Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1893.

Whitehall, June 30, 1893.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation on the occasion of the Betrothal of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, K.G., to Her Serene Highness the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Metropolitan County of London, in Special Session assembled, beg to offer to Your Majesty the renewed expression of our loyalty and attachment to Your Throne and Person, and at the same time our sincere and respectful congratulations upon the approaching Marriage of Your Majesty's Grandson, His Royal Highness the Duke of York, K.G., with the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck.

We trust that this union may be a source of additional domestic happiness to Your Majesty, and that You may long be spared to reign over the vast Empire which has enjoyed innumerable benefits under Your Majesty's enlightened and beneficent rule.

By the Court,

Richd. Nicholson, Clerk of the Peace.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Chichester, crave leave to respectfully tender to Your Majesty our sincere congratulations on the approaching Marriage of His Royal Highness Prince George Frederick Ernest Albert, Duke of York, K.G., with Her Serene Highness the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck.

We ardently hope that this auspicious alliance may give to Your Majesty much personal happiness, and that Your Majesty may long live to reign over a happy and contented people.

In testimony whereof we have caused the common seal of our city to be hereunto affixed this 2nd day of June, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is enacted by "The County Courts Act, 1888," that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to alter the number and boundaries of the Districts and the place of holding any Court, and to order the discontinuance of the holding of any Court, and the consolidation of any two or more Districts, and the division of any District, and to order by what name and in what towns and places a Court shall be held in such District:

And whereas it has been represented that it would be of advantage to the public if Sittings of the County Court of Devonshire now holden at East Stonehouse were ordered to be held at Plymouth as well as at East Stonehouse:

Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, the Sittings of the County Court of Devonshire now holden at East Stonehouse shall be held at Plymouth as well as at East Stonehouse, and the said County Court shall be held by the name of the County Court of Devonshire holden at Plymouth and East Stonehouse.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping (Fishing Boats) Act, 1883," it is provided that the sanitary authority within whose district any seaport town is situate may with the sanction of the President of the Board of Trade, from time to time make, revoke, alter, and amend bye-laws and regulations relating to seamen's lodging-houses in such town which shall be binding upon all persons and bodies keeping houses in which seamen are lodged and the owners thereof and persons employed therein: and further that such bye-laws and regulations shall provide for penalties not exceeding in any case the sum of fifty pounds for the breach thereof: and further that whenever Her Majesty by Order in Council to be published in the London Gazette shall think fit to order that in any seaport town or any part thereof none but persons duly licensed under such bye-laws and regulations shall keep seamen's lodging-houses or let lodgings to seamen from a date therein named, any person acting in contravention of such Order shall be guilty of an offence and shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds:

And whereas the Local Board for the district of Barry and Cadoxton in the county of Glamorgan, hereinafter called the "Local Board," is the Sanitary Authority for the said district:

And whereas the said Local Board have, with the sanction of the President of the Board of Trade, made the bye-laws and regulations contained in the Schedule hereto:

And whereas the said Local Board have duly published the said bye-laws and regulations in the London Gazette of the fifteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, in the South Wales Daily News of the twenty-eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and in the Cardiff, Swansea, and Newport Shipping Gazette of the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two:

And whereas it has been represented to Her Majesty that the said bye-laws and regulations made by the said Local Board with the sanction of the President of the Board of Trade are fit and proper bye-laws and regulations to be approved by Her said Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve the said bye-laws and regulations, and Her Majesty is further pleased to order that, from and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, none but persons duly licensed in pursuance of the said bye-laws and regulations shall keep seamen's lodging-houses or let lodgings to seamen in the seaport town of Barry or in any part thereof.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE referred to in this Order.

BYE-LAWS.

1. In these Bye-laws, the expression "Registered Common Lodging-house" means a common lodging-house registered as such, pursuant to the enactments and Bye-laws, or Regulations in force in that behalf in the Local Board District of Barry and Cadoxton; and the expression "Registered Lodging-houses" means a lodging-house registered as let in lodgings, or occupied by members of more than one family, pursuant to the enactments and Bye-laws or Regulations in force, in that behalf, in the said district.

2. On the written application of the keeper of any Registered Common Lodging-house, or Registered Lodging-house, made in such form, and stating such particulars as the Local Board require, the Local Board will (subject as hereinafter mentioned), if they see fit, grant to such keeper a licence authorizing him to designate his Registered House a Seamen's Licensed Lodging-house.

