

the production, storage, regulation, measurement, distribution, and supply of electricity.

3. To authorise the Company to place and lay down, maintain and alter and renew electric lines, mains, and other works in, under, and along all public and private streets, roads, and other places within the area of supply, and particularly the following streets and places not repairable by a local authority, namely, Biddick's-court, Grose's-yard, Aylmer-place, Rowe's-court, Elm-terrace, and Priory-row, all within the proposed area of supply.

4. To authorise the Company to open and break up for the purposes of the said Order, the soil and pavement of all public streets and thoroughfares within the area of supply, together with the private streets and thoroughfares before set out, and to take up, relay, divert, or alter sewers, drains, mains, and all pipes therein, telegraphic, telephonic, and electric wires, posts, and pipes, pneumatic tubes and apparatus within the said area, and to do all such other works as may be necessary to carry into effect the objects of the said Order.

5. To authorise the Company to transfer all or some of the powers or obligations created by the Order to another or other Company or Companies, person or persons.

6. To authorise the Company and any local authority, body, company, or person to make and carry into effect agreements for the production and distribution of electricity, and for the performing of all acts incidental to public and private lighting.

7. The applicants propose to take powers by this Order to break open, or otherwise interfere with the Cornwall Railway.

8. To authorise the Company to levy, make, and recover rates, rents, and charges in respect of electricity supplied by them, and in respect of the sale and hire of machinery, plant, apparatus, and instruments, and to confer, vary, and alter exemptions from the payment of such rates, rents, and charges, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges.

9. To authorise the Company, their officers, servants, and workmen, to enter upon lands, buildings, or other premises, and to examine any machinery, plant, apparatus, lamps, or instruments supplied by the Company, or used in connection with their lines or works, and to execute such works, and to do such things as shall be necessary for the regulation or prevention of such use, misuse, or waste, and to impose and recover penalties for the tampering or fraudulently interfering with any such machines and things aforesaid.

10. To confer upon the Company all the powers and privileges, exemptions and rights given or proposed to be given to undertakers by the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1893, and to authorise and enable them to exercise and enjoy the same throughout the said area of supply.

On or before the 21st day of December next, printed copies of the draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade as aforesaid, and on and after that day copies may be obtained at the office of the Company situate as aforesaid, and at the offices of the undersigned, on payment of one shilling for each copy, and when the Provisional Order shall have been granted by the Board of Trade, printed copies thereof may be obtained at the same offices, on payment of one shilling, or of such other sum as the Board of Trade may direct.

Every local or other public authority, company, or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the intended application, may do so by letter addressed to the Board of Trade, marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it, "Electric Lighting Acts," on or before the 15th day of January, 1894, and they must, within the same time, deliver copies of any clauses or amendments they desire to have inserted in the Order to the Board of Trade, and to the undersigned Parliamentary Agents for the Order, to whom also there must be sent at the same time copies of the objections and representations.

Dated this 1st day of November, 1893.

DEACON, GIBSON, and MEDCALF, 9, Great St. Helens, London, E.C., Solicitors for the Order.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Stirling.

In the Matter of the British Land Company Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1867.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition has been presented to the Court of Chancery for confirming a resolution of the above Company for reducing its capital from £600,000 to £360,000. A list of the persons admitted to have been creditors of the Company on the 30th day of September, 1893, may be inspected at the offices of the Company, at 25, Moorgate-street, in the city of London, or at the office of the undersigned, at 59, Coleman-street, in the city of London, at any time during usual business hours, on payment of the charge of one shilling. Any person who claims to have been on the last mentioned day and still to be a creditor of the Company, and who is not entered on the said list and claims to be so entered must, on or before the 23rd day of November, 1893, send in his name and address, and the particulars of his claim, and the name and address of his Solicitor (if any), to the undersigned, at 59, Coleman-street aforesaid, or in default thereof he will be precluded from objecting to the proposed reduction of capital. And further take notice, that by an Order, dated 30th October, 1893, Mr. Justice Stirling gave leave that the notice required by Rule 9 of the General Order of the High Court of Chancery of 21st March, 1863, to be served on the creditors of the abovenamed Company, should be served on the creditors named in the first part of the schedule hereto (whose addresses are not known to the Company), and on the creditors named in the second part of such schedule (who are believed to be dead) by the insertion of this advertisement.—Dated this 1st day of November, 1893.
