*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, October 24, 1892.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for the Colonies, a copy of a Despatch, from Her Majesty's Representative at Malta, enclosing the following Notice respecting quarantine, viz:—

Government Notice.

His Excellency the Governor, having heard the opinion of the Board of Health, has been pleased to direct that Government Notice No. 155 of the 10th of October, 1892, is to be modified, and that the following regulations are to be observed, viz:—

1. Exclusion from the Harbour (Sfratto) with provision for coaling under such restrictions as may in each case be directed by the Collector of Customs.

The following shall not be permitted to enter the harbour, but may be allowed to coal and take provisions in strict quarantine, with the least delay, and subject to the orders of the Collector of Customs, and shall in all cases be ordered, after coaling, to quit with all despatch.

(a.) Vessels with pilgrims from the East.

(b.) Vessels having cases of cholera on board.

(c.) Vessels which have had on board a case of diarrhoea, cholera, or any disease with symptoms resembling cholera either among the passengers or the crew.

(d.) Vessels from North or South America when cases of yellow fever have occurred on board during the voyage.

(e.) Vessels arriving from Arabian ports in the Red Sea, which have not been admitted to free pratique at Suez and Port Said.

2. Quarantine for twenty-one days to be reckoned from the commencement of the voyage with provision for handling cargo in quarantine.

The following shall be subject to a period of twenty-one days' quarantine, but shall be permitted, under the directions of the Collector of Customs, to discharge goods (which are not suspected of communicating contagion) by means of the vessels' crew on lighters or to employ for coaling local labourers under twenty-one days' quarantine.

Vessels arriving from the Persian Gulf, the Red Sea, the Black Sea, French ports, Austro-Hungarian ports, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Denmark, the Baltic Sea, and the State of New York.

3. Quarantine ten days.

The following shall be subject to a period of ten days' quarantine.

Vessels arriving direct from Adalia and Jaffa and from the coast of Turkey in Asia between those ports, provided that, if such vessels had been admitted to pratique at intermediate ports, they are to be admitted to free pratique in these islands.

4. Medical Inspection.

All vessels arriving at Malta shall undergo strict medical inspection.

5. Passengers.

(a.) Passengers, arriving by any vessel subject to exclusion from the Harbours under paragraph 1 are not to be permitted to land.

(b.) Passengers will not be permitted to land at Malta unless they declare on oath before the Local Authorities that they have not resided or been in any port of Arabia, the Black Sea, France, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Denmark, Austria-

Hungary, the Baltic Sea, or the State of New York, for twelve days previous to their arrival.

(c.) Passengers arriving direct from England on vessels having a duly qualified Medical Officer on board are to be allowed to land without medical inspection or the declaration of not having been in an infected place, provided that the Medical Officer in charge on board shall declare on oath that during the voyage there has not been on board a case of dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, cholera, or any disease with symptoms resembling cholera either among the passengers or the crew.

(d.) The declaration above referred to shall be counter-signed by the master of the vessel.

6. Susceptible Goods.

(a.) The importation of the following articles is forbidden from any ports subjected to quarantine or on vessels calling at any such ports:—Rags, cotton seed, raw silk, hair, and feathers.

(b.) The importation of soiled wearing apparel before disinfection is prohibited.

(c.) The importation of rags from Egypt is prohibited.

(d.) The importation of vines, vine shoots, vine leaves or roots from any port of the Mediterranean is prohibited.

(e.) The importation of grapes, raisins, poles, or supports used in the cultivation of vines, vegetable earth, vegetable or mixed manure, is prohibited unless the importation is accompanied by a sworn declaration, made by the shipper before the British Consular Authority of the place of its origin to the effect that the shipment does not contain vine plants or cuttings, or that its contents come from nurseries, hothouses, fields, or gardens, which are at least 200 yards distant from the nearest vines or vineyards, and that moreover the phylloxera is not known to exist at the place or origin.

(f.) Provided, however, that the Collector of Customs may grant permission for the importation of plants and vegetable produce under proper restrictions when application has been made and the precautions necessary are established before the shipment leaves the place of origin.