A licence may contain such conditions not being inconsistent with the laws, bye-laws, and regulations for the time being, in force in the Local Board District, and being specified in the licence as the Local Board see fit.

3. Such licence shall not be granted in respect of any house not being a registered common lodging-house, or registered lodging-house; nor in respect of any house where intoxicating liquor is sold, nor in respect of any house occupied or used for the purpose of the business of a clothier, or outfitter, or slop-dealer.

Such licence shall not be granted to a person who holds a licence for the sale of intoxicating liquor, or who is engaged or interested in the business of a clothier, outfitter, or slop-dealer.

4. The Local Board shall cause to be kept a Register of all licences granted under these Bye-laws, and the suspension or revocation of any licence shall be noted in that Register.

5. A licence granted to any person under these Bye-laws is not transferable to any other person, and any holder of a licence who transfers or lends the same to any other person is deemed guilty of a breach of these Bye-laws.

6. A licence granted under these Bye-laws continues (subject to suspension or revocation, as in these Bye-laws provided) for one year from the date of the grant thereof, but the Local Board may at their discretion, refuse to renew any licence.

7. A licence granted under these Bye-laws may be suspended or revoked by the Local Board on breach of any of its conditions, or on the conviction of the holder for any felony, misdemeanour, or offence against any law, bye-law, or regulation for the time being in force in the Local Board District or on the Local Board being satisfied that the holder has been guilty of a breach of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, or the Acts amending the same, or has kept a house in which drunkenness, gambling, or immoral or fraudulent practices prevail, or has been a party to such proceedings, or neglects to remove from the lodging-house any persons of known immoral character who may have entered therein.

Within seven days after suspension or revocation of a licence the holder shall deliver his licence to the Clerk of the Local Board, but at the expiration of a period of suspension the licence shall be returned to the holder.

8. Every keeper of a Seamen's Licensed Lodging-house, and every other person having, or acting in the care or management thereof, shall at all times, when required by the Medical Officer of Health, or Lodging-house Inspector, or Inspector of Nuisances of the District, the Chief Constable, or any Superintendent or Inspector of the Police Force for the county of Glamorgan, or any Detective Officer specially authorized by the Chief Constable for the purpose, or any Officer of the Board of Trade, give them, or any of them, free access to such house.

9. Any person who, not being the holder of a licence under these Bye-laws, and any holder of a licence, who, during a period of suspension, uses or publishes any sign, notice, inscription, ticket, placard, advertisement, circular, letter, or other document stating or implying that his house is a Seamen's Licensed Lodging-house, is deemed guilty of a breach of the Bye-laws. Every person guilty of a breach of these Bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

10. Nothing in these Bye-laws shall in any way prejudice or affect the operation of the enactments, bye-laws, or regulations applicable to any Registered Common Lodging-house or Registered Lodging-houses as such, or to any keeper of any such house.

11. These Bye-laws shall take effect from the 1st day of October, 1892.

The Common Seal of the Barry and Cadoxton Local Board was hereunto affixed in the presence of: L. S.

J. ROBINSON, Chairman.
P. J. O'DONNELL, Member.
J. ARTHUR HUGHES, Clerk.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by Bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time to do within its districts all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section:

And whereas by the seventh section of "The Merchant Shipping (Pilotage) Act, 1889," it is is enacted that the powers of making Bye-laws conferred on a Pilotage Authority by the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," shall extend to making Bye-laws requiring masters or mates who hold pilotage certificates granted in pursuance of section three hundred and forty or section three hundred and forty-two of that Act to contribute towards the pilotage fund of the district:

And whereas the Belfast Harbour Commissioners, being a Pilotage Authority for the Port of Belfast within the meaning of the said Acts, have made Bye-laws pursuant to section seven of "The Merchant Shipping (Pilotage) Act, 1889":

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the proposed Bye-laws are reasonable and proper:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of and signify Her consent to the said Bye-laws, as set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed. C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Order refers.

