THE SWINE-FEVER ORDER OF 1893.

By the Board of Agriculture.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1893, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Notice of Disease.

1.—(1.) Every person having in his possession or under his charge a pig affected with or suspected of swine-fever shall with all practicable speed give notice of the pig being so affected or suspected to a constable of the police force for the police area wherein the pig so affected is.

(2.) The constable receiving such notice shall immediately transmit the information by telegraph or other rapid means to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture, 4, Whitehall Place, London, S.W.

(3.) The constable shall also forthwith give information of the receipt by him of the notice to an Inspector of the Local Authority, who shall forthwith report the same to the Local Authority.

Duty of Inspector to act immediately.

2.—(1.) An Inspector of a Local Authority on receiving in any manner whatsoever information of the supposed existence of swine-fever, or having reasonable ground to suspect the existence of swine-fever, shall proceed with all practicable speed to the place where such disease, according to the information received by him, exists, or is suspected to exist, and shall there and elsewhere put in force and discharge the powers and duties conferred and imposed on him as Inspector by or under the Acts of 1878 to 1893 and this Order.

(2.) Every such Inspector shall, on leaving any premises in which swine-fever exists or is suspected to exist, thoroughly wash his hands with soap and water and disinfect his boots.

Declaration of Infected Place.

3.—(1.) Where it appears to an Inspector of a Local Authority that swine-fever exists or has within twenty-eight days existed in a sty, shed, or other place he shall forthwith make and sign a Declaration thereof (in the Form A set forth in the First Schedule to this Order or to the like effect) and shall in such Declaration prescribe the limits of the proposed Infected Place.

(2.) He shall forthwith serve a copy of the Declaration on the occupier of the premises in which that sty, shed, or other place is situate.

(3.) On the service of such copy of the Declaration as aforesaid the sty, shed, or other place within the limits prescribed by the Declaration shall become and be a place infected with swine-fever.

(4.) Where an Inspector of the Local Authority has made and signed a Declaration under this Article, he may sign and serve or cause to be served a Notice in writing (in the Form B set forth in the First Schedule to this Order or to the like effect) on the occupier of any land or building which in the judgment of the Inspector is situate within half a mile of the Infected Place, requiring such occupier to cause all swine on or in such land or building to be detained, and thereupon it shall not be lawful, until such Notice has been withdrawn by a further Notice in writing (in the Form C set forth in the First Schedule to this Order or to the like effect) signed by an Inspector of the Local Authority or until the Infected Place has been duly declared to be free from disease, for any person to move any swine from or out of such land or building except with a Licence of an Inspector or officer of the Board and in accordance with the conditions of such Licence.

(5.) The Inspector of the Local Authority shall with all practicable speed inform the Board of any Declaration or Notice made or given by him under this Article, and shall send the Declaration and a copy of the Notice to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture, 4, Whitehall Place, London, S.W., and shall also send copies of the same to the Local Authority and to the police officer in charge of the nearest police station of the District.

(6.) An Infected Place declared under this Article shall continue to be an Infected Place until it has been declared free from disease by Notice in writing signed by an Inspector or officer of the Board acting under special instructions of the Board and served on the occupier of the premises within the Infected Place.

(7.) The limits of an Infected Place may at any time be altered by the Board by Notice in writing served on the occupier of the premises affected by such Notice.

(8.) A slaughter-house or part of a slaughter-house in which a pig affected with swine-fever or the carcase of such a pig is found, shall not by reason thereof be declared to be an Infected Place except by the Board.

Rules for Infected Place.

4.—Rule 1. Swine shall not be moved into or out of an Infected Place except with a Licence of an Inspector or officer of the Board.

Rule 2. Litter, dung, utensils, pens, hurdles, or other things shall not be removed from an Infected Place except with permission in writing from an Inspector or officer of the Board or an Inspector of the Local Authority, which permission shall not be granted until such things have been thoroughly disinfected.

Rule 3. No person (except the person tending the pig) shall, unless authorized in writing by an Inspector or officer of the Board, enter any sty or place, being part of an Infected Place, in which a pig affected with or suspected of swine-fever is or has recently been kept.

