the 26th day of August, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

The jurisdiction of the Justices and Judges of the Central Criminal Court at any Session of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, held or continued for the Central Criminal Court District in the months of October, November, or December, 1893, or January, 1894, shall extend to such part of the County of Surrey as is not now included in the Central Criminal Court District, as if such part of the County of Surrey were included in the Central Criminal Court District, and the Central Criminal Court Act shall apply to the said part of the County of Surrey, and offences committed therein, as if the said part of the County of Surrey were mentioned in that Act:

Subject nevertheless to the following modifications and exceptions:—

(1.) Nothing in this Order shall authorize the trial at the Central Criminal Court of any person for any offence triable at Quarter Sessions, except in accordance with the provisions of Sections 18 and 19 of the Central Criminal Court Act, or except such last-mentioned person be also there triable for any offence or offences not triable at Quarter Sessions.

(2.) For the purposes of this Order the said part of the County of Surrey shall be deemed to be included in the Commission in force for the time being for the Central Criminal Court.

(3.) Unless the Central Criminal Court shall otherwise direct, no person shall be summoned or returned from the said part of the County of Surrey to serve on any Grand Jury or Petty Jury at the Central Criminal Court, but any Grand Jury or Petty Jury constituted in accordance with the provisions of the 4th Section of the Central Criminal Court Act, shall have authority to inquire of, present, try, and determine all offences with respect to which jurisdiction is by this Order conferred on the Central Criminal Court.

(4.) Until Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, otherwise to order and direct, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace or Coroner having jurisdiction within the said part of the County of Surrey, to commit any person charged with having committed any offence with respect to which jurisdiction is by this Order conferred on the Central Criminal Court, and which has been committed or is alleged to have been committed within the jurisdiction of such Justice or Coroner, either to the Gaol (other than the Gaol of Newgate) to which, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, and this Order, such person would have been committed, or to Her Majesty's Prison at Holloway, there to remain until he can be tried in pursuance of this Order or in due course of law.

(5.) When in pursuance of this Order any person shall be committed to any Gaol other than Her Majesty's Prison at Holloway, the Sheriff of the County in which the Gaol to which the prisoner is committed is situated, or the Keeper of the same Gaol, shall, six days at least before the next sitting of the Central Criminal Court at which the prisoner can be tried, or at such other time as the Justices or Judges of the said Court, or any two or more of them, shall from time to time direct, cause such person, with his commitment and detainers, to be safely removed from the Gaol to which he was committed, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus or other Writ, to Her Majesty's Prison at Holloway, there to remain until thence delivered by due course of law.

(6.) Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said part of the County of Surrey, any one or more of the Justices and Judges of the Central Criminal Court, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the County or place in which he was committed, or admitted to bail, may, upon the application by or on behalf of such person direct the Treasurer of the County or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to or on behalf of such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the expenses of travelling to and from the Central Criminal Court of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum and shall deduct it out of the amount, if any, allowed by the Court in respect of such witnesses.

(7.) Where, for the purposes of the trial of any offence, with respect to which Jurisdiction is by this Order conferred upon the Central Criminal Court, recognizances are entered into for attendance at any Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery for the County of Surrey, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the then next ensuing Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery to be holden for the Central Criminal Court District as enlarged by this Order, in the month of October, November, or December, 1893, or January, 1894, as the case may be, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such Session or forfeit his recognizance.

(8.) If the Central Criminal Court at its Session last held in the month of January, 1894, cannot finally dispose of or for the purposes of justice is of opinion that it is inexpedient finally to dispose of the case of any prisoner or person committed for trial in the said part of the County of Surrey, then the said Central Criminal Court shall order the removal of such prisoner to the Gaol of the County or place whence he came in order that he may be tried at the then next Assizes, and the Prosecutor and Witnesses in attendance at the said Central Criminal Court shall enter into recognizances for their appearance at the said Assizes, and if an Indictment or Indictments has or have been found against the prisoner, the Clerk of the said Central Criminal Court shall transmit the Indictment or Indictments and the Depositions and all other things relating thereto to the Clerk of Assize at such Assizes, together with a copy of the Order of Court, and such prisoner or person shall be tried upon such Indictment or Indictments as if the same had been found at the said Assizes, and such prisoner may be removed from Her Majesty's Prison at Holloway to the Gaol whence he came without Writ of Habeas Corpus, but with a copy of the said Order of Court, and all such other proceedings shall be had and taken as if the said prisoner or person had not been removed to Her Majesty's Prison at Holloway.

