

by the Commissioners, and out of moneys now, or hereafter, in their hands, or in the hands of the Receiver of the Harbour tolls, rates, dues and charges appointed by the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, or under their control, or out of any of them of the costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the promotion of the Bill.

To authorise the Commissioners to appoint and pay two or more accountants, or other persons to audit the accounts of the Harbour Undertaking, and to enact that the certificate of such auditors shall be final and conclusive.

To repeal, alter, amend or re-enact all, or some of the provisions of the Maryport Improvement and Harbour Act, 1866, The Maryport District and Harbour Act, 1868, The Maryport District and Harbour (Gas) Act, 1877, The Maryport Improvement Act, 1878, The Maryport Improvement (Harbour) Act, 1879, The Maryport Improvement (Harbour) Act, 1882, The Maryport Improvement (Harbour) Act, 1884, hereinafter referred to as "The District and Harbour Acts," so far as they relate to the Harbour, or the Harbour Undertaking, or to the Trustees in respect thereof, or any other Act or Acts relating to the District and Harbour of Maryport, and particularly to repeal all or some portion of Sections 9 to 28, and sub-section 2, and the following paragraph of Section 30 and Section 79, of the Maryport District and Harbour Act, 1868, and to provide that such of the provisions of the said Acts as shall be re-enacted either with or without alteration or amendment shall apply and be applicable to the Commissioners and to the Harbour Undertaking to be vested in them.

The Bill will contain all such other provisions as may be requisite in connection with all, or any, of the matters mentioned in this Notice, or which may be necessary or incidental to carrying the objects and purposes of the Bill into full and complete effect.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which may in any manner interfere with the purposes of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given that printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 14th day of November, 1893.

TYSON and HOBSON, Solicitors, Maryport.

LEWIN, GREGORY, and ANDERSON, 13, King-street, Whitehall, Parliamentary Agents.

In Parliament.—Session 1894.

Cambridge Corporation.

(Removal of Jurisdiction of University and Amendment of Law in regard to Women of Bad Character, Theatres, and Public Entertainments; Revival of Powers for Purchase of Land and Extension of Time for Construction of Bridges over the River Cam; Provisions as to Commons; Markets and Fairs; Library Rate; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Cambridge (in this notice referred to as the "Corporation" and the "Borough" respectively) for an Act for all or some of the objects or purposes following, that is to say:—

To repeal or amend so much of the charter granted by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, as confers upon the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, their deputies, officers, servants, and ministers the right to make scrutiny, search, and inquisition in the town of Cambridge and suburbs, and in Barnwell and Sturbridge for all common women, bawds, vagabonds, and other suspected persons coming or resorting to the town and suburbs, and to punish all whom they should find guilty or suspected of evil, and all other provisions of such Charter in any way relating to the matters aforesaid, and to repeal or alter so much of the Act 13 Elizabeth, cap. 29, and any other Act as confirms or preserves the said provisions of the said charter, and otherwise to take away all powers and jurisdictions of the Cambridge University Authorities, and of their officers to search for, apprehend, or punish any such improper persons as aforesaid, and to extend the provisions of Section 3 of the Act 6 Geo. IV., cap. 97 to the borough and precincts of the University, and in other respects to make better provision for the apprehension and punishment of common prostitutes and women of bad character.

To confer upon the Proctors and Pro-proctors of the University the powers vested in constables appointed under the said Act (6 George IV., cap. 97), and to empower them (with or without constables appointed under the said Act) to enter any premises licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquors, or any premises used for public entertainment.

To repeal Section 10 of the Theatres Act, 1843, so far as it relates to the University or town of Cambridge, or the neighbourhood thereof.

To amend Section 16 of the Cambridge Award Act, 1856, by rendering it unnecessary to obtain the consent of the Vice-Chancellor of the University, in respect of the public exhibitions and performances referred to in that section, and in other respects to alter and amend that section.

To confer further powers upon the Cambridge County Council in regard to the revocation of licences for the public performance of stage plays within the borough, and the hearing of complaints in relation thereto.

To enable the justices of the borough to revoke licences in regard to places used for public dancing or music, or other public entertainments within the borough; and to make provision as to the hearing of complaints in relation thereto.

To extend the time limited by the River Cam Bridges Act, 1889, for the construction of the bridges and other works thereby authorized, and to revive and extend the powers for the compulsory purchase of lands for those purposes, and in other respects to alter and amend the said Act.

To provide for the holding of the Royal Agricultural Society's Show on Midsummer Green or Jesus Green and Butt Green, and to empower the Corporation to enclose the common for some part thereof for such period as they may think fit, and temporarily to stop up all highways and rights of way over or across such common.

To empower the Corporation to make and enforce bye-laws or regulations over or in respect of the commons and commonable lands hereinafter-mentioned, for preventing the digging or taking of turf, loam, stone, gravel, or other material, for providing for the removal of disorderly and improper persons, for preventing the cutting or injuring trees, shrubs, and plants, for preventing or regulating the deposit of rubbish, manure, or other things, for setting apart portions of the commons for games, for regulating games, for