THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following Memorandum respecting Quarantine Regulations and practice in force in Spain in continuation of that published in the London Gazette of October 6, 1893 (H. 7391), page 5621.

By a Royal Decree, dated Madrid, October 26, 1893, interpretation is given to Regulations 56 to 59 inclusive of the Royal Order of March 31, 1888.

These Regulations provide as follows:—

Rule 56. Ships arriving from foul ports shall be subjected in the lazaretto for the observations of arrivals from foul ports to a process of disinfection for a space of three days for the ship and infectious goods.

Persons will be permitted to disembark; those who appear to be sick being removed with proper precautions to the epidemic hospital of the town, and the dead being decently buried.

57. Ships from suspected ports shall be freely admitted in those of similar character.

58. Those from suspected ports shall be admitted to free pratique in foul ports.

59. Those from foul ports shall be sent to a foul lazaretto on arrival at a suspected port.

The Royal Decree of October 26, 1893, above referred to, enacts as follows:—

1. Regulations 56 to 59 inclusive, of the Royal Order of 31st of March, 1888, shall only apply to arrivals from ports in the north of Europe, provided there be no extensive epidemic of cholera in those ports, or no epidemic characterized by great mortality.

2. If during the passage there has not occurred any case on board, the passengers will have to undergo three days' observation, after which they may disembark, the ship and infectious articles being then submitted to the proper process of disinfection for the space of three days more.

3. When any case has occurred during the passage or period of observation, the ship shall be sent to a foul lazaretto, where it shall undergo the sanitary treatment provided by Article 35 of the Sanitary Law in force.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Explosives Act, 1875 (in this Order referred to as the Act), an Order of the Secretary of State (known as Order of Secretary of State No. 3) was made on the 27th day of November, 1875, adapting the General Rules relating to packing of Gunpowder contained in Part 1 of the Act, to the packing of Explosives other than Gunpowder, and whereas by section 83 of the Act, it is provided that a Secretary of State may by order from time to time revoke, add to, or alter any previous orders of the Secretary of State.

Now therefore, in the exercise of the powers aforesaid, I, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby order as follows:—

1. Part B, Rule 2 of the Order of the Secretary of State, No. 3 aforesaid, relating to the packing of explosives of the 1st division of the 3rd (nitro compound) class, shall be amended as follows:—

(a.) By the insertion after the words "without any metal in the construction thereof," in the said Rule, of the words "except with the consent of and under conditions approved by a Government Inspector"; and

(b.) By the insertion after the words "other than metal," in the said Rule, of the words "except with the consent of and under conditions approved by a Government Inspector."

H. H. Asquith, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Whitehall, October 30, 1893.

TENDERS FOR LOANS ON TREASURY BILLS.

1. THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office at the Bank of England, on Monday, the 6th proximo, at one o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Acts 40 Vic., cap. 2, and 52 Vic., cap. 6, to the amount of £750,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £1,000, £5,000, or £10,000. ## THE RAILWAY AND CANAL TRAFFIC ACT, 1888.

Proposed Revision of Tolls and Charges for Merchandise Traffic.
The Ouse Navigation.

NOTICE is hereby given that, pursuant to the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, the Ouse Navigation has submitted to the Board of Trade a proposed revised classification of merchandise traffic, and revised schedule of maximum tolls, dues, and charges applicable thereto, proposed to be charged by the Ouse Navigation, and that in such proposed classification and schedule there are stated the nature and amounts of all terminal charges proposed to be charged in respect of each class of traffic, and the circumstances under which the terminal charges are proposed to be made.

Printed copies of the proposed classification and schedule can be obtained, at the price of one shilling, at the office of the Ouse Navigation, at Huntingdon, or on application to the toll collector at St. Ives Staunch, Hunts.

Anyone wishing to raise any objection to the proposed classification and schedule may forward, by post, a notice of objection, to the Board of Trade, marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it, "Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888."

Notices of objection must be transmitted to the Board of Trade so as to reach there on or before the expiration of eight weeks from the 4th day of November, 1893.

Every objector must at the same time transmit to the Ouse Navigation, at its office, at Huntingdon, a copy of the notice of objection, otherwise the objection will be liable to be dismissed without being heard.

Due notice will be given of the time appointed for hearing and disposing of notices of objection.

Board of Agriculture, 3rd November, 1893.

Board of Trade.—Session 1894.

St. Austell Electric Lighting.

(Electric Lighting in the district of the St. Austell Local Board, in the county of Cornwall. Production and supply of Electricity; Acquisition of Lands; Arrangements with Local Authorities; Transfer of Powers; Construction of Works; Breaking-up and other interference with Streets; Levying of Rates and Charges; and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made by Veale and Co., Limited, whose registered office is situate at Menacuddle-street, St Austell, in the county of Cornwall, and who are hereinafter called the Company, to the Board of Trade, on or before the 21st day of December next, for a Provisional Order under the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, for the following purposes, or some of them (that is to say):

1. To authorise the Company to produce, store, supply, and sell electricity, and other like agency (all in this Notice called electricity) for public and private purposes, as defined by the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, within the district of the St. Austell Local Board, in the county of Cornwall.

