ON Thursday, the 6th July next, the Marriage of His Royal Highness The Duke of York with Her Serene Highness Princess Victoria Mary of Teck will take place at the Chapel Royal, St. James's Palace, in the presence of the Queen and Royal Family.

The Royal Family and Royal Guests will assemble at Buckingham Palace before eleven o'clock.

The following Processions will leave Buckingham Palace for St. James's, between eleven and twelve o'clock, by Constitution Hill, Piccadilly, St. James's-street, Marlborough Gate, for the Garden Entrance of St. James's Palace:—

Procession of Royal Family and Royal Guests, with Escort.

Procession of Bridegroom, with Escort.

Procession of Bride, with Escort.

At about a quarter to twelve o'clock, The Queen's Procession, with Escort, will follow the same Route as far as St. James's Palace, where it will enter Ambassadors' Court.

The Processions will return by the same Route, which will be kept by Troops.

Guards of Honour will be mounted at St. James's Palace and Buckingham Palace.

After the Ceremony the Guests invited to St. James's Palace will go to Buckingham Palace for the Wedding Breakfast.

The Bride and Bridegroom will leave Buckingham Palace in the afternoon for Liverpool-street Station, en route for Sandringham, via The Mall, Marlborough Gate, Pall Mall, the North side of Trafalgar-square, the Strand, Temple Bar, Fleet-street, Ludgate-hill, St. Paul's, where the Procession will be met by the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs, Cheapside, Mansion House, King William-street, Gracechurch-street, to Liverpool-street Station, through Bishopsgate.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, June 9, 1893.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 26th instant (instead of the 22nd instant, as previously announced) at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

CARRINGTON,
Lord Chamberlain.

Translation from the Madrid Gazette, 14th June, 1893.

Ministry of the Interior.—Royal Order.

THE King (whom God preserve) in his name the Queen Regent of the Realm has been pleased to decree that—

1st. The sanitary inspection of the French Frontier, decreed in the Royal Order of the 22nd of February last, shall be extended to all arrivals from that country, and for the efficacy of this measure, all provincial Governors are enjoined to vigorously enforce the provisions of the Royal Order of the 30th of August, 1892.

2nd. In conformity with the provisions in Rules 23 and 24 in the Royal Order of the 23rd of September, 1892, travellers from France, including Algeria, shall undergo a medical inspection laid down in the Royal Order of the 29th of August last, and merchandise from the same country shall be submitted to the treatment established in the Royal Order of the 25th of August of the same year.

3rd. It must be understood that the fruits and vegetables referred to in the said Royal Order of the 25th of August are those which are grown as roots in the ground or which only rise slightly above its level; and all kinds of eatable, green plants and tubercles in the same state and with equal application.

Borough of Plymouth.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Plymouth, in exercise of the powers in that behalf contained in section 46 of the Tramways Act, 1870, hereby make Bye-laws and Regulations as to the following matters in respect of the tramways, viz.:—

The rate of speed to be observed in travelling upon the tramway.

The distances at which carriages using the tramway shall be allowed to follow one after the other.

The stopping of carriages using the tramway.

The traffic on the road in which the tramway is laid.

BYE-LAWS AND REGULATIONS made by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Plymouth as the Local Authority, under Section 46 of the Tramways Act, 1870.

1. For the purpose of these Bye-laws and Regulations the term "car" shall mean any carriage using any tramway laid down within the said borough, and the terms "driver" and "conductor" shall respectively mean the driver and conductor or other person having charge of a car.

2. The driver of every car shall cause the same to be driven at a speed of not less than three miles an hour on the average, and not exceeding eight miles an hour.

3. The driver of every car shall so drive the same that it shall not follow a preceding car at a less distance than ten yards.

4. Subject to the requirements of Bye-laws Nos. 3 and 5, the driver or conductor of a car shall stop the same for the purpose of setting down or taking up passengers, when required by any passenger desiring to leave the car, or by any person desirous of travelling by the car, for whom there is room, and to whose admission no valid objection can be made; provided that nothing in this Bye-law shall require a car to be stopped on any gradient steeper than 1 in 25.

5. Except at a passing place or terminus, no car shall be stopped at the intersection or junction of two or more streets or roads, nor within ten yards of a car on an adjoining line of rails.

6. The driver of a car, on coming in sight of a vehicle standing or travelling on any part of the road so as not to have sufficient space for the car to pass, shall sound his bell or whistle as a warning to the person in charge of such vehicle, and that person shall, with reasonable despatch, cause such vehicle to be removed so as not to obstruct the car.

7. No person shall in any way wilfully impede or interfere with the traffic on the tramways, nor shall any driver or conductor needlessly cause interruption to the ordinary road traffic.

8. Every driver, conductor, or other person offending against any of these Bye-laws or Regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for each offence, and not exceeding for any continuing offence ten shillings for every day during which the offence continues.

9. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the 29th day of September, 1893.

The common seal of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, affixed by order of the Council of the said borough, at a meeting of such Council, held on the 12th day of June, 1893, in the presence of

WM. LAW, Mayor.

Statistical Department, Custom House, London,
June 22, 1893.

