

house shall be held at Plymouth as well as at East Stonehouse, and the said County Court shall be held by the name of the County Court of Devonshire holden at Plymouth and East Stonehouse.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping (Fishing Boats) Act, 1883," it is provided that the sanitary authority within whose district any seaport town is situate may with the sanction of the President of the Board of Trade, from time to time make, revoke, alter, and amend bye-laws and regulations relating to seamen's lodging-houses in such town which shall be binding upon all persons and bodies keeping houses in which seamen are lodged and the owners thereof and persons employed therein: and further that such bye-laws and regulations shall provide for penalties not exceeding in any case the sum of fifty pounds for the breach thereof: and further that whenever Her Majesty by Order in Council to be published in the London Gazette shall think fit to order that in any seaport town or any part thereof none but persons duly licensed under such bye-laws and regulations shall keep seamen's lodging-houses or let lodgings to seamen from a date therein named, any person acting in contravention of such Order shall be guilty of an offence and shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds:

And whereas the Local Board for the district of Barry and Cadoxton in the county of Glamorgan, hereinafter called the "Local Board," is the Sanitary Authority for the said district:

And whereas the said Local Board have, with the sanction of the President of the Board of Trade, made the bye-laws and regulations contained in the Schedule hereto:

And whereas the said Local Board have duly published the said bye-laws and regulations in the London Gazette of the fifteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, in the South Wales Daily News of the twenty-eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and in the Cardiff, Swansea, and Newport Shipping Gazette of the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two:

And whereas it has been represented to Her Majesty that the said bye-laws and regulations made by the said Local Board with the sanction of the President of the Board of Trade are fit and proper bye-laws and regulations to be approved by Her said Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve the said bye-laws and regulations, and Her Majesty is further pleased to order that, from and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, none but persons duly licensed in pursuance of the said bye-laws and regulations shall keep seamen's lodging-houses or let lodgings to seamen in the seaport town of Barry or in any part thereof.

SCHEDULE referred to in this Order.

BYE-LAWS.

1. In these Bye-laws, the expression "Registered Common Lodging-house" means a common lodging-house registered as such, pursuant to the enactments and Bye-laws, or Regulations in force in that behalf in the Local Board District of Barry and Cadoxton; and the expression "Registered Lodging-houses" means a lodging-house registered as let in lodgings, or occupied by members of more than one family, pursuant to the enactments and Bye-laws or Regulations in force, in that behalf, in the said district.

2. On the written application of the keeper of any Registered Common Lodging-house, or Registered Lodging-house, made in such form, and stating such particulars as the Local Board require, the Local Board will (subject as hereinafter mentioned), if they see fit, grant to such keeper a licence authorizing him to designate his Registered House a Seamen's Licensed Lodging-house.

A licence may contain such conditions not being inconsistent with the laws, bye-laws, and regulations for the time being, in force in the Local Board District, and being specified in the licence as the Local Board see fit.

3. Such licence shall not be granted in respect of any house not being a registered common lodging-house, or registered lodging-house; nor in respect of any house where intoxicating liquor is sold, nor in respect of any house occupied or used for the purpose of the business of a clothier, or outfitter, or slop-dealer.

Such licence shall not be granted to a person who holds a licence for the sale of intoxicating liquor, or who is engaged or interested in the business of a clothier, outfitter, or slop-dealer.

4. The Local Board shall cause to be kept a Register of all licences granted under these Bye-laws, and the suspension or revocation of any licence shall be noted in that Register.

5. A licence granted to any person under these Bye-laws is not transferable to any other person, and any holder of a licence who transfers or lends the same to any other person is deemed guilty of a breach of these Bye-laws.

6. A licence granted under these Bye-laws continues (subject to suspension or revocation, as in these Bye-laws provided) for one year from the date of the grant thereof, but the Local Board may at their discretion, refuse to renew any licence.

7. A licence granted under these Bye-laws may be suspended or revoked by the Local Board on breach of any of its conditions, or on the conviction of the holder for any felony, misdemeanour, or offence against any law, bye-law, or regulation for the time being in force in the Local Board District or on the Local Board being satisfied that the holder has been guilty of a breach of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, or the Acts amending the same, or has kept a house in which drunkenness, gambling, or immoral or fraudulent practices prevail, or has been a party to such proceedings, or neglects to remove from the lodging-house any persons of known immoral character who may have entered therein.

Within seven days after suspension or revocation of a licence the holder shall deliver his licence to the Clerk of the Local Board, but at the expiration of a period of suspension the licence shall be returned to the holder.

8. Every keeper of a Seamen's Licensed Lodging-house, and every other person having, or acting in the care or management thereof, shall at all times, when required by the Medical Officer of Health, or Lodging-house Inspector, or Inspector of Nuisances of the District, the Chief Constable, or any Superintendent or Inspector of the Police Force for the county of Glamorgan, or any