Rule 4. Every person upon leaving any such sty or place shall thoroughly wash his hands with soap and water, and his boots with a solution of carbolic acid or other disinfectant.

Rule 5. A person tending a pig affected with or suspected of swine-fever shall not tend any other pig except with the permission of an Inspector or officer of the Board.

Removal of Dung or other Things.

5. It shall not be lawful for any person to send or carry, or cause to be sent or carried, on a railway, canal, river, or inland navigation, or in a coasting vessel, or on a highway or thoroughfare, any dung, fodder, or litter that has been in an Infected Place, or that has been in any place in contact with or used about a pig affected with or suspected of swine-fever, except with a Licence of an Inspector or officer of the Board.

Cleansing and Disinfection.

6.—(1.) An Inspector or officer of the Board may cause or require any sty or other place which has been used for swine while affected with or suspected of swine-fever, and any utensil, pen, hurdle, or other thing used for or about such swine, and any wood-work with which such swine have come in contact, to be cleansed and disinfected to his satisfaction.

(2.) An Inspector or officer of the Board may, for the purpose of preventing the spreading of swine-fever, cause any van, cart, or other vehicle used for the carrying of swine, and any rope, net, or other apparatus used in the conveyance of swine, on land otherwise than on a railway, to be cleansed and disinfected.

(3.) An Inspector or officer of the Board may cause or require any dung of swine affected with or suspected of swine-fever and any fodder and litter that has been in contact with or used about such swine to be disinfected, burnt, or destroyed.

(4.) The owner, occupier and person in charge of any place, and the owner and person in charge of any utensil, pen, hurdle, or other thing, or any van, cart, or other vehicle, or any dung, fodder, or litter, to which this Article applies shall give all reasonable facilities to an Inspector or officer of the Board for the carrying out of the provisions of this Article and shall comply with any requirement made by any such Inspector or officer under this Article.

Disposal of Carcasses.

7.—(1.) The carcase of any pig that at the time of its death was affected with or suspected of swine-fever (other than a pig slaughtered under the Acts of 1878 to 1893) shall be disposed of by the Local Authority as follows:

(i.) Either the Local Authority shall cause the carcase to be buried as soon as possible in its skin in some proper place, and to be covered with a sufficient quantity of quicklime or other disinfectant, and with not less than six feet of earth;

(ii.) Or the Local Authority may, if authorized by Licence of the Board, cause the carcase to be destroyed, under the inspection of the Local Authority, in the mode following: The carcase shall be disinfected, and shall then be taken, in charge of an officer of the Local Authority, to a horse-slaughterer's or knacker's-yard approved for the purpose by the Board, or other place so approved, and shall be there destroyed by exposure to a high temperature, or by chemical agents.

(2.) With a view to the execution of the foregoing provisions of this Article the Local Authority may make such Regulations as they think fit for prohibiting or regulating the removal of carcasses or for securing the burial or destruction of the same.

(3.) Where under this Article a Local Authority cause a carcase to be buried they shall first cause its skin to be so slashed as to be useless.

(4.) A Local Authority may cause or allow a carcase to be taken into the District of another Local Authority to be buried or destroyed with the previous consent of that Local Authority, but not otherwise.

(5.) Notwithstanding anything in this Article or in any Regulation made under this Article any carcase may be removed and buried or disposed of in accordance with a Licence of an Inspector or officer of the Board.

Digging up.

8. It shall not be lawful for any person except with the Licence of the Board, to dig up, or cause to be dug up, the carcase of any pig that has been buried.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Movement within their District.

9.—(1.) A Local Authority may, with a view to the prevention of the spreading of swine-fever, make such Regulations as they think fit for prohibiting or regulating the movement by land or by water of swine within the whole of their District or within any part or parts thereof.

(2.) A Local Authority shall send a copy of every Regulation made by them under this Article to every railway company having a railway station within the District of the Local Authority or within the part of the District to which the Regulation applies, and shall also forthwith send a copy of the Regulation to the Secretary, Railway Clearing House, 123, Seymour Street, Euston Square, London, N.W.

