Foreign Office, August 31, 1893.

THE Earl of Rosebery, K.G., Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at Belgrade, stating that the Servian Government have issued a Notice to the effect that, on and after the 15th of September next, all Travellers entering Servia from Austria-Hungary must produce their passports for the inspection of the Servian Authorities.

Foreign Office, August 31, 1893.

THE Earl of Rosebery, K.G., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from Mr. Phipps, Her Majesty's Minister at Paris, the following law-issued by the French Government:—

(Translation).

LAW RESPECTING THE SOJOURN OF

FOREIGNERS IN FRANCE, AND THE PROTECTION OF NATIONAL LABOUR.
THE Senate and the Chamber of Deputies have adopted.

The President of the Republic promulgates the law, of which the tenor is as follows:—

ART. 1. Every foreigner, not being domiciled, arriving in a commune with a view to carry on a profession, trade, or industry there, must within eight days of his arrival make a declaration of residence at the "mairie," proving his identity. For this purpose a register shall be kept for the immatriculation of foreigners in the form laid down by ministerial decree.

An extract from this register shall be delivered to the person making the declaration, in the same form as the certificates of civil status, and on payment of the same fees.

It the foreigner removes to another commune, he shall, within two days of his arrival, procure a visa of his certificate of immatriculation at the "mairie" of his new residence.

ART. 2. Whoever shall knowingly employ a foreigner not possessed of the certificate of immatriculation, shall be liable to ordinary police penalties.

ART. 3. Any foreigner who shall not have made the declaration prescribed by the law within the time specified, or who refuses to produce his certificate at the first demand, shall be liable to a fine of from 50—200 francs.

Whoever shall knowingly make a false or incorrect declaration shall be liable to a fine of from 100—300 francs, and, if necessary, to temporary or indefinite expulsion from French territory.

Any foreigner expelled from French territory, who shall return to it without the sanction of the Government, shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a term of from one to six months. After the expiration of his sentence he shall be reconducted to the frontier.

Article 463 of the Penal Code is applicable to the cases to which the present law refers.

ART. 4. The proceeds of the fines established by the present law shall be assigned to the muni-