BYE-LAWS made by the Belfast Harbour Commissioners, the Pilotage Authority of the Port of Belfast, in pursuance of "The Merchant Shipping (Pilotage) Act, 1889," section seven, and "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," section three hundred and thirty-three, as to the contribution to the Pilotage Fund of the District to be made by Masters and Mates of Vessels holding Pilotage Certificates for the Port and Harbour of Belfast, supplemental to the Bye-Laws for the Regulation and Management of the Pilotage, Pilots, &c., which were approved by Her Majesty in Council, on the fifteenth August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

The following supplemental Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall have been approved of by Her Majesty in Council, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the Merchant Shipping Acts:—

Every master or mate to whom a Pilotage Certificate shall have been granted, or shall be granted, in pursuance of section three hundred and forty, or of section three hundred and forty-two, of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," or who shall have obtained, or shall obtain, a renewal of any such Certificate, shall on every occasion that he shall navigate his vessel within any part of the district over which the Belfast Harbour Commissioners, as the Pilotage Authority, have jurisdiction, pay to the duly appointed Collector of the said Commissioners, as a contribution towards the Pilotage Fund of the district, three per cent. of the rates which would have been payable in respect of the pilotage of his vessel within such district if he had not held a Pilotage Certificate.

Every such master or mate, certified as aforesaid, shall, within fourteen days next after the expiration of each calendar month, make a return in writing to the Collector, at the office of the Belfast Harbour Commissioners, of the occasions during the calendar month immediately preceding on which he shall have navigated vessels within the said pilotage district, with the names and all needful particulars of the vessels so navigated, and shall within the same period, from time to time, pay to such Collector, as aforesaid, the amounts due from him under the foregoing Bye-law.

The Commissioners shall have the same powers in respect of Pilotage Certificates which have been granted, or shall hereafter be granted, to masters and mates, as aforesaid, as those specified in respect of Pilotage Licences in Bye-law No. 11 of the Bye-laws now in force for the Regulation and management of the pilotage, pilots, and pilot boat, and of masters and mates of vessels holding pilotage certificates for the Port and Harbour of Belfast, which were approved of by Her Majesty in Council, on the fifteenth August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

The charge of five pounds, which it is provided by Bye-law No. 7, of the said Bye-laws of the fifteenth August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, shall be paid to the said Commissioners on the granting and renewing of Pilotage Certificates, shall be reduced to two pounds.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas the Apostle situate at Glen Parva in the parish of Aylestone in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Aylestone and of the parish of Great Wigston in the said county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Aylestone and of the said parish of Great Wigston should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas the Apostle situate at Glen Parva as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Mandell, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough, as such bishop, and as the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Aylestone in testimony whereof he, the said bishop, has signed this representation and has caused his episcopal seal to be attached thereto, with the consent of the Master and four Wardens of the Fraternity of the Art or Mystery of Haberdashers in the City of London, as alternate patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Wigston (in testimony whereof they the said master and four wardens have caused their common or corporate seal to be affixed to this representation) and with the consent of the mayor and commonalty and citizens of London, governors of the possessions, revenues, and goods of the hospitals of Edward, late King of England the Sixth, of Christ, Bridewell and Saint Thomas the Apostle, as Governors of Christ's Hospital, the said governors being the other alternate patrons of the same vicarage (in testimony whereof they the said governors have caused their common or corporate seal to be affixed to this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Aylestone, and of the said parish of Great Wigston, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Thomas the Apostle situate at Glen Parva as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas the Apostle, Glen Parva and South Wigston.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas the Apostle Glen Parva and South Wigston comprising:—

"1. All that portion of the parish of Aylestone, in the county of Leicester, and in the diocese of Peterborough, which is comprised within and is coextensive with the limits of the township or civil parish of Glen Parva.

"2. And also all that contiguous portion of the parish of Great Wigston in the same county and diocese which is bounded upon the south-west partly by the parish of Foston partly by the parish of Countesthorpe and partly by the parish of Blaby all in the county and diocese aforesaid upon the west by the parish of Aylestone aforesaid (including the above-described portion thereof) upon the north by the new parish of Saint Mary Magdalen Knighton in the said county and diocese and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the east upon the north-east and upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Magdalen Knighton from the parish of Great Wigston aforesaid at a point in the middle of the main line of the Midland Railway from Leicester to Hitchin near to the north-eastern corner of Goldhill Spinney and extending thence first southward and then south-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of one mile and sixty-five chains or thereabouts (thereby passing through the Great Wigston Railway Station on the same line of railway) to the point near the mile post which indicates a distance of sixty-one miles from Hitchin where the same line of railway is crossed by the footpath which leads from Great Wigston to Countesthorpe and extending thence generally south-westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of forty-nine chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the Leicestershire and Northamptonshire Union Canal at the Double-rail Lock) to a point at the centre of the footbridge which carries the same footpath over the River Sence upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Wigston from the parish of Foston aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Margaret, Leytonstone situate within the limits of the consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Harrow Green, Leytonstone in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Harrow Green, Leytonstone and of the district parish of Leytonstone in the same county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such consolidated chapelry and of such district parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Harrow Green, Leytonstone, and of the said district parish of Leytonstone should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Margaret, Leytonstone situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Wogan, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his See both of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity Harrow Green, Leytonstone, and of the vicarage of the district parish of Leytonstone aforesaid (in testimony whereof he the said Bishop has signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity Harrow Green, Leytonstone, and of the said district parish of Leytonstone which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Margaret Leytonstone situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Leytonstone.'

