Whitehall, August 10, 1893.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation on the occasion of the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, K.G., to Her Serene Highness the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

Royal College of Surgeons of England.

The Humble Address of the President, Vice-Presidents, Council, and Fellows of the Royal College of Surgeons of England to Her Most Excellent Majesty Victoria, QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the President, Vice-Presidents, and Members of Council of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, yesterday assembled with the Fellows of the College to celebrate the Jubilee of the Institution of the Fellowship, respectfully offer to Your Majesty our loyal and hearty congratulations on the occasion of the Marriage of Your Majesty's beloved Grandson, His Royal Highness the Duke of York, to Her Serene Highness Princess Victoria Mary of Teck, and to express a fervent hope that the auspicious union of their Royal Highnesses may be the prelude to a long life of health, happiness, and prosperity, and the source of unalloyed pleasure and satisfaction to Your Majesty and Your Majesty's Royal House.

In witness whereof we, the Council, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, have caused the Common Seal of the College to be hereunto affixed this 7th day of July, 1893.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Dean and Canons of the Cathedral Church of Manchester in Chapter assembled, beg leave to address Your Majesty with sentiments of the deepest loyalty and attachment, and to offer our dutiful and heartfelt congratulations to Your Majesty on the occasion of the Marriage of His Royal Highness Prince George Frederick Ernest

Albert, Duke of York, to Her Royal Highness the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck.

We unite with all Your Majesty's devoted subjects in hailing this Union as a means, under God, of increasing Your Majesty's domestic happiness, and as linked with the most important events in Your Majesty's Realm for the future.

Your Majesty's pure and lofty example in the Holy relations of Wife, of Mother, and Widow, has been a powerful bond of attachment to Your Royal Person. A life so spent is a priceless legacy to Your Majesty's Descendants.

We, the Chapter of Manchester, implore Almighty God to shed His choicest Blessings on this Marriage, that it may be one of real and enduring happiness based on His Love and sanctified by His Holy Spirit, recalling to Your Majesty's subjects the happy days of Your own early life.

Given under our Chapter Seal, this 4th day of July, in the year of our Salvation, 1893.

Dean.