(3.) No Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Article shall be deemed to authorize the movement of swine which are affected with swine-fever or the movement of swine—

(a.) in or into or out of a Cattle-Plague Infected Place; or

(b.) in or into or out of a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Place; or

(c.) in or into or out of a Swine-Fever Infected Place.

(4.) For the purposes of this Order or of any Regulation of a Local Authority thereunder, swine shall not be deemed to be moved within the District of a Local Authority where they are moved through the District by railway from a place outside the District to another place outside the District without unnecessary delay and without the swine being untrucked or re-booked within the District.

(5.) Notwithstanding anything in any Regulation made under this Article any pig may at any time be moved in accordance with a Licence of an Inspector or officer of the Board.

Prohibition of Movement by Inspector of Board or Local Authority.

10.—(1.) Where an Inspector of the Board or of the Local Authority has given Notice in writing (in the Form D set forth in the First Schedule to this Order or to the like effect) to the owner or person in charge of any swine, requiring that such swine be detained on or in any farm, field, shed, sty, or other place, it shall not be lawful for any person, until such Notice be withdrawn by a further Notice in writing (in the Form E set forth in the First Schedule to this Order or to the like effect) signed by an Inspector of the Board or of the Local Authority, as the case may be,—

(a.) to move any of such swine from or out of such farm, field, shed, sty, or other place; or

(b.) to move from or out of such farm, field, shed, sty, or other place any other swine that may be thereon or therein; or

(c.) to move any other swine into such farm, field, shed, sty, or other place so long as any swine to which the Notice applies are detained on or in the same; or

(d.) to permit any other swine to come in contact with any swine to which the Notice applies.

(2.) The Inspector shall with all practicable speed inform the Board of any Notice given by him under this Article, and shall send copies thereof to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture, 4, Whitehall-place, London, S.W., and to the Local Authority and to the police officer in charge of the nearest police station of the District.

(3.) Notwithstanding any Notice under this Article any pig may at any time be moved in accordance with a Licence of an Inspector or officer of the Board.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Markets, Sales &c.

11. A Local Authority may, with a view to the prevention of the spreading of swine-fever, make such Regulations as they think fit for prohibiting or regulating the exposure or sale of swine in or at any market, fair, auction, sale-yard, sale, or place of exhibition within their District.

Swine-Fever found in a Market, Railway Station, Grazing-Park, or other like Place, or during Transit.

12.—(1.) Where a pig is found to be affected with swine-fever—

- (a.) while exposed for sale or exhibited in a market, fair, sale-yard, place of exhibition, or other place; or
- (b.) while placed in a lair or other place before exposure for sale; or
- (c.) while being in or on a landing-place or wharf or railway station or other place during transit; or
- (d.) while in course of being moved by land or by water; or
- (e.) while being on common or uninclosed land; or
- (f.) while being in a field, yard, sty, farm, park, or other place wherein swine of different owners are taken in for shelter, or for rest, or for grazing, or for any other purpose; or
- (g.) while being in any other place not in the possession or occupation or under the control of the owner of the pig;

then the following provisions shall apply (namely):

(Seizure of Swine.)

(i.) The Inspector of the Local Authority shall cause to be seized all the swine affected with swine-fever, and also all swine being in or on the market, fair, sale-yard, place of exhibition, lair, landing-place, wharf, railway station, common, uninclosed land, field, yard, sty, farm, park, or other such place as aforesaid, and shall forthwith transmit the information by telegraph or other rapid means to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture, 4, Whitehall Place, London, S.W.

(ii.) The Inspector of the Local Authority shall cause all such swine so seized to be detained at the place where they are seized, or to be moved to some convenient and isolated place and there detained.

(iii.) The Inspector of the Local Authority shall cause, so far as practicable, all the swine affected with swine-fever to be kept separate during such movement and detention from swine not so affected.

(iv.) The swine so seized and detained shall not be moved from the place of detention except with the permission of the Board.

(v.) Provided that any pig seized under this Article may be slaughtered by or at the request of the owner or person in charge thereof either at the place where it is seized or detained or at the nearest available slaughter-house; in which latter case the pig may be moved for the purpose of being there slaughtered with a Licence of an Inspector of the Local Authority, and shall be there slaughtered accordingly; and that Licence shall be available for twelve hours and no longer, and shall specify the slaughter-house to which the pig is to be moved for slaughter.

