PROCLAMATION by His Excellency Sir Henry Brougham Loch, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Colony of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, Governor of the Territory of British Bechuanaland, and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for South Africa, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS it is expedient to constitute and establish a Court, to be styled "The British Bechuanaland Concession Court," to exercise jurisdiction for the purpose of enquiring into and deciding upon the validity and scope of claims founded upon grants of land or mineral or other concessions alleged to have been before the 5th day of May, 1891, acquired from native chiefs or other persons in respect of any part of the territory over which on the said date Her Majesty's Sovereignty was proclaimed by Proclamation No. 106, B.B., 1891, and which now forms portion of British Bechuanaland; and whereas, in furtherance of the object aforesaid, it is desirable to proclaim the powers, jurisdictions, and authorities, and in general to regulate the proceedings of the said Court:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the powers in me vested, I do hereby proclaim, declare, and make known as follows:—

1. A Court shall be and is hereby constituted and established, to be styled "The British Bechuanaland Concession Court," and hereinafter referred to as "the said Court," which shall be composed of a President and two Assessors, with a Secretary, each of whom shall be appointed by the Governor by Government Notice in the British Bechuanaland Government Gazette, and shall hold office during the pleasure of the Governor.

2. Any change in the person of the President, either Assessor, or Secretary, shall be notified in like manner, but the functions of the Secretary may be performed by any person temporarily appointed for that purpose at any time by the said Court or the Governor.

3. The said Court shall have power, jurisdiction, and authority from time to time within such period as the Governor shall fix and determine, and at one or more sittings or adjourned sittings at Vrijburg or elsewhere in British Bechuanaland, to inquire into and decide upon the validity and scope of all claims founded upon grants of land or mineral or other concessions alleged to have been before the 5th day of May, 1891, acquired from native chiefs or other persons in respect of any part of the territory over which, on the said date, Her Majesty's Sovereignty was proclaimed by Proclamation No. 106, B.B., 1891, and which now forms portion of British Bechuanaland; and the said Court shall exercise such power, jurisdiction, and authority subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this Proclamation, and with any directions or instructions published in manner provided in Section 28 hereof, and failing such provisions, directions, and instructions, in accordance with the principles of the Roman-Dutch law as administered in British Bechuanaland.

4. The President and the two Assessors aforesaid shall, for the purposes of this Proclamation, in general exercise the powers and functions of the bench of three judges composing the Supreme Court of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, sitting in Cape Town, provided that

(a.) the decisions of a majority shall be the decision of the said Court;

(b.) the President and one Assessor shall form a quorum for the purposes of any decision;

(c.) the Governor may for the purposes of any particular matter or matters coming before the said Court, appoint specially by Government Notice as aforesaid, any person to act as either as President or as an Assessor of the said Court during the Governor's pleasure.

5. The Secretary of the said Court shall have and exercise the powers and functions which are by law, rule of Court, or practice vested in or conferred upon the Registrar of the Supreme Court aforesaid, and shall duly preserve the records of the proceedings of the said Court, constituted by this Proclamation.

6. The procedure before the said Court shall be in accordance with the rules of Court, and practice established and followed in the Supreme Court aforesaid, so far as applicable, subject always to the provisions of this Proclamation, to such rules as may be framed and published in manner provided in Section 10 hereof, and to the decisions of the said Court hereby constituted upon all matters of practice arising in the course of any matter coming before the said Court under this Proclamation.

7. Within a time to be fixed by Government Notice in the Gazette aforesaid, which notice shall likewise be published in the Government Gazette of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, all such claims as aforesaid shall be filed with the Secretary of the said Court or any person appointed by the Governor for the purpose, and every claim shall be set forth in a document to be styled the claimant's declaration, to which document shall be annexed such other documents as the claimant relies upon in support of his claim or notarial copies thereof; provided that the filing of such notarial copies shall in no case be deemed to render unnecessary the due production, at the inquiry into or trial of any claim, of the original document or documents so relied upon.

8. No claim not duly filed within the time fixed as aforesaid, or such extended time as may be allowed, by further Government Notice, shall be admitted to be filed, nor shall any such claim be thereafter entitled in any manner to recognition as of any legal validity in British Bechuanaland or elsewhere; provided that by special authority in writing from the Governor, a claim may be admitted to be filed for inquiry and decision by the said Court, notwithstanding the lapse of the period or periods fixed or allowed as aforesaid.

9. The Government of British Bechuanaland shall be deemed to be a party in respect of every matter coming before the said Court for inquiry and decision, and may, by Counsel or attorney, intervene, plead, lead evidence, and generally do all such things as would be competent to a party to a civil suit, but the said Court shall in no case direct that costs of any claimant occasioned by opposition or other proceeding duly authorized by the Government, shall be paid by the Government, unless it shall appear that such opposition or other proceeding is vexatious or frivolous.

