

and Stock of Companies having like Objects; Ultimate Division of Assets of Company, its Dissolution; Judicial Notice of Intended Act in British North America, Incorporation of Acts; Repeal and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the British American Land Company (hereinafter called "the Company") intend to apply to Parliament in the next Session thereof for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes; that is to say:—

1. To divide, or convert, or to authorise and provide for the division or conversion of the shares or stock of the Company, into shares or stock of the Company, of two classes of which one class shall alone be entitled to receive dividend out of the net receipts of the Company, and the other class shall be redeemable from time to time by payments out of the surplus funds of the Company in such manner as may be defined in the Bill or prescribed by Parliament.

2. To fix, regulate, and declare the capital of the Company, and to provide for the division or conversion thereof into shares or stocks of different classes and denominations, and having attached thereto respectively, or to some or one of such classes, such rate of dividend or such privileges or provisions in lieu of dividend as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act, or prescribed by Parliament, and to extinguish the borrowing powers of the Company.

3. To create and vest in or to provide for the creation and issue by the Company and the acceptance by the share and stockholders of the Company of the shares and stock into which the capital of the Company may be divided or converted, and to provide for the surrender and cancellation of the existing shares and stock of the certificates therefor, and for the issue to and the acceptance by the share and stockholders of the new shares and stock to be issued in exchange therefor under the powers of the intended Act.

4. To alter, vary, or extinguish, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Bill, the rights and privileges attached to all or some, or to some part or parts of the existing shares and stock of the Company.

5. To make further and other provisions with respect to the appropriation of moneys received by the Company, whether on capital or revenue account, and to repeal, alter, or amend Section 10 of The British American Land Company's Act, 1871.

6. To create a fund (hereinafter called the Reserve Fund) to represent and to provide for the ultimate return of the capital of the Company.

7. To empower the Company from time to time to invest their assets in, and to hold the shares and stock of any other Company having wholly, or in part, the like objects as the Company, and to sell, surrender, and dispose thereof.

8. To empower the Directors upon the sale or conversion of all the lands, shares, stocks, and property of the Company to sell the securities on which the Reserve Fund may be invested, and to distribute the assets of the Company among the Proprietors thereof, and to provide for the ultimate dissolution of the Company.

9. To authorise the Directors of the Company, without the sanction of a meeting of the share or stockholders of the Company, to declare and pay a dividend in the interval between the two ordinary annual meetings of the Company.

10. To vary and reduce the number of the Directors of the Company, and the quorum of a meeting of the Directors, and to define their powers and duties, and to alter the qualification for the office of a Director.

11. To repeal, alter, or amend the existing provisions relating to the votes of and the voting by the share and stockholders of the Company at meetings of the Company, and if thought fit to limit the powers of voting to the holders of certain shares and stock of the Company.

12. The Bill will repeal, vary, extend and amend all such rights, privileges, powers and provisions contained in the Charter of Incorporation of the Company, dated the 20th day of March, 1834, and in the Local and Personal Acts 4 William IV, c. 15; 10 Vic., c. 56; the British American Land Company's Act, 1871; the British American Land Company's Act, 1883, and any other Act directly or indirectly relating to or affecting the Company, and all such rights, powers, privileges and provisions as would in any way interfere with the objects of the intended Act, and will confer other rights and privileges, and if thought fit will (with such exceptions, additions and alterations as may be thought expedient), consolidate the provisions of the several Acts and Charter, and incorporate the provisions of the Companies' Clauses Acts, 1845, 1863 and 1869.

13. To provide for the judicial notice of the intended Act in the Dominion of Canada and the British American States and Provinces.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December next Dated this 13th day of November, 1893.
