AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of May, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:-

In the parish churchyard of Grasmere, in the county of Westmorland, until the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

In Attleborough Churchyard, in the parish of Nuneaton, in the county of Warwick, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

In the parish churchyard of Talland, in the county of Cornwall, until the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

In the parish churchyard of South Witham, in the county of Lincoln, until the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

In the parish churchyard of Kingsbury Episcopi, in the county of Somerset, until the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the eighteenth August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, burials were directed to be discontinued in the churchyard of the parish of Syresham on and after thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three:

And whereas a representation has been made by the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith dated the sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, stating that he is of opinion that the time fixed for the discontinuance of burials in the said churchyard should be altered to the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three. Now therefore Her Majesty by and with the advice aforesaid is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered that the time for the discontinuance of burials in the said churchyard be altered accordingly.
