To provide for the payment by the Corporation to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and to the Liverpool Diocesan Finance Association, or either of them, or to such other bodies or persons as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act, of such sums of money or other consideration for the commutation of the aforesaid payments, and for compensation to the incumbents, ministers, and other officials of the said churches, or any of them, as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act, and to relieve and discharge the Corporation and the City Fund, and all other funds, rates, or property now chargeable therewith, from all liability in respect of such payments respectively, whether under the Acts hereinbefore referred to, or by agreement, or otherwise.

To make provision for the application, disposal, and investment of the moneys, or other consideration, so to be paid by the Corporation, and the income to arise therefrom, and if thought fit to provide that the same, or some part or parts thereof, may be allocated to or for the benefit of the City Churches, or some of them, or the incumbents, ministers, curates, and other officials thereof respectively, or in or towards the maintenance and repair of the said churches, or some of them, or the maintenance of the services therein, or in compensating the patrons, incumbents, ministers, curates, or officials of the said churches, or any of them, which will or may be closed under the powers hereinafter referred to of the intended Act, or in such other manner for such other purposes in such proportions and subject to such provisions, restrictions, terms, and conditions as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act.

To alter, amend, or repeal (subject, so far as may be thought fit, to existing rights and interests) any provisions contained in any of the Acts hereinafter mentioned or referred to, with respect to the appointment, tenure of office, and removal of the assistant curates or curate, and the clerk, sexton, organist, or other officials of each or any of the City Churches, and to make other provision in lieu thereof, and, if thought fit, to make applicable thereto some or all of the provisions of Section 9 of the New Parishes Act, 1856.

To authorize the closing and pulling down of the churches of St. George and St. John, and the removal and application of all or any of the materials, fittings, ornaments, and furniture of the said churches, for providing any new church in the city of Liverpool or the neighbourhood thereof, in the diocese of Liverpool, or to sell such materials, fittings, ornaments, and furniture, either together or in lots and either by public auction or private contract, discharged from all ecclesiastical purposes or uses, and to make provision for the application, disposal, and investment of the moneys to arise from any such sale, either in the same manner as the moneys or other consideration to be paid by the Corporation as aforesaid, or in such other manner as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act.

To provide that the proportion of the commutation moneys to be paid by the Corporation, allocated to the said churches of St. George and St. John, and any sum received from the sale of the materials of the churches to be pulled down, and any sums received from pew rents from any of the city churches, and all other endowments and income belonging to the churches of St. George and St. John, or some part or parts thereof, shall, subject to the payment of any compensation that may have to be paid to the patrons, ministers, sextons, clerks, and other persons belonging to such churches, as provided in the intended Act, be held in trust or applied in or towards the building, endowment, maintenance and repair of new churches in the city of Liverpool, or the neighbourhood thereof, within the diocese of Liverpool, subject to such terms and conditions as to patronage or otherwise, and with such consents and in such proportions as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act.

To authorize and provide for the annexation to that portion of the parish of Liverpool which forms the benefice and cure of souls of the Rector of Liverpool, of the districts attached to the churches of St. George and St. John respectively, and for extinguishing the offices of incumbent, minister, curate, clerk, sexton, and other officials of the said churches respectively, and of the advowson or right of presentation thereto respectively, and for compensating all or some of the holders of such offices and the patrons of such advowsons respectively, and all other persons to whom compensation may be properly payable in respect of any loss of emoluments, or otherwise, which they may incur under or by reason of the intended Act, and to provide for such additional payment or stipend to the Rector of Liverpool, and his successors, in respect of the charge and cure of souls of the district or districts so added to his benefice and cure of souls, as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act.

To make all proper and necessary provision for the removal or protection or preservation of human remains from the church of St. George, and the church and churchyard of St. John, and of the monuments therein respectively, to such place or places, and in such manner as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act.

To make provision for the removal and custody of registers.

To vest or to provide for the transfer to and vesting in the Corporation upon such terms and conditions and subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act, the sites of the said churches of St. George and St. John, and the churchyard of St. John, freed and discharged from all ecclesiastical purposes and uses, and from all covenants or restrictions (statutory or otherwise) affecting the same, or the use thereof, and for the stopping up of the footpath across the said churchyard and the appropriation of the site thereof, and for extinguishing all rights of way over or across the said churchyard, or if thought fit to alter the line and situation of such public footpath and if thought fit to make provision
