

venient in connection with the before-mentioned works, or any of them, or for the purposes of their Undertaking.

3. To enable the Company to deviate from the lines and levels of the intended works to any extent defined by the Bill, or prescribed by Parliament.

4. To enable the Company, subject to the provisions of the Bill, to collect, impound, take, use, divert, and appropriate for the purposes of the said intended works and of their Undertaking, all such springs, streams, and waters as will or may be intercepted by the intended works, or as may be found in, on, or under any of the lands for the time being belonging to the Company, or over or in respect of which they have or may acquire easements, and especially the River Hipper, which flows into the River Rother, thence into the Chesterfield Canal, thence into the River Dun Navigation, the Stainforth and Keadby Canal, the River Trent, the River Don, the Dutch River, the River Ouse, the New River Aucholme, and the River Humber, and thence into the German Ocean.

5. To empower the Company to make compensation, in money or water as the circumstances of the case may require, to any person or Body who may be injuriously affected by the powers of the Bill.

6. To authorize the Company to lay down and maintain pipes and apparatus (including electric lines and apparatus) in, over, under, and across, and for that purpose to break up, alter, divert, stop up, and interfere with, temporarily or permanently, and if permanently, to appropriate the site and soil of public, and private streets, roads, lanes, footways, thoroughfares, rivers, water-courses, streams, railways, tramways, sewers, drains, pipes, and telegraph, telephone, and other electric apparatus.

7. To empower the Company for the purposes of the Bill and their Undertaking to acquire compulsorily and by agreement, or to take on lease, lands (including in that expression where used in this notice, houses and buildings), and other property, and any rights and easements therein, thereunder, or thereover, including the right of discharging water into any streams or watercourses with which any of the intended lines of pipes may communicate.

8. To authorize the Company to hold any lands which they may acquire under the authority of the intended Act free from the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or of the existing Acts of the Company with respect to superfluous lands, and to acquire by compulsion or agreement any mines or minerals under any such lands notwithstanding the provisions of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to mines.

9. To empower the Company to make and carry into effect agreements with any owners, lessees, or occupiers of any lands within the drainage area of their existing and intended reservoirs and works with reference to the execution by the Company, or such owners, lessees, or occupiers of such works, as may be necessary for the purpose of draining such lands, or any of them, or for more effectually collecting, conveying, and preserving the purity of the waters flowing to, upon, or from such lands, directly or derivatively, into such reservoirs and works.

10. To extend the limits within which the Company may supply water so as to include the township of Galow, in the parish of Chesterfield, the township of Temple Normanton, in the parish of Temple Normanton, and the township of Heath, in the parish of Heath, and to enable them under and according to the provisions of their Acts, relating to the supply of water, and of the Bill to supply with water the said townships or any of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, and to extend and apply thereto all or some of the powers and provisions of the existing Acts of the Company (so far as they relate to water supply), and of the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847, and 1863, and of the Bill.

11. To extend the powers of the Company with respect to, and to confer on the Company, with or without modification, the powers of a sanitary authority for preventing the fouling or contamination of any river, stream, brook or spring from which the Company, directly or indirectly, do or may derive any of their water supply.

12. To enable the Company to levy and recover rates and charges for and in relation to a supply of water within the limits as proposed to be extended.

13. To alter the rates and charges now authorized to be made by the Company for and in relation to a supply of water within their existing limits of supply, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from rates and charges.

14. To enable the Company to apply their existing funds and any moneys which they have still power to raise to the purposes, or any of the purposes, of the Bill, and for the same purposes and for the general purposes of their Undertaking to raise additional capital by shares or by stock, and by borrowing, and to attach to such shares or stock any preference or priority of dividend, and any other advantage which the Bill may define.

15. The Bill will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with any of the objects of the Bill, and will confer upon the Company all such other rights and privileges as may be necessary for any purposes of the Bill, and will enable the Company, and any local authorities, bodies, companies, or persons to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements for, and in relation to any of the purposes of the Bill, and will, so far as may be deemed necessary, amend, enlarge, and repeal the powers and provisions of the Chesterfield Waterworks and Gaslight Company's Act, 1855, the Chesterfield Waterworks and Gaslight Company's Extension Act, 1865, the Chesterfield Waterworks and Gaslight Company's Act, 1871, the Chesterfield Waterworks and Gaslight Company's Act, 1876, and any other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Company.

16. The Bill will incorporate with itself, with or without variation, the necessary provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, the Companies Clauses Act, 1869, the Lands Clauses Acts, the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863, and also such parts of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as relate to roads and the temporary occupation of lands.

Duplicate plans and sections showing the line, situation, and level of the said works, and the lands, houses, and property in or through which they will be made, and a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, houses, and property, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection on or before the 30th day of November instant with the Clerk