10. Any person interested in supporting or opposing any claim in whole or in part may with the leave of the said Court in like manner either in person or by Counsel or attorney intervene, plead, lead evidence, and generally do all such things as would be competent to a party to a civil suit, and the said Court shall in inquiring into or deciding upon any claim afford sufficient opportunity to all such persons to take advantage of the provisions of this section, and for that purpose and generally for the purposes of this Proclamation the said Court may frame such rules of procedure and practice as it may deem expedient, which shall be of full legal force and effect upon approval by the Governor and publication in the British Bechuanaland Government Gazette.

11. Notice of any claim founded upon an alleged grant by or concession from any native chief shall be given to such chief or his successor by the Secretary of the said Court, in full time to permit such chief or his successor to take advantage of the provisions of the last preceding section, and such notice shall be given either by personal service or by publication in the said Government Gazette as the President of the said Court shall direct.

12. At the request of the claimant, any party or any interested native chief or other person, the Secretary with the authority of the said Court or the President, or either assessor thereof, may grant, and the said Court or the President or either assessor thereof may in the interests of justice direct the Secretary to issue subpoenas or summonses, calling upon any person therein named to appear upon a day and at a place therein appointed, and to testify before the Court concerning any matter in issue as the subject of inquiry, and every person shall be bound and obliged to conform to and obey any such subpoena or summons, or any other competent order of the said Court duly served, whether such subpoena, summons or order be granted or issued for the purpose of calling such person to give evidence or for the furtherance of any other purpose within the scope of the power, jurisdiction, and authority conferred upon the said Court; and for default of obedience to any such subpoena, summons or order, the penalty shall be such as the Supreme Court aforesaid might in like case by attachment, fine, imprisonment, or otherwise direct and impose.

13. Evidence in connection with any matter coming before the said Court may be taken before the President, or at least one Assessor with the Secretary, or some person appointed to act as Secretary, and for this purpose the President or such Assessor or Assessors shall form a quorum of the said Court with all the power, jurisdiction, and authority hereby conferred, save and except that of finally deciding upon such matter otherwise than in accordance with section 4 hereof.

14. The said Court shall have power to administer an oath to any witness, but may in its discretion admit affidavits or take oral statements in lieu of evidence upon oath from any witness, but all witnesses whether testifying upon oath or not shall be liable for false testimony to prosecution before any competent Court in British Bechuanaland, and on conviction to the punishment provided for the crime of perjury.

15. The proceedings of the said Court shall be open to the public unless the said Court shall otherwise direct, and notes of the evidence given in connection with any claim shall be duly recorded and preserved.

16. The said Court shall have power to punish summarily any person who shall commit contempt of Court, and to issue a warrant for the arrest of any person whom the said Court may suspect of having committed the crime of perjury as aforesaid, or of being guilty of any fraud, forgery, conspiracy, or attempt to commit any of the said crimes, or generally of any crime in connection with any matter coming before the said Court; and any person so arrested may be brought to trial or otherwise dealt with according to law by any Court of competent jurisdiction in British Bechuanaland.

17. Appeals shall lie from final judgments or orders of the said Court to Her Majesty's Privy Council in like cases and manner and subject to the like legal provisions, rules of Court and practice which are in force and observed in connection with appeals from the final judgments or orders of the Supreme Court aforesaid; provided that no leave to appeal shall be granted—

(a.) Unless within one fortnight from the date of any judgment or order a petition for leave to appeal be filed with the Secretary of the said Court;

(b.) Save with the concurrence of the President of the said Court, who shall have jurisdiction to determine in every such petition without any assessor;

and provided, further, that—

(1.) If within three calendar months from the date of any final judgment or order no leave to appeal shall have been obtained either from the said Court, with the concurrence of the President, from the President thereof, or from Her Majesty's Privy Council; or

(2.) If in case leave to appeal shall have been obtained, such appeal be either withdrawn, lapse by default at any stage, or be determined otherwise than by the final judgment or order of Her Majesty's Privy Council;

Every final judgment or order shall be deemed and taken to be and become ipso facto absolute, and titles or rights recognized or conferred thereby shall be and become indefeasible subject to the provisions of this Proclamation.

18. The decision of the said Court shall not affect any land lying beyond the boundaries of British Bechuanaland to which any claim founded on an alleged grant or concession may extend.

