Exeter, March 18, 1893.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of four hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Bettws-y-Coed, in the county of Carnarvon, and in the diocese of Bangor, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Bettws-y-Coed, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of four hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Bettws-y-Coed.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of nine hundred and fifty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Wenefrede, Bickley, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-eight pounds and ten shillings, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said benefice of Saint Wenefrede, Bickley, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice, one yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; such lastly-mentioned yearly payment to commence as from the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of two hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Church Hulme, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of six pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Church Hulme, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of two hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, one other yearly sum of six pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands, such lastly-mentioned yearly payment to commence as from the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.