(9.) If, in pursuance of the 18th section of the Central Criminal Court Act as applied by this Order, any Writ of Certiorari or Habeas Corpus be issued for the removal of any indictment or presentment, or of any person in custody from the jurisdiction of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Surrey to the Central Criminal Court, one week's notice shall be given in manner required by that section.

(10.) Except where the context otherwise requires, the terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

(11.) This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force until the close of the Session of the Central Criminal Court last held in the month of January, 1894.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of August, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Cumberland and the County of Westmoreland shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one county, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 1.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Carlisle.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Carlisle shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provision of Section three of the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said section "the Sheriff of the county for which such Assizes were held" shall mean the Sheriff of the county in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried, if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the county of Cumberland shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the county of Cumberland, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Carlisle, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandi) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Cumberland, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either of the counties comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document.

This provision shall not apply to the Sheriff of the County of Westmoreland.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 1."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery to be holden for either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Carlisle, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Cumberland, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Carlisle.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter

Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to Her Majesty's Gaol at Carlisle for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer or some known agent on his behalf shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1893. C. L. Peel.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Leicester.

3. The Court at the Winter Assizes at Leicester shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Leicester, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either county comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority, and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. 12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Leicester, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be to the Sheriff of the County of Leicester, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Leicester.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Chesterton, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Cambridge, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Chesterton.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of August, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth entitled "An Act to repeal the several laws relating to the performance of quarantine and to make other provisions in lieu thereof" it is amongst other things enacted that all persons on board of any vessels coming from, or having touched at, any place from whence His Majesty His heirs or successors by and with the advice of His or Their Privy Council should have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague or other infectious disease, or distemper, highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects might be brought, or on board of any vessels or boats receiving any person, goods, wares, and merchandize packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other article whatsoever, from or out of any vessel so coming from or having touched at such infected place as aforesaid, should be and be considered liable to quarantine within the meaning of the said Act, and of any Order or Orders which should be made by His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, by and with the advice of His or Their Privy Council, from the time when such persons should have been received on board, and all such persons, as well pilots, as others, whether coming in such vessels or boats from such infected place as aforesaid, or going on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and all persons on board such receiving vessel or boat as aforesaid should upon their arrival at any such port or place be obliged to perform quarantine in such place or places, for such time and in such manner as should from time to time be directed by His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by His or Their Order or Orders in Council. And that until he should have performed and should be duly discharged from quarantine, no such person should, either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the Islands aforesaid, come on shore or go on board any other vessel or boat in order to come on shore in any such port or place, although such vessels so coming from such infected place, as aforesaid, might not be bound to any port or place in the United Kingdom or the Islands aforesaid, unless in such manner and in such cases, and by such license, as should be directed or permitted by such Order or Orders made by His Majesty, His heirs or successors in Council as aforesaid, and all persons (as well pilots as others), whether coming in such vessels or boats, or going on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any port or place in the United Kingdom or the Islands aforesaid, and although such vessels or boats should not be bound to any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the Islands aforesaid, should be subject to all provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions, in the said Act, or in any Order or Orders which should be made by His Majesty, His heirs or successors, in Council, as aforesaid, concerning quarantine, and the prevention of infection, and to all the pains, penalties, forfeitures, and punishments, contained in the said Act for any breach or disobedience thereof, or of any Order or Orders of His Majesty in Council made under the authority thereof.

