it was further provided by the said Act that in the case of any Coroner's district being situate partly within and partly without the said county of London, the County Councils of the counties in which such district was situate should arrange for the alteration in manner provided by law of the district, so that on the next avoidance of the office of Coroner, or at any earlier date fixed when the alteration should be made, the Coroners' districts should not be situate in more than one county.

And whereas such petitions with a description of the proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof with the reasons upon which the petitions were founded were duly certified to Her Majesty.

And whereas George Perceval Wyatt one of Her Majesty's Coroners for the counties of London and Surrey has petitioned Her Majesty that so much of the parish of Lambeth as lies south and south-east of the centre of the Clapham Kennington and Westminster Bridge roads may form part of the proposed Southern Coroner's District of the county of London.

And whereas no other Coroner of the counties aforesaid has presented a petition to Her Majesty.

And whereas Her Majesty has, with the advice of Her Privy Council, taken into consideration the petitions of the aforesaid County Councils, and the petition of the said George Perceval Wyatt, and is minded to make such alteration and division as is herein provided.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign intituled "An Act to amend the Law respecting the office of County Coroner" it is (amongst other things) enacted that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that any alterations should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it shall be lawful for the said justices, in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition shall be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such county as in that Act thereafter provided, and that the Clerk of the Peace shall give notice of any such resolution to every Coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition will be taken by the said justices into consideration, and the justices shall confer with every such Coroner who shall attend the meeting of the justices for that purpose touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of inhabitants, the nature of their employment, and such other circumstances as shall appear to the justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of that Act, and that such petition, with a description of the several

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862, it is provided that in the case of any harbour, river, or other inland navigation for which rules concerning the lights or signals to be carried by vessels navigating the waters thereof, or concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken by such vessels are not, and cannot be made, by or under the authority of any Local Act, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, upon application from the harbour trust or body corporate, if any, owning or exercising jurisdiction upon the waters of such harbour, river, or inland navigation, or, if there is no such harbour trust or body corporate, upon application from persons interested in the navigation of such waters, to make rules concerning the lights or signals to be carried, and concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken by vessels navigating such waters; and such rules, when so made, shall, so far as regards vessels navigating such waters, have the same effect as if they were regulations contained in Table (C) in the Schedule to the said Act, notwithstanding anything therein or in the Schedule thereto contained:

And whereas the Corporation of the City of Bristol, being the body corporate owning and exercising jurisdiction upon the tidal waters of the River Avon, have applied to Her Majesty in Council to make, and have submitted for approval, certain rules concerning the lights and signals to be carried in the tidal part of the River Avon by barges, trows, and other vessels to which the regulations for preventing collision at sea now in force issued in pursuance of the said recited Act do not apply:

And whereas the rules so submitted as aforesaid appear to be reasonable and proper.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby make the said rules which are set forth in the Schedule hereto, and Her Majesty doth hereby direct that the same shall come into operation on the twenty-fifth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE.

RULES concerning the Lights or Signals to be carried in the Tidal Part of the River Avon, by Barges, Trows, and other Vessels, to which the Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea now in force, issued in pursuance of the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862, do not apply.

1. Every such barge, trow, or other vessel shall, while afloat in or navigating the tidal part of the River Avon between sunset and sunrise, carry at the bow a bright white light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, and so fitted as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side of such barge, trow, or other vessel, and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least one mile.

2. Every such barge, trow, or other vessel, as aforesaid, shall when afloat in or navigating the tidal part of the River Avon have, in addition to the before-mentioned light at the bow, a bright white light of the like power ready in the stern, which shall be exhibited over the stern or quarter of such barge, trow, or vessel on the approach of, or to other vessels passing in either direction in sufficient time to prevent collision.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight; the 25th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four duly prepared and laid before

Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the fourteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of the Grey Friars Reading in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four and published in the London Gazette on the thirtieth day of the same month certain contiguous portions of the parish of Saint Lawrence Reading and of the parish of Saint Mary Reading both in the said county and diocese, were assigned as a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Grey Friars situate in the said parish of Saint Lawrence Reading and the said consolidated chapelry was called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Grey Friars Reading.'

"And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of the Grey Friars Reading has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and published in the London Gazette on the twentieth day of the same month, a part of the said parish of Saint Mary Reading was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity situate within the limits of such parish, and the same district chapelry was called 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity Reading.'

"And whereas the said district chapelry of the Holy Trinity Reading has under the provisions of the said Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four also become a new parish.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of the Grey Friars Reading should be altered so as to include within its limits a certain portion of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Reading and also a certain additional portion of the said parish of Saint Mary Reading.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation the boundaries of the said new parish of the Grey Friars Reading shall be altered so as to include within its limits all that portion of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Reading which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured green and so as to include also all that portion of the said parish of Saint Mary Reading which is likewise described in the same schedule and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan and is thereon coloured pink and that from and after the same date and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the said portions of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Reading and of the said parish of Saint Mary Reading respectively so as to be included as aforesaid shall be annexed to and become and be and shall together form part of the said new parish of the Grey Friars Reading.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of the Grey Friars Reading in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford being:—
