2. To enable the Company from time to time to make and maintain all cuts, channels, adits, catchwaters, aqueducts, culverts, tunnels, drains, sluices, by-washes, weirs, gauges, reservoirs, tanks, wells, water towers, filter beds, banks, walls, roads, approaches, engines, machinery and appliances, as may be necessary or convenient in connection with the before-mentioned works, or any of them, or for the purposes of their Undertaking.

3. To abandon the construction of the "Cat Clough Reservoir" in the parish of Elsdon in the county of Northumberland, authorized by the Newcastle and Gateshead Waterworks Act, 1889, and of so much of the line of pipes (No. 1) authorized by that Act as lies between the authorized commencement thereof and the point of termination of the intended conduit or line of pipes No. 1, and as lies between the said points of commencement and termination of the said deviations of the said authorized line of pipes, and to repeal Section 7 of that Act.

4. To enable the Company to deviate from the lines and levels of the intended works to any extent defined by the Bill, or prescribed by Parliament.

5. To enable the Company, subject to the provisions of the Bill, to collect, impound, take, use, divert, and appropriate for the purposes of the said intended works and of their Undertaking, the River Rede, which flows into the River North Tyne, thence into the River Tyne, and thence into the German Ocean, and all such springs, streams, and waters as will or may be intercepted by the intended works or any of them, or as may be found in, on, or under any of the lands for the time being belonging to the Company, or over or in respect of which they have or may acquire easements.

6. To empower the Company to make compensation, in money or water as the circumstances of the case may require, to any person or body who may be injuriously affected by the powers of the Bill.

7. To authorize the Company to lay down and maintain pipes and apparatus in, over, under, and across, and for that purpose to break up, alter, divert, stop up, and interfere with, permanently or temporarily (and if permanently, to extinguish all rights of way over and vest the site and soil thereof in the Company), public and private streets, roads, lanes, footways, thoroughfares, rivers, water-courses, streams, railways, tramways, sewers, drains, pipes, and telegraph, telephone, and other electric apparatus.

8. To empower the Company for the purposes of the Bill and their Undertaking to acquire compulsorily and by agreement, or to take on lease, lands (including in that expression where used in this notice, houses and buildings); and other property, and any rights and easements therein, thereunder, or thereover, including the right of discharging water into any streams or watercourses with which any of the intended conduits may communicate.

9. The Bill will or may provide that all or any lands, property, rights and privileges which the Company may have acquired or contracted or given notice to acquire, or have entered on under the provisions of the said Act or any other of the Acts of the Company may be acquired, retained and used, for the purposes of the intended works and the general purposes of their Undertaking.

10. To authorize the Company to hold any lands which they may acquire under the authority of the intended Act free from the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or of the existing Acts of the Company with respect to superfluous lands, and to acquire by compulsion or agreement any mines or minerals under any such lands notwithstanding the provisions of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to mines.

11. To make such provisions as may have been or may be agreed upon, or as may be prescribed or authorized by the intended Act, for the protection and benefit of the landowners, mill-owners, and mine-owners, and any other persons and bodies whose property, rights, powers, or interests will or might be affected by the execution of the powers of the intended Act, and of their property, rights, and interests, and to authorize or confirm, or give effect to any arrangements or agreements which may have been or may be entered into between the Company and such landowners, millowners, and mineowners, and other persons and bodies, or some or any of them.

12. To empower the Company to make and carry into effect agreements with any owners, lessees, or occupiers of any lands within the drainage area of the intended reservoirs and works with reference to the execution by the Company, or such owners, lessees, or occupiers of such works, as may be necessary for the purpose of draining such lands, or any of them, or for more effectually collecting, conveying, and preserving the purity of the waters flowing to, upon, or from such lands, directly, or derivatively, into such reservoirs or works.

13. To make provisions for the prevention of waste, misuse, undue consumption, or contamination of the water of or to be used by the Company for the purposes of their supply, and with respect to the fittings to be used for the purposes of the supply and user of the said water, and for protecting, repairing, and removing the said fittings, and for defining and preventing frauds on the Company in relation to such supply and user; and to empower the Company from time to time to make and enforce by penalties and otherwise bye-laws, rules, and regulations, for and in relation to the several matters aforesaid, with all requisite powers of entry on the premises so supplied or to be supplied, and to confer on the Company, with or without modification, the powers of a sanitary authority for preventing the fouling or contamination of any river, stream, brook or spring from which the Company do or may derive any of their water supply.

14. To enable the Company to apply their existing funds and any moneys which they have still power to raise to the purposes, or any of the purposes, of the Bill, and for the same purposes and for the general purposes of their Undertaking to raise additional capital by shares or by stock, and by borrowing, and to attach to such shares or stock any preference or priority of dividend, and any other advantage which the Bill may define.

15. The Bill will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would in-