And whereas by the said Act it was also enacted with respect to any vessel liable to perform quarantine and on board of which the plague or other infectious disease should not then have appeared that if any pilot or other person going on board the same either before or after the arrival of such vessel at any port or place in the United Kingdom or the Islands aforesaid should either before or after such arrival quit such vessel unless by such license as should be granted by virtue of any Order in Council to be made concerning quarantine as aforesaid by going on shore in any port or place in the United Kingdom or the Islands aforesaid or by going on board any other vessel or boat with intent to go on shore as aforesaid before such vessel so liable to quarantine as aforesaid should be regularly discharged from the performance thereof it should and might be lawful for any person whatsoever by any kind of necessary force to compel such pilot or other person so quitting such vessel so liable to quarantine to return on board the same. And every such pilot or other person so quitting such vessel so liable to quarantine should for every such offence suffer imprisonment for the space of six months and should forfeit and pay the sum of three hundred pounds.

And whereas in certain cases Medical Officers of Health or their deputies are required in the performance of their duties to visit and examine such vessels so liable to quarantine and it is expedient that they should be enabled so to do without being in any way subject to the restraints of quarantine.

Now Her Majesty is pleased under the authority of the said Act and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to direct that every Medical Officer of Health and every deputy Medical Officer of Health may in the performance of his duties as such officer go on board any vessel under or liable to quarantine without being in any way subject to the restraints of quarantine.

And it is hereby ordered that this Order shall take effect and be in force from and after the date hereof.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. C. L. Peel.

"And whereas the said particular district of Saint Mary Preston has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the fourteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-fifth day of the same month a part of the said new parish of Saint Mary Preston was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew Preston situate within the limits of such new parish and the same district chapelry was called 'The District Chapelry of Saint-Matthew Preston.'

"And whereas the said district chapelry of Saint Matthew Preston has under the provisions of the said Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four also become a new parish.

And whereas the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation had been duly given to the churchwardens of the parish of Saint Michael, Bassishaw, in the city of London, made a representation, stating that he was of opinion that for the purpose of preventing the vaults and places of burial under and adjacent to the church of the said parish from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health, an Order in Council should be made for the adoption of the measures hereinafter set forth:

And whereas Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, was on the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, pleased to order that the said churchwardens or such other person or persons as may have the care of the vaults and places of burial under and adjacent to the said church do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures, viz. :—

That the whole of the human remains now lying beneath the floor of Saint Michael's Church, Bassishaw, in the city of London, be removed and forthwith re-buried in some consecrated burial ground in which interments can legally be made.

That the vaults and graves be filled with clean dry earth and the floor relaid upon a layer of concrete.

That the whole work be carried out under the supervision and to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health for the City of London.

And whereas the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith has made a representation stating that in his opinion the carrying out of the work of removing the whole of the human remains now lying beneath the floor of Saint Michael's Church, Bassishaw, in the city of London and reburying the same as prescribed by the said Order in Council of the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, should be postponed until the thirty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

Now therefore Her Majesty having taken into consideration the last recited representation is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order and it is hereby ordered that the operation of the said Order in Council of the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, be postponed until the thirty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four. *C. And whereas by order dated 10th February, 1889, the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, then one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, did make further regulations with respect to interments in the said additional churchyard.

And whereas on further representation made to me as to the insanitary condition of the said additional churchyard, I have made inquiry and am of opinion that it would be for the protection of the public health and maintenance of public decency that other regulations should be substituted for those at present in force.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by section 44 of the Burial Act, 1852, I, the Right Honourable Herbert H. Asquith, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby make order as follows:—

The regulations hitherto in force in the additional parish churchyard of Plumstead are revoked as from the date of this Order.

The following regulations shall henceforth be in force in respect of the said additional churchyard and interments therein:—

I. The burial ground shall be effectually fenced, and, if necessary, underdrained to such a depth as will prevent water remaining in any grave or vault.

II. The area to be used for graves shall be divided in grave spaces, to be designated by convenient marks, so that the position of each may be readily determined, and a corresponding plan kept on which each grave space shall be shown.