(Declaration of Infected Place by Board only.)

(vi.) The market, fair, sale-yard, place of exhibition, lair, landing-place, wharf, railway station, common, uninclosed land, field, yard, sty, farm, park, or other such place as aforesaid, or any part thereof, in or on which a pig affected with swine-fever is found in any case in which this Article applies shall not by reason thereof be declared to be an Infected Place or part of such an Infected Place except by the Board.

(Disinfection in these Cases.)

(vii.) In case of a pig being found to be affected with swine-fever in or on a market, fair, sale-yard, place of exhibition, lair, landing-place, wharf, railway station, common, uninclosed land, field, yard, sty, farm, park, or other such place as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for the Market Authority or the owner or occupier of any such other place or any person to again use or allow to be used for swine that portion of the market or other place aforesaid where the diseased pig was found, unless and until a Veterinary Inspector has certified that that portion has been, so far as practicable, cleansed and disinfected.

(Reports.)

(viii.) The Inspector of the Local Authority acting under this Article shall forthwith report to the Local Authority the proceedings taken by him thereunder, and the Local Authority shall forthwith report the same to the Board.

(Expenses.)

(ix.) The Local Authority may recover the expenses of the execution by them or by their Inspector or other officer of the provisions of this Article from the owner of the swine seized, or from the consignor or consignee thereof, who may recover the same from the owner, by proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(2.) Nothing in this Article shall apply to a Foreign Animals Wharf or to a Foreign Animals Quarantine Station or to a Landing-place for foreign animals.

Prohibition to Expose or Move Diseased or Suspected Swine.

13.—(1.) It shall not be lawful for any person—

- (a.) to expose a pig affected with or suspected of swine-fever in a market or fair, or in a sale-yard, or other public or private place where swine are commonly exposed for sale; or
- (b.) to place a pig affected with or suspected of swine-fever in a lair or other place adjacent to or connected with a market or a fair, or where swine are commonly placed before exposure for sale; or
- (c.) to send or carry or cause to be sent or carried a pig affected with or suspected of swine-fever on a railway, canal, river, or inland navigation, or in a coasting vessel; or
- (d.) to carry, lead, or drive, or cause to be carried, led, or driven, a pig affected with or suspected of swine-fever on a highway or thoroughfare; or
- (e.) to place or keep a pig affected with or suspected of swine-fever on common or uninclosed land, or in a field or place insufficiently fenced, or in a field adjoining a highway unless that field is so fenced or situate that swine therein cannot in any manner come in contact with swine passing along that highway or grazing on the sides thereof; or
- (f.) to graze a pig affected with or suspected of swine-fever on pasture being on the sides of a highway; or
- (g.) to allow a pig affected with or suspected of swine-fever to stray on a highway or thoroughfare or on the sides thereof or on common or uninclosed land or in a field or place insufficiently fenced.

(2.) But this Article shall operate subject to Article 4 and to the provisions of the last preceding Article providing for or directing the movement of swine affected with swine-fever in cases therein mentioned.

(3.) The provisions of the last preceding

Article shall apply in the case of any pig exposed or otherwise dealt with in contravention of this Article.

(4.) Notwithstanding anything in this Article any pig may at any time be moved in accordance with a Licence of an Inspector or officer of the Board.

Food and Water during Detention.

14. An Inspector, officer, or constable detaining a pig under this Order shall cause it to be supplied with requisite food and water during its detention; and the expenses incurred by him in respect thereof may be recovered from the person having charge of the pig, or from its owner, by proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Offences.

15.—(1.) If a pig is moved in contravention of this Order, or of a Notice served under this Order, or of any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, or of the conditions of a Movement Licence thereunder, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is moved, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the pig is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(2.) If a person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order, or under any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, a Movement Licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(3.) If a pig is not slaughtered as required by this Order, or by any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, or by the conditions of a Licence thereunder, the person to whom the Licence is granted, and the owner of the pig and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person failing to cause the same to be so slaughtered, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(4.) If, in contravention of any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, a carcase is removed or is not buried or is not destroyed, the owner of the carcase, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the removal, and the person removing or conveying the carcase, and the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel in which it is removed, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been removed in contravention as aforesaid, and the person failing to bury or destroy the carcase, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(5.) If any person with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order or of any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, allows a pig to stray, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

Granting of Movement Licences.

