

29th July.—“Ten days' quarantine on arrivals from Smyrna.”

(H. 5920.)

Board of Trade (Harbour Department), London, August 1, 1893.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for the Colonies, a copy of a Government Notice, dated 24th July, 1893, issued by Her Majesty's Representative at Malta, stating that vessels arriving from any port of Continental Italy are subject to seven days' quarantine, but shall be permitted to discharge non-susceptible goods by means of the vessel's crew on lighters, or to employ for handling cargo local labourers subject to seven days' quarantine. Passengers will not be permitted to land at Malta unless they declare on oath that they have not resided or been in Continental Italy for seven days' previous to their arrival.