19. The said Court shall have special power to adjudicate upon

(a.) the alleged rights of sovereignty in Willem Christian or Christian, Chief of the Bondels-wartz Natives, and his alleged rights and powers to grant land or make concessions, in respect of any portion of the district of Mier;

(b.) the alleged rights of sovereignty of David Philander, and his alleged rights and powers to grant land or make concessions, in respect of the country occupied by him and the people under him;

(c.) the alleged rights of sovereignty and the alleged rights and powers of the Bakalahari Chief Depullo, of Lohututu, to grant land or make concessions in any part of the district of Mier.

20. No grants of land or concessions shall be valid

(1.) if found to have been made by any Chief without the express consent or concurrence of his Council;

(2.) if made by any Chief with relation to land in the possession of another Chief or his people without the express consent or concurrence of the latter Chief and his Council;

(3.) if found to have been obtained by fraudulent or other improper means, or without adequate valuable consideration;

(4.) if the said Court shall find that any of the terms or conditions upon which such grant or concession was made has not been duly and satisfactorily performed;

(5.) if the said Court shall not be satisfied of the authenticity of the document or documents of grant or concession relied upon, or that the grantee or cedent chief or person well understood the nature and terms of the grant or concession; or

(6.) if the said Court shall find that the recognition of its validity would render impossible the establishment at any place of a suitable reserve for natives in accordance with the law of British Bechuanaland.

21. No condition in any grant or concession shall be valid

(1.) which purports to confer exemption from taxation or from the law now or hereafter in force in British Bechuanaland; or

(2.) which is found by the said Court to be calculated to confer or create

(a.) any monopoly; or

(b.) any sole and exclusive right of trading or carrying on any commercial operation or undertaking; or

(c.) any sole and exclusive right of carrying on any industrial or manufacturing operation, or any chemical operation concerning the winning or recovery of precious metals, or the reduction of refractory ores; or

(3.) which beyond reasonable or within vague or ill-defined limits confers sole or exclusive rights to precious stones or minerals;

Provided that the said Court may in its judgment and discretion define reasonable limits within which any such last-mentioned condition may be recognized as valid.

22. Any land, a grant or concession of which in ownership is found to be valid by the said Court, shall be deemed to be acquired subject to

(a.) An annual quitrent, being not less than the amount which would be payable if such land were situated within the district of Gordonia, redeemable at 20 years' purchase;

(b.) Such terms, conditions, or servitudes as are usually inserted in grants on perpetual quitrent in accordance with the law and practice prevailing in British Bechuanaland; provided that the reservation of the right to the Crown of precious stones and minerals shall not be included in the title of any land which the said Court may by its decision under this Proclamation award in ownership to any claimant who shall establish a sole and exclusive right to precious stones or minerals within such reasonable limits as aforesaid as may be defined by such decision.

23. The said Court in its discretion shall have full power to reduce claims founded on alleg. grants or concessions, which shall be found to be immoderate or unreasonable, and may by its decisions modify the terms, conditions, or scope of any grant or concession, or may impose equitable limitations, restrictions, or conditions upon the exercise of any grant or concession, provided that the powers conferred by this section shall so far as possible be exercised in any manner not inconsistent with the law of British Bechuanaland.

24. Before any title be issued to any land a grant of which is affirmed by any judgment of the said Court, and before any rights of possession can be claimed under any judgment in respect of any land affected by any grant or concession whether of ownership or of any lesser right to such land, such land shall be surveyed by some duly qualified surveyor, whose work must be submitted for the approval of the Surveyor-General, and the cost of such survey shall be paid by the person, persons, or company claiming to be entitled under such judgment.

25. No decision affirming any right or privilege in respect of land short of a right of ownership shall be deemed to exempt the holder at any time of such right or privilege from such laws as may be made hereafter regulating the exercise thereof.

26. The fees of office and Court fees to be taken from claimants or other parties interested and appearing in connection with any matter coming before the said Court shall be the same as those which would in like case or matter be taken in the Supreme Court aforesaid, provided that the said Court hereby constituted may, in any case not provided for, decide the fee to be taken in such and all similar cases.

27. The costs of proceedings before the said Court shall be liable to taxation in manner provided by the rules and practice of the Supreme Court aforesaid, and upon the same scale or tariff, unless the said Court hereby constituted shall otherwise decide or determine by rules framed under the powers conferred upon it by section 10 hereof; and the Secretary of the said Court shall be the Taxing Officer.

28. The Governor may from time to time, by Government Notice in the British Bechuanaland Government Gazette, issue directions or instructions to the said Court as occasion may require, and every such direction or instruction shall, from the date of such publication, be of like force and effect as though here enacted, and may relate as well to claims then already filed, or inquiries or matters then already proceeding as to claims filed, or inquiries or matters proceeding subsequent to the date of such notice.

GOD save the QUEEN.
