Published by Authority,

FRIDAY, JULY 14, 1893.

Whitehall, July 14, 1893.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation on the occasion of the Betrothal and Marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, K.G., to Her Serene Highness the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your loyal and dutiful subjects, the President and Council of the Royal Society of London, humbly beg leave to offer to Your Most Gracious Majesty, the honoured Patron of our Society, our respectful and sincere congratulations upon the approaching Marriage of Your beloved Grandson, His Royal Highness the Duke of York, to Her Serene Highness the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck.

We would venture to remind Your Majesty that we have a special reason for thus desiring to offer our congratulations, in that His Royal Highness has recently, following the example of his illustrious Father and of his illustrious Grandfather of beloved memory, and of other illustrious members of the Royal House, made known his wish to become connected with the Society, and has been duly elected into the Fellowship.

And we shall ever pray that Your Gracious Majesty may be spared yet many years to witness the married happiness and the prosperity of Your Grandson, and to continue to reign over Your contented and loving people.

Kelvin,
President R.S.

The Justices of the Peace for the County of Northumberland in Quarter Sessions assembled desire to avail themselves of the occasion of the Marriage of Your Majesty's Grandson, His Royal Highness the Duke of York, with Her Serene Highness the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck, to offer to Your Majesty their congratulations and good-wishes on that event, with an assurance of their devoted and affectionate loyalty to Your Majesty's Person, and of their hope that the Marriage may prove fruitful of happiness to those more immediately affected by it, while adding strength to the Throne and the Constitution, which have so long enjoyed Your Majesty's watchful and self-sacrificing protection.

M. W. Ridley, Chairman of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the County of Northumberland.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Nottingham, desire to approach Your Majesty with expressions of our continued and firm allegiance to Your Majesty as the Constitutional Monarch of these Realms.

We have learned with unfeigned pleasure of the approaching Marriage of their Royal Highnesses the Duke of York and the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck, and regard such an alliance as conducive to the stability of the Throne and the welfare of the Royal Family, and we most respectfully offer to Your Majesty our most dutiful and sincere congratulations on this auspicious event.

We pray that Your Majesty's happy and prosperous Reign may be long continued.

Given under our Common Seal this 5th day of June, 1893.

Anderson Brownsword, Mayor.

Sam. Geo. Johnson, Town Clerk.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Gracious Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Folkestone, in the county of Kent, being Your Majesty's devoted, loyal, and attached subjects, beg respectfully to approach Your Majesty, and to offer and express our sincere and hearty congratulations and warmest wishes on the coming happy and auspicious Marriage of Your Majesty's illustrious Grandson, His Royal Highness the Duke of York, K.G., to Her Serene Highness the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck.

We, in common with Your Majesty's liege subjects, trust that this Union will prove a source of much satisfaction and comfort and of great rejoicing to Your Majesty, and that it may ensure their mutual happiness and welfare, and that they will always retain the regard and esteem of all Your Majesty's subjects.

We also fervently pray that the Almighty in His infinite wisdom and mercy may at all times