By command,

G. STRICKLAND,

Chief Secretary to Government.

to Charity Commissioners; Provisions as to cost of Act and proceedings consequent thereon and incidental thereto; Repeal and Amendment of Acts; Rates and Duties.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session by the Vestry of the parish of St. George the Martyr, Southwark, in the County of Surrey (hereinafter called the Vestry), for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, among other purposes, or some of them, that is to say:—

1. To alter, amend, or repeal an Act passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of King George III (Session 2), Chapter 132 intituled, "An Act for making better provision for the support and maintenance of the Rector for the time being of the Parish of St. George the Martyr, Southwark, in the County of Surrey (hereinafter referred to as the Act of 1807).

2. To provide for the immediate or future abolition or extinguishment of the rate authorised to be raised or levied by the Act of 1807, upon the several houses, lands, tenements, or hereditaments within the said Parish as provided for by that Act and to extinguish the powers and rights of the Churchwardens, Overseers, and other inhabitants in Vestry assembled, and the Vestry to raise and levy and collect the rates authorised by that Act.

3. To authorise the Vestry to raise a capital sum by means of the general rate leviable in the said parish for the purpose of providing a fund to be appropriated towards payment of a stipend to the Rector of the said parish in lieu of the Rector's rate now levied under the Act of 1807 and to fix the Rector's stipend.

4. To prescribe the amount of rate to be assessed and levied in respect of raising the capital sum as aforesaid.

5. To empower the Vestry to borrow money by way of mortgage or otherwise for all or any of the purposes of the Bill, and to charge all moneys so borrowed and interest thereon, and costs consequent thereon upon the general rate of the said parish and to empower the Vestry to apply any of their funds for the purpose of the said Bill.

6. To provide for the payment of the money to be raised and borrowed as aforesaid to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England (hereinafter called "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners") or other corporations, bodies, and persons, to secure the payment by the Commissioners to the present or future Rector of the said parish of a fixed annual payment by instalments as may be fixed by the Bill as consideration for the payment of the said moneys to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. And to empower and require the Commissioners to apply the income or revenue of such capital sum or part thereof to be deposited with them as aforesaid, or such amount as the Bill may prescribe towards the payment of a fixed annual sum to the said Rector or otherwise in lieu of the said Rector's rate.

7. To provide for the appropriation or application of the said capital sum towards the payment of the stipend of the Rector of the said parish for the time being or to such other purposes in connection therewith as may be prescribed by the Bill.

8. To make such other provisions in the Bill as may be necessary for securing the repayment of all moneys borrowed by the Vestry or which they may be authorised to raise by the Bill to the purpose thereof, and to form a sinking fund for the repayment of the moneys so to be borrowed by such instalments and within such period as the Bill may prescribe.

9. To empower and require the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to make a grant or grants out of funds and property belonging to them or under their control in addition to the income to be derived from such capital sum as aforesaid in aid of the income of the said Rector by way of annual payment or payments or by instalments or otherwise as may be provided for by the Bill.

10. To empower and require the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales to contribute towards the stipend of the said Rector upon such terms and conditions as the Bill may prescribe and to make such Orders and do such acts as may be necessary to enable the purposes of the Bill to be carried into effect.

11. To provide for the payment of the costs of the Bill out of the beforementioned capital sum, and of and incident to the borrowing or raising of such capital sum or otherwise as may be prescribed by the Bill.

12. To alter, amend, or repeal, as far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Bill, the Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855 (18 and 19 Victoria, Chapter 120), Metropolis Local Management Act Amendment Act, 1856 (18 and 19 Victoria, Chapter 112), and the Metropolis Management Act Amendment Act, 1862 (25 and 26 Victoria, Chapter 102), and any other Acts relating to the Local Management of the Metropolis.

13. To vary and if necessary to extinguish all rights of the Patron and the Rector of the said benefice of the Bishop of the Diocese of Rochester and of any Commissioners, bodies or persons which may interfere with the carrying out of the provisions of the said Bill.

14. To levy rates and duties, to alter existing rates or duties, to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of rates or duties, and to confer other rights and privileges which would interfere with any of the objects of the Bill.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December, 1892.

Dated the 24th day of October, 1892.