III. No new vault or earthen grave shall be dug within two feet of any other grave.

IV. A register of graves shall be kept, in which the name, age, and date of burial in each shall be duly registered.

V. No body shall be buried in any vault or walled grave unless the coffin be separately entombed in an air-tight manner; that is by properly cemented stone or brick work, which shall never be disturbed.

VI. One body only shall be buried in an unwallied grave at one time, unless the bodies be those of members of the same family.

VII. No unwallied grave shall be re-opened within fourteen years after the burial of a person above twelve years of age, or within eight years after the burial of a child under twelve years of age, unless to bury another member of the same family; in which case a layer of earth not less than one foot thick shall be left undisturbed above the previously buried coffin; but if, on re-opening any grave, the soil be found to be offensive, such soil shall not be disturbed, and in no case shall human remains be removed from the grave.

VIII. No coffin shall be buried in any unwallled grave within four feet of the ordinary level of the ground, unless it contains the body of a child under twelve years, when it shall not be less than three feet below that level.

IX. No new vault or earthen grave shall be made within twenty yards of the southern boundary of the burial ground.

X. Twenty-four hours' written notice of any intended burial to be given by the Sexton to the Sanitary Inspector of the district, such notice shall give the name of the person to be buried and the number of the grave to be used.

XI. The existing paths shall not be used for interments.

And the Incumbent and Churchwardens of Plumstead and all other persons whom it may concern, are hereby required to conform to and obey the said Regulations as provided by the Act.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 28th day of August, 1893.

H. H. Asquith.

THE Hellenic Government has published the following provisional regulations for the navigation of the Corinth Canal, the depth in which is at present 19 feet 6 inches:—

Art. 1. Masters of vessels shall conform to the regulations, obey all signals mentioned therein, and comply with any requisition made to them to execute the regulations. A copy of the regulations will be supplied to them on demand.

2. The transit through the Corinth Canal is open to vessels of all nationalities, provided (when the necessary depth has been obtained) their draught of water does not exceed 23 feet 7 inches, and that they are of not more than 65½ feet beam.

Sailing vessels of more than 20 tons must be towed through. Steam vessels may pass through the canal under their own steam, or be towed.

The Canal Authorities are not compelled to tow steam vessels, but if there are any tugs unengaged it will be done.

3. The speed of vessels must be reduced, but not so much as to affect their steering capabilities.

4. Masters of vessels passing through the canal must pay all dues for passage at the entrance, and when necessary those for towage and pilotage. Also give the following information in writing.

Description of the vessel.

Name and nationality of the vessel.

Name of the Master.

Name and address of the owners.

Port of sailing.

Port of destination.

Draught of water.

Number of passengers, to be ascertained from the passenger list.

Statement of the crew.

Tonnage and nature of the cargo.

Net tonnage, to be ascertained by the vessel's official papers, and determined in conformity with the rules of the International Tonnage Commission, held at Constantinople in 1873.

5. The Canal Authorities determine the time of departure and the stoppages of each vessel. No vessel can enter the canal unless the permission of the Captain of the Port has been received.

By day a blue flag, and by night a white light, signify that the passage is clear.

A red flag, or two white lights, signify that the passage is not clear.

6. All vessels, preparatory to entering the canal, must have their yards braced up and their boats swung inboard. In addition to two bow anchors, a kedge with a hawser bent to it strong enough to hold the vessel, must be carried at the stern, ready for letting go.

7. Vessels having the necessary lighting apparatus may navigate the canal by night.

8. In the event of grounding the Canal Authorities shall have the right to direct all operations for floating the vessel, and if necessary to unload and tow her at the expense of the vessel.

The cost of floating, discharging, towing, and reloading must be paid before the departure of the vessel.

9. The following actions are prohibited in the canal:—

Anchoring a vessel, except under unavoidable circumstances.

Throwing overboard cinders, ashes, or material of any kind.

Firing guns on board vessels.

10. The net tonnage, resulting from the system of measurement laid down by the International Commission of Constantinople, and inscribed on the vessel's official papers, is the basis for levying the navigation due, which at present is as follows:—

For steam-vessels proceeding to or from the Adriatic—

Seventy-five (0·75) centimes per ton for mail steamers, and those that habitually carry passengers.