"We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Leytonstone comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Harrow Green, Leytonstone, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans, which is bounded upon the south-east by the new parish of Saint Saviour, Forest Gate, in the said county and diocese, upon the east and upon the north-east by the parish of Wanstead, in the county and diocese aforesaid, upon the north by the hereinafter described portion of the district parish of Leytonstone, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining side, that is to say upon the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Leytonstone from the consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity Harrow Green Leytonstone aforesaid, at the junction of Harrow-road with Matcham-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Cann Hall-lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of three and a-half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Odessa-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of six and a-half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Trumpington-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of one and a-half chains or thereabouts to a point directly opposite to the north-western end of the wall or fence which forms the boundary between the house called or known as No. 1, Trumpington-road, and the houses called or known respectively as Nos. 261, 259, 257, 255, and 253, Odessa-road, and extending thence south-eastward to and along the said wall or fence for a distance of one and a-half chains or thereabouts to the point where the same wall or fence meets the wall which forms the north-eastern boundary of West Ham Cemetery, and extending thence still south-eastward along the last mentioned wall for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to the point where the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Harrow Green, Leytonstone, of the new parish of Saint James Forest Gate in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the new parish of Saint Saviour Forest Gate aforesaid all meet.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said district parish of Leytonstone, which is bounded upon the south-east by the parish of Wanstead aforesaid upon the south and upon the south-west by the said consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity Harrow Green Leytonstone (including the above described portion thereof) and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of the Holy Trinity Harrow Green Leytonstone from the district parish of Leytonstone aforesaid at the junction of the road or lane which passes along the north-eastern side of Harrow Green with Leytonstone High-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-three and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Lancaster-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of fifteen and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with Montague-road, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of six and three quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with Ferndale-road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of one and three quarter chains or thereabouts to a point at its eastern end upon the western boundary of Wanstead Flats, and extending thence due east and in a straight line for a distance of eleven chains to the boundary on the said Wanstead Flats which boundary divides the said district parish of Leytonstone from the parish of Wanstead aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninet -four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, in the words following, that is to say;

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of New Milverton in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-ninth day of the same month a certain part of the parish or parochial chapelry of Milverton in the said county and diocese was constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and the same was named 'The District of New Milverton.'

"And whereas the said district of New Milverton has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of New Milverton should be altered so as to include within its limits a certain additional part of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Milverton.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend John James Stewart Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation the boundaries of the said new parish of New Milverton shall be altered so as to include within its limits all that additional part of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Milverton which is described in the Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink and that from and after the same date and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the said part of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Milverton so to be included as aforesaid shall become annexed to and become and be and shall form part of the said new parish of New Milverton.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of New Milverton, in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester being:—

"All that part of the parish or parochial chapelry of Milverton in the said county and diocese which is bounded upon the east and upon the south-east by the said new parish of New Milverton upon the west by the new parish of All Saints Emscote in the county and diocese aforesaid or in other words by the municipal boundary in the middle of the River Avon which divides the borough of Royal Leamington Spa from the borough of Warwick and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the north-west and upon the north by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the said river upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints Emscote from the parish or parochial chapelry of Milverton aforesaid where the municipal boundary of the borough of Royal Leamington Spa leaving the middle of the said river bends towards the north-east and extending thence first north-eastward and then eastward along the last-mentioned municipal boundary for a distance of seventeen and a half chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the line of the Coventry and Leamington Branch of the London and North-Western Railway upon the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Milverton from the new parish of New Milverton aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws "concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:—

In the parish churchyard of Farndon, in the county of Nottingham, until the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

In the parish churchyard of Mattishall, in the county of Norfolk, until the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Charles Neve Cresswell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law duly appointed in pursuance of the Carlisle Corporation Act 1887, as Commissioner for determining the boundaries of the Wards of the city of Carlisle and for apportioning the Councillors thereto, has transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his Scheme in the following terms:—

"THE CARLISLE CORPORATION ACT, 1887.