T. J. PITTAR.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Stirling.

In the Matter of the Norwich Union Life Insurance Society, and in the Matter of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 9th day of June, 1893, presented to Her Majesty's High Court of Justice by the abovenamed Society, to confirm a resolution unanimously passed at a Special General Meeting of the said Society, held on the 24th day of May, 1893, and subsequently unanimously confirmed at a Special General Meeting of the said Society, held on the 8th day of June, 1893, and which resolution runs as follows:—"That the objects of the Society be extended by the addition to Clause 1 of the Laws of the Society of the words following, that is to say:—'The Society may also, from time to time, and at any time, take over on such terms and conditions as may be arranged, the whole or any part of the business, assets, undertaking, and liabilities of any other company, society, or institution carrying on any assurance business which this Society is authorized to carry on, and the terms and conditions aforesaid may include provision for payment by this Society of all or part of the expenses of and incident to the winding up and dissolution of the transferring company, society, or institution, and may provide for the concession to the policy-holders, annuitants, creditors, directors, employes, and members of the transferring company, society, or institution of any special rights, privileges, and advantages, and may include any other provisions which the Directors of this Society may think expedient, and the agreement containing such terms and conditions shall, when sanctioned by the High Court of Justice (when requisite), be effective for all purposes." And notice is further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Stirling, on Saturday, the 8th day of July, 1893, and any person interested in the said Society, whether as creditor, policy-holder, or otherwise, desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the confirmation of the said Resolution under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing by himself, or his Counsel, for the purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the Society's Solicitor, William Thomas Hartcup, of 10, Surrey-street, Norwich, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.—Dated the 19th day of June, 1893.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice North.

In the Matter of the Native Guano Company Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890; and in the Matter of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition presented to the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, on the 12th day of June, 1893, for confirming a Special Resolution passed on the 11th day of April, 1893, and confirmed on the 9th day of May, 1893:—"That the Memorandum of Association of the Company be altered by striking out therefrom all words after the words 'carry out the objects of the Company' to the words 'after the expiration of the patent or patents,' and by inserting in lieu thereof the following clauses, that is to say:—"To continue the working of any such patents as aforesaid after the expiration of the same, and generally to adopt and work in any part of the world any system or process for the treatment of sewage; to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire, for any estate or interest, in any part of the world, any lands, buildings, concessions, machinery, patents, plant, stock-in-trade, substances, articles, and things, and any real and personal property of any kind, necessary or convenient for the Company's business; to erect, construct, alter, and maintain any buildings, works, and machinery necessary or convenient for the Company's business; to manufacture any substances, articles, and things necessary or convenient for the Company's business; to acquire and hold shares, stock, or debentures, or other securities of any Company whose objects are or include objects similar or ancillary to those of this Company; to sell, exchange, let on rent, royalty, share of profits or otherwise, grant licences and other rights of and over, and in any other manner deal with or dispose of the undertaking and all or any of the property for the time being of the Company, and in consideration to accept, if thought fit, shares, stock, debentures, or securities of any Company whose objects are or include objects similar or ancillary to those of this Company; to distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law," is directed to be heard before his Lordship Mr. Justice North, on the 1st day of July, 1893. Any creditor or shareholder of the Company desiring to oppose the making of an Order altering the provisions of the Memorandum of Association of the said Company under the above Acts, should appear at the time of hearing by himself, or his Counsel, for that purpose. And a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or shareholder of the Company requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charges for the same.—Dated this 21st day of June, 1893.

DAVIDSON and MORRIS, 40-42, Queen Victoria-street, London, E.C., Solicitors for the Company.

ELIZA BARTON GREY, deceased.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, dated the 11th August, 1892, made in the matter of the estate of Ann Platt, Spinster, deceased, and in an action Marshall v. Rees, 1892, P., 1425, the persons claiming to be next-of-kin, according to the Statutes for the distribution of intestates' estates, of Eliza Barton Grey, late of Clifton, Spinster, deceased, who died on or about the 8th December, 1891, at the date of her death, or at the date of the death of the abovenamed Ann Platt, on the 19th March, 1892, or who claim to be the legal personal representatives of such of the said next-of-kin as are now dead, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 25th day of July, 1893, to come in and prove their claims, at the chambers of Mr. Justice Kekewich, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. The said Eliza Barton Grey was the daughter of John Barton Grey, a Congregationalist Minister, by his first wife Charlotte Wallbutt, to whom he was married at Sandwich, Kent, in 1814. In or about 1818, the said John Barton Grey, accompanied by his said wife, is believed to have gone to Limerick in Ireland, and to have resided there for upwards of 14 years, during which period he officiated as Minister of the Congregational Church there. The said Charlotte Grey is supposed to have died at Limerick very shortly after their arrival. From Limerick the said John Barton Grey, in or about 1832, went to Youghal in Ireland, where he resided for 18 years, and from thence, about the year 1850, he went to Torriano-terrace, Kenish Town, London, and in 1856 he went to Bognor, in Sussex, England, and resided there until his death in 1870. The said John Barton Grey was married three times, firstly to the said Charlotte Wallbutt, and thirdly at Youghal, to one Mary Allen, who died at Youghal in 1847. No information can be obtained as to his second marriage, or whether it took place at Limerick or Youghal. Tuesday, the 1st day of August, 1893, at twelve o'clock at noon, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims. —Dated the 16th day of June, 1893.