Fifty (0·50) centimes per ton for all other vessels.

For steam-vessels not proceeding to or from the Adriatic—

Fifty (0·50) centimes per ton for mail steamers, and those that habitually carry passengers; and forty (0·40) centimes per ton for all other vessels.

A charge of one franc (1 f.) per passenger will also be levied.

11. The following will pay no transit dues:—

Hellenic vessels-of-war, except vessels assimilated to them by special conventions.

Fishing and other boats under the Hellenic flag whose tonnage does not exceed three tons.

12. The charge for towage in the canal by the tugs of the Society is fixed at ten (0·10) centimes per ton; the minimum charge to be fifty (50) francs.

The charge for pilotage is fixed at one and a half (0·1½) centimes per ton; the minimum charge to be ten (10) francs.

13. All vessels towed must furnish their own warps. Steam-vessels must use their propelling power, or keep it in readiness for assisting the tug.

Vessels may be towed by tugs not belonging to the Canal Society. Such tugs must pay the dues to which ordinary vessels passing through the canal are subject; except when going through the canal to meet vessels of their owner, which they intend towing; or when returning to their usual berth after having towed a vessel through, when they shall not be subject to payment of the dues.

14. The Canal Society accepts, in payment, drafts at sight drawn by masters on their owners, and accepted by the Society.

Payment in cash at the entry of the canal must be in gold coins, of the type of coins of the Latin Union, or in sterling pounds at the fixed rate of exchange of 25·15 francs; or in coins of 20 marks at the fixed rate of exchange of 24·85 francs; or in Turkish pounds at the fixed rate of exchange of 22·75 francs; or in Egyptian pounds at the fixed rate of exchange of 25·75 francs.

Silver coins, such as are legal tender in Greece, are accepted in payment as odd money up to ten (10) francs.

NOTE.—The dimensions of the canal, when completed, will be as follows:—

Depth 26½ feet; width at the bottom, 70 feet; width at the top, 80½ feet; total length in statute miles, 3 miles 1,610 yards.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Glyntawe, otherwise Colwen or Capel Colwen, in the county of Brecknock, and in the diocese of Saint David's, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Callwen.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consent (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said William Basil, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint David's, and of the said Ellen Elizabeth Gwyn, and of the said David Hughes, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Callwen, situate within the said parish of Glyntawe, otherwise Colwen or Capel Colwen, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Callwen as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Glyntawe, otherwise Colwen or Capel Colwen, in lieu of the said old parish church (also dedicated to Saint Callwen) of the same parish, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Callwen, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of, or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Callwen as aforesaid) of the said parish of Glyntawe, otherwise Colwen or Capel Colwen, or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Callwen (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Glyntawe, otherwise Colwen or Capel Colwen), and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said William Basil, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint David's, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Ellen Elizabeth Gwyn and the said David Hughes have respec-

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order of the High Court of Justice, made by the Vacation Judge, Mr. Justice Wright, on the 16th day of August, 1893, in the abovementioned matters, it was ordered that the Special Resolution passed and confirmed at Extraordinary General Meetings of the Petitioners Adie and Lovekin Limited and Reduced, held respectively on the 15th and 30th May, 1893, and which Resolution was in the words and figures following:—"That the capital of the Company be reduced from £55,000, divided into 1,000 Preference, and 4,500 Ordinary shares of £10 each, to £46,000 divided into 1,000 Preference shares of £10 each, and 4,500 Ordinary shares of £8 each, and that such reduction be effected by returning to the holders of each of the 4,070 Ordinary shares which have been issued, paid up capital to the extent of £2 per share, and by reducing the nominal amount of all the Ordinary shares from £10 to £8," be confirmed. None of the remaining 430 Ordinary shares have been issued, and nothing has been or is to be deemed paid up on any of the said 430 Ordinary shares." And such Order and Minute have been duly registered by the said Registrar of Joint Stock Companies. —Dated this 26th day of August, 1893.
