As The Bride's Procession moved up the Chapel, Wagner's Bridal March from Lohengrin was played on the Organ.

The Bride was conducted to the Left of the Haut Pas.

The Supporters of The Bride stood near Her Serene Highness, and The Bridesmaids behind Her. The Ladies and Gentlemen in Waiting and The Treasurer and Comptroller of the Household and Garter King of Arms were behind them.

The Lord Chamberlain and Vice-Chamberlain stood near on the Haut Pas.

The Service was then performed by The Archbishop of Canterbury, who afterwards gave a short Address.

The Bride was given away by Her Father, His Highness The Duke of Teck, G.C.B.

The following Music was sung during the Service, by the Gentlemen and the Choir of the Chapel Royal: the Chorale "Father of Life," by Dr. Creser, Psalm. lxxvii, to a Chant by Sir John Goss, the Anthem "O perfect Love," by Sir Joseph Barnby, and at the conclusion of the Service, and before the final Blessing, the Hymn "Lead us, Heavenly Father, lead us." Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played as The Bride and Bridegroom left the Chapel, conducted by The Lord Steward to the Garden Entrance.
