to be Deputy Lieutenant.

GENERAL ORDER of the Local Government Board: Altering General Dispensaries Order (Metropolis): Appointment of Stocktaker:—

Saint Olave's Union.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Saint Olave's Union, in the county of London:—
And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by a General Order of the Poor Law Board, dated the 22nd day of April, 1871, addressed to the Guardians of the Poor of the said Saint Olave's Union (among others), regulations are prescribed in respect to the management of any Dispensary provided for such Union under the powers conferred upon the said Guardians by "The Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834," "The Metropolitan Poor Act, 1867," and the other authorities in that behalf;

And whereas by the said Order it is required that an Account shall be kept by the Dispenser of the drugs, medicines, medical and surgical appliances, and medical stores submitted to his charge, and, as nearly as may be, of the consumption or disposal of the same, and that from time to time such Account shall be laid before the Dispensary Visiting Committee; and such Committee are required, as soon as practicable after the end of every half-year ending on the 25th day of March and the 29th day of September respectively, to compare the stock of drugs, medicines, and medical and surgical appliances in the Dispensary with the account to be kept by the Dispenser as aforesaid;

And whereas it is expedient to empower the said Guardians to appoint a competent person or persons to examine the stock of drugs, medicines, medical and surgical appliances, and medical stores in any Dispensary provided for the said Union as aforesaid, and to perform the other duties hereinafter set forth;

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby order as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—The Guardians of the Poor of the said Saint Olave's Union may, as and when they shall think fit to do so, appoint a competent person or persons to perform the duties of a Stocktaker as hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE II.—Every such appointment shall be made in the manner prescribed by the Regulations as to the appointment of Officers in force in the said Union for the time being.

ARTICLE III.—The Guardians shall pay to the person or persons appointed under this Order such salary or remuneration as We may from time to time direct or approve.

ARTICLE IV.—Every person appointed under this Order shall hold office until he shall die, or resign, or be dismissed by the Guardians, subject to Our consent, or be removed by Us, or be proved to be insane by evidence which We may deem sufficient; and the said Guardians shall give notice to Us of every such death or resignation, and state the cause of such resignation, so far as it may be known to them.

Provided nevertheless, that the Guardians may, if they think fit, with Our assent, appoint a person or persons to discharge for a limited period only, the duties hereby prescribed for the Stocktaker.

ARTICLE V.—The Stocktaker shall, on the day next after the termination of each quarter, and at any other time when required by the Guardians to do so, examine the stock of drugs, medicines, medical and surgical appliances, and medical stores in any Dispensary provided for the said Union, and shall compare the same with the Account kept by the Dispenser as aforesaid, showing the receipt and consumption or disposal of the stock committed to his charge.

ARTICLE VI.—After making the examination and comparison referred to in Article V., the Stocktaker, if he find the stock to be, as nearly as may be, correct, shall sign a certificate at the foot of the aforesaid Account in the following form:—

"Submitted to me this _____ day of _____ 18____, and found to be, as nearly as may be, correct as regards the quantities of stock remaining in store.
" (Signed) _____
" Stocktaker."

If he find the stock to be incorrect, he shall make such addition to the said certificate as he may deem necessary, specifying the particulars in which he finds the quantities of stock to be incorrectly stated.

ARTICLE VII.—The Dispenser shall, when required by the Stocktaker to do so, on the days and at the times referred to in Article V., submit to him the stock and Account therein mentioned, and render to him such assistance as may be necessary for the purpose of such examination and comparison as aforesaid.

ARTICLE VIII.—The Dispenser shall lay the said Account before the Guardians at their next meeting after the date of the entry therein of any such certificate as aforesaid.

ARTICLE IX.—So long as a Stocktaker is appointed it shall not be necessary for the Dispensary Visiting Committee to examine the stock in pursuance of Article 7 of the above-cited Order.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-fifth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

L. S.

Henry H. Fowler.

President.

S. B. Provis, Assistant Secretary.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of "The Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Regimental Districts throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

By order of the said Principal Secretary,

RALPH THOMPSON.

SCHEDULE.

Orders Revoked.

No.	Date.	Subject.
4995	1892. 6 August ...	Declaring a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Zone comprising Midlothian (county of Edinburgh), and also comprising the burghs of Edinburgh, Leith, Musselburgh, and Portobello.
5004	22 August ...	Contracting the Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Zone declared by Order 4995 so as only to include a district or area comprising the burghs of Edinburgh, Leith, Musselburgh, and Portobello, and also comprising Midlothian (county of Edinburgh) except that portion thereof known as the Gala Water District in the south-eastern corner of the county consisting of the parishes of Stow, Temple, Crichton, Heriot, Borthwick, Fala and Souter, and Cranston; and also except that portion of the Calder District of the county consisting of the parishes of Mid Calder, West Calder, and Kirknewton.

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1892, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and with reference especially to Article 96 of the Animals Order of 1886, do hereby license the Local Authority for the county of Buckingham to dig up or cause to be dug up, within fourteen days after the date of this Licence, the carcase of a certain pig which was recently buried at Farnham Common; subject to the following conditions:—

1. When dug up the Local Authority shall forthwith cause the carcase to be examined with a view to ascertain whether the animal was affected with contagious or infectious disease, and the Local Authority shall then cause the carcase to be re-buried as soon as possible, and shall cause it to be covered with a sufficient quantity of quick lime or other disinfectant, and with not less than six feet of earth.

2. The expenses of and incidental to the digging up, examination, and re-burial of the carcase shall be defrayed by the Local Authority.

3. This Licence is revocable by the Board of Agriculture.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.