"City of Carlisle.

"WHEREAS by the Carlisle Corporation Act 1887, it was provided that if two-thirds of the Council of the city should at any time agree to petition and the Council thereupon should petition the Queen for the alteration of the boundaries of the Wards of the city it should be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to declare that such petition should be taken into consideration notwithstanding that no alteration of the number of the Wards is sought by such petition.

"And whereas it was further provided by the said Act that a petition and Order in Council so presented and made should be deemed to be a petition and Order in Council presented and made under the authority of section thirty of the Municipal Corporations Act 1882, and that such proceedings should be taken thereon as though the petition were authorized by that section; and it was also provided that if the Commissioner to be appointed under the provisions of the said Act of 1882 should be satisfied after local inquiry, that it would be inexpedient to alter the boundaries of the Wards he might report to that effect to the Secretary of State.

"And whereas a petition from the Council of the City of Carlisle, praying for an alteration of the boundaries of the Wards of that city has been presented to Her Majesty; and Her Majesty having been pleased by Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, to refer the said petition to the Lords of the Council did upon their report order and direct, that the Secretary of State should appoint a Commissioner to prepare a Scheme in accordance with the provisions of Section thirty of the Municipal Corporations Act 1882; or to report under the provisions of the Carlisle Corporation Act as aforesaid.

"And whereas on the fourth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State did duly warrant and appoint Charles Neve Cresswell Esquire, Barrister-at-Law to be such Commissioner as aforesaid;

"And whereas I the said Charles Neve Cresswell am satisfied after local inquiry, that it is expedient to alter the boundaries of the Wards in accordance with the prayer of the petition of the Council of the said city:

"Now I in pursuance of the said Acts, and of the said Warrant of Appointment do hereby fix and determine that the boundaries of the existing Wards of the said city shall be altered; and that their numbers names and boundaries shall henceforth remain and be as follows that is to say:—

"Ward No. 1 otherwise Botchergate Ward.

"Ward No. 2 otherwise Caldewgate Ward.

"Ward No. 3 otherwise Saint Cuthbert's Ward.

"Ward No. 4 otherwise Saint Mary's Ward.

"Ward No. 5 otherwise Rickergate Ward.

"And furthermore I do hereby determine that Ward No. 1 otherwise Botchergate Ward shall comprise so much of the area of the city of Carlisle as is contained within a line commencing from a point in the centre of Botchergate opposite to the centre of Crown-street, thence in a south-easterly direction along the centre of Botchergate to a point opposite to the centre of Union-street, thence in a north-easterly direction to and along

"C. N. CRESSWELL."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby approve of the said scheme of the said Commissioner and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette. C. L. Peel.

Privy Council Office, June 26, 1893.

THE following Statutes made by the Governing Body of Trinity College, Oxford, on the nineteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

Trinity College, Oxford.

At a General Meeting of the Governing Body of Trinity College, Oxford, specially summoned for the purpose with notice of the business to be transacted thereat, held on Monday June nineteen one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three it was resolved by a majority of not less than two-thirds of those present and voting, in accordance with the provisions of Stat. XIII to alter the College Statutes in the following particulars, and the said Statutes as altered were ordered to be sealed.

1. As to number of Official Fellows:

In Statute II clause 2 to substitute "eight" for "seven."

In Statute II clause 6 (c) to substitute "nine" for "eight."

In Statute II clause 8 to substitute "eight" for "seven."

2. As to Honorary Scholarships:—

After Statute III clause 7 to add the following new clauses:

"Any Candidate for a Scholarship shall be allowed when he enters his name for the examination to inform the President that he desires only the rights and privileges of a scholar without the emoluments, and any such Candidate if he is successful in the competition shall enjoy those rights and privileges only, without emoluments, and shall be regarded as an Honorary Scholar, the whole number of vacancies advertised being filled up if suitable Candidates present themselves, as if no such Honorary Scholar had been elected."

