MULLINGS, ELLETT, and CO., Cirencester, Solicitors for the Trustees.

To Messrs. Sharp and Co., late of 11, Holborn-circus, London.

TAKE notice, that on the 12th August, 1893, an originating summons was issued by Mark Noble Buttanshaw, of 26, Budge-row, London, against you (together with others) in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, in an action of Buttanshaw v. Davis and others, 1893, B., 3843, claiming to have an account taken of what is due to him for principal, interest, and costs on an indenture of mortgage, dated the 12th March, 1886, and made between Thomas Quinn of the one part, and the said Mark Noble Buttanshaw and Peter McKinlay, and William Stubbs of the other part; and that the said mortgage might be enforced by foreclosure or sale, and for possession and a Receiver, you being sued as claiming to have a subsequent mortgage on the property comprised in the said indenture of mortgage of the 12th March, 1886. And also take notice, that Mr. Justice Kekewich has by an Order, dated the 8th November, 1893, authorized service of the said originating summons on you by the insertion of this advertisement once each in the London Gazette, the Standard, and the Daily Telegraph. And also take notice, that you are by the said originating summons required to attend at the chambers of Mr. Justice Kekewich, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Friday, the 24th day of November, 1893, at half-past eleven o'clock in the forenoon, and that if you do not attend, either in person or by your Solicitor, at such time and place, such Order will be made and proceedings taken as the Judge may think just and expedient; and that before you will be heard in chambers you will have to enter an appearance in the Central Office and give notice of such appearance.

HUGHES, HOOKER, and CO., 26, Budge-row, London, Solicitors for the said Mark Noble Buttanshaw.
