

"That the said chapelry contains a church or chapel long since erected which is distant from the parish church ten miles or thereabouts.

"That the population of the said parish (exclusive of the said chapelry) is according to the last Census four thousand and fifty-nine and the population of the said chapelry is six hundred and fifty-seven according to the same Census.

"That the said chapelry appears to have been treated from time immemorial as a separate parish for all civil purposes and that baptisms churchings marriages and burials have heretofore been and are now performed in the church or chapel of the said chapelry.

"That the inhabitants of the said chapelry have from time immemorial resorted to the church or chapel of the said chapelry have repaired it by rates levied on the said chapelry and have elected from among themselves churchwardens and other parish officers for the said chapelry and the said inhabitants have not been liable to repair the parish church of Bishops Hatfield.

"That it does not appear that any of the inhabitants of the parish of Bishops Hatfield are entitled to accommodation in any of the pews or sittings in the church or chapel of the said chapelry nor are any of the inhabitants of the said chapelry entitled to accommodation in any pews or sittings in the parish church of Bishops Hatfield.

"That the net annual value of the benefice of Bishops Hatfield with the chapelry of Totteridge arising from tithe rent-charge glebe land dividends on invested capital sums Easter offerings and fees amounts to one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one pounds fifteen shillings and eight pence or thereabouts of which amount the net annual sum of two hundred and eighty-two pounds four shillings and six pence arising from tithe rent-charge glebe land dividends on invested capital sum Easter offerings and fees arises within the said chapelry of Totteridge.

"That there is a glebe house belonging to the parish of Bishops Hatfield sufficient for the residence of the rector and that a new glebe house for the said chapelry sufficient for the residence of the curate serving the same is being provided by means of subscriptions of the parishioners of Totteridge aforesaid and others.

"That it appears to me that under the provisions of the said Act of the first and second Victoria chapter one hundred and six and of the Act of the second and third years of the same reign chapter forty-nine the said chapelry of Totteridge may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Bishops Hatfield and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a vicarage and benefice.

"That the Most Honourable Robert Arthur Talbot Gascoyne Marquess of Salisbury the patron of the said benefice has consented in writing under his hand to the scheme set forth in this representation the Reverend Lord Rupert Ernest William Gascoyne Cecil is the present incumbent of the said benefice and has consented in writing to the said scheme.

"That pursuant to the directions of the first-mentioned Act of Parliament I have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to me that the separation before proposed may be best effected and how the changes consequent thereon in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithes dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested."

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"It is proposed that the said chapelry of Totteridge shall be separated from the said parish of Bishops Hatfield to which it now belongs and that the same shall be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a benefice by the name and style of 'The Perpetual Curacy of Totteridge' of which the said church or chapel shall be the parish church.

"That the said separate parish and benefice of Totteridge shall henceforth be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said parish of Bishops Hatfield and the incumbent of the said separate parish and benefice shall have sole and exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

"That the incumbent of the said separate parish and benefice shall henceforth be entitled to the tithe rent-charge glebe lands and other profits (if any) and all ecclesiastical dues offerings and emoluments belonging to and arising from or in respect of the said separate parish and benefice of Totteridge and also to the dividends and income payable in respect of the sum of three hundred and sixty-three pounds six shillings and fivepence Three pounds per centum Local Loans Stock in the hands of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England representing the proceeds of the sale of a portion of the glebe situate within the said chapelry of Totteridge.

"That the said sum of three hundred and sixty-three pounds six shillings and five pence Three pounds per centum Local Loan Stock shall be transferred to the separate account of the incumbent of the said separate parish and benefice.

"That the first fruits and yearly tenths chargeable upon the benefice of Bishops Hatfield with the chapelry of Totteridge shall be apportioned as follows that is to say one-sixth part shall be charged to or payable in respect of the said separate benefice of Totteridge and five-sixth parts thereof in respect of the rectory of Bishops Hatfield.

"That no change shall be made by this scheme in respect to the glebe lands tithe rent-charges or other endowments or emoluments of the said rectory of Bishops Hatfield except as mentioned in the preceding clauses.

"That the patronage or right of nominating a minister or incumbent to the said separate parish and benefice of Totteridge shall be vested in and be exercised by the rector for the time being of the rectory of Bishops Hatfield.

"That the parishioners of the said separate parish and benefice of Totteridge shall not be entitled to accommodation in the said church of Bishops Hatfield nor shall the parishioners of the said parish of Bishops Hatfield be entitled to accommodation in the said church or chapel of Totteridge.

"And I do hereby submit the foregoing representation and scheme to your Grace and in case you shall on full consideration and enquiry be satisfied therewith I request that your Grace will be pleased to certify the same and the consents of the patron and incumbent thereto by your report to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under my hand this twentieth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

"J. W. Alban."

"CONSENTS.

"I the Most Honourable Robert Arthur Talbot Gascoyne Marquess of Salisbury K.G. the patron entitled to present or nominate to the rectory of the parish church of Bishops Hatfield in case the
