

or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in so far as it affects burials in Attleborough Church and Churchyard, in the parish of Nuneaton, in the county of Warwick, should be varied, by substituting the following directions for those contained in the said Order in regard to burials in the said church and churchyard:—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in Attleborough church, in the parish of Nuneaton, in the county of Warwick, and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fourteenth day of October next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said fourteenth day of October.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 25th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the under-mentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz.:—

DOLBENMAEN.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Dolbenmaen in the county of Carnarvon and also in the churchyard within twelve yards of the rectory.

FARNDON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Farndon, in the county of Nottingham, and also in the churchyard after the thirtieth June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, except as follows:—

In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order, viz.:—widows and widowers as can be buried at or below that depth.

FLETON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Fletton in the county of Huntingdon, and also in the parts of the churchyard which lie within two yards of its western boundary and within thirty yards of the rectory.

BERKHAMPSTED.—Forthwith and entirely in Northchurch Baptist chapel, in the parish of Berkhamsted in the county of Herts, and also in the chapelyard within ten yards of any dwelling; and that in the rest of the chapelyard the following regulations should be obeyed:—

1. No body shall be buried in any vault or walled grave unless the coffin be separately entombed in an airtight manner, that is, by properly cemented stone or brickwork which shall never be disturbed.

2. No earthen grave shall be dug within one foot of any other grave.

3. No coffin shall be buried in any unwallied grave within four feet of the ordinary level of the ground unless it contains the body of a child under twelve years when it shall not be less than three feet below that level.

KINGSBURY EPISCOPI.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Kingsbury Episcopi, in the county of Somerset; and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.