2. To authorise the Company to acquire, construct, use, sell, let, and otherwise dispose of, machinery, plant, and apparatus for the production, storage, regulation, measurement, distribution, and supply of electricity. And also to acquire, construct, maintain, and enlarge, and to discontinue, sell, or otherwise dispose of, all such lands, buildings, machinery, appliances, and other property as shall be required for the purpose of containing, manufacturing, and working the machinery, plant, and apparatus to be so used for the production, storage, regulation, measurement, distribution, and supply of electricity.

3. To authorise the Company to place and lay down, maintain and alter and renew electric lines, mains, and other works in, under, and along all public and private streets, roads, and other places within the area of supply, and particularly the following streets and places not repairable by a local authority, namely, Biddick's-court, Grose's-yard, Aylmer-place, Rowe's-court, Elm-terrace, and Priory-row, all within the proposed area of supply.

4. To authorise the Company to open and break up for the purposes of the said Order, the soil and pavement of all public streets and thoroughfares within the area of supply, together with the private streets and thoroughfares before set out, and to take up, relay, divert, or alter sewers, drains, mains, and all pipes therein, telegraphic, telephonic, and electric wires, posts, and pipes, pneumatic tubes and apparatus within the said area, and to do all such other works as may be necessary to carry into effect the objects of the said Order.

5. To authorise the Company to transfer all or some of the powers or obligations created by the Order to another or other Company or Companies, person or persons.

6. To authorise the Company and any local authority, body, company, or person to make and carry into effect agreements for the production and distribution of electricity, and for the performing of all acts incidental to public and private lighting.

7. The applicants propose to take powers by this Order to break open, or otherwise interfere with the Cornwall Railway.

8. To authorise the Company to levy, make, and recover rates, rents, and charges in respect of electricity supplied by them, and in respect of the sale and hire of machinery, plant, apparatus, and instruments, and to confer, vary, and alter exemptions from the payment of such rates, rents, and charges, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges.

9. To authorise the Company, their officers, servants, and workmen, to enter upon lands, buildings, or other premises, and to examine any machinery, plant, apparatus, lamps, or instruments supplied by the Company, or used in connection with their lines or works, and to execute such works, and to do such things as shall be necessary for the regulation or prevention of such use, misuse, or waste, and to impose and recover penalties for the tampering or fraudulently interfering with any such machines and things aforesaid.

10. To confer upon the Company all the powers and privileges, exemptions and rights given or proposed to be given to undertakers by the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1893, and to authorise and enable them to exercise and enjoy the same throughout the said area of supply.

On or before the 21st day of December next, printed copies of the draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade as aforesaid, and on and after that day copies may be obtained at the office of the Company situate as aforesaid, and at the offices of the undersigned, on payment of one shilling for each copy, and when the Provisional Order shall have been granted by the Board of Trade, printed copies thereof may be obtained at the same offices, on payment of one shilling, or of such other sum as the Board of Trade may direct.

Every local or other public authority, company, or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the intended application, may do so by letter addressed to the Board of Trade, marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it, "Electric Lighting Acts," on or before the 15th day of January, 1894, and they must, within the same time, deliver copies of any clauses or amendments they desire to have inserted in the Order to the Board of Trade, and to the undersigned Parliamentary Agents for the Order, to whom also there must be sent at the same time copies of the objections and representations.

Dated this 1st day of November, 1893.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Stirling.

In the Matter of the British Land Company Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition has been presented to the Court of Chancery for confirming a resolution of the above Company for reducing its capital from £600,000 to £360,000. A list of the persons admitted to have been creditors of the Company on the 30th day of September, 1893, may be inspected at the offices of the Company, at 25, Moorgate-street, in the city of London, or at the office of the undersigned, at 59, Coleman-street, in the city of London, at any time during usual business hours, on payment of the charge of one shilling. Any person who claims to have been on the last mentioned day and still to be a creditor of the Company, and who is not entered on the said list and claims to be so entered must, on or before the 23rd day of November, 1893, send in his name and address, and the particulars of his claim, and the name and address of his Solicitor (if any), to the undersigned, at 59, Coleman-street aforesaid, or in default thereof he will be precluded from objecting to the proposed reduction of capital. And further take notice, that by an Order, dated 30th October, 1893, Mr. Justice Stirling gave leave that the notice required by Rule 9 of the General Order of the High Court of Chancery of 21st March, 1863, to be served on the creditors of the abovenamed Company, should be served on the creditors named in the first part of the schedule hereto (whose addresses are not known to the Company), and on the creditors named in the second part of such schedule (who are believed to be dead) by the insertion of this advertisement.—Dated this 1st day of November, 1893.