16.—(1.) An Inspector of the Board or a person authorized by the Board to grant Licences under this Order, or a Local Authority or an Inspector of a Local Authority, may, if he or they think fit, withhold a Licence in any case where the movement of the swine or things proposed to be moved would be in his or their judgment inexpedient or improper.

(2.) A Movement Licence granted under this Order or under any Regulation of a Local Authority under this Order shall not be available if granted by the owner of the pig to be moved or by his agent, or by the owner or consignee or other person selling the pig or exposing the pig for sale, or by the purchaser thereof or by his agent, or by the auctioneer or other person conducting the public or private sale at which the pig is exposed, or by the occupier of the farm or premises or slaughter-house from or to which the pig is to be moved, or by any individual member of an Executive Committee or Sub-Committee of a Local Authority.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

17.—(1.) Every person in charge of a pig or thing being moved, where under this Order or under any Regulation of a Local Authority under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Movement Licence, if any, authorizing the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Every person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Provisions as to Regulations of Local Authority.

18.—(1.) Every Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Board a copy of every Regulation made by them under this Order.

(2.) If the Board are satisfied on inquiry, with respect to any Notice served or any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, that the same is of too restrictive a character, or otherwise objectionable, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall thereupon cease to operate.

Powers of the Board of Agriculture.

19. Any powers by this Order conferred upon a Local Authority or an Inspector of a Local Authority may at any time be exercised by the Board or an Inspector of the Board respectively.

Documents and Forms.

20. Every Local Authority shall provide and supply to their Inspectors and officers such documents and forms as may be necessary for the purposes of this Order.

Interpretation.

21. In this Order—

The Board means the Board of Agriculture:

The Act of 1878 means the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878:

The Acts of 1878 to 1893 means the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1893:

Swine-fever means the disease called or known as typhoid fever of swine, soldier, purples, red disease, hog cholera, or swine plague:

Infected Place (except where it is otherwise expressed) means a Place for the time being infected with swine-fever under this Order:

Inspector includes Veterinary Inspector :

Landing-place for foreign animals means a part of a port approved or defined by Special Order of the Board for the landing of foreign animals not subject to slaughter or quarantine.

Carcass means the carcass of a pig, and includes part of such a carcass, and the intestines, meat, bones, skin, offal, or other part of a pig, separately or otherwise, or any portion thereof :

Police force and police area have the meanings assigned to them by the Police Act, 1890, or the Police (Scotland) Act, 1890, as the case may be :

Article means Article of this Order :

Other terms have the same meaning and scope as in the Act of 1878.

Revocation of Orders.

22. The Orders of the Privy Council and of the Board described in the Second Schedule to this Order, to the extent described in that Schedule, are hereby from and after the commencement of this Order revoked : Provided that—

(a.) such revocation shall not invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the Orders or parts of Orders hereby revoked, or affect any licence or authority granted, or any right, title, obligation, or liability accrued thereunder before the commencement of this Order, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Orders or parts of Orders hereby revoked before the commencement of this Order :

(b.) such revocation shall not affect the power of any Local Authority to slaughter, or exempt such Local Authority from the obligation to pay compensation for, any swine which may have become liable to be slaughtered before the commencement of this Order.

Existing Regulations of Local Authority.

23. All Regulations made by a Local Authority under any of the Orders or parts of Orders by this Order revoked, and in force immediately before the commencement of this Order, shall continue in force until revoked by the Local Authority or by the Board, provided that nothing in any such Regulation shall in any way apply to a pig or thing which is being moved under the authority of an Inspector of the Board.

Extent.

24. This Order extends to England and Wales and Scotland.

Commencement.

25. This Order shall commence to take effect on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

Short Title.

26. This Order may be cited as THE SWINE-FEVER ORDER OF 1893.

In witness whereof, the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this twelfth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

No. 26449.