"Any Scholar may at any time during the tenure of his Scholarship, if he think fit relinquish the whole or any part of the emoluments thereof for the benefit of the Exhibition Fund hereinafter mentioned without losing any other of the rights or privileges of a Scholar. Any emoluments so relinquished shall be paid into the Exhibition Fund in addition to the other income appropriated thereto."

"The President and Fellows may from time to time elect to an Honorary Scholarship any member of the College who has not exceeded his ninth term from Matriculation, and has either obtained a first class in a Public Examination in the University or a University Scholarship or a Prize open without restriction to all members of the University and whom they shall judge of sufficient merit for election; and any such Honorary Scholar shall enjoy the rights and privileges only of a Scholar without emolument and any such Honorary Scholarship shall be tenable for such a term as the President and Fellows shall determine, provided always that no such Honorary Scholarship shall be tenable by anyone after the expiration of the twentieth term from his Matriculation."

3. As to Pension Fund:

For Statute VI clause 2 to substitute the following clause.

"The income of the Fund (including the sums paid to it yearly from Corporate Revenue and from the Tuition Fund) shall be applicable to the payment of pensions, subject to such regulations and conditions as the College may determine by Bye-laws to be made from time to time. Provided that if any official Fellow, having served the College as Tutor, Bursar, or Lecturer thirty years, shall (without default or misconduct on his part) not be re-elected a Fellow, or voluntarily retire from his Fellowship, he shall be entitled as of right to a pension of £250 per annum for life subject only to the provisions hereinafter contained: and if any Official Fellow having served the College as Tutor or Lecturer twenty-five years shall (without default or misconduct on his part) not be re-elected a Fellow, he shall be entitled as of right to a pension of £200 per annum for life, subject only to the provisions hereinafter contained. Provided that no pension shall be granted which the said Fund shall not in the judgment of the President and Fellows be sufficient to satisfy; and that the President and Fellows may grant such pension as they think fit to any person who has served the College as Tutor or Lecturer less than twenty-five years, should ill-health or other exceptional circumstances render such grant in their opinion necessary; and that no person holding a Fellowship in the College (other than an Extraordinary Fellowship) may receive a pension. Every pensioner shall be entitled to payment of his pension out of the said Fund in priority to all others whose pensions shall have been subsequently granted."

The Queen Anne's Mansions Lighting and Heating Company Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given that, pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Deed, dated 1st September, 1891, a Meeting of the debenture holders of the abovenamed Company will be held at the registered office of the Company, 251, Winchester House, Old Broad-street, in the city of London, on Tuesday, the 11th day of July next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of (1) authorizing the Trustees under the said deed to assent to and, if considered advisable, concur in the grant of a lease by the Company of the property and premises comprised in the said deed, and (2) sanctioning a modification of the rights of the debenture holders as regards the date and amount of the sinking fund payments provided for by the said deed. The drafts of the proposed lease of an agreement supplemental thereto, and of the proposed resolution as to the sinking fund payments can be inspected at the registered office of the Company at any time between the hours of eleven A.M. and three P.M., on the three days preceding the date of the meeting.—Dated the 28th day of June, 1893.

H. R. SAVORY, F. W. REYNOLDS, } Trustees.

In the Matter of the Eastern and Midlands Railway Company in Liquidation, and in the Matter of the Midland and Great Northern Railway Companies (Eastern and Midlands Railway) Act, 1893.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to wind up the affairs of the Eastern and Midlands Railway Company and to distribute their assets, and that all persons having any charge, lien, or incumbrance (except the debenture and guaranteed stocks of the Company) affecting the undertaking of the Eastern and Midlands Railway Company, or having any claim against the Company, are required forthwith to send particulars thereof, in writing, with their names and addresses, to the Secretary of the Company, at the office of the Company, 17, Victoria-street, Westminster, S.W., in order that the same may be satisfied or discharged. By section 15 of the abovementioned Act it is enacted that all claims and demands whatsoever affecting the Undertaking of the Eastern and Midlands Railway Company (other than claims or liens upon lands for unpaid purchase-money or charges on any property of that Company, except debenture and guaranteed stocks), of which particulars shall not have been received in writing by the Secretary of the Eastern and Midlands Railway Company within three months from the date of the last insertion of the advertisement for the same to be sent in, and of which the Eastern and Midlands Railway Company have otherwise no notice, shall be barred, and the rights of all persons therein or thereunder shall absolutely cease and determine.—Dated this 28th day of June, 1893.
